Little & Chicados Cash Score American Semi's Qualification in Springfield, OH

By Tanya Randall

Multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Benette Little is back in the winner's circle after being sidelined for most of the summer with a broken leg. She and Chicados Cash topped RFD-TV's The American Qualifier No. 3 at the Best of The Best Barrel Race in Springfield, Ohio. The $1,867.50 win earned them a spot in the Semifinals Rodeo in Fort Worth, Texas.

"I've been back riding, maybe about a month," said Little, Ardmore, Okla. "I've just been riding mostly here at the house, but not really working barrels. I was pleased with my horse. I have to be honest. He took care of me. I was getting ahead of him a little bit at each barrel, and if he had an inkling to be rotten, he could have cheated me, but he didn't."

Little broke her leg last April at a jackpot in California. She had left her two superstar stallions JL Dash Ta Heaven and Chicados Cash at home for breeding season and was on the road with a group of young horses when the accident occurred.

After finishing 12th in the first round of the Red Bluff Roundup on Ms Carrie Lou (First Down Dash x Frosty Feelins, a Dynas Plain Special daughter by Sun Frost), Little decided to head to a jackpot on Saturday before she had her second run at Red Bluff on Sunday.

"I was being an overachiever," she laughed. "I took three head to the jackpot. I was so excited that I had three I could take to the jackpot—I felt like a team roper! And, I broke my leg."

Back on a horse at the first of August, Little had a few runs on a futurity horse under her belt when she headed to Springfield with Chicados Cash. Initially, she had planned to run JL Dash Ta Heaven as well but the stallion was scratched due to a stone bruise.

"I've been to a few jackpots last couple of weeks around the house," she said, "but that's the first time I've gone really fast since I broke my leg. It felt good."

While she was recovering, Dr. Tyler Troop, who oversees the care of the Little Ranch herd and personally cares for both Chicados Cash and JL Dash Ta Heaven, had both stallions on a strict exercise and conditioning regime that included time on Little's AquaTread.

"They've been on that program for eight weeks," she explained. "I'm a crippled, lunger and there's no way I could have this horse in amazing shape. I have to credit Dr. Troop for that. (Chicados Cash) barely took a deep breath. He went in there and did his job and walked back to trailer. He's fit. The only way that happened was because of Dr. Troop."

When Chicados Cash warmed up so quietly, Little was worried that she was going to have to wake him up for his run.

"I thought, 'Maybe I need to wake him up,' but when he got in the alleyway I knew he didn't need waking up. He just took off. He made a really nice run. He was really sharp. I was proud of him," she said.

Bred by her husband and "biggest supporter and fan" Jud Little, Chicados Cash is a 10-year-old sorrel stallion by Little's late leading stallion Cash Not Credit out of multiple futurity winner Chicados Flame, by Flaming Jet. The stallion's oldest foals are 3-year-olds in 2015 and several of his 2- and 3-year-olds will be offered in the upcoming production sale on September 26 at the ranch outside of Springer, Okla., just north of Ardmore.

In addition to the sale and the Bar Nothin Barrel Bash, Little also has four horses qualified for the AQHA World Show—JL Dash Ta Heaven, Chicados Cash, Ms Carrie Lou and Valiant Heroine, a daughter of Valiant Hero out of Easanon, by Marthas Six Moons. The senior horses will also run at the All American Quarter Horses

ERA Announces 5-year Deal with Dallas

The Elite Rodeo Association (ERA), an innovative new rodeo corporation created by the top rodeo athletes in the world, is proud to announce the signing of a five-year partnership with the Dallas Sports Commission and the City of Dallas to bring its World Championship to Dallas.

“Professional rodeo needed an elite tour showcasing only the best talent in the world,” said Tony Garritano, CEO and President of the ERA. “We believe that a regular season format, ending in its own world championship event, will be exciting for rodeo fans to follow. Fans will benefit by watching the most competitive rodeo action that the sport has to offer. Thanks to the City of Dallas, our new tour will have a tremendous home for its world championship.” With a mission of ensuring the integrity of the sport of rodeo and to provide additional opportunities for professional rodeo athletes and industry partners, the Elite Rodeo Association, also doing business as Elite Rodeo Athletes, plans to work in cooperation with existing rodeo venues and sports arenas across North America to create a tour that will showcase the best talent in professional rodeo.

“World championship rodeo is coming home to the state of Texas and the city of Dallas,” said Phillip J. Jones, President and CEO of the Dallas Convention and Visitors Bureau. “Big things happen here in Dallas and we look forward to sharing our great city with rodeo fans from around the world.”

The ERA will only showcase the best rodeo athletes in the world. Currently comprised of past and present World Champions, they represent 118 World Champion titles collectively. While the current ownership includes existing top competitors, the model allows for aspiring elite rodeo athletes to participate and earn ownership in the ERA.

“By introducing a unique concept like the ERA, it is our hope to increase the awareness of the sport of rodeo overall” says 21-time world champion cowboy and ERA Board Member, Trevor Brazile. “Enhancing the sport of professional rodeo and helping to build something greater for the future generation rodeo cowboy and cowgirl is the goal of the ERA. We look forward to working with the entire rodeo industry.”

The ERA is very proud that its World Championship event will be hosted by the City of Dallas. Along with the Dallas Sports Commission, Dallas has agreed to a five-year, multi-million dollar agreement with the ERA. The inaugural ERA World Championship event is scheduled to take place at the American Airlines Center, November 9-13, 2016. The annual event will award a payout in excess of $3 million over a 5-day annual competition—making this first World Championship event one of the largest payouts in rodeo history.

“The American Airlines Center is honored to be hosting the ERA World Championship beginning in 2016,” said Dave Brown, Vice President and General Manager of the Center. “We believe the Center will provide a great atmosphere for rodeo fans as the top rodeo athletes in the world compete in Dallas.”

“The Dallas Sports Commission is committed to bringing great sporting events to the city of Dallas,” said Monica Paul, Executive Director of the Dallas Sports Commission. “The ERA World Championship is the type of event that will have a positive economic impact and raise the profile of Dallas as a premier sports destination.”

Governed by a seven-member board that will consist of three roughstock representatives, three timed event representatives and one administrative official, the athlete-created organization will showcase the best cowboys and cowgirls, whose eligibility to compete will be determined by the ERA qualification system.

“The ERA is delighted that the City of Dallas and the Dallas Sports Commission believes in the vision of the ERA, creating a meaningful regular-season tour spotlighting the stars of professional rodeo. We look forward to working with Dallas in showcasing this wonderful city and providing the fans a great Championship event,” said Bobby Mote, four-time World Champion Bareback Rider and ERA Board Member.

In 2016, the ERA will produce a 15 event regular-season tour, all broadcast on national network television on FOX Sports, culminating with its 5-day World Championship event Nov. 9-13, 2016 in Dallas. The ERA has plans to expand the number of tour stops to 26 in the future.

ERA Signs Deal with Fox Sports

Elite Rodeo Athletes (ERA), made rodeo history, officially unveiling a deal with FOX Sports that will telecast the entire ERA season and World Championship event in 2016. With more than 42 hours of programming, the ERA will have the largest household network audience in professional rodeo.

ERA, a rodeo corporation created by the top rodeo athletes in the world, signed a multi-year deal that will launch with the beginning of the ERA Tour in March 2016. The tour will consist of 15 regular-season events culminating with a 5-day World Championship event in Dallas, Texas, all broadcasted by FOX Sports 1 & FOX Sports 2.

“For the first time in the history of rodeo, fans from all over the country will be able to watch the race to an ERA World Championship on FOX Sports, a national television network, that is a sports icon. FOX Sports 1 & FOX Sports 2 gives us the opportunity to showcase the sport of rodeo on a national stage,” said Trevor Brazile, 21-time World Champion and ERA Athlete.

“We are thrilled to work with Elite Rodeo Athletes to televise these exciting and action packed rodeos,” says Patrick Crakes, FOX Sports SVP of Programming, Research & Content Strategy. “The ERA fits nicely with our ever expanding portfolio of live event programming and we’re confident our audience will be just as excited as we are when we launch the series in 2016.”

 Congress Sweepstakes in Columbus, Ohio, in late October. Little will also try to get a second horse qualified for the American Semis. A return trip to the NFR is also in the works.

"When October rolls around we're going to go to the rodeos with the plan to get back to the NFR," she said. "That's Jud's plan. We're going!"

Little also said that she'll probably pencil in the Best of the Best Barrel Race again for next year as she was extremely impressed with the quality of the event.

"The whole thing was user-friendly," she said. "Everyone was so nice. It was put on so well. The ground crew, the gate crew, the office, everyone was so nice. It was a great atmosphere. I'd love to go back. I'll put it on the calendar for next year and go back for more than just one day. I was very impressed."

Heaven Gained a Great Cowboy, Brian Fulton, 1962-2015

Brian Keith Fulton was born October 14, 1962 in Pierre, South Dakota. He was the second of four sons of Tex and Mary Ann (Cowan) Fulton. He graduated from Miller High School, Miller, South Dakota and attended South Dakota State University in Brookings, South Dakota. On November 21, 1992, Brian married the love of his life, Lisa O'Rourke-Fulton. They moved to their current home in Todd County, South Dakota, in May of 1995 where they were blessed to raise their three sons on their ranch. Brian was forever thinking of others and making sure everyone else was okay.

He was a selfless person always giving...he enjoyed coaching his sons in all their sports and was so very helpful in coaching many young people in the sport of rodeo. He loved teaching and coaching at the many tie-down roping and steer wrestling schools that he put on.

Brian, a two-time qualifier of the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo and 12-times the Badlands Circuit all-around champion, died August 28, 2015 at Cherry County Hospital in his hometown of Valentine, Neb., after a long battle with brain cancer. He was 52.

Brian first underwent surgery to remove a malignant tumor September 11, 2006 and had a second operation in January 2009. When the cancer returned again this spring in April, Brian underwent a lengthy course of radiation and chemotherapy in North Platte, Neb., enduring the daily 2 1/2 -hour commute each way so he could be home with his family.

Brian joined the PRCA in 1984 straight out of South Dakota State University and quickly developed into one of the era's elite timed-event cowboys. He qualified for the 1991 National Finals Rodeo as a tie-down roper and made it to the 1996 NFR as a steer wrestler, finishing second in the world to Chad Bedell by $14,777.00 Brian placed in seven of 10 rounds at the 1996 NFR, sharing the wins in Rounds 2 and 3. If not for a broken barrier penalty in Round 5, he would have won the average title and the gold buckle.

For nearly 20 years he was a dominant figure in the Badlands Circuit. In addition to the record 12 year-end all-around championships (1984, 1986-90, 1993-95, 1997-99). He also won the six year-end steer wrestling titles (1986, 1988-89, 1995, 1998-99) and one in the tie-down roping (1994). From 1986-98, Brian won 11 titles at the RAM Badlands Circuit Finals Rodeo in Bismarck, N.D., four each in the all-around and steer wrestling and three in tie-down roping. He represented the Badlands Circuit at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo 10 times (1987-91, 1994-96, 1999-2000), winning the RNCFR tie-down roping title in 1995 and the all-around a year later. He was inducted into the Casey Tibbs Hall of Fame in Pierre, S.D., in 1999. A knee injury early in the 2001 season forced Brian to step away from full-time competition.

Since 1995, he and his wife, Lisa, have operated the Fulton Performance Horse business at their ranch in Todd County, S.D., near the Nebraska border. Their 15th annual Fulton Performance Horse Sale was completed one week before Brian's passing. Brian Keith Fulton passed away Friday morning, August 28, 2015 at the Cherry County Hospital surrounded by family and friends.

Brian will be dearly missed by his family and friends. His laugh, smile and the twinkle in his eye can never be forgotten.

He is preceded in death by his Grandparents – Harley and Pearl Fulton and Art and Mary Cowan and first cousins Cam Cowan and Kimberly Cowan-Churchill. Brian is survived by his wife, Lisa Fulton of Valentine, Neb.; three sons, Jake, Jared and John Lloyd also of Valentine, Neb., his parents, Tex and Mary Ann Fulton of Miller, S.D., three brothers, Mark (Susan)Fulton, Paul (Kayleen)Fulton all of Miller, S.D., and Neil & Molly Fulton of Ft. Pierre, S.D., father-in-law, Lyle O'Rourke of Interior, S.D.; brother-in-laws: Tom (Lori) O'Rourke of Interior, S.D.; Brady (Lane) O'Rourke of Quinn, S.D.; sister-in-law, Kathy (Boyce) Kennedy of Wall, S.D.; also numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Funeral service for Brian Fulton were held on Tuesday, September 1 at 1:00 PM at the Cherry County Fair Grounds in Valentine. Burial followed at Mount Hope Cemetery in Valentine. Rev. Andrew Utecht officiated. Sandoz Chapel of the Pines in Valentine was in charge of service arrangements.

*Brian has long been known throughout the rodeo world for riding, training, and knowing good horses; that legacy grew when he and his wife Lisa brought the sire, A Streak Of Fling, into the world of barrel racing & rodeo in 2004.

From his very first breeding season with Fultons, he produced 3 time NFR Qualifier, A Streak Of Rita (Trula Churchill). Brian & Lisa then brought the speedster Cs Flashlight to the barrel racing & rodeo world. In the last couple years they introduced a junio sire, the A Streak Of Fling son, A Dash Ta Streak. Brian Fulton's legacy will always be good horses, being a good horseman & a good guy; that will be carried on through Lisa & their boys (Jake, Jared, John Lloyd) along with the horses they raised, trained, and promoted for years to come. His quick wit, honesty, and cowboy toughness will be missed by all who knew him.

Our family at the Barrel Racing Report extends our thoughts & prayers to Lisa, the boys, and the whole Fulton family....

Frenchmans Founder Frances Loiseau passes at 91

Frances Loiseau, 91, of Flandreau, passed away Wednesday, August 26, 2015 at Edgewood Vista Assisted Living, Flandreau. Frances was born January 19, 1924 at Flandreau, SD to Ray and Gladys (Raines) Valentine. She graduated from Egan High School in 1941 and then worked for the telephone company in Sioux Falls. She received her teaching certificate from Sioux Falls College and taught at Faris Country School for one term.

Frances married James Michael Loiseau on June 30, 1947 at St. Peter Catholic Church, Colman, SD. They lived and farmed at Evergreen Stock Farm in Egan, SD. Her husband preceded her in death December 25, 1977. Frances sold Tupperware for 2 ½ years, was a Green Thumb supervisor, and worked for S.V. Home Health in Sioux Falls. While living in Vermillion from 1981-1983 she cooked for a fraternity, Delta Tau Delta. She then lived in Dell Rapids before moving back to the family farm and in 1997 moved to Flandreau.

Frances is a member of Ss. Simon and Jude Catholic Church and was a lector for 10 years. She received the Friend of 4-H Award in 2009, Friend of the Fair Award in 1999, the SD Horse Council Horseperson of the Year in 2007 and was Lasso's and Legends Honoree in 2009. James and Frances loved horses and together created a legacy of generations of good quarter horses most of which have the word Frenchman in their name in honor of the Loiseau French heritage.

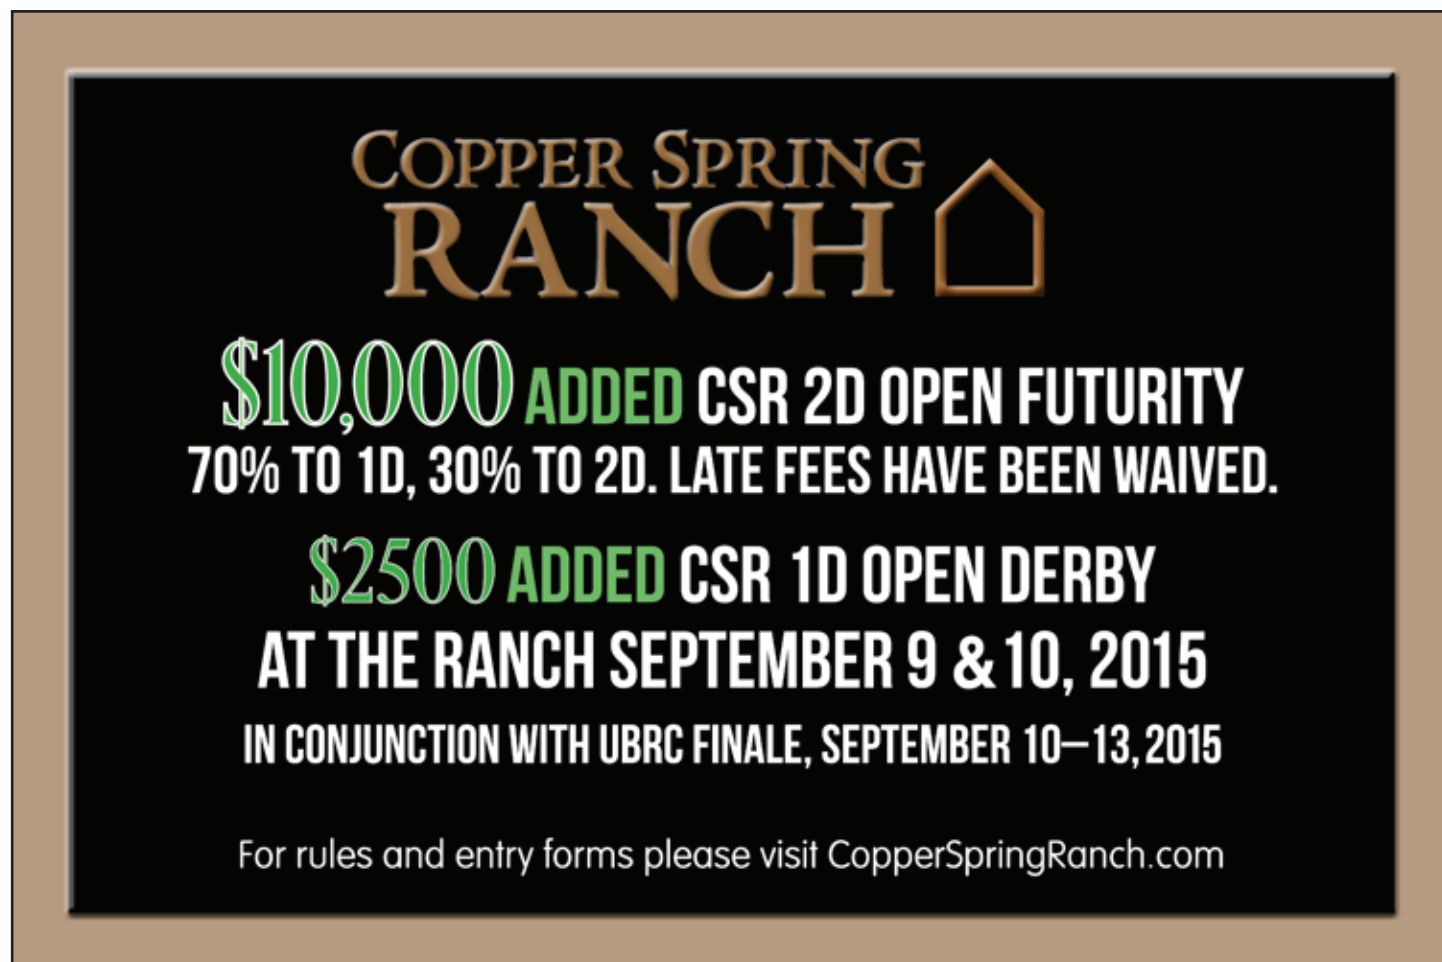

Frances is survived by eight children, James (Mary Dell) Loiseau, Flandreau, Barb (Tom) Westover, Egan, Charles (Sandi) Loiseau, Frankfort, KS, Beverly (Bill) Kennedy, Vermillion, Mick (Cindy)

Loiseau, Egan, Elisabeth (John) Hollmann, Hot Springs, Mary (Kem) Kjerstad, Rapid City, Val Loiseau, Hot Springs, 14 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren, three sisters-in-law, Pete Valentine, Vancouver, WA, Dorothy Mousel, Flandreau, Mary Ann Loiseau, Egan, and brother-in-law Dave Gingerich, Des Moines, WA. Frances was preceded in death by her husband, parents, sister Dorothy Gingerich and brother Charles Valentine.

Mass of Christian Burial was held at 10:30 am on Saturday, August 29, 2015 at Ss. Simon and Jude Catholic Church, Flandreau, with burial at Hillside Cemetery, Egan. Memorials to Wild Horse Ranch, Box 998, Hot Springs, SD 57747 and Hope Haven Living Memorial, Rock Valley, IA.

*Frances Loiseau bought a 2 year old filly with appendix papers out of Minnesota named Caseys Ladylove, and a breeding powerhouse began. Loiseau bred Caseys Ladylove and produced the leading sires Frenchmans Guy and Pc Frenchmans Hayday (Dinero). Caseys Ladylove is also the dam of Caseys Charm, dam of multiple world champion, French Flash Hawk aka Bozo. Frances used "French" or "Frenchman" in her names, so if the horse has French or Frenchman in the pedigree it probably was part of her breeding program. It is safe to say, that Frances Loiseau's influence in the horse business will continue on for years to come.

Our thoughts and prayers are with her family...

Mary Walker & Latte Quietly Climb to #4 in the World

By Hope Sickler

Ennis, Texas barrel racer, Mary Walker, has seen her world standings earnings jump significantly in the last couple of months pushing her from being in the top 20 to now 4th with $100,135.84 in the WPRA World Standings guaranteeing her and her right-hand-man "Latte" another trip to Vegas in December. Their recent championship at the Champions Challenge in Kennewick along with their second place finish at the rodeo in Kennewick gave them the boost they needed!

"I have had a really great summer. We have enjoyed spending time with friends we have met while being on the road. Latte is doing great as well. He loves the big outdoor rodeos and he has been staying sound and happy. Luckily I have learned a lot over the last few years to catch things before they become an issue and I stay in close touch with my vet Dr. Honnas every day on Latte's overall well-being," explained Walker.

Walker admits that although they crept up the standings ladder slow this year, she has been setting goals every week and obtaining most of them.

"Things didn't start out that great but with continued determination we are right where we wanted to be. My run at the Champions Challenge was not our best run but it most definitely worked. Latte had a little ground trouble but when we came back for our run in the rodeo, he made one of the best runs he has made all year. He was real snappy and ran extra hard."

Walker stopped the clock in the Champions Challenge in 17.47-seconds, which took home the win and a check for $5,440.

Walker then took home second place honors at the Horse Heaven Round-Up PRCR Rodeo in Kennewick with a 17.28. Another Texas cowgirl, Carley Richardson, won the rodeo with a 16.93, securing herself a spot at this year's NFR.

Walker and Latte had one more stop to make at the Colorado State Fair in Pueblo before seeing the lights of Ennis.

"I am very excited to be headed home. I have a few more rodeos to finish the season off with and then we are going to go and spend two weeks in Australia. My good friend Nikki Steffes and I are putting on some clinics down there and we will also try our luck at deep sea fishing while we are down there. When we get back we will start preparing for Vegas. It will be very busy but I cannot wait to do it all. We are very blessed to live this wonderful lifestyle."

RODEO NOTES:

The regular season ends September 30, so there are only about 4 weeks of rodeo left!

Winning $8,242 over the week allowed Mary Walker to climb up one more spot to #4 in the World and break the $100k barrier, with $100,136 in earnings for the year.

Callie Duperier has closed the gap on World leader Lisa Lockhart over the last several weeks. After Cheyenne at the end of July, Lockhart led the world over Duperier by over $20k; now Duperier has that gap down to only a little over $6k.

Nancy Hunter & Flit N Fizz have had a great year, sitting #6 in the World with earnings of $89,590 while only going to 24 rodeos.

The Top 15 people stayed virtually the same this week with just a few of them changing positions.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Do you ever feel like you have an elephant sitting on your chest and you just can't breathe? I think we all have times when the pressures of life try to weigh us down. What do you and I do when those times come? Well, some of us just.....

PANIC! CALL THE DOCTOR! CALL THE LAWYER! CALL YOUR BEST FRIEND! CALL THE BANKER! CALL 9 - 1 - 1!

STOP! Now just relax. You only need to call on God. He lives right inside you in the form of the Holy Spirit and He is your EVER PRESENT HELP in time of need. In the Amplified Bible, John 16:7, Jesus tells us it is best if He goes, because then He will send the Holy Spirit. And then it tells us that the Holy Spirit is our counselor, helper, advocate, intercessor, strengthener and standby. Pretty much covers just about all we would ever need!

I'll tell you a funny story. Mike and I went to our grandsons' football game the other day. Our two granddaughters weren't very interested, so they decided to climb the pine tree on the edge of the field. Darcy, 7, zipped up and down it several times. Cylee, 4, climbed up and down a few times and then decided she'd just go on up a little higher. Then, in a verrrry shaky voice, I heard her yell,

"HELP ME GWAMMA!" When I turned around she was up in the tree about 6 feet off the ground. I said, "You can get down." She said, "No I can't! I think we are going to need to call the firetruck!"

Well, we didn't need to call the firetruck. We just calmly talked her down. I will say, though, when Papa Mike saw what was happening and heard what she said, he said, "Cylee, you only call the firetruck for cats. For kids, you just cut the tree down!" (Does that sound like the way the devil talks to us?) Don't listen to the devil. Don't call the firetruck. Call on God!
