Hello Stella & Sharin Hall Sweep Futurity & Open Breeders Challenge Championships for $156,634

By Tanya Randall

The inaugural Breeders Challenge Championship, held September 13-18 in Will Rogers Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas, was a game changer for Sharin Hall and her homebred superstar Hello Stella. The former horse trainer turned real estate agent and 4-year-old mare topped the Open and Futurity for an incredible $156,634.

With the $16,065 Open win was impressive, the $140,569 in futurity earnings unofficially make Hello Stella the all-time leading futurity mare with $283,174. The previous leading futurity mare was dual $100,000-slot race winner Famous Silk Panties at $230,468. Now the No. 2 futurity horse of all-time, Stella is also within $2,033 of JS Milo And Stitch's record of $285,207.*

"She just delivers," said Hall, an Ohio native now living in Pilot Point, Texas. "At this point, I'm still shaking my head and processing. She keeps amazing me. I'm pretty sure she keeps shocking everyone else too."

In a format similar to that of RFD-TV's The American, Breeders Challenge offered contestants riding nominated offspring of enrolled stallions four qualifiers in four classes: Futurity, Amateur Futurity, Derby and Open.

Hall and Stella qualified for the Breeders Challenge Futurity and Open at the Elite Futurity in Waco this past March. Since then, they've won four futurities, the BBR Finals, Red Rocket, Southwest Desert Classic August and Glen Wood Memorial.

After the Glen Wood, Stella had a short break before the Breeders Challenge. Hall used the Breeders Challenge Open run as a warm-up for the Futurity Semifinals.

"Since I qualified in both I thought running her in the Open gave her away to feel the ground and get in the pen," said Hall, "and then you get a day off before the Futurity run, which is nice."

Their 15.960 earned $9,639 and $1,607 for Hall as the owner and nominator, respectively. The victory was also worth $4,820 for Stella's sire The Goodbye Lane.

"She was very correct," Hall said of the run. "Sometimes you feel like they can be a little rusty when they haven't made a run in two or three weeks. During that time, she got seven to 10 days of rest and rehab—I took her to the spa. When I'm getting her ready to make that run, I do everything slow and correct, and when I go run, I hope it happens."

For Hall, the most stressful part of the week was making it through the Semifinals to the 30-head Futurity Finals. Expectations were already high with Stella having won the Open, when the mare tripped on her approach to the first barrel.

"I did bite my nails in the qualifying," admitted Hall. "I guess if you were going to stumble that was the round to do it."

The "flook" stumble was right where Stella starts to rate for the first barrel. After watching the video "100 times" Hall noticed that Stella's left hind clips her right front. Luckily, the mare didn't cut herself or spring or pull a shoe.

"There's no scrapes, nicks, nothing," said Hall. "Not even on the bell boot. She just caught it enough to make her stumble and crawl one, two steps."

When the stumble shot them by the first, Hall was devastated. Stella, however, just got mad and more aggressive.

"I gave up at that point," she Hall. "I thought, 'Oh well, we're out.' Stella whipped back around on the backside of the first barrel, pinned her ears and shot across there. I was like, 'OK, I guess we shouldn't give up. Let's give it a shot and see what we've got!'"

They were a 16.473.

"When I came out, my first thought was I was so disappointed for her," said Hall, "but the very next thought was the positive—She didn't go down. She didn't pull a shoe, and she's sound. With all she's already accomplished, I was OK with however it turned out. Then my hubby comes back and is like, 'I've been doing the numbers. You should make the Top 30.' I was like, 'There ain't no way! If we do, it's by the grace of God!' And that's exactly what happened."

They had made the 30-head cut in 25th place.

"Going into the finals, my thought was to forget everything," said Hall. "I had to forget about the stumble, forget about the ground. I have to just focus on making that same run that I did on Wednesday. Just be correct and throw it all out there. Whatever happens, happens. You had to just lay it all there and give it to you all. I asked her for everything she had."

In the alleyway, Hall couldn't hear the announcer say 15.862. The only word she heard was "leader."

"I get back to the warmup pen and everyone is like, 'Good job,'" she recalled. "I just started crying. I was so thankful. It was so surreal. I knew I had 50 more horses to run. I knew we had given everything we had. If it works out, great. If it doesn't...I'm just so thankful I have a sound horse and we made another good run. I literally cried because I was so happy and thankful."

The owner's and nominator's share of the victory was $84,341 and $14,057, respectively. The Goodbye Lane claimed $42,171. All total, Hall pocketed $109,644, while The Goodbye Lane received $46,991.

Hall wanted to thank the Breeders Challenge founders and staff as well as the stallion owners for making the event possible. "That was a class act," she said. "They went over above and beyond. I'm thankful for every stallion owner who rolled the dice. They need to know how much they're appreciated."

Stella, who is out of the Dash Ta Fame mare, Go Go Fame, whom Hall trained and campaigned, still has several lucrative events this fall—the Ardmore Futurity, Pink Buckle, Ruby Buckle Memphis, BFA World and OKC. Hall also qualified for the WCRA Women's Finals but may not haul Stella to Las Vegas. Hall said she has no plans to sell the mare even though she's had numerous offers.

"My husband and I have talked about it," she said. "We are in a position where we don't have to sell her. I've worked my whole career to have my own horses and develop my own broodmare band, horses that I trained and campaigned. A couple of those that I had great success on I had to sell and then I lost one. We intentionally didn't breed her this year because I wanted to focus on competing. I want to finish the year strong and see how far we can go at The American. After that is when we'll probably start pulling embryos."

All earnings received through a horse are counted toward that individual. Per Equi-Stat, stallion and breeder/ nominator earnings are credited toward the horse that made the win possible.*

$70,284 Victory For Kassie Mowry & Epic Guy In Breeders Challenge Derby

By Tanya Randall

Kassie Mowry added another title to Epic Guy's lengthy resume with a $70,284 Derby victory at the Breeders Challenge Championship in Fort Worth, Texas. The championship pushed the 6-year-old gelding's career earnings to nearly $500,000 for his owner and breeder Kristen Williams.

"It's a little surreal and so exciting to have raised and own a horse like Epic Guy," said Williams. The gelding is by leading sire Epic Leader out of the Frenchmans Guy daughter Frenchilicious. "I have to pinch myself every now and then to make sure it's real! When I'm thinking about breeding and which stallions will cross best on my mares...it's always the ultimate goal to produce a horse like Epic Guy, but to have it actually happen is just a dream come true."

Epic Guy had a light summer with Mowry making rodeo trips with Famous Ladies Man and CP He Will Be Epic. He started his runs at the Breeders Challenge in the Open Invitational, where he ran a 1D time but was out of the money.

"He had a little bit of trouble with the ground that first day," said Mowry. "In the Derby (Semifinals) qualifying round, I figured he always clocks so my focus was just don't hit a barrel. He just made a nice smooth run and got back."

They were the 16th fastest of the 30 headed to the Derby Final with a 16.274. Mowry knew it was going to be tough and prepared accordingly.

"I tuned him a little bit and got him tighter for the short go because I knew it would be fast," she said.

Their winning run was a 15.880. Williams collected $42,171 and $7,028 as the owner and nominator, respectively, and Epic Leader

THANK YOU FOR PARTICIPATING IN
OUR 5TH ANNUAL FALL EXTRAVAGANZA EVENT
HELD IN RAPID CITY, SD!

Great Genetics & Horses mean nothing without incredible clients and homes!

received $21,085 of Epic Guy's $70,284.

Mowry also appreciated the Breeders Challenge for dragging every three runs as it made a huge difference with so many talented horses running all at once.

"Everyone had a chance," she said. "It wasn't like, 'Oh I'm at the bottom of my drag' and that's a disadvantage. I think that keeps it exciting because it's more of a level playing field, especially when you don't have a two-run average where you flip the drag and hope to have one run be in your favor. I was super happy they decided to drag that often."

Mowry said she was grateful for the entire production of the event.

"Everything was just first class," she said. "They did an outstanding job with it from beginning to end. It went really smooth. The ground started off rough but they did everything possible and got it turned around. We really appreciated that."

As an owner and breeder, Williams appreciated the Breeders

Challenge concept.

"The one-time nomination fee for lifetime enrollment is really nice and easy to keep up with, and the return on investment is phenomenal. For the Finals, they really rolled out the red carpet for barrel racers like I'd never seen before. The draw party was a lot of fun and the entire event was very first class. I'm very grateful to the Breeders Challenge for creating this opportunity for the barrel racing industry."

A big opportunity also awaits Williams. After Epic Guy completes his second derby season with Mowry at year's end, Williams gets to take over his reins.

"I'm excited for her," said Mowry. "She's a really good rider and knows what she's looking at. He's never had anyone else run barrels on him, so there will be a little bit of a transition, but I'm excited to see them go."

Mary Beth Ogle & Look What Dyna Did Top Breeders Challenge Amateur Futurity, Earn $44,179

By Tanya Randall

Breeders Challenge fan favorite Mary Beth Ogle of Kinta, Oklahoma, and her 4-year-old mare Look What Dyna Did laid claim to $44,179 at the inaugural Fort Worth, Texas, event. Ogle and Dyna topped the Amateur Futurity for $36,146 and finished ninth in the Open Futurity for an additional $8,033.

"I have a special thank you to everyone that cheers for me," said the super senior barrel racer. She turns 75 at the end of next month. "I do have a really nice horse and do really well, but a whole lot of my fan base is because 'Oh my God! This white hair!'"

Ogle also wanted to thank Benette Little for the opportunity to own Dyna and Lance Graves for his help.

Bred by Benette Little, Dyna is by leading barrel horse sire JL Dash Ta Heaven out of Hy Talented Chick, by Flaming Talent. Ogle got Dyna as a long yearling in a trade with Benette Little.

"Benette was looking for a broodmare with a record," Ogle explained. "I had a little mare that wasn't greatly bred, but she sure enough had a record. I traded the mare for this filly."

After sending the filly out for her initial 30 days of riding, Ogle has done all of Dyna's training and seasoning.

"I know I'm old, but that's what I've always done," she chuckled. "Trained them!"

Dyna didn't always make things easy either.

"She was a handful when I first started hauling her," said Ogle. "She was not for the faint of heart. She just gets better all the time. She only came uncorked one time down in Fort Worth. I'm really liking her."

Ogle said Dyna could have benefited from being held over as a 5-year-old, but she wanted to run her before she had knee surgery.

"I knew it would benefit her to hold her back, but it wouldn't benefit her rider," Ogle chuckled. "Both of my knees are bone on bone, so I'm having knee surgery right after the BFA."

Ogle had originally tried to qualify for the Breeders Challenge at the Valley Girls Barrel Daze in Washington State, but a little accident put Graves in the saddle.

"I have vertigo really bad," she explained. "I cannot look up. She took a wild jump out of the first barrel and popped my head back. I knew who I was and that I was on the back of a horse, but I couldn't figure out why I couldn't ride! I fell off and it really jacked my knee up."

Lance is the one that rode her and qualified her for the Open Futurity."

Graves was grateful to help.

"Her accident had nothing to do with her age," Graves emphatically stated. "She's a great athlete. Saying that about someone who is 74 might sound funny but that's why she's been able to persevere through the years. She's tough, but she's also smart, well balanced in her saddle and focused on the end game like every other professional athlete. My goal is to still pull her cinch and walk down the alley with her a decade from now!"

Ogle herself qualified Dyna again in the Open Futurity along with the Amateur at the qualifier at the Lucky Dog Productions in Memphis.

In Fort Worth, Ogle and Dyna were extremely consistent. They were the ninth fastest qualifiers with a 16.162 in the Semifinals. "The first run she didn't have any bobbles," said Ogle. "It was just a BIT: Runs in a homemade chain mouth with a little bit of gag. "I like a little bit of a gag, but just a little. My hands aren't as fast as they used to be." Rides in a J&C Bit at home.

HEADGEAR: Very loose head-setter tiedown. "I don't need it in the run, but she will get that head out when you take off, so you're not in control."

LEG GEAR: Not brand specific

SHOEING: Light weight steel shoes. "I stay out of my horseshoer's business!"

really nice run. You couldn't fault it anywhere."

They had a 16.165 in the Finals.

"The second run, she had one hellacious first barrel," she said. "I mean a killer first barrel! Then she tends to try to step out too soon going to the end barrel. The first run I did manage to keep her in where she needed to be. The last run she actually stepped out a little too soon and got flat on the backside of the end barrel. We actually bumped it. She lost her hellacious first barrel on the end barrel.” Ogle wanted to thank the producers of Breeders Challenge and their sponsors.

“I think all these incentives are good for the industry,” said Ogle, who added she preferred the one-time nomination fee. “I hope they can keep them going.”

Dyna has a few more futurities before Ogle steps off for knee surgery after the BFA in November. She plans to derby the mare when she’s back riding again next year.

“I do intend to derby on her,” she said. “I’ve pretty much sold everything that I’ve trained. We worked for a living so that’s what I had to do. At this point in time, I’m going to keep Dyna. I’m not going to say four or five years down the road when she’s more than I can ride that I won’t sell her, but I’m saying I will either.”

Ogle and her sister Nancy Powell, of Dial A Red Rooster fame, got their start after their father saw the event at a rodeo while working down in Texas.

“We lived in the country and had cattle,” Ogle recalled. “My dad worked away from home. He came home and set up the barrels and that was the start of it. I like to laugh and say I couldn’t cook a meal when I got married, but I could dang sure fix fence and punch cows!”

Her first trophy buckle came in 1959.

Ogle only stepped away from the sport to follow her daughter’s high school and college track career.

“When I really got back into it was after my daughter graduated,” she said. “I had a futurity horse that was so-so and then I had Salanos Echo. Thirty years ago, I won the Old Fort Days Futurity.”

Ogle also won the BFA Derby on her great gray horse GK Clear Money. She thinks she might have another like him in Dyna.

“I told my sister she might not be a Dial A Red Rooster, but she might be a GK Clear Money!” she exclaimed.

Sage Advice from Mary Beth Ogle

Be Kind To Your Body

“I definitely promote helmets after my third concussion, and I definitely promote having a step at the barn to get on. I didn’t (have a step) for years and that works on the knees and hips, plus it pulls on the horse’s back. I make sure I can get on anything I’m riding in case I have to get off in the pasture, but trust me, I have a step!”

The Mental Game

“My sister and I were talking about that the other day. People are always asking, ‘Can I come ride with you?’ Anyone can come ride with me. I learn stuff from them just like they learn stuff from me, but a lot of people don’t realize how much of this is a mental game. Yeah, you’ve got to be athletic and know how to ride, but most people don’t realize they’re hurting themselves mentally.”

Cooked to Perfection.

The way horse feed should be.

For over 35 years, HYGAIN® feeds have been perfected with painstaking attention to every detail. Our feed range includes a not-so-secret ingredient: the Australian Sweet Lupin, a soluble super fiber that is low in starch and sugar with high energy sources for optimal conditioning with more control.

Made in an equine-only manufacturing facility for product purity with no cross-contamination, each of our feeds is formulated to deliver optimal health, enhance nutritional value, improve palatability and increase feed efficiency.

HYGAIN. The Highest Standard in Horse Nutrition.

Pluemer and Famous French Bug Crowned 2021 Pendleton Roundup Champions

By Hope Raley

Bosque Farms, New Mexico cowgirl Leia Pluemer made the turf at the 2021 Pendleton Roundup her home after claiming her first championship of the Green Mile this past weekend aboard her incredible mare Famous French Bug. The $11,920 that Pluemer pocketed from her victory in Pendleton bumped her from 86th to 43rd in the WPRA World Standings.

Pluemer had a feeling that her great mare "Sister" could accomplish what they just did at Pendleton after their 5th place average finish in 2019. "Winning Pendleton is an unimaginable feeling," Pluemer said. "Since I ran there in 2019, and placed high in the average, I thought that winning Pendleton was something that Sister could accomplish."

Holding steady to her word, Pluemer describes her 10-year-old mare as busy and one that loves to run. "She loves to run- that's why I always thought Pendleton would be a great setup for her!" Famous French Bug aka "Sister" is by Frenchmans Fabulous and out of Cricketts Fame by Dash Ta Fame. Frenchmans Fabulous colts are no stranger to the pay window, especially at the rodeos, and "Sister" wasn't the only Fab baby that made a hefty paycheck after their efforts in Pendleton. KN Fabulous Fed X aka FedX and Tristan Martin punched their 2021 NFR qualification in the steer wrestling after winning Pendleton. KN Fabulous Fed X is a 2007 son of Frenchmans Fabulous and out of Miss Missile Bug by Mr Master Bug.

The Frenchmans Fabulous' are known for their grit and heart, and Pluemer's "Sister" is no different. "Sister is a horse that has more grit and try than any other horse that I've ever ridden. She is very independent and would haul all year by herself if I needed her to."

Pluemer also describes "Sister" as the type of horse that is all business as soon as you saddle her and gives every ounce of effort that she has every run she makes. However, when the saddle comes

Famous French Bug

BIT: I am not sure the bit maker, I bought it at a tack sale and cannot find another one like it! It is a single mouthpiece with a copper roller in the middle.

HEADGEAR: My tack set is made by Melissa Mackie who passed away last fall, her mother Pattie Mackie, continues her work.

SADDLE: Tod Slone

SADDLE PAD: 1" Kush Best Ever Pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine

SHOEING: Rob Neusling is who shoes Sister. He put some plug and taps in her shoes before we left home. They got put in before the short round.

FEED: Omelene 200

HAY: Alfalfa and grass hay

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Ashley Tenbrink is Sister's favorite person because she massages and acupunctures her.

SUPPLEMENTS: Silver Lining Herbs Respiratory Support

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: Sister's weekly exercise regimen is a little different than most. I pony her off another horse. We walk a lot before we exercise to loosen up her muscles and get her blood flow circulating. We long trot for 10-15 minutes and then lope/gallop for 10 minutes. And then walk her out. I almost never school on her. She knows her job, so she doesn't need tuning. Occasionally, my mom, my good friend Jenesis Trujeque, and I will go ride along the Rio Grande River and let our horses enjoy the day and be a horse. And of course, I must pony Sister there too.

SPONSORS: Silver Lining herbs, Best Ever Pads, Rockin M Leather, Horse Hydrator, Frenchmans Fabulous, Party Outlaw, Ride the Moon Equine and Apparel, and Rodeo Naked (apparel).

This week is the last full week of the 2021 Rodeo season with the Top 15 as of September 30 heading to the NFR. There are several small rodeos throughout the country, but the big position changing money will be at the ProRodeo Tour Finale in Salinas, CA. So keep an eye on the coverage on The Cowboy Channel to see if we have some last minute shake ups!*

Currently, Stephanie Fryar sits in 15th position just about $30 in front of Nellie Miller who is in 16th and it is just under $6k back to Jimmie Smith in 17th. Lisa Lockhart is a little over $5k in front of Fryar in 14th.

The $62,500 added money in Salinas is going to make for some last week drama in the rodeo world!

off, Pluemer is quick to admit that someone better have a bag of kettle corn ready for the champ. "She is all about snacks anytime you are not on her back," laughed Pluemer. "She is the definition of spoiled."

Pluemer and "Sister" have been on the road most of the 2021 rodeo season, but it hasn't quite been like their 2019 season when they finished the year 16th in the WPRA World Standings. "It hasn't really been the same year that I had in 2019," said Pluemer. "It seems like most of the rodeos hadn't held anything since 2019 due to Covid, so the ground wasn't spectacular in a lot of the pens. We also ran into some mother nature issues which you can't control. After Deadwood this summer, I went home. My truck had blown the engine earlier in the summer and I needed to go home. I went back to work at our family business, Party Outlaw. Pendleton was the last rodeo on my radar, and I was determined to go; I'm sure glad I did!"

With her win at Pendleton, Pluemer is within the top 50 and hopes to go to some big winter rodeos this winter where she will also run her backup horse—a granddaughter of Frenchmans Fabulous, KN Fabsgifttovegas.

"My backup horse, KN Fabsgifttovegas got a lot of rodeo experience this summer," laughed Pluemer. "I hope to have her ready to enter some of the winter rodeos if all goes well. I love the Frenchmans Fabulous horses. They have heart and love their jobs!" Pluemer is grateful to Kailee Murdock and Tom Felner for allowing her and "Sister" to tag along with them up to Oregon, and for watching and exercising "Sister" when Pluemer had to fly home for a few days to run at a couple of circuit rodeos. Pluemer is also incredibly grateful to her family and friends, especially her dad and mom for supporting her dreams and always believing in her.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Proverbs 17:22 tells us that a merry heart works like a medicine. In this season we are in, we all need a merry heart and for some, medicine. It is a daily challenge in 2021 to keep your head up. But we can do it!

When we follow the word of God, we already have answers and victories. Attacks from the enemy are spoken of in 2 Timothy, chapter 3. Yep. We're seeing all of that!

The secret is to not DWELL on what's going wrong, but REJOICE in what's going right!

Each day we need to just see the humor in people and situations around us. So... Last night before church I was in the kitchen puttering around and six year old Thad came in to hug me (he is the BEST hugger) and to chat.

We talked about school and what's happening there. Like in a lot of places, we are praying for rain and while we were in Montana, we got some rain here. The conversation....

"Thad, did you guys get rain last night?"

"Yes, we did."

"How much did you get? We got a 10th at our house?"

"13 gallons."

Oh lordy! I love kids. And we are to be childlike in our faith! Ever confident that our loving heavenly Father can take care of us!
