The Grass Is Greener for Katelyn Scott & Streak N Liza at Pendleton Roundup

By Tanya Randall

Katelyn Scott capitalized at the $56,500-added Pendleton Roundup, held September 16-19 in Oregon.

The 2025 National Finals Rodeo qualifier and her 15-year-old gelding Streak N Liza ("Twiz") collected $12,851, which moved her to No. 12 in the WPRA World Standings with $127,456. She also locked in the Cinch Playoff Finale at the Governor's Cup in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, with max points from Pendleton.

Scott is anxious to get home and see all of her "goodies" she won at Pendleton since she had to catch a plane to fly to the North Dakota Roughrider Cup in Mandan, where she was out on Sunday afternoon.

"There was so much and I couldn't even look through it because I was in such a hurry," she chuckled. "I still really can't get over it... that I won it!"

She did get to take a test ride in the trophy saddle as they put on a horse for the victory lap.

While Justa DTF Frenchman ("Peanut Seed") got the majority of her bigger money runs, Twiz, who is by Ten Streaks, a graded stakes placed son of Streakin La Jolla, and out of Jeff Rutland's My Designated Driver, Marthas Six Moons mare Liza My Desi, has pulled his fair share this year. Scott also made sure he was ready for the big run at the famed "Green Mile," the 288' x 288' foot pattern that spans Pendleton's grass infield.

"He was getting run here and there, so I felt he was in good enough running shape," Scott said. "The only thing I changed was I just increased how much I was loping him and long trotting him. And I made sure I didn't give him any days off (from conditioning). I just made sure I stayed on him and rode him longer than I normally would."

Twiz, who has been a part of her team since January 2024, had also been through the pattern once before.

"Last year, I hit the first barrel and then pulled him up," Scott said. "I did go on to the second and third, honestly thinking if I ever did come back that he would maybe kind of remember what it was like. I'm glad I did now."

Scott was tickled with how well Twiz ran straight to his spots as a lot of horses start drifting because they're expecting to turn at any moment.

"Honestly, I couldn't get over how true he really ran across there," she said. "I couldn't have asked him to be better than he was."

Scott said when the grass was a little slick from the rain she made sure not to ask Twiz to slow down until he was on the dirt. They were a 29.32 on their first pass, which was good enough for third in the first round.

In the finals, she switched to an all dirt approach to her first barrel, rather than starting her arc to the first on the grass and making the transition to dirt.

"I did see some horses struggling coming off the grass onto the dirt, but I didn't struggle in the first round," she explained. "I thought, 'Well, maybe starting on the dirt is the safer bet,' but it actually messed me up a little bit. It was a little too straight for me. I told myself, 'Well, don't quit! It's Pendleton!' Pendleton is such a big arena you can actually make up some time. Some arenas you can't. I

Scott will compete at the Governor's Cup this weekend, and she's entered several other rodeos just in case. Her biggest dilemma is deciding if she's safe enough inside the Top 15 that she doesn't have to make the other rodeos.

BUBBLE WATCH

As of press time, the battle on the bubble is amongst Mackenzie Mayes and Latricia Duke, who are 14th and 15th in the world standings, respectively, and Andrea Busby, who is the only competitor eligible to enter the Governor's Cup in Sioux Falls who is not in the Top 15.

Although the entry list wasn't available at press time, those eligible to enter were Carlee Otero, Michelle Alley, Megan McLeod-Sprague and Lisa Lockhart, who earned a bye after finishing in the top four at the Cinch Playoff Wildcard at the Puyallup Rodeo. Emily Beisel, Hayle Gibson-Stillwell, Tayla Moeykens, Mayes, Sydney Graham, Tricia Aldridge, Katelyn Scott and Busby are also eligible to enter.

Summer Kosel is the first alternate into Sioux Falls, and she's followed by Kathy Grimes, who is safely within the Top 15.

Kosel, who posted of her husband's cancer battle following her second-place finish at the North Dakota Roughrider Cup in Mandan, is only entered in Stephenville, which will not pay enough to make up the difference.

Tobey, who is $14,000 back of Duke, has already turned out of the Amarillo, Texas, pro rodeo. Ward, who posted on Facebook that Mandan was her last run of 2026, has turned out of both Amarillo and Pasadena, Texas, too.

Going into Tuesday night's performance at Pasadena, Duke was holding first. She, along with Mayes, are out at Amarillo in slack on Wednesday. Busby is not entered in either Amarillo or Pasadena.

Tayla Moeykens & KN Fames Best Yet Lock In At North Dakota Roughrider Cup

By Tanya Randall

Tayla Moeyken's 2026 experience at the North Dakota Roughrider Cup, held September 18-20 in Mandan, was far different from 2025's wet, muddy mess.

Last year, she was the first runner of the whole rodeo and plodded through the pattern on Hali William's breakaway horse so as to not lose precious Pro Rodeo Playoff Tour points. This year, she blasted a set in 17 flat on her great horse KN Fames Best Yet ("Yeti") to take the win worth $12,701.

"Mandan did a great job this year," said Moeykens. "The tractor guy actually came up to me after my run and wanted a picture. I think they were pretty proud to have the ground as good as it was, especially after what all went down last year. They try really hard to have a really good rodeo."

The North Dakota Roughrider Cup was the last point rodeo for the PRCA's Pro Rodeo Playoff Tour. The $60,000-added event was limited to 36 entries: the top 32 in the WPRA World Standings seven days prior to entries opening plus the winners of the Badlands Circuit rodeos held in Mandan (July), Deadwood, Aberdeen and Rapid City, South Dakota.

The victory essentially locked Moeykens into the lucrative Cinch Playoff's Finale at the Governor's Cup in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, this weekend and more importantly set her up for her second straight National Finals Rodeo qualification.

"We're not going into Sioux Falls fretting," said Moeykens. "I feel pretty good."

Both of her horses—Yeti and JM PocketsDoubleDash ("Lizard") are feeling strong and healthy at the season's end. The two have won $160,288 on the year to have Moeykens No. 7 in the WPRA World Standings going into the last weekend of the season.

"They're both feeling really good," she said, noting that they were bucking in their pastures in Three Forks, Montana, when they got a day at home last Sunday. "I think that's my main achievement. We got to the end of the season with both of them feeling amazing."

Yeti, the 8-year-old Dash Ta Fame gelding out of Kenny Nichols and James (Dale) Barron's Frenchmans Fabulous mare KN Fabulous N Khaki, has been a part of Moeykens team since 2023 when she purchased him from Kava Huestis. He's done the lion's share of winning this season, including a $16,266 Cheyenne Frontier Days Championship.

Lizard, 13, is by GuysPocketFullOfCash, a Frenchmans Guy stallion raised by the Moeykens and later sold to Jerry and Melinda Voorhies, and out of the Voorhies' Dash For Perks mare Katy Perks. The Moeykens family got him as a baby.

Moeykens had Lizard ready to defend their Pendleton Roundup Championship, but she opted out after rain made the grass slick.

"That was a hard no for me on that wet grass," she said. She opted to trot her rope horse through so she wouldn't lose Pro Rodeo Playoff Tour Points as contestants are docked 10 points for turning out.

Meanwhile, her dad Rick had taken Yeti to Mandan, while she caught a plane from Pendleton with several other contestants. Last year, she ran both Yeti and Lizard at Sioux Falls. She said she's not sure who she's starting with this year.

"I figured I would decide when we got there," she said. "In my mind, I can't make a wrong choice. They're both my teammates. I can put them anywhere and they'll give me their best."

With her second straight NFR qualification just days shy of confirmation, Moeykens is looking forward to having both horses in Las Vegas with her this year. Both of her horses were exposed to the equine herpes virus while in Texas last November and were still

Krystal Grad's KSJ RememberTheTitan Sweeps Royal Crown Canada Futurities

By Tanya Randall

When KSJ RememberTheTitan took top honors in the Royal Crown and Open futurities this past spring at Claresholm, Brandy McPhee was in the saddle for his injured breeder, owner and trainer Krystal Grad.

At the Royal Crown Canada Event, held September 17-20 at the Pointe in Sherwood Park, Alberta, Grad had the reins for the futurity sweep, taking a $23,851 championship in the $75,000-added Royal Crown Futurity and collecting $4,365 for the $5,000-added Open Futurity championship.

Grad and Titan also won the Warmup Race, took second in the all runs count high stakes and placed in the 1D of both the open to all and Royal Crown divisional races for total earnings of $34,703.

Between the two Royal Crown events—Claresholm and Sherwood Park—Titan earned $62,985.

"I think I've won $200-$250,000 at the Royal Crown Races alone in the last couple of years," said Grad, who hails from Gravelbourg, Saskatchewan. "It's one of my favorite races."

Grad and Titan, who won the Glacier Chaser Classic Futurity earlier this summer, started their week winning the warm up race with a 16.9.

"I went to the Fizz Bomb (Futurity in Gillette, Wyoming) the weekend before and I felt like I kind of let him down a little bit, so I wanted to get a run in that felt nice and smooth to get dialed in a little bit," Grad explained.

For the futurity wins, they finished second in each round with runs of 17.106 and 16.974, respectively.

"In the first round, he kind of struggled with the ground," said Grad. "The ground was great, but he's just so quick-footed and he got ahead of himself. He had a few slips and grips and stepped on himself going into the third. He still clocked a 17.1, so I was really ok with that. I knew if I could just slow (his feet) down a little bit and clean it up, he could be faster."

Grad also knew she was going to have to be on her game because Titan would get tighter, especially at the second barrel.

"He rolled in and smoked his first barrel and then he got a little quick on the backside and kind of stutter-stepped a little bit coming out of it. He actually over-turned it. As I got him lined out, I had to stay two-handed into the backside (of the second), because he did get a little tight there. He stutter-stepped again coming out of second, but he smoked his third. He stayed pretty true to form so that was exciting."

Titan is the first foal out of Grad's Judge Cash mare, Judge Spice ("Stella"). His sire is NFR Champion Sire French Hula Guy.

"He is really special," Grad said. "His mom is everything to us. We're actually looking at putting her back with French Hula Guy in the spring to see if we can get another one as special as Titan. I've had babies before out of other mares, but being the first baby out of her has been so special. She kind of helped me form my program and put my name on the board. So having her first baby be what he is... You always dream that they're going to be just as special as their mom or dad, and for it to actually come to fruition is what dreams are made of. It's all in the good Lord's plan. I think I'm just here to show them. I just want Him to get all the limelight. I'm just so thankful that I'm the one who gets to do that."

Grad and Titan have the CBHI Super Stakes next week in Ponoka and will finish their futurity season at the BFA World Championships.

"After that, I'm not quite sure," Grad said candidly. "I don't really like rodeo, but I think he's going to be an incredible rodeo horse. I might have to venture that way or maybe someone will want him for that. I would love to keep him. I mean, we all love to keep the

THE RUNDOWN w/Krystal Grad

KSJ Rememberthetitan, 2021 Palomino Gelding 15.1 h., 1,000 lbs.

BIT: Elliot Spur Up 04 with a three-piece port mouth

HEADGEAR: Bonnet

SADDLE: Rylee Racer by Frontier — SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Alliance Equine — SHOEING: Rims on all four

FEED: Buckeye Nutrition — HAY: Alfalfa with a little timothy

SUPPLEMENTS: Equine Choice probiotics, MVP Vitamin E, Silver Lining Herb support, Kentucky Equine Research electrolytes, Succeed

ALTERNATIVE TREATMENTS: BEMER, XLR8 red light therapy, nebulize, weekly acupuncture for his back

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: Mostly, it's just outside miles away from the arena. We don't do much barrel work with him. A couple days before we go somewhere I'll work them on barrels and just make sure everything feels good and they're sharp. For the most part, we just do a lot of dry work with him to make sure he's feeling supple, soft and calm. It's mostly just keeping them in shape at this point."

Cox sweeps Derby and Open at Royal Crown Edmonton for $34K!

By Julie Mankin

Cordy Cox of Williams Lake, British Columbia, and 6-year-old Shez French N Famous ("Lala") swept the Derby and won literally every other race at Royal Crown Canada, Sept. 14-20, in Edmonton, Alberta, to rake in $34,140. The Royal Crown folks think it's the first time a horse has done that.

"I knew she could," said Cox. "She's a once-in-a-lifetime horse; one that you only hope and dream that you can even step on."

They smoked a 16.740 on the standard pattern to win the first round of the Derby by more than two-tenths, then came back with a "businessman's" 16.9 to also win Round Two and easily clinch the Derby average to earn $18,640 in that race.

During that blistering fast 16.7, Cox said the mare stayed super square without stepping off or out from a single barrel; just ran straight to her points and came back hard. They were also second on the ground. Then, running almost last on the ground for that second run, Cox just wanted to be clean.

"I've got so much horse under me," she said. "Lala is so incredibly fast and quick that as long as I'm clean, I knew it would still be fast."

Those two runs also swept the Open Derby for $4,683, swept both Royal Crown Open races for $3,880, swept both Open races for $3,187 and won the High Stakes for $3,750.

The mare never even had an exhibition until March of 2025, and the Edmonton win pushed her lifetime earnings over $100,000. Nicknamed for the mean girl on Vanderpump Rules, Lala was started by Randa Nugent.

"Last summer, Randa called me and said, 'This horse really needs you, and you really need this horse,'" recalled Cox, who already had a derby horse. "Randa did an amazing job, and was just really sure I needed to take her. So, I agreed in October, and she matured a lot over the winter in Arizona with me."

Cox has been seasoning Lala all summer at amateur rodeos. In May, the duo won the Yellow Rose Derby and in August, they clocked a 16.9 in Ponoka at the Alberta Barrel Racing Association Finals.

Lala was bred by Donna Beierbach who owns her sire, RNJ Heckofafrenchman. He's a palomino son of Frenchmans Guy out of Jae Bar Hilda, a paternal granddaughter of Doc Bar whose dam went back to Jet Deck, Leo and Spotted Bull.

And Lala is out of Klu Ta Fame, by Dash Ta Fame out of Ima Ten To Six (by the Six Fortunes/Bunny Bid stallion Six To Five out of an Easily Smashed daughter with Dash For Cash and Hempen on the bottom side).

Cox said Lala is one of those horses that wants to win even more than you do, and that's been a blessing. She's very fast, very intense, and all business.

"She's a lot," said Cox. "I tell people, if you want to look great in the warm-up pen, she's not your horse. Warming up, in particular, you cannot get in a fight. So, I do a lot of trotting and loping. If she's having a day or there's a lot of stimulation, she won't travel to the right, so I just warm her up to the left!"

Cox said her antics in the warm-up pen never transfer to the alley.

"It's her world," she said. "I keep her soft and try to keep her happy. And she'll give you her life. I'm respectful of that."

Cox is a rancher and the mom of two girls, 6 and 9, who are home-schooled, plus she's also the full-time General Manager of British Columbia Livestock Co-Op, which operates four auction houses primed for business right now with yearlings and calves being sold. Each December, she moves to Arizona for the winter, but between now and then, it's "a little bit touch and go" with where she can compete. Still, barrel racing is her passion.

For years, Cox was breeding her own horses but hiring trainers and jockeys. At some point, she decided she might as well run her own horses.

"I obviously loved it," she said. "So, a number of years ago, I started doing it more. The past five or six years, I've gotten fairly serious about running barrels myself."

Sassy Disarray Leads Mare Power at Myers Online Production Sale

A three-year-old daughter of million-dollar sire Mr Sassy Frenchman topped the Second Annual Myers Performance Horses Online Production Sale at $55,000. Sassy Disarray was purchased by RLM Performance Horses of Idaho and will head to Texas for futurity training.

The select offering featured 12 horses representing more than 40 years of breeding, raising and training by Bill and Deb Myers. Ten horses sold for an overall average of $32,350, while the riding horses averaged $38,000.

Sassy Disarray is out of Disarray SI 89, the leading barrel racing broodmare of 2011, and comes from a female family that has produced $556,780 in barrel racing earnings. That maternal line includes Famous Mic Guy Ver, with earnings of $291,624; Guys Famous Girl, the nation's leading futurity horse in 2011 with earnings of $120,141; and Guys R A Mystery, known as "Sherlock," with earnings of $94,000.

The second-high seller was Luckyz Hot Toddy at $48,500. Her sire, million-dollar sire Lucky Wonder Horse, is producing high-level prospects, including Wonder If Im Lucky, the nation's leading futurity horse in 2025 who is now winning at major professional rodeos with earnings exceeding $550,000. Luckyz Hot Toddy is out of Guys Hot Chocolate, from the same female family as Sky High Guy, Guys Champagne Girl, Guys Sangria, Guys Fine Wine, Ima Friendly Guy, Guys Dash Of Color, All Warm N Fuzzy and Cowboys Sangria, a BFI Champion with more than $100,000 in professional rodeo earnings. She was purchased by Shannon Kulseth and will be in the hands of Heidi Gunderson.

Guыз Jettin Colours brought $46,000 as the third-high seller. The daughter of Frenchmans Guy is out of Hot Movida by Hot Colours SI 102. Hot Movida is a half-sister to A Smooth Guy. Guыз Jettin Colours was purchased by J Lazy 6 Ranch of Arizona. Also among the top sellers was Sheza Lucky Goodbye, who brought $35,000 and will make her new home in Washington with Brenda Dilbeck. She is sired by Lucky Wonder Horse and out of Wave Goodbye Guys by Frenchmans Guy. Other top sellers included Sassy Classic, sired by Mr Sassy Frenchman out of Smashingly Classic SI 92 by A Classic Dash SI 93, who went to Utah for $35,000, and Buggin The Guys, sired by Streakin Boon Dox out of Guыз One N Only by Frenchmans Guy is staying in South Dakota and also brought $35,000.

The sale reached bidders from 29 states and three countries. Horses sold to buyers in Arizona, Oklahoma, Washington, Utah, South Dakota, Nevada, Texas, Minnesota and Colombia. The buyer list included both new customers and repeat buyers who returned to invest in another horse from the Myers program.

After more than 40 years of breeding, raising and training these horses, we are especially grateful to see longtime customers return and new buyers place their confidence in our program. We sincerely appreciate everyone who followed the sale, asked about the horses and supported our program.

ABI Attachments Named Official Arena Drag of the WPRA

Safe and consistent rodeo ground is in everyone's best interest as it makes for fair competition that is thrilling for fans to watch. As a leader in this effort the Women's Professional Rodeo Association is dedicated to finding the best equipment and experts in the field to elevate the industry. As a result, the WPRA is pleased to announce that ABI Attachments is now the Official Arena Drag of the WPRA.

"Rodeo has come a long way, and so has the ground beneath our athletes," stated Heidi Schmidt, WPRA President. "We know how important quality, consistent ground is to the safety and performance of our horses and competitors, and the improvements we've seen across our sport are something to be proud of. That's why we are so excited to partner with ABI Attachments.

"Their commitment to innovative ground-care solutions aligns perfectly with the WPRA's commitment to continually raising the standard of our sport. From the dirt in the arena to the athletes competing on it, every detail matters. We're proud to welcome ABI Attachments to the WPRA family and excited about what this partnership means for the future of women's professional rodeo."

ABI Attachments, Inc., is a fearless innovator of performance surface machines built for Trailblazers. Founded in 1997 in Mishawaka, Indiana, ABI is the world's largest manufacturer of equine arena drags. With this new partnership the roping arena at the WPRA World Finals in Waco, Texas, in November will be called the ABI Roping Arena and ABI will also be the official drag at the Wrangler WPRA National Breakaway Finals in Fort Worth, Texas in December.

"ABI is ecstatic to partner with a historic organization like the WPRA and help lead the drive for better footing across the country," stated ABI Attachments' Director of Marketing, Christian Montgomery. "Now, more than ever, Barrel Racers and Breakaway Ropers need great footing to perform to the best of their abilities, and we have the world's best arena drags to help make it happen. It's a "no-brainer" partnership. "With ABI's emphasis on innovation, rodeo, and speed events, you are seeing our unprecedented dedication to these performance athletes first-hand. Rodeo participants of all skill levels and fans can expect A Better Way with ABI. The next generation of Rodeo is here, and ABI is all-in to champion these world-class athletes and their sport." In addition, ABI Attachments will be the presenting partner of the Ground Resources page at WPRA.com with exclusive ABI educational material coming soon. This is a great reference page for any rodeo committee or co-approved event.

When rodeos invest in superior ground conditions, everyone wins. Safe ground enables record-breaking barrel racing times and creates a smoother, faster production because every animal can perform at its peak. When we champion safety, we elevate the entire sport of professional rodeo.

Two WPRA members that know what it takes to elevate the sport are current No. 1 and No. 2 ranked barrel racers Carlee Otero and Hayle Gibson Stillwell, respectively. They both proudly endorse ABI Attachments, and all the company has to offer the industry. In 2026, both have broken arena records, thanks to exceptional footing that ensured the safety of their equine athletes.

If you have ever heard the saying "Work Smarter, Not Harder" then look no further than ABI Attachments. Arena footing comes in many different textures, particle sizes, and components. Footing is unique to your region, your disciplines, your water system, and the composition of your arena. In order to get the ride you are looking for, you need grooming equipment that tailors to your specific arena footing. That's why at ABI they intentionally design, engineer, and manufacture their arena drags to be easy to adjust, and craft them to adapt to all types of footing textures and makeups. Whatever footing you're working with, ABI has a drag for you.

Riley Webb sets new tie-down regular season earnings record in Puyallup

Riley Webb arrived in Puyallup, Wash., with his name already beside the PRCA regular-season earnings record in tie-down roping. By the time he left, the three-time defending World Champion raised the bar again.

The three-time PRCA World Champion captured the top spot at the Wild Card Round of the Cinch Playoffs at the Puyallup Rodeo with a 7.3-second run in the four-man finals. Webb earned $13,900 in the short round, pushing his 2026 earnings to $318,209

— besting his previous regular season record of $305,132, from last season.

And he did it aboard his backup horse.

Webb typically relies on Marked Up Cat, better known as Rudy, but the wet conditions in Puyallup prompted him to turn to Patron, a horse he added to his lineup in February.

"I usually ride Rudy, but I got on my backup horse, Patron, and I got him earlier this year in February because of the conditions and made sure I saved Rudy," Webb said. "Patron stepped up when I needed him here at Puyallup in the playoffs. We ran two good calves and were able to execute, and he did his job to let me do mine."

Webb positioned himself for the championship with an impressive weekend. The victory continued a season in which Webb has separated himself atop the PRCA | Bill Fick Ford World Standings. By late August, he already held an advantage of more than $83,000 over the closest competitor and was closing quickly on the earnings record he has now surpassed.

For Webb, having the horsepower to capitalize when the opportunity arrived was just as significant.

"I try to strive to get better every day, every year, try to, you know, get the best horses underneath me and that makes my job easier and take care of them," Webb said. "It's just so cool to have two good horses and a backup I can get on and not have to worry about it and go and win a big, big playoff rodeo like Puyallup."

Cowboy+ Original Series $HAD premieres Thursday, Sept. 24

After double hip surgery sidelines him for half the season, two-time World Champion Shad "Money" Mayfield returns to the arena with one goal: make an improbable run back to the National Finals Rodeo (NFR).

Follow his journey in $HAD, an eight-episode Cowboy+ Original series premiering Thursday, September 24 at 8 p.m. ET. New episodes premiere every Thursday at 8 p.m. ET through the season finale on November 12.

Subscribe to the Cowboy Channel YouTube channel and tune in to stream the premiere live: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5WznBtjzWG8>.

$HAD will also stream live on Cowboy+, with episodes available on demand following their premiere. Subscribe at CowboyPlus.com to watch.

Sikeston Jaycee Bootheel Rodeo puts $3.5 million into arena

The Sikeston (Mo.) Jaycee Bootheel Rodeo is investing $3.5 million to rebuild its bucking chutes, add a permanent entertainment stage and expand its premium seating. The project will be complete for the 75th annual rodeo, which runs Aug. 11-14, 2027, where contestants will compete for more than $200,000.

The new Priefert bucking chutes will include a center return, left- and right-hand delivery, a shotgun chute for bullfights and equipment that speeds up the work behind the chutes. Stock contractor Cervi Championship Rodeo will be able to match each animal athlete to the chute delivery that gets its best performance.

"We knew the scope of this project was going to affect a few areas of our operation, including the bucking chutes, so we took the opportunity to make it the best we possibly could," said John Leible, chairman of the 2027 rodeo. "We have made investments into every other area of the rodeo except the bucking chutes. It was time to get that end of the arena right for the folks competing out there each night."

The work follows a $1.5 million grandstand replacement at the Sikeston arena.

The new stage is a permanent, covered structure incorporated into the grandstand rather than a mobile stage pulled into the arena each night. It gives the committee a venue built to keep bringing in the top musical acts Sikeston patrons have come to expect, and it makes rodeo and concert operations more efficient.

The project also more than doubles the elevated premium seating deck. Those seats give the rodeo more to sell to fans and sponsors, and that revenue is what allows the committee to keep raising the purse. Sikeston has increased its added money every year. The largest jumps came in 2025 and 2026, a 73 percent increase over those two seasons.

Sikeston has drawn crowds of 40,000 across its four performances. For the 75th, those fans will see a new stage, and the contestants who fill the chutes will work behind a rebuilt end of the arena.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

When we leave church on Sunday, we should be trained up to respond to whatever the devil throws our way. We think we can walk in love. We think we can respond in a quiet manner to adversity. We think we will act like Jesus in all situations. We think. But when we are jostled, whatever is inside us will come out. It's a test.

So, as I was leaving the local grocery store a few days ago, there was a woman in front of me that attends our church. She was stopped at a stop sign waiting for traffic to get by. I pulled up behind her. I LAID ON THE HORN...TWICE! I was watching her face in her side mirror. She jumped, smiled and waved!!!! LOL!

She didn't know it was me until we both turned and stopped at the next light! I lowered my window and she saw it was me. I thanked her for not flipping me off!!! She started laughing! We were both laughing! SHE passed the test.

If the tables were turned, I'm not sure the outcome would have been the same! I get spicy! I hope we are ALL full of Jesus this week!
