The Finals Countdown—The Race for the WPRA's Top 15 Ends This Weekend

By Tanya Randall

Wednesday evening the last mad dash for the 2015 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo will start at 4 p.m. slack for the $5,000-added American Royal in Kansas City. Last year the event paid $2,021 to win it with fourth-place taking home more than $1,000 as well.

For those hauling for those final coveted spots in the WPRA's Top 15 those checks might not be enough. For some, it won't be. For others, it may just punch their ticket to Las Vegas.

The final weekend race is split between the Heartland and West Coast. In the Heartland run, the focus will be on the Justin Boots Championships and Wrangler Champions Challenge in Omaha, plus the $5,000-added rodeo in Stephenville, Texas. Those hauling West will enter $1,500-added Kingman, Ariz., $1,050-added Bakersfield, Calif., $3,500-added Poway, Calif., and $4,000-added San Bernardino, Calif.

The Wrangler Champions Challenge on Saturday, September 27 has a purse of $16,000 and will pay $5,440 for first. The top 12 that will be eligible to compete will consist of the Top 7 in the 2013 World Standings, the 2013 Omaha Champion, the 2014 standing's leader, the 2014 Wrangler Million Dollar Tour Standings Leader and the remaining two spots will come from the two performances of the Justin Boots Championships. The fastest run from each performance (Thursday and Friday) will advance. All of those assured a spot in Saturday's Challenge – Sherry Cervi, Mary Walker, Lisa Lockhart, Taylor Jacobs, Michele McLeod, Kaley Bass, Christy Loflin and Christine Laughlin – are all safely qualified for the 2014 NFR.

The Justin Boots Championship is a one-run rodeo with $26,214 added with an entry fee of $266. Entries were open to the Top 24 in the WPRA World Standings. The estimated payoff will be in the $30,000 range with 15 places paid and first will pay approximately $6,000.

Trula Churchill, a two-time NFR qualifier from Valentine, Neb., is a veteran of this minute hoopla. She and her great horse A Streak Of Rita ("Worm") (A Streak Of Fling x Jetta Rita, by Very Sharp (TB)) are currently 13th in the world with $74,385. This year she has a little more breathing room as it will take someone winning $7,600, at the very least, to drop the former teacher to 16th in the standings.

"I'm hoping I don't have to go West, but I will if I have to," said Churchill. "I'm headed to Kansas City, and then Omaha. I'm entered at those in California if I have to go."

Hopefully, she and Worm won't have to make that cross-country trek.

First-time NFR hopeful Samantha Lyne of Cotulla, Texas, is sitting in 14th with $70,464. While Java Buzz pulled the load during the winter, the lion's share of her earnings have been won aboard the talented 6-year-old mare LK Watch Me Rock ("Pistoletta") (Firewater on the rocks x Watch Me Runnin, by Lucks Runnin Bug). It's Pistoletta that will carry her through this final weekend.

"I'm so proud of her," said Lyne of Pistoletta. "This is crazy. I'm just trying to stay calm and just have fun. Kaley Bass and I are leaving my house in Stephenville today (Tuesday) for Kansas City slack at 4 tomorrow. Then, we head to Omaha. I may possibly be running her at Stephenville Sunday."

Fellow Texan Jana Bean, Fort Hancock, Texas, is right on her heels with $70,095, if you round up the pennies. After an incredible winter with NFR veteran Heza Bug Leo ("Bugs") (Shawne Bug Leo x County Line Liz, by Mister Te Jay), the gelding was injured. Monster-strided Dash Ta Freedom and Mr Kaweah Dynamite shared duty until Bugs was well. Unfortunately Freedom went out with an injury after the Calgary Stampede. After Reality Go bled on the Green Mile at Pendleton, Bugs will have to carry the load alone through this final weekend.

"It is what is," said Bean, who currently sits 15th in the World Standings. "I'm just ready for it to play out. I'm trying not to lose faith because I know God's got this."

Like Lyne, Bean is running Wednesday in Kansas and then on to Omaha. If she doesn't make the Champions Challenge then is back to Stephenville.

Former NFR qualifier Shelley Morgan, Eustace, Texas, needs $3,268 to overtake Bean's 15th spot—if Bean doesn't win another dime. There's enough money to be won, but the road has taken its toll on Morgan's sole mount Will Merada ("Radar") (Light N Lena x Meradas Oh Cay, by Freckles Merada).

"I've been sitting at home, turning out and watching my name slip in the standings," said Morgan. She is going to try Kansas City and Omaha but only if Radar is up to it. "I'm just going to put it all out there and see what happens. After all we've been through and done, he's had a really good year. I'm really proud of him."

Multiple NFR qualifier and past NFR Champion Brenda Mays of Terrebonne, Ore., is staying on the West Coast. After the loss of her great horse Judge Buy Cash ("Jethro") in May, Mays quietly jumped within reach of the Top 15 in just 25 rodeos with Jethro's understudy Judge My Fame ("Dora") (Dash Ta Fame x Flashy Cashy Cat, by Judge Cash). Currently, Mays needs $4,064 to gain 15th position.

Based on last year's payouts at Bakersfield, Poway, San Bernardino and Kingman last year, if Mays were to sweep all four rodeos, she'd bank $5,780.

Regardless of the outcome, Mays is content with her unexpected season.

"I'm leaving Thursday night to go to California," said Mays. "(Omaha) is so far away and it's such a longshot. Yeah, there is probably more money...but I'm closer to California. I can get to my nephews football game and be with my son. I'm almost not wanting to go; I'd rather stay home and watch football. I read this Bible passage that says you have to finish what you start, so I figured I needed to go. Either way, I'm happy with the outcome. I couldn't have written what's happened this year. What God wants to happen is going to happen, and I'm happy either way."

Stuntwoman Ann Scott of Canyon Country, Calif., is just $4,500 back of 15th. She and Fallen For Fame ("Buzz") (Dash Ta Fame x Immunity, by Merridoc) will try their luck at Kansas City and Omaha, and then the rest up in the air.

"I'm entered in everything in California and I also entered Llano just in case," she laughed. "I'm leaving my options open. I'm hoping to at least get home for San Bernardino Sunday night. We've won that rodeo a couple of years in a row and he really likes that pen, so I'd really like to be able to get home for that one, but it would be really nice to go to the Champions Challenge too."

UX Flit N Fabulous & Flannery Capture Roper Rally Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Consistency paid well for UX Flit N Fabulous ("Fergie"), owned and ridden by Sam Flannery, Mission, S.D., at the $5,000-added Roper Rally Futurity, held Sept. 18-21 at the Gollither's Arena in Belle Fourche, S.D. The 5-year-old Frenchmans Fabulous daughter out of UX Firewater Lizzie, by Firewater Frost, made two runs within less than 1/10th of a second to collect $3,839.

"They were pretty flawless," Flannery said of Fergie's runs. "It's a pretty small arena, and there's no room for error."

Fergie clocked a 13.996 to place second in the first round and a 14.084 to take second in the second.

"She's pretty polished," added Flannery. "It doesn't take much with her. She's also very arrogant and confident. It's always fun to ride a confident horse."

Flannery got Fergie from her breeders Marlin and Jinx Maude of Hermosa, S.D., in a trade on some training. Incidentally, Flannery also placed fourth in the average with the Maudes' 4-year-old mare Shez Gota Poker Face, a daughter of leading sire A Streak Of Fling out of French Fancy Face, a full sister to SX Frenchmans Vanilla, an all-time leading futurity horse.

Next up for Fergie, who is for sale, is the Gridiron Futurity, followed by The American qualifier in Verndale, Minn., and the Hawki Futurity.

After 10 straight weeks of futurities, Flannery is anxious to get back to riding her 2015 crop before winter sets in hard, but she's been pretty pleased with her five futurity colts this year.

"Fergie's done the most winning, then Bold N Famous," she said, referring to the Dash & Dance Futurity Champion. "Every one of my colts got something done this year. They've all been in the average somewhere. All of them placed really high in a round somewhere. They spread the wealth pretty well. I'm really happy for my owners that they were able to do that."

She was also honored to win the Roper Rally Futurity because of the rich history of the event's producers.

"I really enjoy going to that futurity," she said. "I love that pen even though I only go once a year. It's a beautiful location. It's a good family-run futurity."

The Gollithers are futurity producing pioneers, having started the Dakota West Futurity 35 years ago.

"It was the second oldest 5-year-old futurity in the country," explained Zeann Gollither, who produces the Roper Rally with her parents Jerry and Sue Gollither. "It was held in August, and it was unique in the fact for the first 30 years, it had to be the first event your horse competed in. That kept it even for everyone up here, and it was the start to the futurity season."

With the expansion of 5-year-old futurity, the Dakota West format changed several years ago and is now a sidepot within a 5D.

The Roper Rally started seven years ago. "We try to piggy-back the Fizz Bomb," Gollither explained. "People can come here and stay all week after the Fizz Bomb, and our futurity is on Thursday and Friday. The futurity is just one portion of weekend. We have an open slot race on Friday night, and if people want to stay a few more days we have Open 5Ds on Saturday and Sunday."

The event has also offered WPR Pro Elite Stallion Incentive bonuses since the WPR first acquired the stallion program. This year, Futurity Champion UX Flit N Fabulous also took home the lion's share of the $3,000 PESI bonus.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

How good is your word? Do you say things without really thinking about what you're saying? Do you ever say you'll probably go to something just to get someone off your back? When people tell you about a problem they're facing, do you ever say, "I'll pray for you" and then not do it?

You can't live in God's blessings if you don't keep your word. God blesses those who have integrity and honor. If you're complaining because you think God's Word isn't working in your life, then check to see what you're saying.

We operate in five realms in this life – spiritual, mental, physical, financial and social. That gives us lots of opportunities every day to say things that are contrary to God's Word.

Christians need to pay more attention to what they say if they want to come out of this world's system and get over into a power system that brings God's blessings into all areas of their lives.

People all over the world are harvesting bad things from the bad seed they sowed with the words of their mouths. Jesus said in Matthew 12:36 that men will have to give an account for every idle word spoken.

So don't get caught in a trap of your own words. God will help you if you just ask Him.

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
