Austyn Tobey & TR Lying Badger Master North Dakota Rough Rider Cup

By Tanya Randall

Mother nature did the North Dakota Rough Rider Cup dirty, dumping several inches of rain on the outdoor venue of the last rodeo of the PRCA Playoff Tour with $60,000-added per event. The mud was no match for Austyn Tobey and TR Lying Badger (“Bam Bam”). They were the first gunners through the gates on the wettest night, turning in an 18.06 to win $12,938.

“Everyone kept asking me what my plan was, ‘Are you going to go? Are you going to trot? Are you going to pull up? When I run in the gate, I’m going to take off fast and if I’m trotting by the first barrel, my horse didn’t like it!’” laughed Tobey, the 2024 Great Lakes Circuit Champion. “We were still going fast when we got there, so I knew we were good to go for the rest of the run. That’s what I told people, and they rolled their eyes at me, and I was so serious!”

Growing up rodeoing from Bemidji, Minnesota, and continuing her professional career in the Great Lakes Circuit, Tobey is well versed in extreme outdoor rodeo conditions including snow.

“It’s a blessing in disguise to have grown up in conditions like that,” said Tobey, who currently sits second in her circuit this season. “I had run in stuff like that my whole life.”

She continued, “I honestly thought the ground was safe. I guess they can call me crazy, but I never felt unsafe or scared or that I was going to lose any footing. It was sticky. It was wet. I really did feel like it was really safe. The ground changed a lot, but the runs stayed fairly even.”

The scariest thing for Tobey was actually watching savvy mud runners Lisa Lockhart and Rosas Cantina on Sunday because she knew her lead might be in jeopardy.

“It was nerve wracking to watch Rosa take off in the alley!” she admitted. “I look up to Lisa and Bam probably looks up to Rosa.” The rodeo was open to the Top 32 in the WPRA World Standings and the winners of four Badlands Circuit Rodeos: Mandan’s July rodeo and Dickinson in North Dakota and Deadwood and Rapid City’s August Rodeo in South Dakota.

Tobey, who was within the Top 40 entered on the chance that someone ahead of her wouldn’t or would turn out. On Wednesday, she found out the muddy conditions opened the door for her to replace a turnout.

“I was supposed to be up in Omaha, our last circuit rodeo, on Friday,” said Tobey, who makes her living training and brokering barrel horses. “Then they called me about Mandan. I was like, ‘Yep! I’ll be there!’ I turned out of Omaha because I didn’t want to push the timing from one to another.”

Tobey, who’s boyfriend lives an hour away from Mandan in Minot, knew that the region had been getting rain for some time and that it wasn’t likely to lessen leading up to the rodeo.

“On Wednesday and Thursday, I started getting updates on arena conditions,” she said. “I’ve run Bam Bam in that arena when it’s been really, really dry twice and I think they would have had to pay a 5D for us to win anything. I was actually pretty excited to go there and try it again in some different conditions!”

When Tobey headed to Mandan, her first thought was to run Frisky Ta Fame (Firewater Ta Fame x Streakin Porsche x Streakin Again), her biggest winner on the year.

“When I got there, I walked in the arena, and I watch the other events. I knew Bam was the horse to get on for sure,” she said. “I wasn’t worried about the safety. I just thought she would like it. Most people wouldn’t be like, ‘Oh, my horse is going to love this!’ but I did!”

She also knew that she could trust Bam Bam to make the best decision on how to run in the mud.

“She is all grit,” said Tobey. “If she would have ran in there and felt unsafe she would be trotting because that’s how she is.”

Bred by South Dakota’s Harry Thomas, Bam Bam is by Lions Share Of Fame out of the 1.1 million dollar producer TR Dashing Badger (“Dolly”), the two-time NFR and WPRA reserve world champion by Mr Illuminator. The mare was futuritized by Kelsey Treharne and later ridden some by Ivy Hurst.

Tobey purchased Bam Bam almost two years ago exactly—September 2023—from Dwayne and Danielle Collier after coming to her on consignment.

“I started taking her to the rodeos right away because that’s what I was going to,” Tobey explained. “After like three rodeos, she was winning. I think I won three rodeos on her that fall, so I decided that I best sell her to myself!”

Bam Bam helped Tobey qualify for her past two Great Lakes Circuit Finals. In 2024, the pair even won the Sitting Bull Stampede in Mobridge, South Dakota, on the day Dolly passed at age 24.

In addition to Bam Bam and Frisky, Tobey also has two RC Back In Black offspring in her trailer Design In Red, by Slick By Design, and her recently acquired Justasixpectedblack, by Judge Cash. With her expanding horsepower, Tobey is trying to go outside her circuit more.

“Every year I try to push myself a little bit further,” said Tobey, who grew up under the tutelage of National Finals Rodeo qualifier and International Pro Rodeo Association Champion Jane Melby. “I just take it a little bit slower than everyone else. I’ve always wanted to be financially stable and that’s always required me to be home a little bit and probably not hit the road and be gone for three months. I’ve always kept that in the back of my mind but with the horses I have, the opportunities that are in front of me right now, I’ve decided that I will be going a lot more next year.”

Field Set for Sioux Falls

The North Dakota Rough Rider Cup in Mandan was the last rodeo in the PRCA’s Playoff Tour that counted toward qualification to the Governor’s Cup in Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

Although extreme conditions made it interesting, the Playoff Tour Standings didn’t change. Hailey Kinsel, Carlee Otero, Tricia Aldridge, Tayla Moekyens, Andrea Busby, Wenda Johnson, Julie Plourde and Megan McLeod-Sprague were the top eight in points not automatically qualified going into Mandan and held.

Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and Hayle Gibson Stillwell had the chance to break into the group, but both needed to finish near the Lide poses the biggest threat to the Top 15 as she is in 17th in World Standings. She and Jettin Ta Heaven won more than $9,000 there last year but tipped a costly barrel in the Semifinal Round. She currently a little more than $2500 behind Aldridge, who is 15th in the standings.

The Last Dash

Wenda Johnson, Katelyn Scott and Julie Plourde had tremendous weekends. Johnson put a little more distance between herself and the 15th spot by winning Amarillo, Texas, and Omaha, Nebraska, and placing well at Mandan, North Dakota.

Scott's greatest boon was tying for second at Mandan along with placing at Tyler, Texas, and Omaha. She's now 13th in the WPRA World Standings, but without Sioux Falls, she'll have to hold her position by doing well at the last few remaining rodeos Plourde placed at the most rodeos last weekend: Mandan, Amarillo, Omaha, Tyler and Springhill, Louisiana. She's in 14th and will contest at Sioux Falls with the possibility of backup rodeos.

For those on the bubble, whether they're in Sioux Falls or not, the last available rodeos have all increased their added money from last year. Many will work a combination of Mona, Utah ($7,250 added), the California swing of Poway ($8,000 added), San Bernardino ($14,000 added) and/or Bakersfield ($2,750 added) and the Texas swing of New Braunsfels ($2,000 added), Buffalo ($3,000 added), Las Cruces, New Mexico ($5,500 added) and the very last rodeo of the qualifying year, Stephenville, Texas ($5,000 added).

Fans can follow along on the mad dash through the results tab on prorodeo.com. Results and day sheets for draw positions are updated as the rodeo progresses.

A High Score For Lily Wright at Nampa Xtreme Million, Wins $33,910

By Tanya Randall

Lily Wright, the youngest member of rodeo's famed Wright family of Beaver, Utah, scored the high money honors at the Nampa Xtreme Million, held September 16-21 in Idaho. The 16-year-old homeschooled junior rode two horses to earnings of $33,910.

She won $20,329 aboard FabulousGoldenHoney ("Dandy").

"She is the grittiest, most awesome mare, and I'm the lucky one that gets to ride her," Wright said.

The Wright family purchased Dandy from Tom Close in Ogden, Utah, a little over a year ago in June 2024. The 6-year-old daughter of Frenchmans Fabulous, out of the Tres Seis, Dash Ta Fame mare Sugartacs, had been trained and campaigned by Mckale Seitz.

"She's a little bit of a hot head," Wright said of Dandy. "I was 15 when we went to try her and she was a lot of horse under me. I was a little intimidated. I wasn't scared but I knew she was a handful. There was just something about her that I just wanted. I had to have her."

Their fastest time in Nampa was a 16.789 that won second in the Xtreme Million to Kathy Grimes and KG Just Money for $9,933.

"She just ran her guts out," said Wright, who wanted to thank Seitz for training the mare so well. "She wanted it just as badly as I did. The rest of the days she ran 17.1, 17.0s. She dominated all weekend. It was so fun."

They also swept the derby sidepots for another $3,200.

Wright won $13,581 aboard her futurity horse MJ Hondo Lane. He earned his biggest check $8741 for placing second in the Xtreme Million 2D.

Bred by Mark and Linda Jarvis, Hondo is by their stallion The Goodbye Lane and out of the Streakin Six mare JC Jo Jo. The Jarvises originally sent Hondo to Wright's dad, Cody, a two-time world champion saddle bronc rider, because the gelding was a little broncy.

"He's a little bit of a lazy guy, but he's the most athletic horse you've ever seen," Wright said. "He's like one of those really athletic kids that doesn't want to practice because they know they're just that good."

After spending time as her dad's ranch horse, Wright got to start Hondo on the pattern in June. She had Sherry Cervi help her.

"He's been so nice for me," Wright said of Hondo. "He just takes what I say and runs with it. He tries not to have a bad attitude. He's been so easy. His fastest time on a Standard Pattern has already been a 17.2. I think that's amazing. I'm so happy I get to say I trained him because he's a freak of nature."

She laughed and said he's never bucked her off, but if he did, she wouldn't tell anyone regardless.

"He has a bit of an attitude," she admitted, "but I feel the best ones do."

Coming from a family of world champion rodeo athletes, Wright started competing at a young age with ranch horses she commanded for local jackpots, but it wasn't until she showed her family that she was serious about it, giving up sports and dance to focus on horses, that they started stair-stepping her up in horse power.

"When I first started barrel racing (seriously), I did a little bit of high school rodeo," she explained. "The more that we got going and got the horse power, I felt like the bigger barrel races were a better opportunity to let them shine. I'm trying to showcase my gritty horses as much as I can."

With 13 world titles in her family—in addition to her dad's two, her brother Stetson has eight with five all rounds, two in the bull riding and one in the saddle bronc, brother Ryder has three in the saddle bronc, her brothers Rusty and Statler are multiple NFR qualifiers.

Barrel racing might not be the family's expertise, but they have connections.

"Sherry Cervi has helped me so much," Wright said. "I'll forever be grateful for her. The Steiners—Jaime (an NFR qualifier in the barrel racing) and Steely (who is having a great futurity season with her horse Get Tha Goody), they've helped me tremendously. I've had some help from Hailey Kinsel. I couldn't ask for better mentors in my life because my family is so involved in rodeo that I have the opportunity to be in contact with those people and get help from them."

Wright couldn't leave out a thank you for the support of her family—"My mom and dad, and all of them, they help me so much.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Over the years, I have had the same dream over and over. Announcers are calling my name at a barrel race and I don't have the boots on my horse and I'm not warmed up!!! Sheesh! At least I'm not naked and they are calling my name! That would bring a dream into a nightmare! LOL!

Seriously though. Being prepared is vital for all we do. But nothing more important than being ready for Jesus' coming! We don't want that lukewarm stuff in our lives. Rev. 3:16 warns us about that. And Hebrews 9:28 tells us that Jesus will appear a second time for those who 'eagerly wait for Him'. Are we looking for Him?

The closer to His appearing we get, the more we need to lean into Him. We need to seek Him with all our heart. We don't want to run up against a trial and start frantically trying to find our Bible. Daily. Spend time with Him daily. Be ready and watching for Him!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
