Ivy Hurst & Top Of The Roc Roll At Texarkana

By Tanya Randall

No rest for the weary.

After a long summer on the rodeo road out West, Ivy Hurst of Springer, Oklahoma, hasn't been able to enjoy being home much. She's still pushing hard to finish out the 2019 season and get a jump start on 2020.

She got a huge boost toward both seasons with a $2,327 championship at the 75th Annual Four States Fair & Rodeo, held September 19-21 in Texarkana, Arkansas.

"My horse runs great inside, but I wasn't sure how he'd run inside after being outside all summer," she said of her 12-year-old gelding Top Of The Roc ("Diddy"). "I just wasn't jumping up and down to go to all these little buildings after I got back, but that seems to be what I'm doing. He was great! I don't know what I was worried about!"

Hurst also wanted to commend the Four States rodeo committee for the great ground in Texarkana.

"It's such a great arena and the ground is so good," she said. "It's so fun to go as fast as you want to go and know it's going to hold. After a long summer of not knowing what you were really on, it was really fun just to let him rip."

It didn't hurt that the Jud Little-bred gelding, by Sticks An Stones out of the Cash Not Credit mare Top Bug Cash, had run in the arena often with his previous owner Jackie Brand.

"He just kind of felt like he was home," said Hurst. "He felt like he gave me way more than I thought he was that night. I knew he was a player and I knew he could place, but I mean he was all there. It was pretty fun."

Hurst also ran at Amarillo, Texas, and Springhill, Louisiana, both of which were co-approved with the Prairie Circuit—her home designation. The deep ground didn't work for her and Diddy at Amarillo and she chose to run Burn Notice at Springhill in the mud.

"He did really good," she said of the young gelding. "He smoked the first and smoked the second, but there was a mud puddle at the third that he wasn't sure about. I thought I was going to get me a big check until he got to the third and went 'What is that?'"

Hurst currently sits 27th in the WPRA World Standings with $51,476. She's been trying to stay within the Top 30 to be eligible to get into the limited winter rodeos—mainly Rodeo Houston.

"I've worked my butt off all year because my main goal is to get this horse to run at Houston because he is so turny," she said. "Generally, the top 30 is the rule of thumb and I've kind of been hovering right there, anywhere between 26 and 30."

She said it's been a dogfight to stay within that group.

THE RUNDOWN w/Ivy Hurst

Top Of The Roc, "Diddy" 15 hands, 1,100 lbs.

"He's a big horse. He's a stout dude. All the steer wrestlers look at him when I lead him by."

BIT: Depends on the set up. "I switched him to a Molly Powell Rate & Turn. It has kind of a correction mouthpiece. It keeps him a little more stood up. It's the end of the year, he's a little stronger. It allows me to have a little more when I need it. He's been in it for most of the small runs."

SADDLE: Coats

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine ESP Contour Wool Top

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on all four

SHOEING: "He's shod in regular shoes. I like rims on all my horses, but with him, he is so sure-footed and does so well. He wears an aluminum shoe on front and plain steel shoe on the back. I don't want anymore traction on this horse because he's already stopping in his turns."

FEED: Bluebonnet Equilene

HAY: Mostly alfalfa. If I can get it on the road, orchard grass, mix.

SUPPLEMENTS: Simply Equine Herbs, OE Nutraceuticals Solution daily when on the road, Ultimate Oil. Runs on OE Nitro if he's tired. OE Revive paste for electrolytes.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Simply Equine Cooling Gel post run, Back On Track and Magic Cushion. "I don't own a lot of therapy products so it's whatever, whoever I can find on the road. I don't think there is anything better than a bunch of shavings and lots of rest. I use my PHT blanket a lot."

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: "At home it's a little different than it is out here. I don't work him on the barrels at home ever unless we have an issue. Out here, these setups are so different, I like to get him out to see the arenas. I had an 'ah-ha' moment with him this spring. He ran mediocre the first round at Red Bluff and then won the second. Back at Guymon, he ran mediocre the first round and won the second round. I used to have this theory keep him out of the arena and don't let him see the barrels because he does want to get so close and get so short. I started realizing he gets better. I don't ever run him in practice, but I'll let him cruise to a barrel and feel the ground. He's really smart to tune on. Whatever I do last is what he does next. I have to be very careful how I finish my sessions."

SPONSORS: OE Nutraceuticals, Simply Equine, Mia Meyers-CPA, Whispers Beaded Tack, Classic Equine, Andrew O'Guin Horseshoeing.

WCRA Reveals One Million Dollar Triple Crown of Rodeo Bonus

The World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) today announced the most athlete-friendly incentive in the history of rodeo: the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo (TCR). The TCR is an annual bonus that will pay $1,000,000 to any one athlete or collection of athletes whom win first place in any three consecutive WCRA $1,000,000 Major Rodeos. Two of the $1,000,000 WCRA Major Rodeos next year will be coupled with a Professional Bull Riders (PBR) elite series event in a major U.S. market while three TCR events in 2020 will be broadcast on CBS Sports.

"We endeavor to lift the entire sport of Rodeo," said WCRA CEO Gary McKinney. "The WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo is another tremendous advancement for all stakeholders; the athletes, the rodeos and the fans. Historically, outside of the road to the finals there has been no platform or continuity to align major rodeos – the TCR provides that vehicle."

The current 2020 schedule includes three major rodeos where athletes can qualify for the TCR $1,000,000 bonus, beginning in Kansas City, Missouri for the Royal City Roundup on February 28. The Kansas City event will be followed by the May 17 Stampede at The E in Guthrie, Oklahoma. The 2020 series is scheduled to wrap-up in Tacoma, Washington on August 28 with the Puget Sound Showdown. The Kansas City and Tacoma events will be paired with the 2020 PBR (Professional Bull Riders) Unleash The Beast tour with all WCRA majors airing on CBS Sports. (The full CBS broadcast will be set and released at a later date and is subject to change.)

"The three rodeos CBS Sports brought to fans this past summer from Green Bay, Salt Lake City and Calgary, reached more than 3.1 million unique viewers, proving a strong market for major rodeos in mainstream media," said Sean Gleason, CEO, PBR. "The WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo is an exciting addition that will bring more drama, news value and fan buzz to major high-payout rodeos."

The TCR bonus will be available to all athletes who nominate their current rodeo efforts through the WCRA Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ) and are crowned champions at three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos.

This revolutionary annual incentive is not limited to just the WCRA 2020 season, rather, it allows athletes to rack up wins on a rolling calendar basis. This means athletes' three consecutive wins can cross calendar years, however, the $1,000,000 bonus will only be paid one time annually. If two or more athletes achieve this milestone at the same time, the bonus will be split.

"Our 2020 WCRA Major Rodeo Event Series is already scheduled to pay over $5.1 million," said WCRA President Bobby Mote. "The TCR is the platform that links this ongoing series of events together from a media and public relations standpoint – with athletes in pursuit of the $1,000,000 bonus at every event. This is a big damn deal."

Athletes from around the globe have the opportunity to compete in the WCRA Major Events Series and compete for the TCR after qualifying through the VRQ. Qualifying for the Royal City Roundup is currently underway and athletes can continue nominating until December 1. All rodeo athletes interested in learning more about the VRQ should be directed to wcrarodeo.com while those inquiring more about the TCR may visit triplecrownofrodeo.com.

Fans will be able to witness the first Triple Crown of Rodeo stop at the Royal City Roundup at the Sprint Center in Kansas City, Missouri February 28. Tickets for the one-day $1,000,000 major rodeo go on sale Monday, Nov. 4 at 10 a.m. CT and start at $10. All tickets for the event can be purchased at the Sprint Center Box Office or by visiting sprintcenter.com.

Since launching in May of 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $5,600,000 in new money to rodeo athletes. All rodeo athletes interested in learning more about the WCRA or the VRQ should be directed to wcrarodeo.com.

PRCA announces partnership with COWBOY CAMO

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association announced today its national partnership with COWBOY CAMO.

The partnership launches COWBOY CAMO's efforts to be the performance camo for the champions and fans of rodeo.

By stepping up as the Official Camo of the PRCA, COWBOY CAMO enters rodeo with a commitment to the sport. COWBOY CAMO is a division of Lynch since 1940, a game call and camo company with 80 years of experience in the outdoor world.

"We believe in the western lifestyle and our brand is committed to the cowboys that exhibit the hard work and determination to success in the arena," said Charlie Ward, COWBOY CAMO Managing Partner. "We are excited to give fans of ProRodeo a pattern that showcases the qualities of their lifestyles. As a proud sponsor of the PRCA, we look forward to celebrating the sport of rodeo throughout the year and growing with the fanbase."

As the number one sanctioning body of professional rodeo, the PRCA is continually searching for ways to develop lasting relationships that benefit the sport. The COWBOY CAMO partnership will provide substantial support to the PRCA, and its rodeo committees and contestants. In addition to significant annual committed sponsorship support, this multi-year agreement also provides the PRCA co-branded licensing opportunities and retail programming.

"This multi-year agreement brings us great excitement and new opportunities with COWBOY CAMO," PRCA CEO George Taylor said. "CAMO's commitment to rodeo and to the PRCA is further proof of the great partnerships the PRCA is dedicated to securing in order to benefit its members, committees and cowboys."

Contestants and fans will see COWBOY CAMO's national partnership for the first time in Puyallup, Wash., at the ProRodeo Tour Finale Rodeo (Sept. 5-8). More details regarding COWBOY CAMO's involvement at individual rodeos and the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo will be announced in the coming months.

"I got pushed down to 30," she recalled. "I had won $7,000 that weekend and the standings came out and I was still 30th. I talked to Jana Bean about it. I said, 'I feel like I'm fighting for the NFR and I'm not really fighting for the NFR!' There's about six of us between 25 and 32 that are all trying to vie for that spot to get into Houston and San Antonio. Nobody is quitting. Everybody is winning. Had I not won that check at Texarkana, there was a chance they would have blown on by me! So, I have to go to this stuff to hold onto my spot because I've worked too hard to have it taken away. I really, really want to run him at Houston, so we'll see."

She's also getting a jump start on the 2020 season, which is hard for those unfamiliar with the circuit system to understand. The circuit season is different from the regular season. Rather than the cutoff being at the end of September like the regular season, a circuit's individual season ends a month before their scheduled circuit finals.

For Hurst, the 2019 Prairie Circuit ended while she was in the Northwest at Puyallup, Washington. So, all of the rodeos held since then approved by the circuit count toward qualifying for the 2020 Prairie Circuit Finals, which will count as part of NFR qualification in 2021.

"Texarkana, Amarillo, Omaha, Springhill, Apache—all of these count as 2020 circuit rodeos for me," Hurst explained. "As much as I'm road foundered and want to sit on the couch, I've got five circuit rodeos. That's why I'm staying so hooked and trying to get to all of these. I'm kind of double-dipping. I'm 2020 rodeoing and 2019 rodeoing at the same time. People can't wrap their heads

Jill Wilson & Lean Mean Blue Dean Top Amarillo

By Tanya Randall

Jill Wilson of Snyder, Texas, and Lean Mean Blue Dean fought their way through the deep footing to capture a $2,327 championship at the Tri-State Fair & Rodeo, held September 19-21 in Amarillo, Texas.

"Luckily I drew second on the ground in my drag," said Wilson, who was out in slack. "I think that was a big factor. The girls toward the bottom half probably didn't have a decent shot."

Fellow barrel racer Ivy Hurst, who won the Four States Fair & Rodeo in Texarkana, Arkansas, the same weekend, was also out in slack and watched Wilson and Blue Dean's winning 17.59.

"That was a run ... holy crap!" exclaimed Hurst. "...He ran so fast to Blue Dean, who was started by Randy and Lisa Ogden, Wilson's uncle and aunt, has never really had problems with ground.

"Ground usually does not matter to him," Wilson said. "He's pretty scrappy like that. I think that's where he gets a little of his edge away from jackpots. He will usually stand up for me no matter what."

Wilson started riding the gelded son of Dean Miracle out of Rusty Patterson's Runaway Winner mare Luv Her Winner, when he was 5.

"We jackpotted for a little while and then we started playing around at the amateur rodeos when he was probably 6, going on 7," she explained. "He just took right to it. He's actually a better rodeo horse than he is a jackpot horse. He forgets that we still have go fast when it's not exciting."

A multiple Texas Circuit Finals qualifier, Wilson set out to make the Top 38 in the WPRA World Standings in 2019, so she'd be eligible to enter San Antonio.

"I rodeoed pretty hard in the spring to make all the ones I could that were weekend drivable distance for me," she said. "I had a really good rodeo at Austin and that bumped me pretty good. Things kind of played out so that I did go up north for July. Then I realized that (Rodeo) Houston was reachable, so we're just trying to hold our spot for that right now."

She currently sits 25th in the WPRA World Standings with $52,655.

Wilson has a hectic schedule to plan around. She works fulltime in accounting for Solvay, an oilfield chemical company.

"They were really good to me this summer," she noted. "Thank goodness for technology. I was able to work remotely from my horse trailer."

She and husband Lance also have a blended family of five boys. All but two have graduated high school. The two high school juniors remaining are involved in everything.

"We're busy," she chuckled. "We play football, basketball, track, we high school rodeo. We do it all. Mom has to throw what I can in when they let me. It can be tricky sometimes to get that all in."

Living in the northern part of West Texas also means her drives to circuit rodeos are often long. "I'm a long way from everywhere," she laughed. "I can't be up on a Wednesday slack and a Saturday because I'm not going to drive that far twice. I try to enter for the weekends because I do work fulltime. I just have to see how I draw up and see what I can make work. With football season, I don't want to miss any Friday night games." She's got Stephenville and New Braunsfels, Texas, and Apache, Oklahoma, to finish up her year.

THE RUNDOWN w/Jill Wilson

Lean mean Blue Dean "Blue Dean" "He's not a big horse at all."

BIT: Tender Touch. I do have a little bit bigger bit that I use for an outdoor run or when the barrels are away from the fences. Normally I keep him in the Tender Touch. He doesn't require a lot.

HEADGEAR: Rope nose tiedown

SADDLE: Coats

SADDLE PAD: Best Ever

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Legacy 2 on all four

FEED: Purina Ultium Gastric Care

HAY: Alfalfa and coastal

SHOEING: Husband Lance shoes him. Steel rims.

SUPPLEMENTS: HorseLogic Muscle Builder

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Regular MagnaWave treatments, head to hoof PHT products

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: "We just do a lot of long trotting. We have a wheat field down from the house and I mostly ride him in that. I don't ride him in the arena much at all. He doesn't see the barrels much at home either unless we're having a problem."

FUN FACT: Blue Dean hasn't always been a lefty. "I switched him two years ago right before the circuit finals, which is crazy," she said. "We kept hitting the second barrel. If we could get around it, we were good and in the money. It was just a fight. We had fought over it for a good two years. I think I picked up a bad habit and he did too. We were just constantly having to work on that. At the UPRF Finals, I said, 'What in the world can I do? I'm sick of this!' My friend Jane Fambro said, 'Have you ever thought about taking him to the left?' I said, 'You're crazy! I'd never do that!' I went home and thought about it and then I called her and said, 'I'm going to do it!' I didn't work him two days and he picked it right up. Two weeks later we went to the circuit finals. We won the last round and placed in a round. He did outstanding! He took right to going to the left and he's been doing really well."

New World Record on Standard Patten Set in Brazil

by Shannon Kerr

In the first race of the series of the 3rd Annual SGP CUP held in Maringa, Parana in Brazil. Sidnei Pereira da Silva Junior – better known as just Sidnei Jr - Brazils number one trainer in money earnings, set yet another record – the fastest time to date on a standard pattern – an incredible 16.374.

He set the record during the GP ABQM which is a class open to any horse and rider of any age or division. It is a judged class much like the shows of the AQHA, he was required to weigh at least 165 lbs including tack and the arena was measured and marked by an official judge of the ABQM.

His equine partner to set the record that Sidnei had been trying for so long to obtain, was a 5 year old gelding named GAME BOY EK owned & bred by Eduardo Kucinski. GAME BOY EK is no stranger to winning and setting arena records. According to SGP Sistema he has already amassed R$102.298 Brazilian Reals in earnings in less than two years of competition and has ran sub 17 seconds on a standard pattern an incredible 29 times.

PRCA and The Cowboy Channel Agree to Landmark TV Deal

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) and Rural Media Group (RMG) announced a multi-year agreement which will see the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo (NFR) move to The Cowboy Channel (TCC) and RFD-TV beginning in 2020. The ultimate annual rodeo event will now be seen by millions of people live simultaneously on two national TV networks. Also included in the deal is a wide variety of other PRCA programming, including expanded live coverage of the PRORODEO TOUR and the PRCA's Xtreme Bulls Tour events which will result in a huge increase in the amount, availability and quality of PRCA PRORODEO coverage on The Cowboy Channel, including:

All 10 nights of the NFR live, and a new East Coast Prime Time encore airing the next day. Live coverage of at least 18 PRORODEO TOUR final performances each year plus a taped highlight show for encore airings on both The Cowboy Channel and RFD-TV

TV coverage of 10 episodes of PRCA's Xtreme Bulls, including the Xtreme Bulls Tour Finale with encore airings on both TCC and RFD-TV.

- Extended pre- and post-coverage of the NFR each night (RODEO LAS VEGAS)
- A new weekly pro rodeo studio show, PRORODEO Tonight
- Heightened event production across all events, including the use of Sky Cam
- Enhanced fan experiences through programming that highlights the uniqueness of local rodeo communities, their organizing committees, and the charities they support, plus special access to the PRCA athletes and other PRCA members whose contributions are key to the sport of PRORODEO

New national coverage of PRCA PRORODEO on one of the major broadcast networks will be announced at a later date

"This is a huge milestone in the growth of the PRCA," PRCA CEO George Taylor said. "Never before has PRORODEO assumed the prime placement and coverage that will be seen under this deal. Our hats are off to Patrick Gottsch and his family, the owners of Rural Media Group, for their enthusiastic interest, support and devotion to our sport."

"We are so proud and excited to partner with the PRCA, the rodeo committees, and of course all the PRCA cowboys & cowgirls to aggressively produce and distribute original programming that will support rodeo 365 days-a-year, on networks that are totally dedicated to serving and expanding the western sports community," stated Patrick Gottsch, Founder & President of Rural Media Group, Inc. "There is a Golf Channel, the NFL Network, a baseball network, a tennis channel, and so on. Now rodeo has its own channel(s). RMG plans to do everything for rodeo and the PRCA that these other media partnerships have done for their sports."

The deal will begin early in 2020 and will be preceded by the launch of the weekly PRORODEO Tonight show on The Cowboy Channel. The PRCA regular-season coverage on The Cowboy Channel and RFD-TV is planned to begin in January. The finals of each televised PRORODEO TOUR event will be shown live on The Cowboy Channel and will be seen in taped highlight form later in the week in prime time and weekend afternoons on RFD-TV. Regular-season coverage also will include 10 episodes of the PRCA's Xtreme Bulls series, each with multiple runs across dayparts. The coverage will be a co-production of PRCA and RMG.

NFR programming for 2020 will start with a 24-hour marathon of prior NFR finals, leading up to a red-carpet pre-event show, and the live NFR simulcast on both RFD-TV and The Cowboy Channel for 10 straight nights. Each episode of NFR coverage will conclude with a one-hour post-event show. Replays of each episode of the NFR will take place the next day on both networks, including in East Coast and West Coast Prime Time.

"Our new state-of-the-art studio in the Fort Worth Stockyards will serve as the base for producing the daily PRCA programming, leading up to and culminating each year with the National Finals Rodeo," added The Cowboy Channel CEO Raquel Gottsch. "The massive volume of programming expected to be generated from this 6-year agreement will serve to populate both The Cowboy Channel and RFD-TV with original, unduplicated 'live' sports-related content which is very much desired by all cable, satellite, and distribution companies. We expect our distribution to grow substantially as a result."

The networks are seen in a combined 94 million US TV homes. One or both are distributed by DISH, DIRECTV, Comcast, Spectrum, Cox, Sling, Verizon, AT&T, Mediacom, Suddenlink, AT&T Now and Roku.

"We expect a significant increase in the viewing of PRCA programming as a result of this groundbreaking new deal," Taylor said. "This is one of the most exciting moments during my time leading the PRCA." Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

Headin' For Home

1 Cor. 10:13 tells us, "No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make a way of escape, that you may be able to bear it."

Way of escape. I've gotten myself into some pickles in my life. And boy did I pray. And guess what? God delivered me! And He will deliver anyone who asks Him. Right there in Corinthians it tells us He will. God. Can. Be. Trusted. That gives me so much peace.

I'm thinking that it may be true of cats, too. We had the great cat catching event at our house yesterday. Our friend needed some cats for the mice problem on his ranch, and we have lots of wild cats! Armed with gunny sacks, gloves, a fish net and three grandkids we marched up to capture them!

We tried the sneaky approach...that only worked for one cat!

Then the race was on! One made a dash for the tack room with an adult hot on its' heels! The door was almost slammed shut! The cat went low! Got blocked by a foot! It ran back in and all around the room! I ran smooth into the back of our friend and the cat shot over our heads and out to freedom! 6 humans outmatched...

God must have provided him a way of escape! LOL! Have a blessed week!
