Final Countdown for the WPRA Top 15

By Tanya Randall

One week. One tumultuous week is all that is left in the 2012 WPRA rodeo season. For a handful of barrel racers, it will be a nail-biter until the very end.

Just 11 rodeos remain to determine the Top 15 headed to the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas.

Kansas City, Mo., presents the richest opportunity with $7,500-added. The one-run rodeo is allowing the bubble chasers to make their run in slack so they can head out to other rodeos.

Most will head west to meet their fate in California. San Bernardino is the richest opportunity with $4,000 added. Last year it paid a little over $1,600 for first. Poway should be must more profitable this year. As one of the WPRA's qualifying rodeos for the 2013 Calgary Stampede, it should draw more entries and pay out more than the $1,260 it did in 2011. Bakersfield with $1,000 added and Kingman, Ariz., with $1,500 added paid out more than $800 to win each last year.

A little off the beaten path are rodeos in New Braunfels ($1,500 added) and Stephenville, Texas ($1,500), Tomah, Wis., ($1,000), McCord, Saskatchewan ($1,100), Anadarko, Okla., ($2,500) and Woodstown, N.J. ($700).

Christy Loftin, Franktown, Colo., currently holds the coveted 15th spot with $53,693. She won $3,046 over the weekend to maintain her lead over Fallon Taylor. Loftin has one bullet in her gun—Sheza Blazin Move, an 8-year-old daughter of leading sire Blazin Jetolena, who also got to strut his stuff at the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo with Melanie Southard. After winning Pendleton, Ore., Loftin made the trek to Albuquerque, Amarillo and Texarkana, and picked up checks at all three. She will run at Kansas City on Tuesday, drop down to New Braunfels before Mary Walker's driver "Buckwheat" is taking her to the West Coast for Poway, Bakersfield and Kingman.

Taylor isn't giving up the fight yet either. She putting all her hopes on Flos Heiress ("Baby Flo"), who has done all of the heavy lifting this year. Without the opportunity to compete in the limited-entry winter rodeos, the former NFR qualifier took her 6-year-old, home-bred superstar to the big, outdoor pens, where she flourished.

"It's pretty incredible," said Taylor of the 6-year-old daughter of WPRA World Champion sire Dr Nick Bar out of Taylor's main NFR mount Flowers And Money, by long-time leading barrel horse sire On The Money Red. "She was just getting broke last February (2011)."

Taylor will run at Kansas City and make the 25-hour drive to California for Poway, San Bernardino, Bakersfield and Kingman, Ariz. — big outdoor runs that have been her bread-and-butter all year.

"We're going to keep trucking after this for 2013," said Taylor. "Even if we miss out this year, we're ready to go next year. This year has been great year. This mare is so sentimental to me. I didn't write a check for her. She grew up right behind my house."

Neither Loftin or Taylor can stub their toes because Sammi Bessert and Robyn Herring are right there on their heels. Loftin has 15th-spot by $777.53 over Taylor, who in turn is ahead of Bessert by $955.41 ($1,732.94 out of 15th). Herring is $1,043.78 behind Bessert and $2,776.72 out of 15th.

Taylor summed up the weekend best—"I'm going to be chewing my nails down to my knuckles and crossing all my fingers and my toes!"

Spicy Run for Simpson and Pepper at NM State Fair

By Tanya Randall

Sometimes all it takes to make a dish especially tasty is a little seasoning. The same can be said for a barrel horse.

At 14 years of age, Pepper has just the right amount of seasoning to turn into a solid breadwinner for Eager, Ariz., barrel racer Marisa Simpson.

"I've been running him for seven or eight years now," said Simpson, who topped the $11,000-added New Mexico State Fair, held Sept. 18-23 in the Tingley Coliseum in Albuquerque. "He's always been good, but this year is the most consistent he's been the whole time. He's always run with them, but he's placing at about all of them this year."

Justin Boots Championships - River City Rodeo

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) has signed a letter of intent with Ak-Sar-Ben's River City Rodeo & Stock Show (ARCR) that aims to keep the Justin Boots Championships presented by Wrangler in Omaha for at least the next three years.

The 2012 Justin Boots Championships is scheduled for September 27-29, 2012.

"The Justin Boots Championships is recognized as one of the top five premier rodeos in the PRCA," said PRCA Commissioner Karl Stressman. "A trifecta of credentials establishes this rodeo as one of the sport's best - the contestants must be the top twelve in the world in each event, prize money per performance tops other rodeos outside of the Wrangler National Finals (WNFR), and the level of stock set it apart."

"ARCR and the City of Omaha are honored to host this Championship event for the PRCA. The committee and fans have proven their dedication and support of this event and we look forward to continuing to provide them with the best rodeo experience," said Paul Jessen, Chairman of Ak-Sar-Ben's River City Rodeo & Stock Show. "Annually, the ARCR has a $20 million dollar-plus economic impact on the City of Omaha and the Justin Boots Championships provides national television exposure for Omaha."

The Justin Boots Championships serves as the finale of the rodeo regular-season. In 2011 alone, 84 of the 96 contestants that competed in Omaha qualified for the NFR. In addition, this year the Justin Boots Championships provided a ticket to Las Vegas for three contestants who otherwise would not have earned a trip to the Finals.

Steer wrestler Blake Knowles of Heppner, Ore., used the Championships as his stepping stone to the NFR in 2009 and again in 2011. He otherwise would not have qualified. "This is, as a competitor, what you love to do - show up at a place with a great venue, with twelve of the best guys in the world, and see yourself succeed."

Ak-Sar-Ben's River City Rodeo & Stock Show is an annual celebration of the region's heritage that benefits and educates families and youth. For more information, visit www.rivercityrodeo.com or Ak-Sar-Ben's River City Rodeo and Stock Show page on Facebook and River City Rodeo on Twitter.

Simpson, the mother of two toddler girls, was “pretty excited” with her $4,946 victory.

“I’ve entered there a number of years,” she said. “I’d either be a little out of it or not even close!”

They clocked a 15.65 on the shortened course—it used to be a 17-second run—to outpace soon-to-be two-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Carlee Pierce and her great horse Rare Dillon.

Simpson described her run as “smooth.”

“He’s been fighting me going in for years,” she related. “Every rodeo this year, he’s gotten better about going in by himself. He just walked in there and made a really smooth run. He hit all his spots and ran home really hard.”

She and Pepper took the lead after running in Thursday night’s performance. But, much to her dismay, she had three, not two, remaining performances in which to wait.

“That was hard,” she said. “I thought there was just Friday and Saturday left. When I got home I looked it up and thought, ‘Oh crap, there’s another perf Sunday at 2.’”

With the 2012 Turquoise Circuit Finals cutoff having past, Albuquerque will count for the 2013 circuit standings.

“What’s really cool is it sets me up for next year,” said Simpson, who has qualified for four Turquoise Circuit Finals with Pepper. “I’d like to haul for a circuit title and see how it goes if I can get into the bigger winter rodeos. I have to take advantage of how he’s running while I can.”

Simpson bought Pepper along with his dam when he was just a yearling. They had been abandoned at a ranch by someone who didn’t pay their bill, so the ranch owner sold them to Simpson for a mere $300.

The only clues that Simpson was given as to his parentage was that he was by Ikes Last, a Driftwood Ike-bred stallion, and out of a “Moon-something” mare.

“He’s won me quite a bit over the years,” she said. “I’m very thankful. Praise the Lord, for letting me have him.”

Schimke Takes Complicated Victory at Roper Rally

By Julie Mankin

Amy Schimke of Wessington Springs, S.D., contracted a couple of penalties and a fierce head cold at the Fizz Bomb Classic last week, but redeemed herself over the weekend at the Fourth Annual Roper Rally Futurity in Belle Fourche, S.D., aboard an Oklahoma-raised filly.

Zeann Gollither guaranteed $5,000 added to the 5-and-under futurity, and offered a $3,000-added WPRP PESI Bonus payoff for the event held at her home arena. Roughly 50 horses were entered in the futurity, including recent northern money-winners Whats A Guy To Do, Cloudy Illumination, and French Streaktovegas. But it was "Girlfriend," as she's called by Amy Schimke, who took the top prize.

The pair finished fourth in the first round and won the second to squeeze into first in the average by just two-hundredths of a second over the ever-hot Whats A Guy To Do (Hallie Melvin has ridden this colt to more than $10,715 in the past three weeks). In Belle Fourche, Girlfriend earned $3,324 on the weekend.

"At Gollither's, it's a short run to first and you can see the barrel from the alley," said Schimke. "I had hit barrels at Gillette, but here, the first barrel was right where she thinks it's supposed to be, and since our indoor arena is the same size, she might have thought she was making a practice run."

Girlfriend also claimed the first-place WPRP PESI bonus money, which paid owner Julie Crews of Keyes, Okla., $594. Emergency-room doctor Alexia Mehrle of Rising Star, Texas, had bred the filly to earn $99, and the owner of the late Dash Ta Fame made $297. The 4-year-old filly's real name is Its Complicated, and she's by Dash Ta Fame and out of Mehrle's Shawne Bug mare Letta Bug Flit.

"Alexia raises a lot of nice horses," said Schimke. "She's a doctor, so she doesn't have a lot of time, either."

Schimke's friend, Crews, had seen the filly advertised online and decided to buy her – then send her to Schimke.

"I've ridden several Dash Ta Fames, but this is the first one crossed on Shawne Bug, and the most sane one that I've ridden," said Schimke, who's drawn a check at every futurity thus far on Girlfriend and will run the horse at the Grid Iron, Hawki, WPRP World Finals and Oklahoma City.

"She had an amazing handle already on her, being broke by Liana DeWeese of Claremore, Okla.," said Schimke. "I started her on the barrels in January and didn't plan to run her until next year. Plus, she was born in June, so she's two to four months behind all these other 4-year-olds. But it just fell together this fall when her exhibition times were right with the open and rodeo horses." Schimke has an embryo from Girlfriend that she'll match with her Frenchman's Guy stallion, Frostman San Peppy, on whom she made the Badlands Circuit Finals twice.

She and her husband, Brett Borkowski, operate her family's fifth-generation ranch in Wessington Springs where they run 300 head of cattle and up to 15 broodmares (www.schimkeranch.com). Because Brett also rides and trains competitive mounted shooting horses, the couple built an indoor training barn in 2010, which has been a dream come true, she said.

Sam Flannery placed third and fourth at the Roper Rally Futurity on John and Michele Whitt's horse Streakinirishwhiskey and Eddie and Judy Shaul's horse Flaming Star Tari to earn $2,312. She also earned $2,049 in the Open 5D for a pretty good weekend.

The other big earner in the Open was teenager Cassidy Kruse, who placed deep on Saturday and Sunday on her horses Dash To Tim and JKR Assured Win to take home $1,776. It was Flannery's derby horse, Doc's Streakin Oak, that claimed the top WPRA PESI incentive money in the Open on Saturday, and on Sunday the bonus went to Hillary Van Gerpen's horse Great Guns On Dakota.

And in Friday night's Rodeo Rigs Turn Around 3D Slot Race, which fielded roughly 50 horses, first place went to Debbie Bloxom of Andres, Texas. She clocked the fastest time of the weekend aboard the 8-year-old Streakin Six/Otoe-bred mare Bad Jammin Girl, to earn $1,695.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I have a few chickens (4) and 1 rooster. The rooster crows in the morning and makes me smile and the chickens cluck around and lay an egg or two that my grandkids love to go gather. They give me peace...

My brother-in-law, Lennie, moved in next door and works long hours moving oil rigs, so he is gone by 4 a.m. Well, it's dark then. And he didn't notice that one of the chickens had roosted in his pickup and one morning he took off with her to the truck yard! It's a ways there. Later that day he noticed a chicken running about in all the chaos of those trucks and thought "that looks like one of Sherry's chickens!" Thus began the great chicken round up. They couldn't catch her in the day and after two night attempts at catching her roosting somewhere on an oil rig, she remained at large. But last night one of the rig crew captured her and my chicken came home....none the worse for her experience!

You know, a chicken is not as valuable as a person. But look at how hard several adults worked at getting that chicken back home.

Do you think that if you have a friend or family member that's running around like a chicken with their head cut off, that one or two of us Christians could go the extra mile to bring them back safely? God did that for you and me. He sent Jesus to pay the price for our sin. He gave the Holy Spirit to help us on a daily basis with anything we need. We could at least share with them how good He is. We aren't afraid to share with them the new diet we are on... whether they want to hear about it or not..... why not share Jesus? Are we chicken???!!!
