Jimmie Smith's Lena On The Rocks Continues to Roll, Wins Texarkana Pro Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Jimmie Smith of McDade, Texas, and Lena On The Rocks continued on their hot streak with a $2,649 victory at the Four States Fair & Rodeo in Texarkana, Arkansas. They also finished third at the Tri-State Fair & Rodeo in Amarillo, Texas, for an additional $1,748.

All totaled, Smith and Lena won $4,387 on the weekend and widened their nearly $19,000-lead for Rookie honors with $57,432. They also sit 24th in the WPRA World Standings going into the 2019 season.

"We started out in Amarillo, and we were winning it until the last perf, darn it," she chuckled. "That run felt really, really good. I was second out on the ground (in slack) and I was able to use that to our advantage.

"We went from there to Texarkana and it was another super good run. We ended up winning Texarkana. Springhill, Louisiana, didn't go so well. They stopped it and reworked the ground right before we ran, and I think I let that get in my head a little bit. I tipped coming out of the first."

Smith and the 9-year-old Firewaterontherocks mare, out of Cindy Skinner's Smart Cash Cutter mare Tournalena, came on late in the season to go from contenders in the rookie race to the undisputed leaders. Their season was capped off by a spectacular victory at the Wrangler Tour Finale in Puyallup, Washington, in early September.

"I think she just grew up," said Smith. "I think she finally realized that she could do it and I did too. I realized I could ride my horse right. It just clicked all of a sudden. A friend told me that Tyson Durfey said, 'It only takes one run to turn it around.' I feel like when I broke the arena record in Spearfish, South Dakota, that was my one run that turned it around."

Although she has the Rookie race well in hand, Smith is still on the bubble to make the Texas Circuit Finals. She currently sits 11th in the standings with $9,842. She's just $61 ahead of the 12th cutoff spot.

Smith, who is working on her master's degree through Texas A&M-Commerce, split her time this spring between college rodeos for her alma mater Texas A&M University and the spring pro rodeos. It wasn't until after the College National Finals that she hit the road hard to contend for the rookie title.

Unfortunately, that left her with only $3,000 won in her home circuit. But, she's been making up ground winning Abilene, Texas, and doing well this past weekend. She'll be finishing out the circuit run with Stephenville, Texas; Apache, Oklahoma; and New Braunsfels, Texas.

PRCA/AQHA Horse of Year nominees announced

It is known that the equine athletes in the sport of rodeo play a vital role in helping every competitor achieve his or her goals.

The PRCA and the American Quarter Horse Association honor the outstanding registered American Quarter Horse in each of the PRCA's timed-event categories at the annual PRCA Awards Banquet in Las Vegas right before the start of the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo. This year's banquet is Dec. 5 at the South Point in Las Vegas.

The owner of the PRCA/AQHA/WPRA "Horses of the Year" in each category will be awarded $5,000 and an AQHA bronze trophy. Second place will receive $3,000, and third place will receive $2,000.

The final ballot process will be open through Oct 5 at 5 PM MT for applicable voting PRCA members. Winners in each of the categories will be announced once votes are tallied and made official.

The following are the nominees in each of the timed events:

Kiss This -- Jennifer Sharp & Six French Smooches Top Tri-State Fair & Rodeo in Amarillo

By Tanya Randall

Terri Lamp's Six French Smooches put Jennifer Sharp closer to a Texas Circuit Finals qualification with a $2,497 championship at the Tri-State Fair & Rodeo in Amarillo, Texas. Sharp, a barrel horse trainer from Montgomery, Texas, is currently 10th in the Texas Circuit Standings with $12,194, and they take the top 12.

"We actually almost didn't go," said Sharp, who commended the rodeo committee for their efforts to correct the ground conditions. "I talked to Taci (Bettis) and she said the ground was good Friday night. I talked to Terri and told her if anyone goes down in front of me that I was just going to turn out. Obviously, the ground was great.

I thought I was going slower, but when I watched the video, I was like, 'Nope, she wasn't going slower!' She worked amazing! That's the biggest crowd that's she ever run before. It was only her third performance, and the other two were at Mesquite. That was a really big deal for her, and she did great."

The lone hiccup was ending the run with a closed gate, which was also a first for the mare.

"I was actually on her neck, between her ears," laughed Sharp. "I had a game plan. If I make a good run, whip home. Don't worry about the gate. Just go! I made a good run and then I was like 'Uh oh!' She ran straight up to the panel and slammed on her front end. I almost when through the panel. It was a little sketchy! The judge was standing there with his arms out. He said, 'I was going to catch ya!'"

Sharp and Smooch also placed fifth at the Four States Fair & Rodeo in Texarkana, Arkansas, for an additional $1,126. They hauled with Michelle Alley on the Texarkana, Springville, Louisiana, Amarillo run.

"Michelle ended up second at Amarillo too, so that was pretty cool," said Sharp. "She was great to haul with."

Sharp has pro rodeos in Apache, Oklahoma, and Stephenville, Texas, this coming weekend as she tries to secure her circuit finals qualification. Smooch also has the WPRA World Finals Derby and Cardholder Races coming up.

Plus, the three-time CNFR qualifier has a college rodeo in Tatum, Texas, Saturday night.

"I'm just tying goats and (breakaway) roping. I haven't decided if I'm running barrels or not," said Smith, who qualified to this year's CNFR in the barrel racing and goat this year, breakaway roping in 2016 and goat tying in 2017.

It won't stop there for Smith and Lena either. They have the fall run of fair rodeos in Texas and the WPRA World Finals before they can truly take a break.

Bred by Bryan Gardner, Smooch, 7, is by NFR and leading sire Frenchmans Fabulous out of the Marthas Six Moons mare Runnin Jessie Orchid. Lamp purchased the mare as a yearling and had Stephan Boutin (No Hit Bits) break her before starting the mare on the pattern herself.

Smooch was clocking in the 2D when she and Lamp had a mishap while exercising in the pasture that left Lamp with several fractures in her leg. In the Spring of 2017, she found her way into Sharps barn while Lamp was mending.

"She had her very solid on the pattern when I got her," said Sharp. "It was just little things here and there that we fixed. We mainly just brought Smooch's confidence up."

This summer, Smooch stepped up her game from a solid 1D jackpot horse to a 1D national, pro rodeo money earner. She and Sharp turned in deliriously fast 16.490 on a standard pattern at the ANHA Finals over Labor Day Weekend.

"I think that run in Waco was the turning point," noted Lamp. "I had her going around the barrels really nice and Jennifer got her running faster, but her turns weren't as good. I told Jennifer when Smooch puts that run and turn together she's going to be tough to beat. I think she finally figured it out at Waco, the speed and turn."

Although she's anxious to get back to running again herself, Lamp said she's having fun watching Sharp win on her mare.

"We're both having fun," said Lamp. "I love Jenny and her husband Robbie dearly. We've developed a great relationship. They've been great to work with."

Selling within Session 2 of the

39th TRIANGLE FALL SALE

AUCTION NOTE:

JB Quarter Horses and their friends and neighbors suffered incredible loss in 2017 as the eye of Hurricane Harvey took direct aim at their area. The priorities of so many have changed as a result of the devastation. JB lost many fine horses, ceased training operations and breeding plans were interrupted. After much "soul searching" a decision has been made to sell this great group of horses with incredible barrel genetics. A few of the older stallions are being retained along with personal riding favorites. Everything else sells without reserve. Fifteen years of selective breeding will be available for your enjoyment.

Curtain Call – 2018 National Finals Rodeo Push Ends This Weekend

The final weekend of the 2018 pro rodeo season is here, and the race for the National Finals Rodeo is tighter than ever.

The ladies have already set a new record on 15th place earnings to qualify for the NFR. The previous record was $79,067.98 set by Amber Moore in 2016. With one week left to go, 15th is already at $83,564.96.

Rodeos at the center of the final push are $10,000-added Omaha, Nebraska, ($2997 projected pay), $5,000-added Kansas City, Missouri ($1,893 to win in 2017), and $6,000-added Stephenville, Texas ($3,290 to win in 2017). Everyone in the hunt will make these three rodeos.

Those adding rodeos are sticking to the mid-United States with smaller rodeos like $2,000-added New Braunsfels, which paid $857 after turnouts due to a muddy mess that forced to postpone a performance in 2017 (Note: This year's weather isn't looking good at the moment.), $2,500-added Apache, Oklahoma, that paid $1,238 in 2017 (Note: Tracy Nowlin won more than $1,000 there last year for second place.).

Jessie Telford and Kellie Collier are going to make a western swing with San Bernardino and Poway, California, with $5,000 added at each. They paid $1,982 and $1,368, respectively in 2017. Other rodeos coming into play on the Western swing are Mona, Utah, with $4,750-added ($1,180 to win last year) and $1,500-added Kingman, Arizona, which paid $752 for first a year ago. The craziness begins Wednesday afternoon at 4 pm for slack at Kansas City and will conclude with the Sunday performance of San Bernardino on the West Coast. However, if like last year, contestants will change their plans as the mathematic probability of making the NFR becomes too great.

How they stand

Amber Moore and CP Dark Moon found their groove again with the indoor runs and moved up another spot to 11th with $87,872. They picked up another $1,895 over the weekend, placing fourth at Amarillo ($1,498) and 10th at Texarkana ($397). The duo will conclude their 2019 season with Kansas City, Omaha and Stephenville.

Veterinarian Kelly Bruner picked up $877 for placing fourth at Springville. She's currently 12th with $87,872. She has four rodeos left for her season with Stephenville on Thursday, Omaha on Friday, Kansas City on Saturday and Apache on Sunday.

Although her great mare Ripn Lady is still in Canada, Carman Pozzobon, who sits 13th with $86,947, is stateside finishing up the season with Dufur Quarter Horses' Brookstone Jo. She's out at Kansas City, Omaha and maybe Apache if the timing is right, Stephenville and New Braunsfels.

Tracy Nowlin and DJG Madison ("Dolly Jo") continue to pick up checks, earning $873 over the weekend. They tied for eighth at Amarillo ($468) and placed seventh at Springville ($405) to hold at 14th in the WPRR World Standings with $86,367.

Telford and Shu Fire picked up $705 to jump to 15th in the world standings with $83,565. They placed tenth at Amarillo and 11th at Texarkana.

Her good mount Famous Cool Whip burst an abscess right before Pendleton, so Telford chose not to put the road miles on him. She has the two horses split for the final push.

She's out Wednesday in Kansas City, Omaha on Friday morning and then Mona Friday night. Then it's Poway on Saturday afternoon and San Bernardino that night. Stephenville on Sunday concludes her season.

Carley Richardson slipped to 16th by a mere $554 (and two penalties!). The two-time NFR qualifier from Hereford, Texas, is out in Stephenville on Thursday, Kansas City on Friday, Saturday night in Omaha and finally Stephenville on Sunday.

Teri Bangart and RCA Three Bugs Honor (with a little help from Streaking Honor Kid at Pendleton) have made up the most ground on the Top 15 with a late season charge. Bangart was once again the big-money winner over the weekend, earning $2,837. She and Peak were fourth at Texarkana ($1,589) and fifth at Amarillo ($1,248). Bangart sits $5,279.43 out of 15th with $78,286 in 16th. She'll finish her season with four rodeos: Kansas City, Omaha, New Braunsfels and Stephenville.

No. 18 Kellie Collier is $6,071 out of 15th with $77,494. Like Tel-

HHA[®]

Horse Hair Analysis

Dr. Mark DePaolo has been practicing veterinary medicine for over 20 years. He became interested in nutrition and made it a focus of his practice early in his career.

Dr. DePaolo firmly believes Horse Hair Analysis[®] can benefit many horses who are not reaching their full potential due to various physical or mental setbacks. His knowledgeable and caring approach can have a tremendous positive impact on your horse's health!

The most experienced laboratory in the country is used to process the hair samples. The results are then compiled into a 15 page report complete with graphs and easy to read text for each mineral and metal.

The HHA Personal Supplement[™] is made specifically for your horse based on the laboratory results. The customized formula costs LESS THAN $1 PER DAY for a six month supply.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Over the years, I have made some bonehead decisions. We all have. I have chosen to go against good counsel because I just knew I was right and they were wrong. I have blundered off into the ditch just by my own reasoning and conclusions. I have innocently made wrong decisions and willfully made wrong choices. And I have also accidentally made the right decision from time to time.

I liked that when it happened. Years ago, when someone offered suggestions, pride would kick in and I just didn't want to heed what they had to say. After all, what makes them smarter than me? You know, experience alone in this world should count for something. Whether it's parenting, horse training, the Bible, or relationships, someone has more experience in these areas than I do.

So why learn everything the hard way? John 16:13 tells us, "However, when He, the Spirit of truth has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come." Isn't that just like our very good God to send us help?

We need to listen to Him FIRST. He has more experience in any and all of these areas than all mankind put together! How can we fail? With God first, we'll never fail! Seek Him first this week and begin enjoying your victories!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
