Green Knows the Secret Ta Fame In Ardmore

By Tanya Randall

Futurity veteran Talmadge Green and The Secret Ta Fame paired up for a $6,834 victory in the $60,480 Bar Nothin Barrel Bash Futurity, held Sept. 21-25 at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Okla. The $25,000-added Futurity, as well as four open 4Ds, was held in conjunction with Jud Little's Production Sale, held September 24 at his Bar Nothin Ranch in nearby Springer, Okla.

"That mare deserved to win a futurity," said Green, who hails from Sandy Hook, Miss. "She's been a super phenomenal little mare."

The 4-year-old chestnut daughter of all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame is out of Proudest Hour, a daughter of Raise A Secret. She was raised by Barbara Kelley, owner of Flit To Kill, and sold as a yearling to Jeanette Nelson. Green made a deal with Nelson for the filly February of her 3-year-old year. After taking reserve in the BFA's Superstakes, Secret was sold to the Haras Imperial and Two Brothers partnership of Brazil.

Prior to the Ardmore event, Secret had run out more than $55,000 under Green's guidance. She had been enjoying a summer break while Green went to Brazil for three weeks.

"I just got back from Brazil and was home a week before Jud's futurity," Green explained. "I have to give a lot of credit to Judy (Clowser), who's been with me for 14 years. I couldn't have done it if it weren't for Judy doing her thing with her in the roundpen with a bit rig."

Green also made a few modifications to the mare's style since the spring futurities.

"She doesn't take a lot of training," he said. "I do a lot of things to make her training easier so it sticks. The Dash Ta Fames have a tendency to be naturally round in their turns, and I squared her up a little bit and put a little more snap on her behind the barrels."

Green also noticed something when showing videos of the mare while down in Brazil. She had a tendency to pick up her tail when he got after her with his spurs during a run. He decided his next run would be made sans whip and spurs.

The style change and absence of weapons worked beautifully and the duo clocked the fourth fastest time of the event, a 15.089, to win the first go of the futurity. Green said the runs couldn't have been any more perfect than if he had drawn it on a piece of paper.

"She hit everyone one of her points perfectly," he said. "The only place I could have been a little bit faster was on the backside of the third, and I felt her slip a little there."

Green said he was a little worried going into the second round because he knew was last on the ground after a big drag and thought it might be a little tough for his diminutive mare.

"She stepped out a little at the first and third, but I think the holes might have made her step out a bit," he explained. "Secret was just as fast in the second round as she was in the first, the only difference was she had to run behind four other horses that had left holes around the barrels."

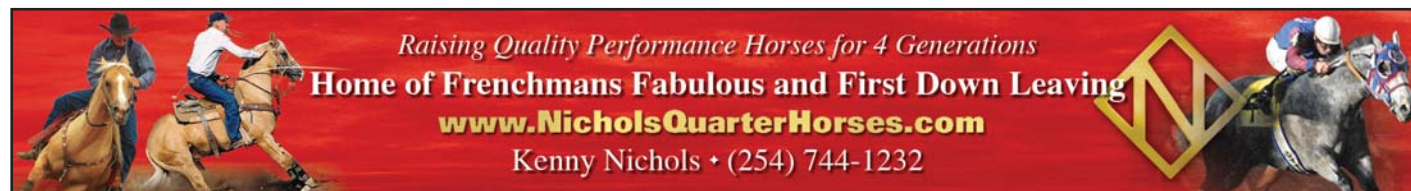

One of those ground-using horses was second-round winner Slick By Design, ridden by Kim Ulbricht for Allene Tatom of Conroe, Texas, that turned in a 15.056.

Green said he figured Secret's owners were having a big victory party in Brazil from all the text messages he received. Secret, along with Guys Famous Girl, who belongs to Haras Imperial, will go into quarantine immediately following the BFA World Futurity so they can be shipped to Brazil. Green will join the mares next spring after the LG Pro Classic in Kinder for the country's big junior horse event that awards R$30,000 (about $17,000 US dollars) and a car.

"I'm going to try to become a Brazilian champ before I get too old," quipped Green. "I told those guys (his fellow futurity riders) they were going to have to spot me a few tenths because I'm older. They weren't going for it."

Other Ardmore notes: Kiss This Guy and Ryann Pedone stayed on their hot streak despite hitting a costly barrel that took them out of the futurity average. Pedone and the 4-year-old gelding by the Frenchmans Guy son BHR Frenchies Socks, out of Kiss Kiss This, by Chain Of Events, posted the fastest time of the event, a 14.860, to win $3,264.66 in the $10,000-added 4D on Sunday. The Fizz Bomb Futurity Reserve Champions placed third in the opening round of the futurity with a 15.172 before catching a can on a run of 15.3 in the second round.

Frenchmans Guy son Frenchmans Feature sired the Amateur Futurity Champion, SF Its Ez Bn French. The 4-year-old palomino gelding is out of SF Shoot Me Straight, by Shoot Yeah. He is owned and raised by Ronnie and Martha Shomaker and ridden by Jayma Jo Shomaker. The winner's share of the $5,000 Amateur Futurity purse was $1,500.

RIDER/OWNER/BREEDER: RYANN LEE PEDONE

NOTES: Kiss This Guy may be the hottest horse in the country right now. This 4 year old gelding has lit up the barrel world over the last 6 weeks. Jockey Ryann Pedone and Kiss This Guy have won the UWinmore, the Cornhusker Open and Breeders Futurity, the Reserve Championship at the Fizz Bomb Futurity and this weekend won 3rd in the 1st Round of the Bar Nothin Barrel Bash Futurity and then came back on Sunday to win the $10,000 added 4D over an astounding 723 entries. Amazingly, his 14.860 run won that day and was the fastest run of the whole weekend which included close to 2000 runs being made. It was his 6th run in only 9 days for Kiss This Guy, plus the 1100 mile drive to Ardmore from the Fizz Bomb Futurity in Gillette, WY. Looks like this guy might have a future at the rodeos!

Smith Conquers Omaha - Top 15 Decided

It was one of the wildest finishes in the history of the WPRA. Every rodeo and every bit of money each barrel racer earned made a difference. In the end Tammy Fischer, with $60,588 of earnings, claimed the 15th spot. Fischers 15th spot is most money every needed to make the Finals. It was a year where all the ladies that needed to win kept winning.

Although Sue Smith actually won the Justin Boots Championship in Omaha, Britany Fleck used her last rodeo of the year to catapult herself into the #12 position from #16 last week. She will be the first woman from North Dakota to ever make the NFR. With Britany Fleck propelling herself into the top 15, someone had to be bumped into the crying hole, that was Sydni Blanchard, she ended up just $2,585 short of her NFR dreams.

It looks like Sue Smith and Real Claim To Fame just strolled into Omaha and won an easy $15,000. Barrel racers know it's usually not that as easy as the results look. Claimer slipped in the first round at the second barrel, his hip hit the ground, Smith got behind her saddle but somehow when he popped back up he was running hard and she was sitting in the middle. Amazingly, the team clocked, tying for 2nd in the round. Then, after a smooth run in Round 2, they came back for Round 3. After a smooth first and second barrel her reins came over Claimer's head and were on the left side of his neck while they headed to the third. He still turned the third and clocked well enough to win the round and the Championship.

Although Smith dominated the action at Omaha, she only moved

Q&A with Sue Smith

Smith: In Omaha for instance, my horse never runs good the first run. I have found that if the ground doesn't feel good to him he just doesn't turn as good. The ground there wasn't very good the first night, but by the second night the committee had taken care of it and the ground was good. So, by the second run I knew I had the finals made so I was just making sure I didn't hurt my horse. With Claimer I just try to keep him quieter in the alleyway, if he is good in the alleyway he will be good in the pen. I try to soften him up in the warmup pen. I try to soften him up the next day after a run and make sure he is listening to me. If I can get in the actual arena I do. I try to get them to think about waiting for me and keep them from anticipating. I focus on the the things that didn't go right in the run the night before. I think it is important to get them in the alleyway and keep them quiet. I keep his feet moving and keep him light in the face and take the anticipation out of him.

BRR: How will you prepare for the 10 Runs at the NFR?

Smith: I really wanted to make it back to the NFR again (she qualified the first time in 2009) because the first time was overwhelming. They treat you really well there, but it is really busy. This time I need to stick to my game plan that I have done all year. I just need to make sure I have everything I need and have everything planned out before I get there. It is hard to keep focused because there are all those runs and so much money but I need to focus on just one run at a time. The first run I am nervous for, and I think most people are, because it is the run where we get used to everything with the blind first barrel and the ground. Claimer is a lot more seasoned this year so hopefully I won't have to baby him as much. This year he is running to the out gate more free so he should clock better. The last time I was there he was stalling a little before hitting the timeline and it cost me some time. He has gotten more seasoned over the year and I am hoping that carries over to the NFR.

Also, I always try to take the best care of my horses, but don't take care of myself sometimes. This year I have some time to prepare so I am going to eat better and work out. The last time I was there I just hit a wall about the 8th round. This time I am going to better prepare to make it through all ten rounds. Overall, I am just a lot more at ease going into the NFR this time around.

BRR: Tell us a little about your year.

Smith: This early spring I hit a ton of barrels to do good, those barrels cost me a lot of money. He was really working, just barely clipping them (barrels). In the middle of the the summer where he usually does great he stepped on a nail in the warm up pen at Salt Lake and I had to turn out and ride other horses during the time of year when he usually wins a lot. He got infections and an abscess due to the nail. I went back to Cheyenne and he worked but didn't clock, then I gave him some more time off to heal up. After Claimer was healed up, then Kyle (Edwards) had to have some surgery and he was in the ICU for 7 days. I was in Hermiston and I couldn't get a flight home and finally just had to get a car and drive to the hospital. It was just really hard to split my time between Kyle and trying to rodeo and make the NFR. I was at the point where I either needed to come home for the year or try to get more won and make the NFR. About then Kyle was getting better and he told me I just need to get going to rodeos. It made for a rough summer. It made it really hard to focus on rodeoing when I knew Kyle wasn't doing well. As soon as he healed up he went with me. It was way better being able to just focus on rodeo. It was a challenging year, but now I am just excited to go to the NFR!

{ 2 year old Prospects For Sale }

Indian Meter Maid

'09 APHA Mare by Dr Meter Reader si 90
 - Indians Katie Girl (Joes Katie Go)

Cookie is a striking sorrel tobiano paint that is between 15-15.1 and will probably end up being 15.3-16. She is a full sister to SQH Cappacuino who qualified to a paint stakes race and is currently running barrels in Canada. Her half sister (by same mare) has run 2D/3D times and runs poles. She's a real strong athletic mover. $1000

Redrambunctiousmeter

'09 Gelding by Dr Meter Reader si 90
 - Bet A Monk (Red Monk TB)

Rambo is a sweet, kind and gentle sorrel gelding that is about 14.2 and will probably end up being 15-15.1. He is a full brother to Red Running Meter who is a AA stakes qualifier and is now started on the barrels & Rambo is also a half brother to a money earning PRCA steer wrestling horse. This guy should get along with about anybody and him and all his siblings love people and are good honest horses. $1500

Golden Meter Maid

'09 Mare by Dr Meter Reader si 90
 - Murphys Trinket (KR Tuxedo si 75)

Trixie is a cute, quick footed mare with a pretty golden palomino coat to go with it. She is soft, confident and trainable and currently stands about 14 hands and end up around 14.3. Her dam, Murphys Trinket, was a rope horse and ranch horse who is a mix of Streakin Six, Dash For Cash and Dr Kirk on the top and a finished cutting horse that traces back to Royal King on the bottom. This filly possesses a neat cross of run on cow. She likes people and really wants to please and is a real eye catcher. She has been worked on the ground and is ready to start your way. $1800

THE 2012 SPEEDHORSE BARREL STALLION REGISTER IS COMING!

The Speedhorse Stallion Register has long been deemed the #1 Resource of the Quarter Horse Racing Industry. We are now bringing that reputation, history, ability and quality to the Barrel Horse Industry.

- ★ We offer the longest promotional viewing time of any equine publication.
- ★ We offer the most affordable rates for promoting YOUR STALLION in FULL COLOR!
- ★ We will be promoting & distributing the Barrel Stallion Register at our booth at the Barrel Futurities of America World Championship in Oklahoma City, at no cost, as well as major barrel events & sales Nationwide & in Canada and Brazil.

The Speedhorse Barrel Stallion Register will be the "Go To Book" for the barrel industry. By incorporating Businesses and Services relevant to the Barrel Horse Industry, we will increase the number of people viewing the book. That, in turn, will increase the number of people (potential mare owners!), viewing YOUR STALLION!

Jud Little Ranch Production Sale Results

Jud Little Ranch Production Sale
September 24, 2011, Springer, OK

The 2011 Jud Little Ranch Production Sale featuring the top bloodlines in the barrel racing world was held September, 24, 2011 at the Jud Little Ranch in Springer, OK. The 2011 edition of the sale featured 51 outstanding prospects ranging from 2-4 years old, all riding or working barrels and ready to use.

The bidding was brisk on sale topper, Famous Wahini Moon, who brought $34,000. The 2009 sorrel daughter of Famous Bugs is out of Moons Six Marthas who is by leading barrel sire Marthas Six Moons. Moons Six Marthas was a barrel futurity earner and finalist at the Old Fort Days Futurity. This filly is from the first crop of colts for Famous Bugs, the barrel earner of over $50k.

The second high selling horse was Credit The Gin who brought $30,000. The 2008 bay mare by one of the senior Jud Little Ranch studs, Cash Not Credit, is out of the great producing daughter of Fire Water Flit, Gin N Firewater. Cash Not Credit is the sire of over

$1.2 million plus rodeo earnings and has produced such standout barrel horses as Sooner Superstar and Dialaroofterforcash. Gin N Firewater has not only produced several barrel earners but is also a full sister to barrel earners.

Cashs Fiesta, the 2008 gray gelding, was the third high seller of the sale, bringing $29,000. Cashs Fiesta is by Bugemforcash and out of the barrel racing blue hen mare Firewater Fiesta. The top daughter of Fire Water Flit, Firewater Fiesta earned over $800,000 herself and now has produced 7 barrel earners including Go Figure Fiesta, Janos Rascal, and Credit To Fiesta. Bugemforcash is the son of Cash Not Credit and out of the great Bugs Alive In 75 mare, Flyin Hi Babe, producer of Flying Hi Firewater.

The 51 sale horses grossed $430,600, the average for the entire sale equalled $8,443. The 3 & 4 year olds averaged $12,994. For complete results see below or go to www.judlittleranch.com

Fizz Bomb Classic Horse Sale Results

Fizz Bomb Classic Horse Sale September 17, 2011, Gillette, WY

The 2011 Fizz Bomb Classic Horse Sale was held in conjunction with the Fizz Bomb Classic Barrel Futurity Saturday, September 17, 2011. The sale featured the offspring of some of the top breeding programs in the northern plains. Topping the sale with a $13,000 bid was Lot 22 Sheza Frenchmans Guy. The 5 year old daughter of Frenchmans Guy is out the the good No Brakes Now mare Jenny Kirk. She was patterned on the barrels and ready to take to the next level. The second high seller, Flashy French Kirk, was also also a filly by Frenchmans Guy. This 2010 mare is out of JRS Miss Kirk who is by Dr Kirk. This filly brought a final bid of $7,900. The sale being held in conjunction with the Fizz Bomb Futurity attracted buyers from California, Montana, and Colorado to name a few. The Top 3 horses averaged $9300, the Top 5 horses averaged 8,080 and the Top 10 horses averaged $5790. The Top 10 sellers can be seen below and for full results go to www.fizzbombclassichorsesale.com. The 2012 Fizz Bomb Classic Horse Sale will again be held with the Fizz Bomb Classic Barrel Futurity.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We are once again going into fall with some young horses to start. Now, if you are a horse person, you know this can either be VERY exciting, VERY challenging or you are blessed with the perfect horse student. Perfect horse students are rare...would you agree? They ARE out there, but for the most part, every young horse comes with their own unique set of issues. Just like people. And when I watch Mike with these youngsters, I can really appreciate his patience in working through those issues. Just like people. He commits himself to a time every day where lessons are taught and reinforced. He has learned over the years that if you work them once or twice a week they are more prone to forget what they have learned and get themselves into a wreck. Just like people.

Why am I telling you this? The Lord showed me this morning that as His children, it is VITAL to come to Him daily and learn what He would have you to know. So many times in ministry we see people who love God but go about their business, rarely spending time in prayer, or going to church except at Christmas and Easter. But then the enemy comes and attacks them and they are playing catch up, trying to learn the things God has wanted them to know. Like a colt, if their attention had been on their trainer (God) every day, then when that mountain lion (the devil) tries to jump them, they have so many tools to handle that situation and they are not having a heart attack and running blind into stuff. What a much better way to live our lives. God leading and teaching...us following with no resistance in us...and overcoming EVERY obstacle the devil would throw at us. That's peace. Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you. Matt. 6:33.

We pray for you a life of peace and joy, putting God first and then enjoying victory every day, in every area of your lives. We love you and bless you.
