Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi & Blazin Babe Olena Nab $70K at Ardmore Futurity, Blue Collar Breeders

By Tanya Randall

Two-time World Champion Barrel Racer Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi had a decision to make this past week. With nearly $87,000 won during the 2022 pro rodeo season, the NFR veteran was fairly certain she had secured her 16th qualification, but she had entered up anyway.

At the very last minute, she opted to turn out of her rodeos and late enter the $20,000-added Ardmore Futurity with its $150,000 Guaranteed Blue Collar Breeders payout. The decision paid off handsomely with a nearly $70,000 haul aboard her homebred Blazin Babe Olena ("Anna").

"When you can run at that kind of money...it's just been amazing for our industry," said Tonozzi. "I like the way that Blue Collar puts all their money back into the incentive. I had to leave early to go back to Stephenville (for the pro rodeo on Sunday), but I heard I won some really great prizes. I can't wait to see those!"

Tonozzi and her 5-year-old mare took home $61,000 for winning the Blue Collar Breeders Futurity Incentive. They won $46,000 in competition money and Tonozzi got an additional $15,000 as the breeder of Anna. They also picked up $6,322 for placing third in the Ardmore Futurity aggregate.

Their first run of 15.187 was just out of the money in the opening round.

The second round, Tonozzi was out to make money.

"Sunday, I was like I've just got to go for it," she said. "I'm either going to have to run a spectacular time to get back in the average or try to win the round to win some money. I had turned out of seven rodeos. I was entered at all the rodeos in California, Amarillo, Omaha, Springhill and I did end up going to Stephenville on Sunday. I thought if I could just hit a good lick over there at Ardmore, it would be way worth not going to those rodeos. So, Sunday I was going for it! We were going to be a hero or a zero because I've got to win some money!"

Anna delivered with a 14.692, which also won Sunday's Open.

"She's never been like amazing in small pens," Tonozzi said.

"It's always been that she excels in a little bit larger pen. She's one of those horses that your speed to the first barrel is the speed for the rest of your run. She's just so honest and consistent. I just didn't think she was going to be that fast and snappy inside and she proved me wrong."

Anna, a daughter of leading sire Blazin Jetolena, is out of Tonozzi's great broodmare Streakin Six Babe. A daughter of Streakin Six, Babe is an EquiStat all-time leading broodmare and the dam of Tonozzi's NFR mounts Ima Famous Babe, whom she lost earlier this year, and her current NFR qualifier Babe On The Chase.

Tonozzi had Anna ready to run as a 4-year-old, but right before the BFA Futurity she badly chipped a knee.

"Dr. (Tommy) Hayes did surgery on her," Tonozzi explained. "It was kind of a bad chip and he gave her a 50-50 shot of recovering. He said give her six months and see how she is. Codi McCorkle (who runs Conquer Equine, Tonozzi's equine rehab and conditioning center) worked her magic and she came back strong. So, I had a trained horse just sitting there waiting for her 5-year-old year, which made it kind of nice, rodeoing and stuff."

Anna made her debut running against seasoned colts at the 2021 BFA Futurity and made the finals.

placing at Garden City, Kansas, Livingston and Dillon, Montana.

“She’s always been right there or had a little bobble to be just out of it,” Tonozzi added.

Tonozzi is looking forward to running the mare on the Standard Pattern at the upcoming Pink Buckle Futurity.

The lucrative incentive races has left the rodeo veteran questioning her addiction to qualifying for the NFR, especially having won the Blue Collar incentive on the heels of reserve championship at the Breeders Challenge Finale Futurity.

“I would have liked to have gone to more incentive stuff,” she said. “The winter rodeos were good so I kind of had to stick it out. It’s almost like a safety blanket. They can’t have the NFR without me! I won $120,000 in two weeks; I think I need to be saying they can have the NFR without me! I wore out horses, two rigs and all the above trying to win $88,000 for a whole year. That addiction might be going away quickly because I also like making money!”

With easier access to the incentives races—less than four hours from her house in some cases—they’re looking appealing since she and husband Garrett’s daughter Tinley is getting older.

“She’s in Kindergarten this year,” said Tonozzi. “She’s also been doing a little bit of barrel racing on her own. It was fun this week-end. She was with me the whole time. She rode her pony. We had a good time. I’m sure all the futurity people were irritated with me because I’ve got my kid running around on a pony scaring everyone’s horses. Sorry, I’m that person now!”

Heart-Felt Win for Ashley Schafer and Born On Derby Day at Ardmore Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Ashley Schafer and Born On Derby Day now have eight futurity titles to their combined names. They've won more than $225,000 together since November 15, 2021. Yet, a win at the $20,000-added Ardmore Futurity, held September 22-25 at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Oklahoma, meant a little more to the leading barrel horse trainer from Comanche, Texas.

"It's been a goal of mine to win this Futurity because Jud Little started it years ago," said Schafer. "He is the person that took a chance on me when I was an unknown kid from Iowa just looking for a job to survive. Having a saddle with his brand on the side of it all these years later is very special to me."

Derby, a 5-year-old mare owned by Schafer and husband Seth, was consistent as ever. She was third in the first round with a 14.899 and second in the next with a 14.704. The futurity victory was worth $10,289 and open carryovers netted an additional $3,406 for total weekend earnings of $13,695.

"I'm super proud of Derby, for how solid she is and how much effort she put into every run," said Schafer of the daughter of NFR qualifier Freckles Ta Fame, out of aged event standout KR Last Fling, by A Streak Of Fling. "She's an incredible horse, and we're beyond grateful to have her! Thanks again to Joe and Carla Spitz for allowing us the opportunity to own her and for having such a stellar breeding program."

Lisa Lockhart Bursts Top 15 Bubble on the 2022 Season's Last Weekend

By Tanya Randall

Two-time WPRA Reserve World Champion Lisa Lockhart unofficially captured her 16th National Finals Rodeo qualification during the final weekend of the WPRA's 2022 season.

The season's official end is on September 30 and only rodeos ending on that date count for 2022. Although there are three small rodeos—two in Cumberland, Maine, and one in Fort Worth, Texas—remaining during the week, their payouts aren't enough to for anyone to move Leslie Smalygo, the first-time qualifier from Skiatook, Oklahoma, who currently holds the coveted 15th spot with $84,453.

Lockhart had split her two main mounts between six rodeos and placed at them all. Her $7,098 weekend erased the initial deficit of $1,794 going into the weekend and ultimately surpassed Smalygo to take 14th in the World Standings with $84,876.

The Oelrichs, South Dakota, barrel racer started her week in slack at Mona, Utah, where she and the Alan Woodbury-owned Rosas Cantina CC, clocked a fourth-place finishing run, worth $1,311. Lockhart and Rosa dropped down to the first performance in Amarillo, Texas, where they made a third-place finishing run for $1,641.

From Amarillo, it was on to Omaha, Nebraska, where Lockhart climbed aboard Teton Ridge-owned Promise Me Fame Guys ("Levee") for the Friday night performance. They placed seventh, earning $495.

Lockhart got to New Braunfels, Texas, in the nick of time for Saturday morning slack, where she was first out. She jumped on Rosa, the Corona Cartel, Dash Ta Fame mare, and clocked a ninth-place finishing time, worth $183. Later that night, she was back on Levee for the Saturday night performance at Springhill, Louisiana, where they finished second to Michelle Darling, earning $1,486.

Her last run of the weekend was in the Sunday afternoon performance at Stephenville along with fellow bubble runners Darling and Cheyenne Wimberley. Lockhart and Levee, the Aint Seen Nothin Yet, FC Aboo gelding, did his best to be a gray version of Lockhart's great Louie (An Oakie With Cash), clocking well enough to take third and $1,995.

NFR veteran Wimberley was $4,501 behind in 19th going into the last weekend and had entered up. She had two routes planned, one back to Texas and the other to California. Both ended in her hometown of Stephenville.

After making a slack run on Steve Hurlbert's mare Dash Ta Suz in Mona, UT on Wednesday that would eventually place tenth ($328), Wimberley ducked down to Amarillo for the first performance on Thursday night. In Amarillo, she rode Royal Blue Fame, another Hurlbert-owned mount, for what would be a fifth place run, worth $1,172.

After Amarillo, Wimberley had two options—Springhill, New Braunfels, Stephenville, or head west to California. Wimberley was the only bubble-chaser taking the Western route and it nearly paid off with an NFR qualification.

In California, she and Robin Weaver's VQ Sucker Punch, a Dash Ta Fame, Mr Honor Bound gelding, took the lead in Poway in the first performance on Friday, but finished second to earn $1,699. In Saturday night's performance at San Bernardino, Wimberley and the Dash Ta Fame, Marthas Six Moons mare Suz took the lead and never relinquished to earn $2,403.

Wimberley and "Chewy," a Dash Ta Fame, Royal Blue Chew Chew gelding, finished up their season in a thrilling final performance at Stephenville. They finished fourth, earning $1,710.

Although she came up just $2,072 short, Wimberley was the highest earner on the final weekend with $7,312. She finished 16th with $82,382.

Paige Jones, the former Rookie of the Year from Wayne, Oklahoma, made the most of the two rodeos she entered the final weekend of the season. She and High Cotton Lane, by The Goodbye Lane out of a Dash Ta Fame mare, picked up $4,767 after winning Amarillo for $2,344 and taking second at Stephenville for another $2,423. She was behind by $2,108 in 17th and remained in that position with $82,231.

Darling and Morning Traffic, her talented Frenchmans Guy, Dash Thru Traffic mare, finished the season in 18th with $82,016. The Medford, Oklahoma, barrel racer started her week in Springville and led the rodeo from the first performance to the very end, earning $1,777. They dropped down to New Braunfels for the second performance. That lead held until the last performance, and they ultimately finished third for $667.

Her last two rodeos of the season were Amarillo on Saturday night, where they caught a barrel, and Stephenville on Sunday, where they were less than .2 out of check.

WCRA Brings the $1 Million Triple Crown of Rodeo Back to Texas

In mid-December, WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) will bring world-class rodeo back to Texas with the four-day Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo in Fort Worth at the legendary Cowtown Coliseum Dec. 14-17.

Riding an unbelievable wave of momentum, RC Landingham (Hat Creek, California) could make western sports history as he caps off a dominant 2022 Triple Crown of Rodeo series by winning the Triple Crown of Rodeo: a $1 million bonus to any one athlete or collection of athletes who win first place in any three consecutive majors.

Landingham, a 32-year-old bareback rider, is fresh off his win at Utah Days of '47 Rodeo, the event marked his second consecutive WCRA Major, putting him in contention to be a millionaire. If Landingham triumphs at the Cowtown Christmas Championship rodeo, he will be the first victor of the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo $1 Million Bonus.

The Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo will be the final of four major events comprising the 2022 WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo. The first stop of the 2022 series was held in Corpus Christi, Texas followed by events in Fort Worth, and Salt Lake City.

Other athletes who were victorious in Salt Lake City at the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo, who will be looking for their second win to remain Triple Crown eligible are: Allen Boore (Saddle Bronc Riding), Kaleb Driggers (Team Roping- Header), Junior Nogueira (Team Roping- Heeler), Cash Robb (Steer Wrestling), Josie Conner (Breakaway Roping), and Shane Hanchey (Tie-Down Roping).

The landmark event will begin on Wednesday, Dec. 14, showcasing more than 200 athletes competing in each of the nine rodeo disciplines: bareback riding, women's breakaway roping, saddle bronc riding, steer wrestling, team roping heading, team roping heeling, tie-down roping, barrel racing, and bull riding. A collective $360,000 will be on the line, and each champion will be awarded a check for $15,000.

The Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo begins with performance one at 7:30 p.m. CT on Wednesday, Dec. 14 and will continue nightly through the final performance on Saturday, Dec. 17.

Tickets for the WCRA event are on sale HERE now and start at $20, taxes and fees may apply. They can be purchased at the Cowtown Coliseum Box Office, online at cowtowncoliseum.com, WCRARodeo.com, PBR.com, and by calling The Cowtown Coliseum at 1-888-269-8696 or PBR Direct at (800) 732-1727.

The horse is a great equalizer, he doesn't care how good looking you are, or how rich you are, or how powerful you are — he takes you for how you make him feel.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We will not fear and we will not fail! What a statement! How in the world can we be so bold? The Word of God. Certainly, we'd never think, by watching the news, that we'd have any hope.

God is so smart, so big, so great. He knows everything about what we are seeing in these days we're living in. And wouldn't you know, He has the answer.

Please read Psalm 37:1-26. In there you will see: Fret not because of evildoers, THEY WILL BE CUT OFF! Fretting causes us harm. But we are to trust in God and do good. Commit ourselves to Him. Our steps are ordered of the Lord.

Matthew 7:24-27 talks about the storms that come on all of us. BUT. The house built on the rock WILL STAND!

2 Cor. 2:14 promises us that God ALWAYS causes us to triumph. Goodness!

How can we NOT be full of hope and peace? The only way that fear can set in, is if we spend ZERO time with God. Oh, but when we spend time reading His Word, praying and praising, His peace will flood our hearts. Then, we will not fear and we will not fail!
