2015 Wrangler NFR Field Is Set

By Tanya Randall

The 2015 pro rodeo season concluded with the Sunday matinee performance of the Cowboy Capital of Texas Pro Rodeo in Stephenville. A lot was riding on that last performance.

After a stellar showing at the Justin Boots Championships in Omaha, Jana Bean of Fort Hancock, Texas, needed a little more than $600 to clinch her second trip to the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas. She and Im A Royal Design ("Hammer") placed sixth, earning $968, giving them the 14th spot in the WPRA World Standings.

In the stands, Neelley Armes was watching and cheering, having made the most gracious sacrifice. When Bean was unable to find a trade for Sunday's performance—the only time she could attend the Stephenville rodeo—Armes turned out so she could have her spot in the draw.

"She said, I know what you're fighting for and I'll turn out so you can have my spot," said Bean. "I owe a lot of that to her and her kindness. Not many people will do that."

Bean's final push for the WNFR had started at slack in Amarillo, Texas, where she ended up making two runs instead of one. Due to dangerous ground conditions, the rodeo committee called a halt to slack and reworked ground. She and Hammer ended up placing ninth for $384.

From there it was on to Omaha, Thursday and Friday, where Hammer shined, winning the first round and taking second in championship round. It was a playoff-style rodeo so there was no average. Bean left Omaha for Kansas City's American Royale $6,015 richer.

At Kansas City, she and Hammer had a little bobble at the third, which cost them a chance at the check, before having to face the music in Stephenville.

Bean started her year strong winning $25,000 on a very competitive green 5-year-old Dashin Klee before she picked up Rick and Terri Ford's Hammer right before the Guymon, Okla., pro rodeo, the first of May. With Hammer older and more rodeo-wise, Bean relied heavily on him for most of the summer. Bean also picked up a couple of checks on her stallion UR One Famous Rebel.

"I'm so thankful and feeling so blessed to get to go back—and on a completely different set of horses. That's the cool part," she said.

Canadian Champion and WNFR veteran Deb Guelly (her last WNFR appearance came under the last name of Renger) clinched the final spot, surpassing Jill Welsh by a mere $486.

Several early season standouts were forced to backups and bor-

Eight cowboys make WNFR cut in last weekend

Pressure was a good friend to a handful of PRCA cowboys during the final week (Sept. 21-27) of the 2015 regular season.

Tie-down roper Shane Hanchey, steer wrestler Blake Knowles, bull riders Reid Barker and Kody DeShon, team roping brothers Riley Minor and Brady Minor and saddle bronc rider Tyrel Larsen all came through in the clutch to jump into the top 15 in the standings and punch their tickets to the prestigious Wrangler National Finals Rodeo Dec. 3-12 in Las Vegas. Steer roper J. Tom Fisher joined his brother, Vin, in the field for the Nov. 6-7 Clem McSpadden National Finals Steer Roping in Mulvane, Kan.

"This is relieving to say the least," said Hanchey, the 2013 world champion. "It was a stressful summer. I had only won like $1,000 until April, and it felt like the whole year I was trying to catch back up to everybody. I wasn't in the top 15 all year until the last day of the season."

In the Sept. 21 Windham Weaponry High Performance PRCA World Standings, Hanchey was 19th, but he was able to move up to 15th thanks to winning $6,041 the final week.

All of Hanchey's winnings came at the Justin Boots Championships Sept. 25 in Omaha, Neb., when his 7.3-second run was good enough to split the first-round win with Trevor Brazile. He posted a 7.6 in the finals to finish second behind Cade Swor.

Hanchey is making his sixth trip to the WNFR, all in the last six years.

Knowles, meanwhile, is headed to Vegas for the third time - with his other trips coming in 2009 and 2011, when he also qualified on the final weekend. Knowles won $2,066 during the final week to make it happen this time.

He finished fourth at the Sheriff's PRCA Rodeo in San Bernardino, Calif., Sept. 27 and collected a $921 check, which was the difference-maker for him. Knowles edged 16th-place Bray Armes by $166 and 17th-place Olin Hannum by $998. Knowles was 16th in the Sept. 21 standings.

"The end goal was to make it to the NFR, so this is very exciting," Knowles said. "I knew I was going to have to finish at least fourth or better in San Bernardino. I have way too much experience with being on the bubble in my career, so I probably wasn't as nervous as I could have been, and I was able to finish fourth." Barker secured his second consecutive trip to Las Vegas with a memorable effort at the Xtreme Bulls Division 2 event in New Braunfels, Texas, Sept. 27.

Barker, who began the week 17th in the standings, won the first round, finals and average to leave town with $3,710 and a reservation for Vegas.

"This year didn't come as easy for me as it did last year," said Barker, who finished 14th in the 2015 world standings after his inaugural trip to the WNFR. "I had to work my butt off to reach this goal and it's pretty amazing." --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

Top NHL Team Partners with Cinch Pro Rodeo Canada

The Calgary Flames Hockey Club is joining the roster of Team Sponsors at the Cinch Pro Rodeo Canada Series Final presented by Ranchmans.

Each sponsor will chose from the list of top professional cowboys and cowgirls on the Pro Rodeo Canada Series circuit who will compete in a head to head Pro Rodeo team battle October 2-3 at the Agrium Western Event Centre, Stampede Park.

"We're extremely pleased to announce today our partnership with one of the top NHL teams for our Cinch Pro Rodeo Final. It's exciting to see a major professional sport group join us for an exciting event and it's a real rarity for rodeo," said Dan Eddy, Canadian Professional Rodeo Association General Manager.

The grit of Flames hockey is matched by the toughness of rodeo and that toughness will play a major role in the excitement of this event. "I challenge the fans to wear their jerseys to the rodeo to help support the Flames as they battle it out on the dirt with the other nine teams," said Eddy.

The ten team sponsors are: ATB Financial, BV Land Corp., Calgary Flames, Carriage House Inn, Masuch Albert LLP, NCS Energy Services, Ram Rodeo, Tractorland, Tsuu T'ina Nation and Wise Equine Veterinary Services.

The rodeo draft will take place at 6:15 p.m. at the Ranchman's Cookhouse and Dance Hall on October 1st. All major sponsors will choose the rodeo athletes who will represent them during the two day final. Doors open at 6 p.m. each day with the rodeo performances kicking off at 7 p.m.

rowed rides as the toll of the road and ground took its toll on their horses. Welsh's horse French First Watch had a near catastrophic fall on bad ground at Pueblo, Colo. Meghan Johnson's mare WW Nellie Leveaux went down with a late season injury. Carmel Wright's mare Sweet Heart Special had to spend some down time due to a re-aggravation of a prior tendon injury, but was able to make a late season push despite some other lingering injuries.

Guelly, who started out the year on Docs Flashy Scooter, climbed aboard Royal Star Commander, owned by her good friend and former NFR qualifier Ruth Haislip, DVM. She won Amarillo, placed third at both Kansas City and Stephenville and placed seventh in the qualifying round at Omaha for $7,242 on the week.

Changing Landscape & Rookie Battle

The 2015 WNFR field will include six new faces, starting with World No. 1 Callie duPerier of Boerne, Texas. Sarah McDonald, last year's rookie champion after only running half the season in 2014, also claimed her first Las Vegas trip.

Joining McDonald and duPerier are Cassidy Kruse of Gillette, Wyo., Carley Richardson, Pampa, Texas, Jackie Ganter, Abilene, Texas, and Vickie Carter, Richfield, Utah.

Ganter and Carter, both rookies, will settle that championship at the conclusion of the WNFR. They're the first two rookies to qualify for Las Vegas in the same year since Peyton Raney and Nina Binder both qualified in 1997.

The WNFR sophomores are Bean, Nancy Hunter, Neola, Utah, and Taylor Jacob, Carmine, Texas. Sherry Cervi, a three-time WPRA World Champion, is the WNFR veteran and will be making her 18th appearance.

Melby For the Win at Calgary Qualifier

By Hope Sickler

Another family that is widely known across the country for their barrel racing talents and horses are the Melby family originally from Minnesota now located in Oklahoma. This past weekend at the #6 stop on the list for qualifiers for The American this year was held in Calgary, Alberta at the Calgary Classic and the Melby ladies stole the show winning first and second in the qualifier advancing them to the semi-finals in Ft. Worth in February.

Jane Melby won the qualifier aboard Brookstone Jo while her very talented daughter took second aboard THC Lynard and finished up the top 10 aboard Eyema Rare Bug.

Melby won the event with a time of 16.205 aboard the very talented 5-year-old son of Brookstone Bay and out of Sheza Jo Baby Jo by Proudest Effort. Melby bought the Brookstone Bay gelding from John Read Foster as a 3-year-old.

"We bought him as a 3-year-old and John said he was started on the pattern and we just had to have him. Cayla rode him off and on as a 3 and 4-year-old. His first run ever was with no exhibition and he was a 17.5 on a standard pattern. We knew that he was a natural on the barrels and that he could have a very bright future," explained Melby.

The Melby ladies hauled him this summer to some Canadian Pro Rodeos showing him some sights and working him on the pattern when they could.

"Strathmore, Alberta Pro Tour Rodeo was Brookstone Jo's first big performance and he placed Cayla and Sierra Shields 5th and 6th in the long go-round outrunning the bigs in the business. After that he decided he wanted to be a rodeo horse and has done great ever since and still hasn't had more than about 20 runs."

Friday night before the qualifier, Jane and Cayla had to decide what horses they were going to run before the horse change deadline at 5pm.

"With four great horses on the trailer, I told Cayla she could pick 1st and 2nd and I would take the 3rd pick and run the 4th horse in the open. All the horses felt great in exhibitions and we decided on which horses we were mounting," noted Melby.

Prior to the qualifier round, Melby (Jane) was winning the open 5D on Showamaley, who she had picked to just run in the open, so she was wondering if she made the right horse pick for the qualifier for The American.

"Cayla drew up last on THC Lynard. I was pretty excited about could of rode him around. I told Cayla he didn't even know he was supposed to be getting ready. Brookstone Jo was 28th out and my plan was to ride hard and really twist my body in the turns. He was so quiet in the alley that I wasn't sure if he was going to take off. When he decided to go, he left super hard. I had all I could do to screw myself into the saddle before the cross on barrel one. Once I was caught up with him the game was on. Be aggressive and ride him stride for stride."

Aggressive was the key and Melby turned it on when she crossed the line in the fastest time of the qualifying round.

"The Calgary Barrel Classic 5d & The American qualifier was ran very well. Toni Dixon and Lana Tibbetts and her crew did a super job. It was an incredible facility with great energy! Everything was ran as planned," Melby said.

Imanonstop Fame & Jackie Jatzlau Win Jud Little's Bar Nothin Barrel Bash Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Jackie Jatzlau and Imanonstop Fame ("Prince") capped off a two-week hauling spree with a $10,457 victory at Jud Little's Bar Nothin Barrel Bash Futurity. Combined with her third-place finish at the Parker Wood Memorial Futurity in Utah and fifteenth-place finish at the Albuquerque, N.M., pro rodeo, Prince jumped his career earnings by $24,000 to nearly $120,000.

"He honestly amazes me," said Jatzlau, who hails from Giddings, Texas. "He just makes the same run every time, give or take. He really is one in a million."

Making the win extra special was the gelding's ties to the Jud Little Ranch. Bred by Jatzlau, Prince, a 4-year-old palomino gelding, is by Dash Ta Fame out of her former rodeo mount Imanonstop Princess, by Letta Hank Do It. Imanonstop Princess now resides in Little's broodmare band.

"I thought that was cool," she said. "He went on the microphone when they presented the awards and said that. I'm really proud that Princess is in his breeding program. He can promote her and give her babies the very best chance."

Jatzlau and Prince won the Futurity by placing fourth in the first round and second in the second. They were the first gunners on Friday and the very last runner for Saturday's second round.

"I made a really good first run," said Jatzlau. They also placed fifth in the 1D in a very tough Open with their carryover time from the Futurity. "He smoked the first barrel and smoked the second barrel. He kind of studder-stepped at the third. He just got hung up a little in the ground, but nothing major. It was very smooth, very pretty, very easy."

Jatzlau said she got a little nervous before her second run. As she was sitting in the warmup pen awaiting her run, she heard two no-times due to horses falling. All she could think about was the fact

JL Time For A Change (JL Sirocco × Turning Pages, Maskrullah) Page marks all her foals with her good looks and conformation. I'm excited for this cross with Sirocco. PESI, VGBRA, 5 State and Future Fortunes eligible. This pretty filly is a yearling.

JL Goliath (Red × Nicks Nikita) From one of the last foal crops by Red. He is out of an own daughter of Dr Nick Bar and a full brother to JL The Red Monster who sold at the 2014 OKC BFA sale for $16,500. Paid in full to FF, PESI, and VGBRA and 5 State eligible. He is two this year.

JL Goodnight (Firewater On The Rocks × CS Dee Light) By the popular FWOTR out of a full sister to CS Flashlight. This pretty, gray filly has 90 days under saddle. Very nice mover. WPRA PESI enrolled. Future Fortunes Eligible. She is two this year.

*Congratulations to Derek Hixon and JL Reddy To Fire (Red×Megga Firewater), 4th in the 1D Average, 5th in 1st Go and 2nd in 3rd Go at the Sept. 11–13 Indiana Barrel Futurity with winnings totaling $1690!

that she was less than two months removed from surgery to repair complications in her wrist from her accident two years ago at the BFA World Championships.

"I'm thinking, 'Oh fabulous. Please keep your feet under you and don't fall on me because my wrist is not a 100 percent yet!' I just tried to go make a really smooth run," she said. "He got a little by the first barrel because he ran in there so hard, but he hit and came back so fast it was extremely smoking fast even though he went a little bit by it. He peeled the paint off the second barrel. I got a little in the rut at the third barrel.

"It was a special win because I'm not firing on all cylinders and this shows what a special horse he is."

Prince will have a little break this weekend while Jackie conducts a clinic. Next week, Prince will get the call at pro rodeos in Bellville and Seguin, Texas, as he gets seasoned for his owner Shelly Weaver of Drumright, Okla.

"I'm going to try to get him a little seasoned," she said. "My plan was to take him to some rodeos and get him seasoned, but my wrist prohibited that, so he got an extended vacation. The weekend after that I'm going to Mississippi to The American qualifier in Starkville and the weekend after that is the WPRA Futurity."

Keeping it in the Family- Conrado Wins Qualifier #5

By Hope Sickler

Hudson, Colorado is the home to a very familiar household name in the barrel racing industry; the Conrado's. This past weekend at The American Qualifier stop #5 held in Loveland, Colorado, the youngest of the Conrado family, Ivy Conrado, not only qualified for her first semi-finals on the road to The American but she took home top honors winning qualifier #5. This made it the third year that Loveland has hosted a qualifying race, in conjunction with the Mile Hi Barrel Horse Year End Finals, and the second year a Conrado has won the event.

Conrado was aboard her main mount who is freakishly fast and can spin a top off a barrel, CFour Tibbie Stinson. "Tibbie" as the family affectionately calls her, is a daughter of Eddie Stinson and she is out of the cornerstone mare in Conrado's breeding program Little Fancy Granny who is by Del Puerto Bill. Little Fancy Granny is the horse that Conrado had so much success on in junior high and amateur rodeos. The great mare also has countless pro rodeo earnings as well as helping a couple barrel racers qualify for the National Finals Rodeo. "Tibbie" is following in her mother's hoof prints having won money at all levels from the futurities with Conrado's father, Kelly, who trained the 6-year-old mare, to winning at derbies and pro rodeos with Ivy.

It was almost meant to be. "Tibbie" comes from great stock that have won at the highest levels and the same goes with Conrado. Both her parents, Kelly Conrado and Cody Denton Doig, have had huge success around the cloverleaf pattern and are known across the country for training some of the greatest horses to have ever run the barrel pattern. Conrado and her two older siblings, Chance and Paige, were taught at an early age what true horsemanship was all about.

This past weekend at the 3-day Steel N Cash Race held in Loveland, Conrado made a run the night before the qualifying round aboard "Tibbie" and hit a barrel.

"I ran in the slot race the night before and I made mistakes and hit a barrel. I was a little upset about it and it was kind of a good incentive for me to clean up my act for the qualifying run the next night. Dad (Kelly) lined me out and got me straightened up about my angle to the first barrel and with his help we nailed it the next night," explained Conrado.

Conrado blazed the pattern in Loveland almost faster than an eye could see running a 16.835. She had to wait and see how it ended up but no matter what happened, Conrado was more than pleased with her run and how well "Tibbie" worked.

"After we nailed our first barrel, I just wanted to go fast, stay centered and be clean. So that's what I did and Tibbie knocked it out of the park. She runs as hard as she can and turns as hard as she can so there is absolutely no room for error. She likes to do things her way and there is no other way but we absolutely adore her and could not imagine our lives without her. She is just a fun horse to be around and has a very large personality."

The blistering fast run the duo made in Loveland earned them a trip to the semi-finals in Ft. Worth in February where they will run against the other top qualifiers in hopes of making The American.

Pozzi & Kisskiss Bangbang Set Standard Pattern Record

By Tanya Randall

Two-time World Champions Barrel Racer Brittany Pozzi and her homebred 5-year-old mare Kisskiss Bangbang (“Mona”) set a world record on a WPRA Standard Pattern at the Tough As Steel Slot Race in Loveland, Colo., with a 16.479.

The previous world record was a 16.586 set by Courtney Duncan on Ms Perky Bug at the West Regional Championships in Porto Feliz in Sao Paulo, Brazil, in February 2013.

Pozzi and Mona were the first gunners out of the gate on the laser-staked pattern. After the completion of the race, the pattern was measured again to confirm it was an official 90 x 105 pattern with a 60 foot score. Since it was laser staked, the barrels were centered on the stakes as per WPRA rules.

“It was so neat because everyone stayed in the arena to watch them measure the stakes,” said Pozzi, who had just returned to her Victoria, Texas, home for the winter. “When they gave the thumbs up, everyone cheered. It was really neat.”

“I never dreamed in a million years that would happen. I had run a 16.7 earlier and I had wondered if it really was a Standard, because a .7 is really fast.”

The only hiccup of the entire run was bump at the first barrel that left Pozzi hoping that the barrel didn’t go over.

“I got her nose at the first a little too soon and she bumped it, but she inhaled it,” said Pozzi. “She did bow off the third just a little bit, but she was running so hard I don’t think it cost her anything. She doesn’t waste any motion around the barrels at all.”

Mona, a daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of CD Nick Bar, by Dr Nick Bar, won more than $175,000 as a 4-year-old between futurities, slot races and pro rodeos. Nearly all of Pozzi’s rodeo winnings have been aboard the mare.

After having some barrel hitting issues, Pozzi switched the mare to the left in June. It took the two a while to iron out the new direction, but as of late she’s really been coming together, noted Pozzi.

She’s also forgiven Mona for putting her in the hospital and amputating a portion of her finger.

“It was that same night in Omaha, two years ago, that she did that to me,” laughed Pozzi, who posted her note of forgiveness to Mona on Facebook. The mare was 3 at the time and spooked in the tent stall she was in. She ended up sending Pozzi flying into a wheelbarrow outside the stall door before jumping it and Pozzi. In the process, she tipped everything over knocking Pozzi out and stepping on her finger with a hind foot.

Currently, Pozzi and Mona are getting ready to start the 2016 WPRA season this first weekend of October with the early fall fair rodeos in Texas.

Nevertheless, this article should serve as historical reference of one of the greatest runs ever made on a WPRA Standard Pattern.

Compiled by the Barrel Racing Report

There have also been a couple of 16.5s run in Brazil recently but we do not have all that information. In fact, because most the races are run on a standard in Brazil they keep a list of the fastest times on a standard just for Brazil.

The list of top times on a standard pattern is simply to remember some of the greatest runs in barrel racing history. Because we lack a single governing body in our sport, all the these records can not be verified 100%, thus we list it as the unofficial list!

Buyers from surrounding states and those from New York, Oregon, Florida, Oklahoma, Montana and Minnesota had the opportunity to bid on 65 head of horses from weanlings to broke saddle horses.

Auctioneering for 39 years was Lynn Weishaar and beside him defining the pedigrees was John Johnson. Bob & Karen Meyer celebrated the top 3 selling weanlings. Gunners Bay Jack (Young Rio Gunner X Frosts Dun Polly) claimed a final bid by John Hoven of McLaughlin SD of $5,300. John also purchased Sugardrop Jack (SNW Northern Frost X Sugar Drop Frost) for $4,300 and Classy Jack Drift (SNW Northern Frost X Frosts Pretty Drift) for $4,000 and Gunners Rusty (Young Rio Gunner X Frosts Golden Glow) for $3,000.

Longtime sale partner Lee Lopez sold 5 weanlings sired by stallions Three Bars Frost and Tenacious Gold Bar which averaged $1,290. Fred Lenertz from Minnesota was volume buyer purchasing 10 head from the Lauing's and Meyer's.

Denny & Doris Lauing of Sturgis who have been involved with the sale for the past 3 years had the high selling yearling, Comos Doc Fritz (Comos Cottoneye X Tawny Trail) selling for $2,700. This is from the last colt crop of Comos Cottoneye that perished in the 2013 October blizzard Atlas. They also sold 13 weanlings that averaged $1,384.

High selling saddle horse was consigned by Jerry Mayer of Piedmont, selling for $7,000 was Guys Miss Peppy (Frenchmans Hickory X Haidas Playboy Girl) a 2011 sorrel mare from the Lauing breeding program. Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Things change. Times change. It is a fact of life. Barrel racing has changed, too. Back in the day.....oh never mind that, I'm starting to talk like my parents!!

Does anyone out there remember the days before the 4D's? I can remember working a little harder to get my horses prepared for barrel races. There was only going to be one winner that day. Was it going to be me? I didn't have one, or two, not three or four or more chances to win a check. It was sink or swim.

So it was a little disconcerting when in Heber City, Utah after the first go of the futurity, finding myself sorta, kinda, wishing that I had run just a LITTLE SLOWER so I could have been in the top of the 2D! I even asked my husband, "Just when did that happen? That somewhere along the line I'm finding it okay that I'm a full second off the winner???" SHEESH!

Like I said, times are changing. But there are some things that should NEVER change. We should NEVER compromise where the word of God is concerned. We should NEVER just back off a little and fudge on exactly what the Word says. We can't be political-correct. We have to be WORD correct. We are God's representatives in this world. We can't act like the world. No little white lies. No fit throwing. No cheating. If you and I, as God's representatives or "ambassadors" as the Bible calls us (2 Cor. 5:17-20), are acting like wrong things are okay, then just how are people that don't know God going to recognize HIM in US? They won't.....cuz we look and act like those who don't know our very good God!

Ride fast and turn sharp!
