Dice & Tivitosatthegogobar Party On at West Coast Barrel Racing Finals

By Tanya Randall

WPROA rookie Rachel Dice drove home to Livermore, Calif., with $8,933 and the 1D Average Championship from the $100,000-added West Coast Barrel Racing Finals—dubbed “The Richest Race in the West” held at Diamond Bar Arena in Ceres, Calif.

“I love it there,” said Dice, 25. “They have such a great setup for us. There was enough room for all of us, and they had 505 runs each day. They’re super nice. Shane Parsons, who owns the arena, is super accommodating. They have great food. The ground is always great, and my mare runs super good there. Jaime (Hinton) did a great job with all the prizes and getting so many vendors in there. They ran 45 runs an hour, which is so fast. They ran three tractors and did a big drag every 35. They really took care of us.”

Dice and her 7-year-old reining reject Tivitosatthegogobar (“Katie”) placed seventh in the first race on Saturday with a 17.463 on the WPROA Standard Pattern in the sandy loam outdoor pen.

“My first run on Saturday could have been better,” said Dice. “We went around the first barrel and tipped it. I actually reached over and pushed it back up, so that cost us a little bit of time.” They got faster on Sunday with a 17.316 that placed fourth.

“Sunday we got a little stuck around the barrels,” she explained. “We were right before a big drag, so it was a little deeper, but we still ran faster than Saturday.”

On Monday, the draw order was determined by everyone’s average on two runs with the fastest on two running at the very end. Dice and Katie scorched a 16.981.

“It was the run of a lifetime!” she exclaimed. “She’s always run super-good in that pen. She just worked her little butt off. Every barrel was pretty much flawless. I was so happy. I always nit-pick myself on what I could do better, but I was so happy after that run.”

Dice, an office manager at a geotechnical consulting firm, grew up going to junior and high school rodeos. She picked up reining when she started competing in rodeo queen’s cont

“I showed NRHA in their West Coast affiliate,” she explained. “It started when I was doing some rodeo queen stuff. I bought a reiner for that and really liked it. I started taking some lessons. I became a way better rider, and when I went back to barrel racing, it really improved my times.”

She picked up Katie as a 4-year-old from Michelle Roye, who was giving her reining lessons at the time.

“My old reining trainer said I have this 4-year-old that’s not going to make a reiner; she’d probably made a good kid’s gymkhana horse; you could probably sell her for a couple of grand,” she laughed. “She sold her to me for really cheap. I really liked her personality. We just did little jackpots and stuff, and all of a sudden she was running 1D. I was like kid’s gymkhana horse, yeah right!”

Bred by Dee Braught of Cottonwood, Calif., Katie is by Tivitos Sugar Bar out of Red Oak Doll, by Flips Red Oak. Her top and bottom is loaded with Doc Bar breeding and she traces back to Colonel Flip and Go Man Go through her female line.

This spring Dice bought her WPROA permit. Their first rodeo was the Chowchilla Stampede in Oakdale, Calif., the first weekend of April, and they had won enough money to buy her card in May. Then her boss, a roper, gave her the greatest of gifts.

“He said, ‘Merry Christmas. Take July off and go rodeo.’ So, I went and went all out,” she laughed. “Everyone at work has been so supportive. Even the ones that don’t rope are checking the standings to see how I’m doing.”

Jud Little’s Bar Nothin Barrel Bash & Production Sale approaches

The 2014 edition of Jud Little’s Bar Nothin Barrel Bash & Production Sale is slated for September 24-28. The 12th Annual Bar Nothin Barrel Bash will be held at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, OK, while the Production Sale will be held at the famous Jud Little Ranch in Springer, Okla., just a few miles north of Ardmore on Saturday, September 27.

The Bar Nothin Barrel Bash features an impressive $60,000 in added money. The action kicks off with a 4D Barrel Race on Wednesday, September 24, and Thursday, September 25, before the 1st Go of the $30,000-added Futurity on Friday morning with a 4D Barrel Race to follow. For this year’s race, the 4D prizes will be given to the winners in Friday’s 4D; they must be picked up before everyone leaves Sunday and will not be mailed. Saturday morning will feature the 2nd Go of the Futurity. After the futurity, the barrel racing action will stop in Ardmore so everyone can head to the Jud Little Ranch for all the sale activities.

The 2014 Jud Little Ranch Production Sale will start with sale demonstrations at 3 pm with the Sale to start promptly at 6 pm.

This year’s sale features everything from 2- and 3-year-old started prospects, broodmares (2-in-1 and 3-in-1 packages), futurity-aged horses and weanlings with some of the best bloodlines in the country. Some of the sires represented include multiple arena record holder and NFR Qualifier JL Dash Ta Heaven; NFR qualifier and 2-time All American Quarter Horse Congress Senior Barrels Champion Chicados Cash; leading sire A Streak Of Fling; All-Time Leading Barrel Sire Dash Ta Fame; multiple NFR Sire Judge Cash and many others.

The backbone of the Little Ranch program has long been exceptional mare power. The sale will feature some of the best female families in the industry with the likes of Scratchy Nick Bar, a full sister to Willy Nick Bar, the only horse to win both rounds and the finals of the BFA World Championship Futurity; Dinkys Purple Rain, 1998 AQHA World Champion Amateur Barrel Horse; Streakin For Fame, a ProRodeo Earner and Open 1D winner; Blond Lady Shilabar, a full sister to WPRA & NBHA World Champion, Nate Shilabar (Hotshot); Nicky Brick House, 2010 NFR & CFR qualifier, just to name a few.

“This year we have a really nice set of horse, the best we have ever offered”, said Jud Little, “This sale is going to be a really good opportunity for people to get some quality horses and top bloodlines. We have taken great care to make sure all the started prospects are riding like they should. Like every year, it will be an honest sale, when you pick up your buyers number, you will be given a sheet with all the veterinarian notes on all the horses that covers everything beyond normal health care and all no sales will be called right in the ring.”

Sale catalogs were mailed earlier this week. If you do not receive a catalog by the end of the week, email the Jud Little Ranch office at office@judlitteranch.com or give them a call at 580.653.2384. The catalog is also available as an “app” in the App Store, just look for “Jud Little” or if you don’t have an iPhone just go to JudLittle.adsfactory.com. For more information on the sale, simply go to www.JudLittleRanch.com, hover over the News & Events tab and click on Horse Sale.

Barrel racing action resumes Sunday morning after Cowboy Church held at 9 am in the Hardy Murphy Coliseum with Dr. Virgil Trout. Then the $10,000-added 4D Barrel Race, with another $10,000 added in Future Fortunes Bonus Money, will kick off at 10 am sharp. The first runs of Sunday’s 4D will be the AQHA Class. In fact, each day’s 4D and the Futurity will start with the AQHA class. Anyone wanting to enter the AQHA class portion of any of the 4Ds or Futurity will need to be pre-entered by September 15. Sunday’s 4D will be limited to 600 entries due to time constraints except to BBR members or Future Fortunes eligible entries. To enter the Bar Nothin Barrel Bash or for more information, simply go to www.JudLittleRanch.com and browse over the tab, News & Events, and and click on Barrel Bash when it comes up or you may also go directly to www.FastEnter.com to enter.

Dice also wanted to thank her parents and her husband John.

"They have been super supportive. When I broke down outside of Salt Lake after my run at Cheyenne, my dad and my husband drove out with the backup truck to pick me so I would make it to Salinas on time. My family, my friends, my work have all be so supportive. I wouldn't be able to do this without them."

Laughlin dominates Ellensburg; crunch time for others

By Julie Mankin

It's a familiar story – Christine Laughlin had never been to the Reno Rodeo or the California Rodeo or to Ellensburg, Wash., in her life. She didn't know what to expect, but you wouldn't know that by looking at the results.

Laughlin piloted Guy's Six Pack To Go to first place on her first run in Ellensburg with the fastest time of the rodeo. Then she placed second in Round Two and came back to win the short round, clocking a total of 51.65 seconds on three runs.

She won the rodeo by seven-tenths of a second to earn $9,117 in championship points. That means Laughlin isn't just making the NFR for the first time – she's now comfortably in the top 10.

"In the first round during slack I was up toward the top, 14th, and the ground held pretty good for me so that was to my advantage," said Laughlin, who won a buckle (on a purse) plus spurs and a vest. "He feels good and he's running hard. I ran the sorrel horse at Lewiston this morning. I know Lewiston is a good rodeo, but Six Pack just ran tough and could use a break. I built him a big pen out here and he thinks he's on vacation."

Six Pack's owner, Kathleen Collier, has been on the road with Laughlin for a couple of weeks, and exercised Six Pack in Idaho while Laughlin flew to Pueblo and ran her brown horse, Johnny. Meanwhile, the sorrel, Bud Light, will get the call at other rodeos this month and Johnny will run at Pendleton. In fact, Six Pack has just four venues remaining – Puyallup, Amarillo, Albuquerque and Omaha. Then he seriously will be on vacation, except for a possible call at the WPRA World Finals in October.

As of Sept. 1, Laughlin had earned $86,845 at 65 rodeos this season, which put her ninth in the world.

"What I didn't want to do this year was have to bust my butt to all those last-second rodeos," said Laughlin. "I feel so much better about everything. Now, my goal is $90,000."

Plenty of other gals wish they could get to ninety grand. Just four weekends of rodeos remain, with the richest happening in Pendleton, Ore. Last year, winner Christy Loflin "let 'er buck" with a whopping $10,791. One go-round pays almost $5,000, so that rodeo has the potential to be the biggest game-changer in making the NFR. Loflin needs to win Pendleton again this year – she sits 13th and five cowgirls are within $7,500 of catching her.

Lewiston, Idaho has already kicked off, and another good one this week is in Fort Madison, Iowa. Puyallup next week has $20,000 added, and it will be followed by Abilene, Texas ($5,000), Albuquerque, N.M. ($11,000), and finally Amarillo, Texas ($4,000). Lots of tiny rodeos abound in the third week of September, but a good one can be found in Pasadena, Texas – a Wrangler Tour rodeo with $10,000 added this year.

In fact, Pasadena could make a big difference in the end-of-season Wrangler bonuses. While Laughlin looks to have clinched the big $7,500 bonus for first, bubble girl Samantha Lyne is in a very tight race for one of the remaining three bonuses.

Also, the two remaining Champions' Challenge races could make a difference. One is scheduled for Sept. 17 in Amarillo and the finale will be in Omaha on Sept. 27. Luckily for Loflin, she should have been invited to both.

Even more interesting is the fact that all seven girls on the proverbial bubble (each has earned between $62,000 and $69,500) will get to compete at Omaha this year, because the top 24 qualify – not just the top 12. Last year, that rodeo paid $6,155 for first and $5,328 for second place.

Omaha is not the only game in town over the final weekend of the season, however. During that pressure-packed few days, there are a few other hot spots. Girls could hang out in California and hit San Bernardino ($4,000 added), Poway ($3,500), Bakersfield ($1,050) and Kingman, Ariz. ($1,500). If 18th-ranked Ann Scott can rake in $4,295 during that run like she did last year, it could send her to her first NFR.

Or, the bubble girls could hit Texas and enter Stephenville ($5,000), Tyler ($1,000), New Braunfels ($1,500) and Llano ($1,500). There are additionally a couple of rodeos in Alberta (Hanna and Brooks) that add a few thousand dollars apiece – plus, Kansas City is a WPRA Tour rodeo with $5,000 added. And that's it.

Who will be the one to pull a Sydni Blanchard in 2014? Last year, Blanchard pulled a check at a whopping eight rodeos in the final two weeks to sneak into 15th place with $58,831. This time, 15th-

"Anytime I notice one of my horses starting to cycle, I immediately give them a dose of Oxy-Mare and follow through to the end of their cycle. Oxy-Mare keeps them relaxed and focused for their runs! I also feed PMP every day to She's Free to Flame and would never leave home without it!"

—Brittany Pozzi

"PMP has helped make my mares more comfortable to train than when without it, and it's drastically reduced the time they are in heat. They've been able to hold their form without getting distracted, and when I use both PMP and Oxy Mare, my mares are on the top of their game when I need them to be!"

Jackie Ganter Repeats As ANHA 1D Shootout Champion with Blazin Baby J

By Tanya Randall

For the second straight year, Jackie Ganter of Abilene, Texas, has won the ANHA 1D Shootout in near record fashion. She and her talented, young gelding Blazin Baby J, on whom she made her debut a year ago at ANHA, posted two sub-17-second runs on a WPRA Standard Pattern to claim top honors and $1,993.

The 25th Annual ANHA Shootout featured a $12,000-added 5D Barrel Race and a $5,000-added 4D Pole Bending. Riders made two qualifying runs with the top 15 each division qualifying for a Shootout. Each Shootout was its own straight run race with the best average of the qualifying time and shootout time taking home a trophy saddle.

All totaled, Ganter pocketed $6,817 and took home two saddles and three buckles, one of which was the Steve Fiebig Memorial Fast Time Buckle.

Ganter, a 17-year-old high school senior who will graduate early this December, actually topped Monday's 1D Shootout aboard her 6-year-old gelding Cartels Fame with a spectacular 16.705, the fastest run of the entire event.

"He had a great run in the first round," said Ganter of the Dash Ta Fame gelding out of a Corona Cartel mare. "He's always a little tight in that arena. I had to do quite a bit to get him around in the first round. We chose to draw him out of the second round because we knew that he would get tighter. I'm glad we saved him."

Cartel actually had the slower qualifying time of 16.990, so he ran before Baby J, who qualified with a 16.760.

"The first round he was really tight," she said of Baby J's run of 17.279. "He was really tight in Oklahoma City (for the Summer Shootout). I thought maybe I didn't ride him as hard as I should. Before the second round, I put draw reins on him and worked him pretty hard before I ran. He ran a .760 to win second. He was still tight. We didn't have room to spare."

Before she ran Cartel in the Shootout, her mother Angela, a former ANHA Arena Record Holder, told her that she would give her $100 if she would "run him off."

"If you watch the video he went to the wall at first, and he ran way by the second and a little by third, but he just snapped back as hard as he could. As soon as I dropped my outside rein he just snapped back on top of them," she said.

That energy carried through to Baby J, a 5-year-old gelding by Dash Ta Fame out of Medley A Blazin, by Chicks A Blazin. Baby J stopped the clock in 16.871 for an average of 16.816 on two.

"After I had such a good run on Cartel, I just got on him and thought 'just go for it; get around.' He worked awesome. He got by his barrels a little bit so he wasn't as fast as (the second round), but he had a great run," she added.

She had also qualified for the 1D Finals on Dufur Quarter Horses' Famous Wahini Moon, a 5-year-old daughter of Famous Bugs.

"I've been getting with her really good," she said. "We had a great run in the first round. In the second round, she slipped a little. She got by the first with me; it was my fault."

Unlike last year when she had five head all in the 1D Shootout that she won aboard Schiller Ranch's Recent Release with an arena record 16.670, Ganter had just three in the 1D Shootout. Her solid rodeo horse Guys French Jet, a 10-year-old Frenchmans Guy stallion, qualified in the 2D.

"The first run of a weekend he doesn't fire as hard," she explained. "I drew him out the second day so he would stay in the 2D. I knew he would run harder the next time. It paid off. I had three in the 1D, so it was good that it broke it up a little bit."

Next up for Ganter is the Texas Cowboys Rodeo Association Finals in Odessa, Texas. She's currently the barrel racing standings' leader.

"I didn't really intend to go for the year-end standings," she said. "I was just trying to season my horses, and it turned out that I won most of them that I went to."

"I ran Jet and Cartel at some. Baby J probably has won me the most at the TCRA's. He's really done awesome at the rodeos this summer, so has Cartel. Jet, well, he'd rather be at a rodeo than a barrel race."

Ganter is sponsored by Dufur Quarter Horses, RES Sport Boots, 5-Star Equine Products, Double J Saddlery, Equidite, Key City Vet Clinic, Back On Track, K9s4COPs, Hi-Pro Feeds and Stephenville Trailers. She is anxiously counting down the days until she turns 18 and can by her WPRA permit, which she hopes to fill in short order.

"It's getting close," said Ganter, who will turn 18 on October 4. "I'll go to what I can, but there's not a whole lot before the NFR. I'll go the WPRA Finals, and try to get as much won as I can so I get into the big rodeos. That's hard for a rookie."

Jeanine McMinn, beloved coach and mentor, passes

The southeast Texas barrel racing community suffered a devastating blow Sunday, August 31, with the loss of beloved barrel racing instructor Jeanine McMinn of Magnolia, Texas. At the time of her death, McMinn, 62, was doing what she loved, coaching her stable of young riders who were competing at the 25th Annual ANHA Finals in Waco, Texas.

In an industry void of coaches and instructors, McMinn provide the barrel racing equivalent of an English boarding and riding stable. She provided suitable barrel racing mounts, gave instruction and hauled countless children—a job so greatly needed, but so few are willing to undertake in our sport. She and her husband Don also hosted camps at their McMinn Quarter Horses.

McMinn touched a countless number of young lives and she started them on their barrel racing journeys. What she did—the extra mile she went—will be greatly missed.

At ANHA, McMinn's daughter Tiffani Wooten, in an overwhelming demonstration of faith, love and courage, ran in tribute to her mother. The picture perfect run was a fitting honor for a woman who strived to see her young charges do her best and exemplified all that she stood for.

Friends of McMinn have created a memorial contribution page at GiveForward.com. The Magnolia Community Horse Club, where McMinn was a fixture, is planning a barrel race in her honor. Details will be made available sometime Wednesday.

McMinn's services will be held at 1 p.m. on Thursday, September 4 at the Magnolia Funeral Home in Magnolia. Visitation is Wednesday evening September 3.

Barrel racing great Nonstopwithcredit passes

Nonstopwithcredit, one of the cornerstones and founding matriarchs of Jud Little's powerful breeding program, was laid to rest on September 1. She was 21.

"She was one of my first big winners back in 1998 when I got started," said Little. "She was a heckofa producer too."

Bred by Ralph McLeod, Sycamore, Ga., Nonstopwithcredit, better known as "Bad Betty," was by Cash Not Credit, Little's senior stallion who is now pensioned, and out of the Nonstop Jet mare Nonstop Betty.

Bad Betty started her career under the saddle of Prissy Massingill, who made the mare a Top 5 finalist at the 1996 Clack-A-Drome Futurity as a 3-year-old. In the middle of her 4-year-old year, Kim Thomas took the reins.

Thomas and Bad Betty were finalists at the GQRA Spring Futurity and Old Fort Days Futurity. They won the 1997 PENWV-NITKA Futurity and were reserve champions at the Florida Barrel Racing Association Futurity.

When Thomas went to Oklahoma to work for Little, Bad Betty went too. Little purchased the mare in January 1998. That spring a magical pairing was made between Thomas's daughter Marsee Ferguson (now McCown), who was 9 at the time, and Bad Betty.

Ferguson and Bad Betty won the inaugural running of the Speed-horse Gold & Silver Cup Derby and the Senior barrels at the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo. They were at the 1999 and 2000 BFA World Championship Derby and 1999 All American Quarter Horse Congress Sweepstakes, were third in the 1999 BFA Juniors back when it was a straight-run barrel race, and were reserve champions at the Ardmore Fall Derby, which later became the Bar Nothin Barrel Bash.

Ky Stierwalt, the brother of barrel racer Kyra Stierwalt, placed 11th at the 2000 All-American Quarter Horse Congress Sweepstakes. Little's daughter Mattie Little-Jackson also drew a check on the mare at the 2002 All American Youth.

In 2004, Janae Ward Massey climbed aboard Bad Betty after Little's World Champion Dynas Plain Special made her last career run at Jackson, Miss.

"Back then Rodeo Houston was three rounds and average," recalled Little. "Janae made the short go on her and never won a check the whole rodeo."

Ward-Massey won several 1D checks on Bad Betty before Little's ex-wife Tammy Little took over the reins.

"She won more than $117,000 with nine different riders," said Little proudly.

In the broodmare band, Bad Betty produced Little's junior stallion Bestcreditesunfrost, by Sun Frost. Bestcreditesunfrost is a barrel money earner himself and has sired 11 barrel horses with Equi-Stat earnings from a limited crop of foals.

She also produced Cantstophiseffort, a gelding by Special Effort, that was a finalist at the 2008 Old Fort Days Futurity, Fizz Bomb Futurity, BFA Juvenile Futurity, Good Times Futurity, Bar Nothin Barrel Bash Futurity, BFA Derby; Bullys Takin Credit, a gelding by Bully Bullion, that was a finalist at the 2006 Good times Futurity; and open barrel racing money earner Dashin Nonstop, a gelding by Black Dash.

Her bloodlines are represented in Little's broodmare band through her daughter Nonstop Miracle, a daughter of Dean Miracle.

Billings, MT Barrel Horse Sale Report

From grade to designer pedigreed livestock, barrel horses were the business at Billings Livestock's "August Special Catalog Sale" August 23.

Both the 2D and 4D division championships were earned by sale horses - Hip 111 "Eye Am Famous" a 2009 AQHA Gray Gelding by Mr Eye Opener competently claimed the 2D title, while Hip 114 "Danger Kitty" a 2004 AQHA Sorrel Mare sired by With Honors took the top spot in the 4D.

A standout prospect well on his way to big things, Hip 111 "Eye Am Famous" was piloted by Riley Hanson and consigned by Schmitt Horse Ranch, Holland, IA.

By Mr Eye Opener, A Top All-Time Leading Sire of Money Earners of Nearly $26 Million, and out of a Dash Ta Fame daughter, he was bred to be special, came double broke and gentle, and brought $14,750.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Determination is an important factor in developing good barrel horse. Determination and desire go hand in hand and that means you have to make time to consistently train or practice your horse. You have to see to his proper nutrition and physical health care needs.

We all need determination and desire also in our spiritual life. We should be determined to live the abundant life that Jesus promised we should have. We should desire a close relationship with our Creator who has promised to provide for us and to protect us if we only ask Him to and then believe that He will.

I've personally seen many miracles, hearings and great answers to prayer. The Bible teaches that all good and perfect gifts come from God. God also has promised to forgive us all our sins if we just ask Him to, and not only that, He said He'd forget about them and "remember them no more" (Hebrews 8:12). That should give us great peace because if God has forgiven our sins and forgotten them, we can put them out of our minds too. We don't have to keep beating ourselves up over past errors as Satan would like us to because God has already disposed of them.

So be determined and desire to get in a close walk with God. Read His Word in the Bible. Talk to Him. Ask for His help and direction and then follow His leading.

You might have made a bad start and even messed up on some of the turns of life. But, when you're headin' for home, you'll know you're finishing well and you'll hear the Master say, "Well done, my good and faithful servant."

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
