2014 Top 15 Remains Unchanged, Sarah McDonald captures Rookie

By Tanya Randall

Samantha Lyne and Jana Bean can now breathe a huge sigh of relief. After nearly 100 rodeos each over the course of their yearlong battle to stay in the WPRA's Top 15, Lyne and Bean are first-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifiers.

Neither's weekend started out well. Lyne's great mare LK Watch Me Rock, a 6-year-old daughter of Firewaterontherocks out of Watch Me Runnin, by Lucks Runnin Bug, pulled a shoe while warming up for her run at Kansas City.

"I ran without a shoe at Kansas City and then had to keep her in Soft Rides until Charly Crawford could put the shoe back on," said Lyne. "Jana (Bean) was actually the one who found her shoe in the warmup pen."

Luckily, she left Kansas City placing, but she was low enough that she could be pumped out of a check in the performances.

Bean's luck was worse with her horse Heza Bug Leo, a 9-year-old gelding by Shawne Bug Leo out of County Line Liz, by Mister Te Jay, running off the pace.

Both Lyne and Bean left for Omaha knowing that Shelley Morgan, who was just a little over $3,200 back of Bean's 15th spot, was tied for second after Kansas City slack.

Ann Scott, who was also giving a game chase for that last spot, had tied with Lyne at Kansas City. She was out in the first set in Justin Boots Championships in Omaha and needed to make the Champions Challenge on Saturday to have a legitimate shot of making her first finals. When that failed to materialize, she pushed speed limits to make it back to her home state of California in time for the four remaining rodeos on the West Coast. By Sunday night, the stuntwoman and her horse Fallin For Fame, a 9-year-old gelding by Dash Ta Fame out of Immunity, by Merridoc, had placed at three rodeos from Kansas City to Bakersfield, Calif., won Poway, Calif., collected $2,502, and fell $2,297 short of making the NFR.

Lyne and Bean were both out Friday night in Omaha. The fastest runner from that performance would join Sarah McDonald, who won Thursday, in the Wrangler Champions Challenge Final. Former NFR-qualifier Britany Diaz played spoiler, earning the right to run in Saturday's challenge and solidified her chances at a World Championship run in Las Vegas this year.

As it stood, Lyne would split the last place check in Kansas City and Bean would take the last hole at Omaha. It was going to be up to the West Coast bunch to try to move them.

The biggest threat was former NFR Champion Brenda Mays, who was playing it cool on the West Coast. Riding her mare Judge My Fame, an 11-year-old daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of Flashy Cashy Cat, by Judge Cash, Mays placed at all four of the rodeos she entered and even won Bakersfield, Calif. She collected $3,986, which ended up being a heartbreaking $398 short. Incidentally, entries were down for the four rodeos Mays ran at, and had they paid the same as in 2013, she would have qualified and possibly bumped Lyne to 15th.

Sarah McDonald, Brunswick, Ga., and her great mare Fame Fling N Bling were the superstars on the weekend. Having only hauled seriously since July 5, McDonald captured the WPRA Rookie of the Year title and won an impressive $12,514.

Her richest pay check--$6,419--came from the Justin Boots Championships in Omaha. She followed it up with a second place finish in the Wrangle Champions Challenge for another $5,200.

"Omaha was really cool," said McDonald, 22. "I've never won a rodeo like that. I got to take a victory lap after I ran and then I got to go to interviews. They had a buckle ceremony afterwards. I've never got to do anything like that."

McDonald, who has put her nursing studies on hold, will be back in the spotlight at another ceremony—the WPRA Award Banquet in Las Vegas where she'll receive her Rookie-of-the-Year awards.

"I'm so excited about that," she added.

CINCH Among Partners For Grass Roots Finals

Grass Roots Finals Excitement is building for the inaugural CINCH Grass Roots Pro Rodeo Tour Finals presented by Ranchman's. The two-day event takes place on October 3-4 at the new Agrium Western Event Centre at Stampede Park in Calgary. It will be the first rodeo held in the 2,500-seat facility, which opened in June.

The top ten competitors in each event from the CPRA's Grass Roots Tour, which is made up of 35 rodeos in 2014, will qualify for the Finals. They'll be competing for a share of the $10,000 purse per event with all earnings counting in the Pro Rodeo Canada standings.

"We're not only paying a bonus for being the best on the tour, but that money could make or break it for some contestants. Those that are willing to keep going down the road will give themselves a second chance at qualifying for the CFR."

Supporting the grassroots of rodeo is a perfect fit for the title sponsor of the 1st annual Grass Roots Tour Finals.

"We are extremely excited to be partnering with the Canadian Pro Rodeo Association," says Megan Grieve, Sponsorship and Marketing Strategist for Cinch.

The CPRA will also bring the Calgary business community on board by giving companies a chance to draft a team of ten CINCH Grass Roots Tour Finals' qualifiers at a sponsor reception at the Ranchman's on October 2nd. The owner of the winning team will have $2,000 donated in their name to the Edmonton Rodeo Cowboys Benevolent Fund, which helps athletes in times of financial hardship due to rodeo-related injuries..

Tickets for the CINCH Grass Roots Tour Finals are available at Ticketmaster by calling 1-855-985-5000 or by visiting www.ticketmaster.ca. Courtesy of the CPRA.

Signal-Health Launches 100-Day Challenge

Signal-Health – the North American distributor of the Equiwinner™ non-invasive dermal patch – is on a quest. The company wants to alert owners and trainers that healthy horses will stay well hydrated on their own and to provide the solution to achieve such a healthy state.

Company owner, Barbara Socha, says, "We know people are skeptical to try something new when they already use something that seems to work and that they depend on. That's why we're launching the Equiwinner 100-Day Hydration Challenge – to convince them that it's better to eliminate hydration problems rather than just treat the symptoms."

In healthy horses, electrolytes work properly. Thirst is triggered as necessary, when there's an increase of extracellular fluid sodium concentration in the body. This must work especially well in winter, when horses need to drink MORE because their forage has likely changed from moisture-rich pasture to dry hay. And, because horses aren't as keen on cold water, they often drink LESS so it's even more critical for their thirst mechanism to be triggered properly.

She invites anyone whose horse doesn't drink enough or has a dry coat, mouth, manure or hooves to take the Challenge. A single treatment takes only 10 days yet can be effective for up to a full year.

"If a horse owner or trainer takes the 100-Day Challenge and sees no benefit at the end of it, we'll gladly refund the purchase price. There's no risk and nothing to lose."

For more information about the product or to register for the Equiwinner 100-Day Challenge, Ms Socha encourages horse owners and trainers to visit www.signal-health.com or phone toll-free: 1-877-378-4946.

Wrangler Champions Challenge growing in 2015

Heading into its second full year, the Wrangler Champions Challenge, presented by Justin Boots, has added three rodeos and an 11th team while maintaining its full complement of team sponsors and TV coverage. (Prize money remains $124,000 at most events in 2015 other than Kissimmee, Fla., where the committee has added an extra $1,000 for each event. Contestants took home more than $950,000 from the 2014 series' eight stops.)

Not only did all of the 2014 WCC hosts return to the lineup for 2015, three more committees have signed on for the new season: Logandale, Nev.; Cody, Wyo., and Pueblo, Colo.

Under the new format, there will no longer be a team made up of venue champions from the previous year, but instead the host committee will be able to field a "home team" by signing a sponsor.

Over the course of the 2014 season, RAM, ProRodeo Gear and the ProRodeo Hall of Fame joined initial team sponsors Wrangler, Justin Boots, Coors, B&W Trailer Hitches, Pendleton Whisky and the PRCA itself. Sponsors for 2015 teams will be announced in December, before those sponsors compete for players at a public draft in Las Vegas Dec. 14.

CBS SportsNet will televise all 2015 Wrangler Champions Challenge events. Courtesy of www.ProRodeo.com

McDonald and Bling also picked up checks at Kanas City and Stephenville, Texas, to complete their weekend. Bling, an 8-year-old daughter of A Streak Of Fling out of Short Penny, by Dash Ta Fame, has been one of the leading 1D horses in the country for the past three years. McDonald and Bling collected $64,063 in 59 rodeos with many of her earlier ones being smaller rodeos that paid less than $1,000 to win. McDonald isn't weakening for next year. She's already entered for the 2015 season, although she'll ride Bling's back up—Brookstone Rose, a 6-year-old daughter of Brookstone Bay out of a Jet Of Honor, Johnny Boone mare, that she won Hill City, Kansas, riding. "Bling's going to get a little break," she noted—a rest the gritty mare well deserves.

LC Packin Heat Smokes 'em at Jud Little's Bar Nothin Barrel Bash Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Cornhusker Futurity Champion LC Packin Heat, ridden by Troy Crumrine, Waynesfield, Ohio, for Matt and Bendi Dunn, Bismarck, Mo., turned in two wickedly fast, but consistent runs to win the $25,000-added Bar Nothin Barrel Bash Futurity, hosted by Jud Little in Ardmore, Okla.

The insanely tough event drew some of the toughest futurity horses going down the road and they packed the times in tightly with just 2/10ths of second separating first through tenth place in the first round and less than 3/10ths in the second. For point of reference, the top 10 open horses at The American Qualifier in Loveland, Colo., were separated by nearly less than 3/10ths.

Crumrine and the 5-year-old gelding known around the barn as "Elvis" started off with a first round winning 14.847 and followed it up with a 14.997 second-place finish in the second round. The sports all-time leading futurity rider said he could have been faster on his second run with Elvis. However, after having a plus-five mar a 14.8 aboard WB Toole Ta Fame, he decided it would be best to give a little ground and play it safe.

Luckily for Crumrine, Elvis has speed to burn. Bred by Kelly Carr, Madison, Ind., Elvis is by the late Dashin Elvis, a top barrel horse sire and former aged event winning barrel horse himself. Elvis' dam is Packin Sassy, a leading futurity horse in 1997 that helped propel her sire Packin Sixes to the leading sires list and started Crumrine on his streak of leading rider titles.

"He's faster than she was," said Crumrine, talking about the differences and similarities between Sassy and Elvis. "They both were four-wheel drive in the turns. They're just always reaching, always pulling."

The Dunns had purchased Elvis as a 2-year-old in a partnership with Michael Boone, who started the gelding on barrels. In the middle of Elvis' third year, he was sent to Crumrine with the plans of running as 4-year-old. Injuries, illness and plain bad luck combined with Crumrine's desire to stay close to home for year resulted in a 5-year-old futurity campaign. After Elvis' success at the Cornhusker Futurity in August, the Dunns bought out Boone's interest in the horse with the intentions of making him Bendi's rodeo horse following his aged event career.

The Bar Nothin Barrel Bash Futurity Championship was worth $13,041, not including carry-over open money and Future Fortunes bonuses. The Dunns also collected $8,953 on behalf of Jolene Montgomery's efforts with Dashin Czar, who placed third. Montgomery, Purdon, Texas, was also the Futurity Reserve Champion with Dale Rankin's Streakin Easily, by 9/100ths of a second—29.824 to 29.923.

Maggie Upton, San Angelo, Texas, and her family's home-raised Ima Flaming Fire topped the $5,000-Amateur Futurity. She had the best average on two runs to take home $1,500, plus $1,168 for placing seventh in the second round with a 15.037. Ima Flaming Fire, a 5-year-old gelding, is by the Upton's stallion Flaming Fire Water out of Ima Barmarble Bailey, by Bar Money.

"Anytime I notice one of my horses starting to cycle, I immediately give them a dose of Oxy-Mare and follow through to the end of their cycle. Oxy-Mare keeps them relaxed and focused for their runs! I also feed PMP every day to She's Free to Flame and would never leave home without it!"

—Brittany Pozzi

BREAK the Cycle!

"PMP has helped make my mares more comfortable to train than when without it, and it's drastically reduced the time they are in heat. They've been able to hold their form without getting distracted, and when I use both PMP and Oxy Mare, my mares are on the top of their game when I need them to be!"

—Theresa Walters

The most powerful product combo available that's designed exclusively for helping even the most difficult mare get her head back into the game so she can focus on your training and compete to the full without resorting to pharmaceuticals that can dull her "fire" and performance!

The 2014 Jud Little Ranch Production Sale Hits All Time Highs

The Jud Little Ranch, the Decade's Top Breeder and Owner, held their 2014 Production Sale, Saturday, September 27, at the ranch in Springer, OK in conjunction with the $60,000 added Bar Nothin Barrel Bash in Ardmore, OK. The 2014 sale featured the first major public offering of the offspring of multiple arena record holder and NFR horse, JL Dash Ta Heaven, and their other NFR horse and 2-Time All American QH Congress Senior Barrels Champion, Chicados Cash. As always, the Jud Little Ranch Production Sale featured some of the best mare power in the business. The preview and sale attracted a huge crowd excited to see one of the largest offerings of riding prospects in the barrel racing business and that excitement led to the best sale to date.

Topping the sale for a tidy sum of $25,000 was Lot 65, Dashin Ta Tinkinator. This royally bred 2 year old sorrel gelding carried the easy fluid movement of all the JL Dash Ta Heaven colts along with the winning genetics of sire, JL Dash Ta Heaven, and dam Frenchmans Lana (by Frenchmans Guy), who is a full sister to one of the greatest futurity horses ever, SX Frenchmans Vanilla and was also a top barrel horse herself. With blue blood running through him, this gelding had the looks, movement, and pedigree of a future futurity and rodeo star.

The striking, strong 3 year old gray gelding, Sunfrost Fantasy (Lot 21), caught the crowds attention in the preview and ring and brought in a final bid of $22,500 to be the 2nd High Seller. This big moving gelding, was well patterned on the barrels and poles and ready to go. He was sired by Bestcreditmesunfrost, who is sired by the great Sun Frost and out of the Jud Little Ranch cornerstone mare, Nonstopwithcredit, who won money with an amazing 9 different riders; and out of Fantasy Sign, a good daughter of Vital Sign, sire of NFR Qualifer, Sign Of Passion.

The good looks and great move on a barrel of Lot 35, Toye Bugs, caught the attention of the buyers and the gavel dropped at $20,000 to make this 3 year old sorrel mare the 3rd High Seller for the day. Sired by Bug In My Frosty, sire of 2013 Futurity star Marthas Sixshooter, and out of the ProRodeo money earning granddaughter of Tiny's Gay, Sister Toye, this mare is bred to excel at all levels.

Overall, the 77 head sold averaged $8,195. The first offering of the JL Dash Ta Heaven offspring by the Jud Little Ranch were very well received, averaging $14,843. Showing the strength of the 2014 sale, the Top Ten averaged a whopping $18,720. For full results read the results below or go to www.judlittleranch.com to get more information on the sale.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Recently while at our friends church we were blessed to sit in on their Sunday school class. They were studying I Cor. 13:4-8, a very familiar group of scriptures that I personally have not attained to...yet! I am of the personality bent that if something needs confronting...confront. My friend, Tim, said he would just as soon walk away. All the way home I mulled over the differences in people and wondering just how in the world one balances these type of things...and then the Holy Spirit spoke up in my heart and said..."Is it, sic 'em...or sit?"

Being a country girl, He began to show me, in a picture I could understand, that when you have a really good dog, they will obey their master. I have had a lot of dogs in my life and I can tell you, when a job needs to be done, I want one that will sic 'em when I say so! And I have also found that there is nothing worse than one that won't listen to me when I tell them to sit or stay. It's a mess! The Lord then began to remind me that in the gospel of John, Jesus keeps saying over and over that He only does what the Father tells Him to do. Jesus loves people, but there was a time that He made a whip and fairly well cleaned out the temple. (Bet that was fun!!) Oops, sorry, that was Sherry talking!

So right there, in a very good word picture, the Lord showed me that sometimes it's okay to confront a situation. It's also a really good thing to sit, or shut up. The key for all of us is: you listen to the Holy Spirit and ONLY DO WHAT HE TELLS YOU TO DO AT THAT TIME! If we will do that, we will NEVER miss it!

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
