Halyn Lide & Jettin Ta Heaven Secure NFR Berth at The Governor's Cup

By Tanya Randall

Halyn Lide won only one check at the Governor's Cup, held September 26-28 in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, but it was the right one. The $32,000 championship check—the biggest one available—easily punched her ticket for her second straight National Finals Rodeo appearance, bumping her from 17th to 9th unofficially in the WPRA World Standings.

"I think it's an incredible opportunity for everyone that gets to go," said Lide, who wanted to thank the PRCA and Governor's Cup Committee.

"I really enjoyed it last year. It seemed like a way for us, who were already in (the NFR), to make some more money. That's really fun.

"This year, it hadn't crossed my mind before what it was like to be out of it and be able to get in right there. It's a really cool opportunity and it's really exciting too. My phone has been blowing up so apparently a lot of people watched it."

To qualify for The Governor's Cup, contestants had to earn points at Cinch Playoff Tour Rodeos throughout the season. The top 23 in points, plus the winner of the NFR Open competed in Cinch Playoffs in Puyallup, Washington, in early September. The top four finishers at Puyallup, which included Lide, the event champion, plus the top eight finishers in the Playoff Tour Point standings qualified for The Governor's Cup.

Usually, the drama for the final point spots is the challenge of The Green Mile at the Pendleton Round-Up in Oregon, but this year mother nature dumped drama on the last Tour rodeo, the North Dakota Rough Rider Cup in Mandan. While some contestants needed the win or maintain points in a sticky, muddy mess, others like Lide—and her sister-in-law Katelyn Scott too—were left a tough decision.

Ultimately, Lide chose to run her homegrown superstar Jettin Ta Heaven (Keeper), a 13-year-old gelding by JL Dash Ta Heaven out of the Three O Jones mare Zeros Gypsy Jet.

"It was a horribly tough decision," said Lide, who was out in the last performance in Mandan on Sunday. "(Keeper) was the only horse I brought up here. I had no option. It was either him or turn-out. Points didn't matter. I could have turned out and lost the Tour points because I was in from Puyallup. But, if I could win some money, I figured I needed to.

"There were a lot of us that were pretty scared about it. We saddled up and got up there and watched those poor girls that had to run before us and made a decision as we went along. The girls that were back there were really incredible and really honest with me. They knew Keeper was all that I had up here and I had to win money. After each person would run they'd come give me a report of it and be really nice and encouraging. In the end, they made me feel good enough to go give it a try."

Keeper had run in the mud before at Livingston, Montana, and Window Rock, Arizona, and Lide knew he'd do what was best.

"I knew he would take care of himself," said the mother of two from China Spring, Texas. "I knew by the time we got to the first barrel, I'd know if he was good to go. I figured if he didn't like it, he would slow up. It was just whether or not the first barrel was going to hold him if he went for it."

They needed every bit of the $7,763 for fourth place to have a fighting chance of going back to the NFR even with The Governor's Cup to come.

"They told me if I was going to go for it, I'd better go because it was heavy," she said. "I did my best to get him all the way by each barrel, so he didn't stick and come back and hit."

Lide did fly back to Texas for one run in Texas at Pasadena. She hit a barrel but flew back to Sioux Falls with her husband Aaron and their two boys.

"I had come to terms with the fact that it was going to be Sioux Falls for me or it wasn't going to happen," she said. "I just would have loved for it to have felt a little more comfortable before the very last round at Sioux Falls, just for my own sanity."

At Sioux Falls, she chose to focus on enjoying each run with her horse rather than the outcome.

"I told myself that I'd like to make as many runs with him as I could," she said. "We just kept wanting to make it back."

Lide also wanted a little redemption from last year, when she and Keeper caught a barrel in the Semifinals (eight-man round) that kept them out of the Finals. But first she had to make into the top eight in the two-run aggregate.

While Keeper loved the setup last year, this year was different. Having just come from the sticky mud, Keeper wasn't as comfortable on the firmer footing and bounced more.

"He's older and wiser," she said. "I think he was wondering what's it going to be like, so I got that super hard ping at the first barrel, and that got us a little in the first round. Thankfully, he settled down after that."

Lide squeaked into the Semifinals last in the aggregate, having won no money in the two rounds.

"I definitely wanted to pick up money in the rounds, but I didn't," she said. "When I got to the eight-man round (Semifinals), I knew that the $4,000 (awarded for fifth through eighth) wasn't going to be enough. I didn't know if the $8,000 (for fourth in the finals) would be enough, so I realized that I needed to try to be at least third."

Running second out in the Finals, they turned in their fastest run of the event, a 14.38, to claim the title and more than solidify an NFR qualification.

"It was awesome to get a second shot at it and keep the barrels up in the eight man round so we had a shot to make it through," she said. "Then, to make it all the way through was just incredible. I personally enjoy the (Playoff) Tour and those rodeos and the way that all works. I enjoyed getting to really focus on that this year and being able to make the most of it."

Keeper made nearly all of the runs at the Tour rodeos but her other horses—SR Easin Ta Heaven (Totty) and Stoli My Ride (Shark)—did their best to keep her in points—which were awarded through 20th place regardless of the number of positions paid.

"Shark was a superstar at that," she said. "Every time I pulled him out at one of those, he got me a couple of points, if he didn't get a check."

For now, Lide and Keeper are both going rest with Keeper doing more of that than Lide.

"We didn't get back until 10 o'clock (Monday) morning," she said. "Aaron and the boys flew up with me from Pasadena and were going to fly back home yesterday, but their flight was between the eight-man and four-man round so they decided to stick it out with me because I promised that I could drive overnight and get them all home. Aaron ended up doing most of the driving, so it worked pretty good for me! We haven't really slept yet. I got the boys ready to go to school this afternoon because they miss a lot, and now they're going to miss two weeks (for the NFR). I'm hoping we finish everything up today so we can all crash by like 7!"

2025 National Finals Rodeo Field Set

By Tanya Randall

2024 WPRA World Champion Kassie Mowry attended the fewest rodeos but leads the Top 15 in the 2025 National Finals Rodeo. The barrel horse trainer from Dublin, Texas, won Rodeo Houston, the richest of the winter run, on her 2024 Nutrena Horse of the Year Force The Goodbye (Jarvis) and topped San Angelo, Texas, with the tandem effort of Jarvis and CP He Will Be Epic. Her six-week summer excursion started with a Greeley Stampede Championship on 2022 Rising Star winner Famous Ladies Man. This will be Mowry's four consecutive and seventh overall NFR qualification.

Given the state of her horsepower in 2024, three-time World Champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi didn't expect to be headed to her 18th NFR in 2025, much less be in contention for her fourth title. The Lampasas, Texas, barrel racer had two surprise stars during the season. Sir Epic, a Mowry-made product that's owned by Pete Carr and Morgan Bagnell, won Rodeo Austin, NFR Open and Dodge City Roundup. The Australian import Cashin In On Fame, owned by Tamara Walker and Molly Harper, did well for her at Rodeo Houston and the Calgary Stampede.

A battery of horses helped Emily Beisel qualify for her seventh straight NFR. The Weatherford, Oklahoma, dental hygienist did her biggest share of winning on Teasin Dat Guy, owned by 4M Equine. The mare, who as a 5-year-old won 11 rodeos and qualified her trainer Molly Otto to the 2022 NFR, won Deadwood, South Dakota, and was second at the Reno Rodeo, St. Paul, Oregon, Bremerton, Washington, and the NFR Open. Her homegrown Vanilla Gorilla was the rising star on her trailer, doing well at Cheyenne, Wyoming, and Lovington, New Mexico, as well as picking up the bulk of her Prairie circuit earnings.

Four-time World Champion Hailey Kinsel and DM Sissy Hayday (Sis), the all-time leading barrel horse, head into their ninth straight NFR. Even though an NFR injury kept Sis out of competition until mid-March, she was the richest horse amongst the Top 15 riders. The team from Cotulla, Texas, won Woodward, Oklahoma, the Reno Rodeo, Cody, Wyoming, Spanish Fork, Utah, with a 16.57 on a WPRA Standard Pattern, split the win at Elko, Nevada, and finished second at Rodeo Houston.

Former WPRA director and Gold Card Member Megan McLeod-Sprague is heading to her first NFR in fifth position after an incredible performance at the Governor's Cup in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. The two-time Columbia River Circuit Champion from Marsing, Idaho, and her horse Seis Corona (Jag), one of two Alan Woodbury-bred horses qualifying in the barrel racing (he has three with Jag's half-brother in the dogging), kicked off their season with a reserve at Fort Worth and a San Antonio Rodeo Championship. She and Jag, along with some help from Ticket Ta Heaven, were high money earners over the Fourth of July. She finished her season close to home, winning the likes of Homedale, Idaho, and Canby, Oregon.

Two-time NFR Champion Lisa Lockhart has tied for the most NFR qualifications, heading to Las Vegas for the 19th straight year. The Olerich, South Dakota, barrel racer split the work load between Alan Woodbury's homebred Rosas Cantina CC and McColee Land & Livestock's Blazin Ta Betty (Sasha). Rosa grabbed a big win at the Cheyenne Frontier Days and tied for second in the mud at the North Dakota Rough Rider Cup in Mandan. Sasha topped Estes Park and was second at the Cinch Playoffs Puyallup Rodeo.

An impeccable eye for promising talent helped Carlee Otero secure her second consecutive and fifth overall NFR qualification. After a non-competitive injury knocked Blingolena (Sly) out of competition, the realtor from Perrin, Texas, turned to a trio of talented young horses. HB Firewater Vanilla won the National Western in Denver and got her through the buildings. Cathys Kandy (Twix) and Am Regina George took over this summer with Twix winning Delta and Lehi, Utah, and taking second at Salinas and Regina winning Salt Lake City, Preston, Idaho, and Moses Lake, Washington.

Homemade aged event talent carried Anita Ellis of Blackfoot, Idaho, to her first NFR qualification. After a quiet winter and spring, largely due to the arrival of her first grandbaby and focus on The American Rodeo, Ellis put the rodeo world on notice at the Calgary Stampede, where she and SGL Rico, a first year derby horse, and RV Two Dash Ta Vegas, the 2020 leading futurity horse, dominated in arena record fashion. In addition to qualifying Ellis to compete and winning the Calgary Stampede, Rico also won Filer, Idaho, and a round at the Puyallup Rodeo. Axe got the win at Window Rock, Arizona, and picked up large checks at Calgary, Reno, and Caldwell, Idaho.

Late season heroics qualified Halyn Lide for her second straight NFR. She and her homebred Jettin Ta Heaven (Keeper) won the two Cinch Playoff Tour Championship Rodeos in Puyallup and Sioux Falls. Read more on Lide in this issue.

Former Collegiate Rodeo and 2023 Montana Circuit Champion Tayla Moeykens is another first time qualifier. The Three Forks, Montana, barrel racer split most of the winning between KN Fames Best Yet (Yeti) and JM PocketsDoubleDash (Lizard).

BIG MONEY IN 2025!

Wondering how much it took to make the Top 15 before 2025? Take a look below!

15th Place at End of Regular Season:

2025 — $130,764

2024 — $111,189

2023 — $102,968

2022 — $84,453

2021 — $64,173

2020 — $39,565 (COVID YEAR)

10 YEARS AGO - 2015 — $59,931

15 YEARS AGO - 2010 — $49,914

Injuries to her team gave her a slow start to the season, but she rallied over the summer with wins at Heber City, Utah, Bozeman, Montana, and Hermiston, Oregon on Yeti and her richest rodeo win of the season, a Pendleton Roundup Championship, and the Helldorado Days in Las Vegas on Lizard.

The richest futurity horse of all-time Adios Pantalones carried Tricia Aldridge of Sanger, Texas, to her first NFR qualification during his first derby year. They won Los Fresnos, Waxahachie, and Abilene, Texas; Oakdale, Springville and Lakeside, California; Logandale, Nevada; Oakley City, Utah, and Albuquerque, New Mexico.

California Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion Hayle Gibson Stillwell of Redcrest won pro rodeos on three horses this season, but it was her precocious homebred Buncha Dinero (Piper) that carried the load of her first NFR qualification. In addition to winning the circuit finals rodeo at the end of her futurity year, Piper carried Stillwell to wins at Redmond, Oregon, Sonora, California, Rock Springs, Wyoming, Eagle, Colorado, Walla Walla, Washington, Emmett and Lewiston, Idaho. Stillwell also won Thermal, California, on Smiling N Ta Fame (Sharky), and Castro Valley, California, and Fallon, Nevada, on RDC DancingToTheLead (Fancy).

Wenda Johnson is headed to her sixth straight NFR thanks to Highpoint Performance Horses' war horse Steal Money (Mo). The nurse practitioner from Pawhuska, Oklahoma, and Mo opened the season with a win at Odessa, Texas. They also won Kansas City, Missouri, Guymon, Oklahoma, Ogden and Tremonton, Utah, New Plymouth, Idaho, Omaha, Nebraska and Amarillo, Texas.

Defending NFR Champion Andrea Busby of Brock, Texas, qualified for her second straight NFR. With Jets Top Gun out with injury, Busby relied on Born On Derby Day, who won the Fort Worth Stock Show and Elizabeth, Colorado, and her homebred Blazing With My Dude (Tito). She also had a trio of young, aged event horses—HanksN-TheFastLane, Fiesta By Design, and Awesome Arlo, who kept her in contention earning checks and tour points over the summer.

Katelyn (Lide) Scott of Odessa, Texas, will join her sister-in-law Halyn at the NFR for the first time. The 2024 Turquoise Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion clawed her way into the Top 15 in the waning weeks of the season and solidified her position by a seven rodeo run in the final week where she won money on four different horses. Her star was a surprise addition to her team, Justa DTF Frenchman (Peanut), who her sister Lorissa Merritt found when Streak N Liza (Twiz) came up sore at the start of the summer run. Peanut carried Scott to victory at Caldwell, Idaho, and San Bernardino, California.

Dusky Lynn Hall Dominates The Barrel Race Of The Year, Wins $63,148

By Tanya Randall

Talented youth rider Dusky Lynn Hall guided three horses to the pay window at the inaugural running of The Barrel Race Of The Year, aka The BROTY, held Wednesday, September 24 at Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas. Hall collected $63,148 of the $196,000 payout.

Produced by Wild West Promotions, The BROTY featured a $5,000-added Open 3D with half-second splits for an $800 entry fee limited to just 200 contestants due to time constraints with the Coliseum.

Hall, who is splitting time between Huntsville and Stephenville, Texas, ran four horses, but her top three were within .045 of each other.

Her big winner was her "old faithful" Aint Seen Famous Yet (Wally). The 11-year-old Aint Seen Nothin Yet gelding, out of A Nasty Chick, by Its Royal Time, stopped the clock in 13.209 to win $25,742 including sidepots.

"I knew Wally was going to smoke one down in that arena," said Hall. "He loves little arenas. He really does well in any arena. It really doesn't matter with Wally. He's just so consistent and always does his job every single time. He's just amazing."

The BROTY win pushes Wally officially over the $1 million in earnings.

Hall's 8-year-old A Streak Of Fling, Frenchmans Guy gelding KD Baby Driver (Enzo) was second with a 13.055 and won the derby sidepot. His total earnings were $21,364.

"I've never really ran him in that small of an arena," Hall explained. "We kind of took our horses there to pick out our horses for Vegas Tuffest (a youth rodeo held in Las Vegas during the National Finals Rodeo). He worked really, really nice for me."

Her newest ride, Chasin A Win (Spit), was third with a 13.074. The 5-year-old gelding, by Chasin Aces N Fame out of the cowbred mare The Lion Queen, by Highly Visible, earned $16,042.

Hall got the horse from his breeder Gina Rollins through Jeanette Nelson. When Spit outran Wally, she knew she needed to add him to her string.

"He's been a really fun, small horse...and fast," said Hall, who has managed to set three arena records in the 15 runs she's made on the gelding.

She finished a few holes out of the 1D money in 11th on her fourth horse JH Firewater Honor (Louie), who ran a 13.275.

The past two months, Hall has won $370,000 at events like the Royal Crown, Megabucks, Fizz Bomb, Cornhusker, Breeders Challenge, and The BROTY.

Kappie Bryant and Smooth As Rico Suave Triumphant at Texarkana Showdown

By Julie Mankin

Kappie Bryant of Sunset, Texas (just outside Decatur) and her tiny buckskin gelding Smooth As Rico Suave (“Pancakes”) earned $18,790 in Arkansas for winning the Texarkana Showdown’s MVP Derby at the Four States Fairgrounds.

Bryant’s 7-year-old recorded a smoking 14.258, which paid $7,484 to win the Derby. All the extra money was thanks to the run being rolled to also win Friday’s Circle M Quarter Horses Open, place second in Saturday’s Fuelin’ W Open, and second in Saturday’s Epic Leader High Stakes.

The field included more than a half-dozen former NFR barrel racers and handful of the top trainers in the world. Incidentally, Bryant also earned $3,775 in 3D money on the futurity horse Untamable Fame and $3,635 in 2D money on the futurity horse JW Rowdy Tom Kitty to bring her Texarkana haul to $26,200.

“That pen is his setup,” said Bryant of Pancakes. “I took him there last year and won $10-$15,000 at the bottom of the ground. He’s barely 14.1 hands, so if I’m at the bottom, I’ve got to stay inside the ruts to really be fast. This year, I was second out, so I knew I had a shot to win it. I just sent him and he delivered, like he does every time. He does exactly what you say, when you say it, so you’ve got to be sharp – he takes it literally.”

Bred by Laura Solomon of Ogden, Utah, the colt was called “Rico” when Bryant traded a horse for him as a 3-year-old, but she said he’s too goofy for that name. So, Pancakes fit.

“Honestly, I was going through a divorce and that horse is always in a good mood – he’s the happiest horse in the world to be around,” she said. “He’s done more for me as a person than he could ever do in the arena.”

Because the colt was just basically a playful pony, she said, she only started running him a couple years ago and hauling him a year ago.

“He’s never told me no,” she said. “It’s, ‘Where are we going? Let’s do it.’ People ask me what supplements he runs on. I just say that if you scratch his butt and feed him a mini muffin, he’ll run.” By the late Myers stallion A Smooth Guy (Frenchman’s Guy/Doc’s Movida) and out of Little Thunder Rolls (SI 106), by Royal Quick Dash out of a Streakin Six daughter, Pancakes got speed not size. “He’s like a little fighting chicken and has the biggest ego in the world,” said Bryant. “But he’s just kind and in your hand. He loves people and loves to do his job; really any job. He likes to run barrels but I think he does it because I ask him. I’ve never met someone who could be in a bad mood around him. He’s one that makes you want to do it every day.”

Bryant tried to buy his dam but she’s deceased, and he only had one sister. But she and her significant other, Don Lee, DVM, bought another Royal Quick Dash mare and are trying to “make more pancakes,” she said.

“He’s made my life easy – he was super trainable and so freaking willing,” she recalled. “He was super correct and had very fast feet. Also, he was very broke and I’m grateful for that. I never thought he’d be as fast as he was. I tried to give him away a couple of years ago. Then he stayed and I thought he’d be a rope horse, but he ended up being dirty good at this.”

Pancakes’ speed was realized when he placed fifth at the Fizz Bomb slot race in 2024, then was one hole out of making it into AT&T Stadium during The American last spring. Plus, having been to hardly any rodeos, he placed second at the stoplight-start rodeo in Corpus Christi for $11,500. She’s had offers of more than $300,000 to buy Pancakes, but he owes her nothing, she said.

“This horse did a lot for me mentally,” she said. “Just being there for me as something to look forward to every day, he was a light in the dark.”

Bryant believes if Pancakes was 15.1 and not 14.1 hands, he’d take her to the NFR, because he’s incredibly talented. She’ll focus next season on her futurity horses, along with maybe another American qualification and some circuit rodeos and derbies. Bryant is also working on another rodeo horse to run in deeper ground. Because she doesn’t want to waste Pancakes.

“It’s like when Sherry Cervi talked about thinking of a horse like a pack of cigarettes,” she explained. “We’re getting every puff we can, in the most suitable way.”

Bryant grew up in Arkansas riding English, she said, but was an adrenaline junky and took her horses over the highest jumps she could – whatever was a little bit scary. When she became a teenager, she actually ran barrels on her hunter-jumpers in an English saddle at junior rodeos, but realized she wanted to go faster.

Today, she's 30 and trains barrel horses, having entered her first futurities this past year, after calling other trainers to find out how to enter and where to even go. But she had a young horse place at the BFA and got one back at Fort Smith, while learning the ropes.

"I've had a lot of help," she said. "People have been in my corner and let me ask questions; Lisa Lockhart has spoiled me rotten if I ever needed help, and Jolene has been phenomenal; Tricia's been great. I kind of got set up really well with the right people and have been really fortunate that way. I always knew I wanted to be on the back of a horse, but just decided I like to go fast."

Certainly, various girls in the Top 15 would love to have Pancakes in Las Vegas as a backup horse. In the meantime, Bryant will haul her futurity horses to the Pink Buckle in Guthrie next week, the BFA World Championships there in November, and the OKC Futurity in December. She only rides for one person other than herself, and that's Carrie Potashnick, who owns the dam of Alyssa Urbanek Wade's rodeo horse Martinis At Midnight. Rita's Gone – by Dash Ta Fame out of a Bully Bullion daughter – sports Bo Hill's brand. Bryant is excited to campaign two of Potashnick's horses out of that dam by Slick By Design.

Still, she credits her little buckskin ham with getting her back in the game.

"He's super talented and never says no," she said. "More than that, he makes me smile. If he was a person, he'd be my best friend. Because honestly, whether it's a 1D horse like him or a 4D horse, when one tries their tail off and is in a good mood every time, that just makes it fun."

Coleck & Six By Design Win Big at WCBRA Finals

By Julie Mankin

Kali Coleck and her mother, Denise Madsen, typically run the family's geldings LeRoy and Larry at California's biggest races. But at the West Coast Barrel Racing Association Open 5D Finals in Tulare on Sept. 26-28, which added more than $150,000 and paid 20 holes in each division, Coleck combined with Madsen's 17-hand Larry to trounce almost 500 other horses. For almost winning both rounds and the Open average, she brought home a saddle, buckle and $10,893 cash – but most importantly, bragging rights for Madsen, who trained the 8-year-old sorrel registered as Six By Design. Incidentally, Madsen patented the original Seventeenflat Pop-Up Barrels and ran that business for about 19 years.

It was the biggest check ever awarded to Coleck, who has a psychology degree from Cal Poly and works full-time as a director at a pre-school therapy program. She and her husband Jake live in San Luis Obispo with their 10-year-old daughter. Coleck's parents have the horse property just 20 minutes away in Arroyo Grande.

"The glory definitely goes to God," said Coleck. "Larry's got it, and we've always known that. Lots of people have called my mom and tried to buy him."

Madsen, 71, regularly lands at the top of the 1D with Larry, the horse she got as a yearling. Coleck calls them "inseparable" and said Larry whinnies for Madsen like she's a horse. Coleck has gotten on Larry, as well, to race him a few times over the past years.

In Tulare, she hadn't been on him for about a month, but the warm-up race Thursday helped (they hit a barrel). In Friday's first round, they turned in a second-place 16.356 to earn $3,422. The next day, their 16.343 won the second round for another $4,106, plus they won the average by more than two-tenths to earn an additional $2,189.

"It's hard to trust him," said Coleck. "He's powerful. But I've ridden behind my mom's training for quite some time. He's pretty easy to ride because he knows his job. You just have to have the courage to let him go. The faster he runs, the better he does because he's so big that he needs serious momentum to get his whole body past the barrel."

Combined with $1,176 in sidepot money, Coleck and Larry raked in $10,893 with their two runs and posed for a win picture in Larry's fancy turquoise tack by Western Dove. Coleck also earned $569 in 2D money aboard the home-raised Eyem Royal ("LeRoy") to take home $11,462 on the weekend.

"In the second round, Larry isn't seasoned for a crowd at all, and the crowd was screaming at third, so I think that fired him up to get out of that third turn," said Coleck. "Honestly, his stride is just abnormally long and most people watching think he just looks like he's floating and he won't clock. But he doesn't even come out breathing hard. I think he still has more to give."

Larry is by the NFR barrel-racing stallion Slick By Design out of the Streakin Six daughter Katelyn's Sixes. The family has a 2-year-old that's almost a full brother to Larry and looks like his smaller clone. And though they don't breed many anymore, they recently bred a mare they raised to The Goodbye Lane.

The 2025 edition of the WCBRA Finals boasted a total payout of $322,942 plus $10,000 Future Fortunes for the Myrna Race. In a neat addition to the Myrna Race, 2 Gist Buckles were awarded to each of the Go Round D Winners; one for themselves and a second one to give to someone they love to "Pass on the joy & love bigger?". Frenchmans Guy Bloodlines Sell Online - Myers Performance Horses Online Sale Oct. 19-20

Raised to win and bred to last. Myers' prospects ready for the arena and the future.

For the first time ever, the barrel racing industry's fourth-ranked breeders of all-time are holding a prospect sale entirely online. The sale on Oct. 19-20 – the first in five years held by Myers Performance Horses – will feature more than 30 performance prospects.

The online sale includes 11 well-started colts and 14 yearlings and weanlings – most packing the blood of the late Frenchmans Guy. With $20 million in progeny earnings and a recent AQHA Hall of Fame induction, he's the second-greatest sire and grandsire of barrel horses.

Sale horses include a weanling and a few excellent broodmares in foal with 2026 babies by Myers' new 6-year-old roping futurity stallion CR Tuff Dual – by the $13 million cowhorse sire Woody Be Tuff out of a daughter of the $26 million sire Dual Pep, ARC Catty Dual earner of $168,764 and producer of over $1.2 million. And watch for some nice 2-year-olds by the palomino stallion Ima Special Kindaguy, out of a daughter of Special Leader (speed index 103). Those prospects include a buckskin colt out of a PYC Paint Your Wagon daughter and a palomino filly out of a Dash Ta Fame daughter.

"In Myers horses, you get speed but don't lose that good common sense," said Bill Myers. "They can fly. Plus, they're cowy and know how to rate, so they're real easy to train. Mentally, they can handle the pressure."

Others are by Mr Sassy Frenchman, out of Jess Sass Me (speed index 107), whose 7-year-old daughter Yes I'm Sassy has already earned $168,223 as a head horse, and was the second-highest earning rope horse six-and-under in 2024. Plus, a few offerings are by Lucky Wonder Horse, the 2015 buckskin by First Down Dash (speed index 105) out of the NFR barrel mare Rosas Cantina CC. His 4-year-old son Wonder If Im Lucky has already earned more than $246,000 at barrel futurities for Heidi Gunderson, who said he "will bury his hind end and is so athletic that he has a ton of push out of his turns."

Progeny of Myers stallions are eligible for numerous futurity incentives including Future Fortunes, Royal Crown, Breeder's Challenge, Tomorrow's Legends, The Diamond Classic, WPRA PESI, 5-state/Nexus, Gridiron, Colorado Classic, Cowboy State, VCBRA, Cornhuskers, BRIF, Riata Buckle, Gold Buckle, GBF Elite Breeders, Young Guns League, Lucky 7 Bonus, and Pink and Ruby Buckles.

All horses will be available for viewing at FrenchmansGuy.com. Interested buyers can make appointments to visit the ranch to see horses or obtain vet checks prior to the sale. And in October, the online auction will be powered by tiltXchange. Interested bidders can create a free account and then log in to view information and bid on horses.

Visit FrenchmansGuy.com for more information. With questions about specific horses, call Bill Myers at 605-641-4283 or Deb Myers at 605-641-4282.

The CFR is Set to Return to Edmonton Roots

The Canadian Finals Rodeo Powered by ATB is set to make a triumphant return to its Edmonton roots for the second year in a row! Rodeo Week will celebrate Edmonton's western heritage Sept. 25 to Oct. 5.

Edmonton is ready to welcome back one of its most iconic events – the Canadian Finals Rodeo for a second year! Returning to the city where it all began, the Canadian Finals Rodeo (CFR) Powered by ATB is set to reignite its long-standing tradition of thrilling rodeo action and community celebration. This event not only honors the event's deep roots but also reaffirms Edmonton's status as the ultimate destination for premier rodeo entertainment. Get ready to experience the unmatched energy, passion, and excitement that the CFR brings, as Edmonton once again becomes the heart of rodeo in Canada!

"It was a great return to Edmonton for CFR 50 last year and as we head into CFR 51 on Oct 1st it is exciting to see the community support behind the event. I am looking forward to fantastic Rodeo action in front of passionate fans and if 2024 was any indication I expect everything to take on even another level of excitement when Rogers Place ice turns to dirt and we start crowning Canadian Champions!" said Denny Phipps, General Manager of the Canadian Professional Rodeo Association.

To celebrate CFR 51 and Edmonton's western heritage, Canadian Finals Rodeo Week is set to electrify Edmonton with city-wide celebrations from Sept. 25 to Oct. 6.

Highlights include the Canadian Country Expo at the Edmonton EXPO Centre, Black

Tie Bingo supporting the Rodeo Cowboy's Benevolent Fund, a Chili Cook-Off and a special CFR Sports Club Atelier collaboration with Lauren Kyle McDavid. The Ice District will be the hub of activity, featuring daily Tailgate Parties with live music and entertainment and nightly All-Ages After Parties. Canadian Finals Rodeo Week promises to ignite Edmonton's downtown, support local businesses, and celebrate our vibrant rodeo culture.

"We are so proud to be welcoming the Canadian Finals Rodeo back to our city. Edmonton knows how to throw a party," said Mayor Amarjeet Sohi. "We have a long and celebrated history of hosting top quality sport and cultural events, and I'm confident this will be the best CFR yet. Throughout CFR and Rodeo Week, Edmonton's streets will be alive with visitors from across the country and around the world, bringing excitement and millions of dollars in economic impact across the city."

"We are thrilled to welcome the Canadian Finals Rodeo back to Edmonton for its 51st year. Beyond the excitement of the rodeo itself, this event generates tremendous value for Edmonton's economy, with a projected $30 million in total economic impact, supporting more than 5,500 jobs, and filling over 12,000 hotel rooms," said Traci Bednard, Explore Edmonton President & CEO. "CFR 51 is going to be an incredible experience, and we can't wait to see Edmonton come alive with the energy and excitement of Rodeo Week. Thank you to all our board members, partners, local businesses, and everyone who has made CFR's return to Edmonton possible."

- Timers – Cindy Gillespie and Kim Sutton
- Usher – Cory Kidd
- Music – Nicky Kimm

This is Gwatney's sixth time as the chute boss and this is the second time Yerigan will serve as an announcer, and it is the debut for Simas. This is Sanders' second time working at the NFBR.

This is the second appearance for Gillespie, and it is Sutton's first. Cory Kidd is serving in his role for the third time at the NFBR.

This also is Kimm's first time as the music director.

The Top 15 WPRA breakaway ropers as of Sept. 30, will compete for a share of $300,000, during the two-day, 10-round performance with the 2025 world champion being crowned at the conclusion.

"Women's breakaway roping is not only the fastest event in professional rodeo, but new records continue to be set each year with more money available for our members," said Heidi Schmidt, WPRA President. "We are excited to once again feature the 15 best ropers in the world at the South Point in December where more milestones will be reached. The competition will be fierce and will be one you won't want to miss."

Tickets go on sale for this championship event on Friday, Oct. 3 at 1 p.m. (PT). General admission tickets are $30 each day, with reserve admission tickets available for $45 per day. Tickets can be purchased online at <https://am.ticketmaster.com/southpoint/buy?id=Mjcz>, or southpointarena.com or at the South Point Hotel, Casino & Spa box office. Tickets are electronic unless purchased at the box office.

The event will begin daily at 2 p.m. (PST) with doors opening at 1 p.m. daily. Parking at the South Point Hotel and Casino is FREE. The South Point Arena & Equestrian Center has been the host of the NFBR since 2022.

"I'm happy to see the success and growth of breakaway roping since the inaugural National Finals Breakaway Roping in 2020," PRCA CEO Tom Glause said. "It is amazing that the breakaway ropers have an opportunity to compete for $300,000 at the NFBR."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Many times over the years, the Lord has had me write about how different we are and how we each have gifts that are valuable to the body of Christ. We must need to be reminded of it, because here we go again!

This weekend Mike talked about how we may admire someone else for their gift-ings and abilities, but in the end, we will NEVER be like someone else. He made the point that as we grow in the Lord, ultimately, we will resemble JESUS more each day, but there's really no need for us to be just like anyone else. THEY are using the gift that you admire. What are YOU doing with your gift?

There is not a single person destined to sit on the sidelines. We are to use the gifts God gave us. It doesn't matter if our gift is seen or unseen, great or small, we are all needed to usher in our Lord Jesus.

If we allow the devil to talk us out of doing our part, the whole body of Christ will be weaker. Let's grow up, stand up, never give up!

This week . . . step up to the plate and swing for all you're worth! Don't wait to be asked. Don't let the devil talk you out of it. Go for it!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
