Destri Devenport & Buddy Rose Sweep Ellensburg Rodeo for $10,823

By Tanya Randall

A clean sweep of the $25,500-added Ellensburg Rodeo, held August 30-September 2 in Washington, has put Destri Devenport in an interesting position.

With her $10,823 victory in Ellensburg, plus a $2,393 third-place check from the Walla Walla Frontier Days, the Escondido, California, barrel racer has a mathematical shot at making the 2019 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo with less than a month left in the season. Even so, her No. 1 goal is to set herself up for 2020.

"My goal going into Ellensburg was getting into the Top 20 and being in the Top 7 for the WPRA Tour Standings, because that gets me into Houston and Calgary," she explained.

Devenport finished the prior weekend, winning Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, before heading to Ellensburg for her first run in slack. They won the round fourth out on the ground with the fastest time of the rodeo, a 17.1. With the fastest runs advancing to the later performance, Devenport needed a trade to avoid a conflict with Walla Walla, where she was up Sunday. Her good friend Sydni Blanchard, a three-time NFR qualifier, told her to get the Friday night performance if she could.

"She said the night perf is way better ground than the day perf," explained Devenport. "I traded for Friday and I was first out on the ground. I think being first out on the ground is difficult whether it's day or night because the ground is so packed. When he ran a .24 in the second round I was stoked because I knew the ground was the best that it was going to be."

After witnessing the firm footing during Sunday's performance, Devenport made a comment to her friend Sammie Mullennix that Buddy would like the ground.

"It was really hard," she said. "I told my friend, who is out here with me, that Buddy will really like this ground; I just have to ride him accordingly. I knew coming into the short go, I needed to hustle him the same but also set up a little bit. We were running to the first and he was running a little harder than I had intended to. He slipped a little coming into it and slipped and stutter-stepped on the backside. He smoked the second barrel and I safety-ed up on the third barrel and just made sure we got around it."

Devenport first crossed paths with Buddy while working for the Chouest family of Cut Off, Louisiana. The gelding was originally purchased out of a sale barn for $200 and trained for barrels and poles by Mississippi barrel racer Katelyn Albritton Johnson, who later sold the gelding to the Chouests.

THE RUNDOWN w/Destri Devenport

Buddy Rose - Grade, 2008 Sorrel Gelding, 14.3 h., 1,100 lbs.

BIT: "He came with a correction bit with longer shanks and a loose curb chain," she said. "That's what Katelyn trained him and that's what he's ran in his whole life."

HEADGEAR: Loose tiedown

SADDLE: Usher Brand - SADDLE PAD: Best Ever Pad

LEG GEAR: Polo wraps on all four unless she's in a hurry due to his short cannon bones. At Ellensburg, she used polo wraps on front and Classic Equine on back.

FEED: ReNew Gold - HAY: Alfalfa

SHOEING: "A lot of people think I'm crazy, but I like to have my horses' toes really pulled back and have them shod really full," Devenport explained. "I have a lot of shoe back there behind the heel than more horses do. I have an amazing horseshoer in California that has spent a lot of time with Buddy. I put 3/4ths rims on the front and plains on behind. My shoer puts a little bit of trailer on the hind shoe and I think it give him more traction. I did put rims on him one time when I went to Reno. He hated them and I thought he was going to disown me. We went right back to our plain shoes because he likes to slide a lot."

SUPPLEMENTS: OE Nutraceuticals Ultimate Oil and Bo's Secret; Magnesium and Lysine

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: "I do a ton of therapy," she said. "I do a lot of icing of the legs. I rub him down with alcohol and Absorbine on his legs every single day. After I runs, I use a poultice and I wrap him. I use a Centurion blanket and I also have ThermoTec Magnet blanket. I use both of those all the time. I also use a FlexiNeb."

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: "I do a lot of walking between the rodeos, like power walking for 30 minutes or an hour," she said. "Most of the time I pony him. He's a bit of a handful to ride. That consists of a lot of walking and long trotting. For him, I don't a lot of short-stride things."

SPONSORS: Lame-A-Way, Outlaw Equine, OE Nutraceuticals, Dazzle Rock Tack, Best Ever Pads, Usher Brands.

"They let me run him while I was there," said Devenport, who qualified for the American Semifinals Rodeo on the gelding. "He was my go-to at the bigger shows. We just did really well together."

When Devenport decided to go her own direction this past January, she purchased the 11-year-old gelding.

"He is the most spoiled, arrogant horse I've ever been around, but he's also very loving and respectful," she said. "Being up in slack is difficult for me because he loves a performance. He loves the crowd and everybody cheering. I honestly don't know how he does it. The ground doesn't really bother him. He's pretty special. He's just a gift from God."

When she initially returned to California, Devenport hadn't planned on entering beyond the California Circuit.

"I decided when I left in January that I wasn't going to any winter rodeos," she explained. "I went back to California to visit with my dad and help him. I had a bunch of horses that I was working and selling, and I was waiting for the spring rodeos in California. I was just going to go to California rodeos for this year and regroup for next year. I started doing really well right off and decided to go on a little harder."

Even with the success, Devenport didn't enter aggressively.

"I never planned to go very hard. Over the Fourth (of July), I didn't go very hard. I missed a lot of places that other girls went. My rodeo count isn't very high. I have just tried to make the ones that I did go to really count and figure out what my goals were and make the best of that."

Devenport currently sits 28th in the World Standings with $46,745.

"We have 27 days left and we're going to go pretty steady now," she said. "I'm going to go to the rest of the Tour rodeos. I'm going to Pendleton, but I don't think I'm going to run (Buddy). I've got a pretty heavy schedule for the rest of the season, and honestly, if it's God's plan and I can miraculously make the Finals, we're going go for it. If not, we're going to set ourselves up to do really well next year."

Devenport was out at Blackfoot, Idaho, on Tuesday night, Lewiston, Idaho, on Thursday. She runs twice at the Wrangler Tour Finale in Puyallup, Washington, on Saturday. Hopefully, she'll have the short round at Puyallup on Sunday. Then hop a plane to fly to Salt Lake City for the Tour rodeo there before returning for Pendleton, Oregon.

She wanted to thank "everyone who has been my corner" from her family to Buddy's trainer.

"I want to thank Katelyn Albritton," she said. "She's an amazing lady and this horse meant a lot to her. I always try to make sure she gets credit for that. I'm forever thankful for her work with him." She also wanted to thank Mullennix and Blanchard for their support this summer.

"They're my ride and dies," she laughed.

"(Sammy) been with me all summer and I couldn't have done any of this without her between driving and taking care of Buddy. Sydni Blanchard's done all my entering this year and talks with me every day.

"I'm forever thankful for everyone in my corner and the opportunity that the Good Lord has given me. I just want to be the best role model for the next generation that I can be.

Hayden and Buhbye Earn $16K at WCBRA Finals

Over the Labor Day weekend from August 31-September 2 at the Salinas Valley Fairgrounds in King City, CA, the Richest Race In The West, the West Coast Barrel Racing Association Finals had 607 open entires run at an astounding $321,000 payout! The race paid 25 places in each D of the 5D format in each of the 3 rounds and Average.

One of the WCBRA owners, Bailey Nahrgang commented about the Finals, "This 3 day event may only stamp out a week of time for the contestants but its a year long endeavor for my husband, myself and our entire small army of support. The love and support from our partners, producers, members and their families seems unending and beyond appreciated. Seeing our members go home with boatloads of awards and money is not only fun but makes all the hard work worth it. From the bottom of our hearts, thank you for the support of the West Coast Barrel Racing Association. It was our extremely pleasure to payout over $321,000 to those who have supported us all year long! We look forward to 2020."

Although 8 people all won over $5k on the weekend, Kelsey Hayden emerged as the 1D Average Champion and took home an amazing $16,251. Her and her amazing 5 yr old mare, Buhbye, teamed up for the win. The Barrel Racing Report caught up with her to discuss her big win with her speedy mare.

BRR: Can you walk us through your runs at the West Coast Barrel Racing Finals?

Hayden: Well, I was not very confident coming in because the last time I ran her in that pen, she was a wild animal. So in my first run at the finals, I just wanted to cruise her through and see what kind of horse she was going to be. I just sat back and let her work, and she surprised the crap out of me clocking her personal best on a standard! She was a 17.1 which was good enough for second in the round.

In the second round, I pretty much pitched her the reins and whispered "don't mess this up" repeatedly to myself until it was over... and she clocked a 17.2!

The third round was by far the most anxious/excited/nervous I've ever been. I knew I had a shot at it coming into the third round 4th in the average. I decided to just lay it all out there, no regrets. Sent her to first and she inhaled it! Then it was on. I don't think I took a breath after that cause when I turned third, I was panting and my legs wouldn't work! She clocked another 17.1 and secured her 1D average win. I wish I could bottle up all the emotions I was feeling and take it home with me to save for later. I've never been more proud of myself or my horse than that moment!

BRR: What makes Buhbye so special and makes her clock such fast times?

Hayden: Man, I wish I knew. She's just awesome. She's low headed and flat, so she's cool to watch. And she's got a really unique "snapback" move behind a barrel. It also probably helps that her feet move like they're in fast foreword! I will say that she's very special to me because she's so quiet and gentle. Anyone could ride her, and she rides around like a reiner. She's really broke and soft and light sided, so she's not only my pick to enter, but also to ride around at the house.

BRR: Tell us about little about Buhbye and what are some of her big wins in her lifetime so far?

Hayden: I ran her as a futurity horse in 2018, but she got in a wreck February of that year. I was hauling her to a jackpot and when I got to the race, the back door was open and she was gone. I swear my heart fell out onto the floor. The latch had broken and she had fallen out of the trailer on the way. It was a nightmare. I had to go find her, and that was the scariest moment I've ever experienced. I wasn't sure if she was dead, alive, had broken legs or what! She was running through an orchard and was very beat up. She was off for 6 months after that, which was heartbreaking because she was doing so well! But I was just happy she was alive! She still has some rank scars on her left side, but she is 100% sound! I got her healed up in time to run her at the first Pink Buckle futurity, and she won about $5,000 out of there. That was a huge win for me, especially because I turned out of my Circuit Finals, which was the same weekend, to run her there. Then I did run her this year at the American Semifinals, where she made it back to the second round in the top 35! That was a huge deal for me and that's when I started to really take her seriously. She came back from her injury stronger, and wasn't very seasoned at that time! She just wants to win.

BRR: How do you typically prepare for your runs on her mentally and warm up wise?

Hayden: I have to say my mental preparation is the most important part. I get nervous, self conscious, worried, and second guess myself EVERY time I run. My fiancé Andrew Steiger is a huge help with my mental game and really coaches me on how to think. It sounds petty, but it really makes all the difference.

When I physically warm her up, I just trot and lope around, then I'll work her a little like a cutter would- lots of stopping, backing, and rolling her over her hocks to get her feet connected to my reins. I usually only ride her about 10 minutes to warm her up.

BRR: There is so much money up and over 600 entries at the West Coast Barrel Racing Finals. What was it like running there in that environment?

Hayden: The whole race is very efficient and well ran. They ran about 60 an hour, which in my opinion deserves an award. The third round is my favorite because they run everyone slowest to fastest average on two runs. So the end of the race gets nuts. The grandstands are packed, everyone is cheering, the announcer makes it a big deal- the energy is amazing. And it's awesome watching. We have so many tough girls and horses in CA, and they all show up for this race. It really spotlights these girls that work hard all weekend and make it to the top 25, and I think that's really fun.

BRR: With barrel racing in California; are there any unique advantages or challenges to barrel racing there?

Hayden: YES! I've traveled and ran in many different states and pens, and I gotta say, our ground in CA is deeper than most and most of our pens are large outdoor standards. I struggled going back to OK and running on the red clay at Lazy E, and the tiny trappy pens like the Ft Worth Stockyards are just not something you see in CA. Most of the ground everywhere else is faster and more shallow- still great! But definitely something different for my horses.

BRR: What are your plans going forward for Buhbye and yourself?

Hayden: I really want to see what she can do at the rodeos. I know she's got the talent, but rodeo horses are a different breed, and I want to season her the rest of the year and see if she can hang with that pack of wolves.

THE RUNDOWN w/Kelsey Hayden

Buhbye, "Moxee" 15.1 hands, Pretty heavy made. Not sure what she weighs but she's not little!

BIT: Ed Wright Medium shank smooth mouth 3 piece locked gag

SADDLE: I have a few that I like, but I ran her in the Martin Stingray at this race

SADDLE PAD: Best Ever!! I like the 1 inch Kush on her

LEG GEAR: I like a bunch of different ones. I like Iconoclast on her because her pasterns are a touch long, but I also like the Legacy and Relentless ones too.

FEED: Integrity Senior no molasses and Stablemix. The Stablemix is nice on the road because if they aren't eating hay, they'll usually eat the Stablemix.

HAY: Alfalfa

SHOEING: I think having a great farrier is always so important. Gotta shout-out to mine, Steve Howard! He's awesome.

SUPPLEMENTS: I love my grain because I don't need to give her supplements with it! Sometimes I'll give her electrolytes if it's hot out or she gets really sweaty.

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: If she's not running good, I'll work barrels during the week. But my philosophy is if it isn't broke, don't fix it. So she mainly just gets loped and long trotted.

SPONSORS: I love all my sponsors that help me along the way. Such great people with big hearts and awesome companies to be a part of. Elk Grove Milling (Stablemix) Star Milling with Integrity Horse Feeds, and of course Tammy White with Best Ever Pads

Mean Cheerleader & Hallie Hanssen Sweep Cornhusker Open & Breeders Futurities

By Tanya Randall

Marlene McGaughey's Cornhusker Futurity may not be one of the biggest, but it's always one of the saltiest. Longtime Cornhusker competitor Hallie Hanssen and Mean Cheerleader ("Cheerio") swept this year's event, winning the $12,000-added Breeders and $4,000-added Open futurities, held August 30 to September 1 in Broken Bow, Nebraska.

The million-dollar futurity horse trainer and rider from Hermosa, South Dakota, and the Jennifer Cook-owned, 4-year-old mare pocketed $10,343 on the weekend. The Breeder's victory paid $5,866, the Open Futurity netted $3,744 and two Open 1D checks on carryovers paid $733.

"She's just been getting more and more consistent," Hanssen said of the mare. "Some confidence-building runs have really helped her."

Bred by Karma Loflin, Cheerio is by Epic Leader out of the Marthas Six Moons mare Mean Dorene. Cook purchased the mare as a yearling from Loflin through the 2016 Texas Best Sale for $12,500. Cheerio has been in Hanssen's barn since February of her third year.

After some bad luck at the early winter futurities, Hanssen and Cheerio won the Sand Cup Futurity & Slot Futurity this past spring in Washington State. They later won Select Stallion Stakes Breeders Futurity, held in July in conjunction with the Prospector's Challenge in Rapid City.

At the Cornhusker, Cheerio was incredibly consistent, turning in runs of 15.1 and 15.055. The difference between her first and second runs was the first barrel. Hanssen said she got little bit up the pen going to her first barrel in the first round. They tightened it up on their second run to win the breeders' second go and take second in the open futurity round to Jordon Briggs and her Busby-bred, One First Class Lady (Blazin Jetolena x GL Famous First Lady x Dash Ta Fame), who set an arena record with their victorious 14.867.

"For not having tons of entries, it was a super tough futurity," said Hanssen. "I was super proud of Cheerio. It's a really salty futurity."

Hanssen said McGaughey and the McCook Fairgrounds have put a lot of work into making the futurity a success.

"It was a very well ran futurity," she added. "The ground was good. They just keep improving the fairgrounds and arena. Overall, I feel like it's a really nice event to go to. It's a really nice place to take colts to exhibition too. They always keep the ground really nice. Marlene does a great job."

Outside the futurity arena, Hanssen has had a surprisingly good run at some of the summer rodeos. She had typically taken Tres Movidas (Tres Seis x Sheza Blazin Move x Blazin Jetolena) to a handful of rodeos each summer, but that changed after she won the Greeley Stampede over the Fourth of July.

"I had a goal in mind for the rodeos after I won Greeley," she said. "I thought, 'Maybe I should try to get to where I can get into some of those winter rodeos.' Luckily, where we are at, we're close enough to go and come home. I think I've been to 11 rodeos this summer and it felt like a lot. I don't know how those girls who have been to more do it."

Hanssen actually qualified for the Wrangler Tour Finale in Puyallup this weekend but her business gives priority to the Fizz Bomb Futurity in Gillette, Wyoming. She does have a couple of more rodeos planned before the season's end on September 30.

Hanssen is currently sitting in the top 40 in the WPRA World Standings with $31,720.

Mean Cheerleader "Cheerio" 15.1-15.2 h., 1,100 lbs.

BIT: Dave Elliot three-piece with a cricket. "I was running her in an O-ring and I ended up switching her to the Elliot because she is quite a lot of horse and she needed a little bit more," noted Hanssen.

SADDLE: Tami Semas

SADDLE PAD: CSI

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on fronts only

FEED: Local milled 14% pellet

HAY: Alfalfa

SHOEING: St. Croix Lite Rims on all four

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP's In-Sync & Gastro-Plex, Omega Field's Horse Shine, Polyglycan injections for joints

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: MagnaWave

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: "I have Free-Style Exerciser and she goes in that a couple of days a week. The days she's not in that, I'll ride her in the arena and do some slow work around the barrels, but not too much. The days I don't ride in the arena, I ride out in the pasture and do some conditioning—hill work and I can breeze them out there." Hanssen said Cheerio's actual "training time" started to decrease after the Washington State futurities in the spring. "I try to do a little bit of slow work yet, but I might go around the barrels twice and that's it. I just want to make sure they're hitting their points. Also, if I haven't worked them in a while, I'll make a run at home because you have to condition those muscles. It's different to go lope circles and do hill work, but it's not the same as making a run."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We attended Mike's class reunion this summer. Do you attend your reunions? What do you see? Do you compare yourself to your classmates? Do you size up old boyfriends or girlfriends? How do you stack up? Well, Mike's ex-girlfriend was there and I can promise you I didn't stack up! She had had an "enhancement" done...sigh. Can't compete with that. LOL!

What I observed at my reunion, and his, was this. Without God, we are pretty much going to be, now, what we were, then. With God, we are going to be soooo much better! If you were the class bully, you can turn that around and bully the devil. Were you the cheerleader? You can use that to encourage people around you. The wild one? You can be an evangelist, throwing caution to the wind and tell others about Jesus and not care what people think!

You see, God knew you then... and He knows you now. You are not a mistake. You have a purpose.

Have you used your gift for God's glory this week? Give it a go and let us know how it turns out!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
