Walker and Latte Bubbling Over the $100,000 Mark

"Last year when I was sitting in the wheel chair at this time of the year, I would have never thought in a million years I would have $100k won at this time. I knew I had a horse good enough to be a NFR horse, but to win a $100,000 in a year, that's the stuff the Lindsay Sears, Sherry Cervis, Brittany Pozzis of the world do!"

That is from first time NFR bound barrel racer, Mary Walker, after her big win in Ellensburg, WA. The win pushed her over the $100,000 mark for the year. She has moved to #4 in the world with $111,337 in earnings just a year removed from a bad horse wreck, losing a son and ending 2011 at #104 in the World with $8,470.62. She didn't even qualify to the limited entry rodeos over the winter.

Amazing the difference a year can make.

At Ellensburg, like so many rodeos this year, Latte, aka Big Brown, aka Perculatin, just got better and better with each round. In the first round they tied for third with a time of 17.35, the second round he picked up the pace a little more to win the round with a 17.22, then in true Latte fashion he smoked in the Finals running a 17.15. Latte and Walker won the round by 2 tenths and the average by almost 3/4 of a second, which is a lifetime in barrel racing! Her total earnings for Ellensburg were $8,063.

"My first run he (Perculatin) worked real, real good. He slipped behind the first barrel but worked good. The second run he worked really good again. Then in the Finals he ran really hard; I even lost my hat between the first and second barrel. I hate losing my hat but I just figured he was running so fast it just flew off!" said Walker talking about her runs.

She also placed 5th at Walla Walla, WA to bring her total weekend earnings up to $9,136.

Through the summer, Latte and Walker have done so much winning, at Ellensburg he even enjoyed the victory lap while the whole crowd stood up and cheered for the dynamic duo.

"They didn't have a victory lap horse so I had to ride Latte. That's the first time I have ever done that on him. I figured he might try to run through the alleyway, but he just loped around."

It's easy to see that they've become old pros at winning rodeos. This summer Walker and Latte have won some of the big ones; Cheyenne, Missoula, Window Rock and now Ellensburg.

Latte is doing great, feels good and looks good and according to Walker, "As long as he

Walker is headed to Puyallup for two runs on Saturday and then she'll head home and go on to Albuquerque, Abilene, and Pasadena, to make sure she gets to the Texas Circuit Finals. She currently sits eleventh in the Texas Circuit and needs to pick up a few more checks to insure her trip to the Circuit Finals. Then she and Latte will head to Kansas City and to the Justin Boots Championship in Omaha, NE to finish out their year.

When asked about the 2012 NFR, "I think Latte will like the NFR. He enjoys the crowd and he gets better every run in the same place. I'm a little nervous, but I'm looking forward to it. I am ready for the NFR."

In her closing comments about her win and her year, Walker sums it up for all the people involved in barrel racing saying, "I've enjoyed every one of the barrel racers I've met. When you meet them, they are great people. It's just been a great year."

Maegan Reichert Loses Marvin

2-Time NFR Qualifier Maegan Reichert of Mt Pleasant, TX, lost her great horse Andele Cowboy (Marvin) on August 28, 2012. The 13 year old gelding was laid to rest due to an injury.

Reichert purchased the double bred Pa Jones grandson from Jackie Whitcher when he was 5 years old. Jim and Jackie Whitcher were the breeders of Andele Cowboy. After nearly making the NFR in both 2005 and 2006; Reichert and Marvin made the NFR in both 2007 & 2008. The ultra consistent duo won 2nd in the NFR Average in 2008 and 3rd in the NFR Average in 2007. In 2007, the team ended the year in #6 in the World with $111,411 and in 2008 they ended up #5 in the World with $155,337 in earnings. Their amazing career together produced numerous rodeo wins and earnings of over $500,000. Our condolences go out to the Reichert and Whitcher families & all the connections.

Special Leader Dies at 25

World champion Special Leader, 25, was euthanized August 29 due to declining health. The stallion was bred and owned by American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame member Joe Kirk Fulton of Lubbock, Texas. Special Leader raced 18 times in his three-year career. The bay stallion won $292,605.

One of his biggest victories came in the 1991 Champion of Champions (G1), when he defeated a field that included two-time world champion Refrigerator, champions Isaws Sugar Bear, Takin On The Cash, Jazzing Hi, Apprehend, Tee Roy Reb and See Me Gone.

Special Leader also won the 1991 All American Gold Cup (G1) with a smashing 2 1/4-length victory, earning a career-high 103 speed index.

In 1991, he was honored as the sport's world champion, as well as the champion aged horse and champion aged stallion.

A son of Special Effort out of the Dash For Cash mare Miss Eye Opener, Special Leader has sired 18 crops to race. His progeny have won more than $12.9 million, with 494 winners, including 62 stakes winners, from 744 starters, including champion Leading Spirit.

Jeta Moon Rose, 1984-2012

Jeta Rose Moon, "Jeta" was laid to rest September 4 at Schiller Ranch, Millican, TX. She was foaled in 1984 and is the daughter of famed stallion Jet Moon out of the amazing Sam's Cause mare, Dodies Bootie. She was bred by Blue Lake Farms in Indiana.

The black mare was small in size but made up the difference with a big heart that won numerous titles and held many records over her career with various riders, most infamously her 1992 trip to the National Finals Rodeo with her young jockey, Lindsey Hayes Banks of Alabama. Up until this spring, she was teaching a 3 year old the pattern, she truly loved her job.

Jetta touched the lives of too many to mention, including Lindsey Hayes Banks, Jeff Butts, Janet and Russ Ficklin, Talmadge Green, Jackie Dube Jatzlau, Latricia Duke, Donna Hanover, Kacey Ebbs, Jud Little and especially the entire staff of Schiller Ranch.

Her passing will be commemorated with a gravesite so Jetta will always be remembered for the legend she is.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Almost everyone, at sometime or other, has helped out a youngster or beginning horse person. It's good to let them benefit from your knowledge and experience and we're glad to share with them tips and pointers.

It's one thing to loan them bits, halters, etc. until they can do more for themselves, but, have you ever shared your faith with any of them? Some of these people might not know much about the redeeming work of Jesus or even own a Bible.

It tells us in 1 Peter 3:15 that we need to always be ready to explain the joy and hope that our faith gives us. We very well could be the only Gospel that some of these people ever see.

Oh, I'm not saying to go around preaching but just look for opportunities to "plant a few seeds." People are watching you to see how you react to the trials of life. Let them see the blessings you have from being a child of God. "Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteous and all these things shall be added to you." (Matthew 6:33) If you've made Jesus your Lord and Savior, He will take care of you.

The old admonition of "Don't go to Heaven alone" still holds true today. Take as many with you as you can! Give away Bibles and Christian material. If someone is in a "bind," offer to pray with them and you'll be blessed.

Hebrew 6:10 tells us that God won't forget the work we've done for His Glory and the good of His people. So just watch and see how God opens doors for you to share Jesus even while you're sharing horsemanship tips!
