Nellie Miller & Rafter W Minnie Reba Repeat as Ellensburg Rodeo Champs

By Tanya Randall

For the second straight year, the Ellensburg Rodeo Barrel Racing Championship has gone home to Cottonwood, Calif., with Nellie Miller. The former National Finals Rodeo qualifier and her home-bred mare Rafter W Minnie Reba ("Sister") turned in a consistent performance to pocket $9,236.

"It's going to be a hard one to miss now," said Miller, who is sponsored by Wrangler, Professional's Choice, Total Equine, Oxy-Gen, Corral Boots and Haleakala Walnuts. "I'll be going back every year now!"

Miller and Sister won the first go in 17.15, placed third in the second go with a 17.31 and turned in the fastest time of the event, a 17.02 to win the short go and average.

"It's her ideal setup," said Miller. "She likes those big, wide-open pens with a long run to the first. She was just so consistent every run. I can't really pick apart her runs too much because she was really consistent all three runs."

"My horse just loved that arena. She just nailed her first barrel every run. I think a lot of other horses struggled with the first barrel in that wide-open pen. She just loves it."

Last week was a very light week with just two rodeos. In addition to Ellensburg, she ran at Walla Walla, Wash., where she placed fifth out of Saturday slack to win $1,473.

With the NFR well in hand, Miller will spend much of the next few months recharging at home with the exception of a few circuit rodeos and the California Circuit Finals Rodeo in October.

She said she felt comfortable with her position in the standings after the Calgary Stampede mid-July.

"I won quiet a bit of money up there and it really pushed me up there (in the standings)," she said. "After that, I felt pretty comfortable."

Unlike many of her fellow NFR chasers, Miller had a relatively light summer after July. Other than an occasional trip away from her northern California home, Miller has been able to let Sister rest.

"All of July, I was pretty much gone," she said. "After Salinas, I got to come home and I spent a few weeks home and then went up to the Northwest for a couple of weeks. I've been able to go back and forth, so I haven't had to be completely gone (from home)."

With the exception of one $1,241 check won by her senior citizen, Rebas Smokey Joe, 22, better known as her NFR qualifier Blue Duck, the majority of Miller's $127,227 has been won solely aboard Sister.

"She's the only one I've really got, so I don't want to do too much on her at this point," said Miller. "I want to keep her feeling good."

Bred by her family, Sister is by the Dash Ta Fame, Easy Jet stallion KS Cash N Fame out of Espuela Roan, by Blue Light Ike. Although the mare is 9, she's young in terms of career.

"I didn't really start running her until she was 7," said Miller. "Last year was the first year that I took her out (to the rodeos). This year, she's been exceptional."

Bubble Watch: Jana Bean Makes Her Move

By Tanya Randall

Nellie Miller may have won the most money over Labor Day Weekend, but it was three-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jana Bean of Fort Hancock, Texas, that made the biggest move in the WPRA World Standings.

"This time of the year is just crazy for me," said Bean, who is sponsored by Classic Equine, Oxy-Gen, Purina, Bloomer Trailers, PHT Magnetics, Equi-Resp, Nicklebar Designs, Lame-A-Way, Resistol, Mirage Hotel & Casino, No Hit Bit and Double J Saddlery. "It's hard, but it all ends up being okay."

Bean added $7,538 to her season earnings to jump from 20th to 16th with $62,756. Her biggest paycheck of $4,837 came from the Ellensburg Rodeo in Washington.

She rode her talented, young gelding Dashing Klee, who has battled soundness and sickness throughout the season. They won the second round and finished third in the average.

"He ran flat and fast and was trying so hard. He can be hard to ride, and he can be easy to ride. That second round, he was easy. He stayed flat and pulling," said Bean of the 7-year-old Dash Ta Fame, Heza Fast Man gelding.

"He's had some struggles this year. He pulled a suspensory at Odessa. He came back from California with pneumonia and then he came down with EPM. He's had a hard year. He was off for a month around the Fourth of July, and he's just now finally feeling like Chick again. It's fun to have my horse back. Everybody has the one horse that you just feel like you can win on anywhere, but when I have him I feel like I have a shot."

Chick got some help this weekend from Bean's old warrior Dash Ta Freedom (Dash Ta Fame x Accusatory x Runaway Winner), who placed seventh for $499 at the Colorado State Fair in Pueblo, Colo., earlier in the week, and another young star in the making—Its ran her was Ponoka, Alb. She had never been in a performance and she was a little bit leery of what I was asking her to do. But, she's come around and making a really good horse. She's enjoying the rodeos. She's a fine horse to ride and I'm blessed to have her on my team."

Bean also has her former futurity horse Sign Of Frost ("Frosty") in the trailer. When her team was getting thin, she traded to get the 6-year-old Bug In My Frosty gelding, out of NFR qualifier Sign Of Passion, by Vital Sign, back.

"I won $7,000 on him immediately after I got him back," she said. "It was sure good to have him back on my trailer. He's so fun to ride."

Bean will fly out on Wednesday to Fort Madison, Iowa, for the $11,000-added Tri State Rodeo. Freedom awaits her there for the Cinch Shootout on Wednesday night and slack Thursday morning.

She flies back to Spokane, Wash., on Thursday night. On Friday, she runs at the $10,100-added Lewiston Roundup in Idaho. She has both runs at the $20,000-added Washington State Fair in Puyallup on Saturday.

"So far, the plan is to run Chick at Lewiston and Girlfriend at Puyallup," she said. "On Monday, we have Pendleton. I plan on running Girlfriend, but we'll see."

After making her first run at the the $35,000-added Pendleton Roundup in Oregon, Bean will head her rig south for Albuquerque, N.M., Abilene, Texas, Texarkana, Ark., and Tyler and Mesquite, Texas. She's hoping she has to fly back to Oregon for the Pendleton short go on Sunday.

Bean wanted to thank her husband and "rock" Breck and Meagan Johnson for helping her drive during the past couple of months.

Ivy Conrado may hold onto the 15th spot but she continues to maintain distance with solid performances. She was one of the richest winners over the weekend adding $4,793 to bump her season total to $67,887, and keep a $3,960 cushion between herself and Bean.

Conrado won the Magic Valley Stampede in Filer, Idaho, and drew significant checks at the IPE & Rodeo in Armstrong, B.C., and the Colorado State Fair in Pueblo, Colo., which finished up last Tuesday night. She rode KN Fabs Gift Of Fame (Frenchmans Fabulous x Misty Dash Of Fame x Dash Ta Fame) at Filer and Armstrong and Fames To Blame (Lions Share Of Fame x SX Frenchmans Peach x Frenchmans Guy) at Pueblo.

Sherry Cervi is now 17th in the World Standings after a $5,815 weekend. Her biggest check came from a fourth-place finish at Ellensburg. She's now $4,727 out of 15th.

The trouble for those trying to break into the Top 15 isn't just trying to make up the money, but those ahead of them aren't giving any quarter. Kellie Collier won $3,454 over the weekend to jump to $76,867. Even Emily Miller continues to hold onto a coveted Top

Vick is Victorious at West Coast Barrel Racing Association Finals

By Hope Raley

Linda Vick's home in Hesperia, California is covered with barrel racing memorabilia from her three-year trip to the NFR, along with countless other awards that she has won throughout her career of barrel racing, and after her stellar showing at the West Coast Barrel Racing Association Finals this past weekend, Vick will be adding more memorabilia to her home.

Vick and her 7-year-old gelding, KN French Dot Fame, dominated all three days of action at the King City Fairgrounds in King City, California. "Frenchy", as the glamorous palomino gelding is known around the barn, is by Frenchmans Fabulous, and out of a Hum Dot Com who is by Dash Ta Fame. Straight out of the Kenny Nichols program, "Frenchy" was bound for success as soon as he hit the ground.

"We bought him as a broke 3-year-old out of Colorado sight unseen, and I started him on the barrels," explained Vick. "He had a very successful futurity year as a 4-year-old, placing at Fort Smith, and pretty much every futurity that he went to. However, his 5-and-6-year-old years were not as successful. He really started to grow and get taller, and I think it took him awhile to figure out how to use this new set of legs he had grown overnight!"

Now 7, "Frenchy" is stepping back up to the plate, when Vick needed him most.

"My good rodeo horse, "Willy" had colic surgery, and then got hurt, so I had to step "Frenchy" up to the plate. Ever since then, he has been running hard and doing exceptionally well."

Going into the WCBRA Finals, Vick was hoping for smooth and clean runs. When she arrived in King City and got settled, she went to check-in and pick up her required back number for the finals. As tears welled in her eyes, Vick noticed that lucky number 16 was hers for the weekend.

"I got goosebumps when I had seen that my number was 16. When I went to the NFR in 2005 on "Hollywood", my back number was 16. I was leading the world going into the NFR, but two down barrels costed us the world title and we finished the season reserve world champion," Vick commented. "After seeing my number, I went back to the stalls and I told "Frenchy" that he had to win this for "Hollywood". He must've been listening."

In the first round of the WCBRA Finals, Vick and "Frenchy" posted a very respectable time of 17.3 to finish out the round in 4th.

With their first run under their belt, Vick and "Frenchy" made their next two runs with the pedal down. Running two 17.2's, Vick won 2nd in the second round and 2nd in the third and final round, which secured them the 1D average.

"He worked absolutely phenomenal all weekend. His runs were flawless and he really stepped up to the place. I am very thankful and feel very fortunate."

Vick pocketed over $9,000 for the weekend, most of it won on "Frenchy", but she also won checks on her two futurity horses Streakin Four Whiskey and Extremely French. In addition to some very deep pockets, Vick also won a Yeti Cooler, a pair of trophy splint and bell boots, a custom trophy saddle and much, much more!

"I want to make sure and thank the WCBRA crew for doing a fantastic job this past weekend. We had great prizes and great money to run at every round, and the ground was awesome and stayed very consistent. I also would like to thank my husband (Joe) for his continued support and help," concluded Vick.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

In your walk with Jesus, can you look back and see that you have changed for the better? Or not! And have you ever had a time when you thought, "Wow, I think Jesus has helped me get over this (fill in the blank)?" AND THEN, JUST WHEN YOU THINK THAT PROBLEM IS WIPED OUT, IT REARS ITS UGLY HEAD?

For me, it was my temper. Explosive, unnecessary and quick, one day I realized Jesus had washed it out of me.....until the last clinic I was at. I was fine. Really. Until the clinician, to make a point about something, started trashing barrel racers, our 'crazy' barrel horses and our 'trashy' horsemanship.

I took it for about 15 minutes, and then I stood up. My hair was straight up I think. I could feel my heart beating in my face! I remember thinking I would get forgiveness later. I could see the horror on Mikes' face as he recalled our early marriage and my infamous temper. I opened my mouth and NOTHING came out! WHAT???

Unlike Balaam's ass in the Bible (Numbers 22:21-33), where God opened its mouth, He SHUT mine! (Balaam might be the first example of poor horsemanship!)

Word picture coming up!! Friends, we DO NOT have to make incorrect and ignorant statements to prove a point. We DO NOT have to lie about some one or some thing to make us feel better about ourselves.

There are stupid and mean people in every horse discipline. We've all seen them. And the point? People lie about God and His motives all the time, because they are ignorant of His Word. He doesn't kill our children, wreck our vehicles, make us sick or send bad weather to teach us something.

Please read John 10:10. GOD IS LOVE! He has NO EVIL in Him, so where would He get it to teach us something? He teaches us by the leading of the Holy Spirit. And if someone who is not a Christian sees us doing something stupid, guess what? They will be talking about God and about us being hypocrites at the next party.....

We are to speak the truth in love (Eph. 4:15). I couldn't speak because there was NO love in me...
