Tonozzi Wins Her 7th Major Rodeo in Ellensburg, This Time Aboard Wylie's SR Industry Titan

by Britany Diaz

2023 continues to be the year-of-a-lifetime for 2-time World Champion barrel racer, Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi. She finished the weekend with her 7th major rodeo win this year in Ellensburg, Washington. In the first go-round, Tonozzi finished second to the 2021 World Champion duo, Jordan Briggs and Rollo, with a time of 17.26. Their roles were reversed in the second go-round, where Tonozzi won the round with a 17.05. In the final round, Tonozzi and SR Industry Titan blazed through the pattern in 16.90 seconds to not only win the round, but to set a new arena record! Tonozzi won the rodeo with a combined time of 51.21 seconds on three runs, earning a total of $9,196!

Tonozzi is out in front in the 2023 Women's Professional Rodeo World Standings. As of August 28, she had a commanding lead with $216,267.50 won, putting her ahead of the #2 cowgirl, Jordan Briggs, with $150,763.42. With less than one month left of the 2023 regular rodeo season, Tonozzi seems to be unbeatable. Ellensburg, WA was her seventh major rodeo win. She found herself on top at Reno, NV, The Calgary Stampede, Salt Lake City, UT, Vernal, UT, Dodge City, KS, Caldwell, ID, and now Ellensburg, WA. These were all first-time wins for Tonozzi. It was Jets Top Gun, owned by Busby Quarter Horses that won all the other major rodeos, but in Ellensburg, it was SR Industry Titan that made his presence known.

SR Industry Titan is a 2013 sorrel stallion, owned by Nick Wylie from Ohio. He is by American Rodeo finalist, Firewaterontherocks out of the infamous, Mulberry Canyon Moon. He definitely is bred to run barrels. Titan was futuritied by Troy Crumrine. "He is very ratey inside, but outside he will get to rolling and you have to rate him. My first run I got by my second barrel, so I knew I was going to have to sit up and get him to rate down for the third. Each run I made, he started to tighten it up. Outside when he can get rolling, he is pretty free," shared Tonozzi.

Tonozzi has a string of very talented equine athletes in her trailer. When it comes to deciding who to run where, she shared some insight. "Titan won Kennewick, WA a few years ago, so that was a no brainer. That horse had a history of doing well there. I chose him in Ellensburg as it is a really big arena. I have never really ran Benny (Jets Top Gun) in quite that big of a set up with no fences." Tonozzi tries to put the horses in the best scenarios for each of them. "I have Blazin Babe Olena, Chitichiti Bang Bang and SR Industry Titan with me now. Benny is at home at Conquer Equine enjoying some relaxation, pampering and down time."

There is no other barrel racer with as much confidence right now as Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi. "In the words of Latricia Duke", Tonozzi shared, "She said, you're just running barrels for fun. You have nothing to lose, your confidence is 110% and you are just running barrels for fun. There is no feeling like it. I have been using these smaller rodeos in the Northwest to season my colts. I have no idea if I will rodeo next year, but this is the perfect opportunity to get them seasoned. You cannot replicate these arenas in Texas. I am taking this time to do that, with the situation that I am in."

Confidence is also what makes young horses able to go in and win at this level as well. Tonozzi has raised and trained most of the young horses in her trailer. This helps her know how to progress each of them to the rodeo scene. "I don't do good at just jumping on and winning. I had Titan for a month before we really got together. They need to be able to come to my way a little bit. It doesn't have to be exactly the way I want, but they need to meet me a little."

"You will see girls that are out there winning and then they have to get on their backup horse. The horse may not have won a bunch, but then they start to win. It is not so much the horse, but the person riding them with so much confidence that is making them win. Confidence can do that," said Tonozzi.

Brittany balances, rodeo, being a mom, training futurity colts, breeding and running a successful equine business.

Tonozzi said, "The reason that I can do all of this is because of Garrett. I'm going to fly home after Puyallup for The Breeders challenge. Garrett is putting some rides on my colts for me. He is manning the ship when it comes to Tinlee and the horses. My parents come intermittently to help when they can." Tonozzi laughed, "There is only one other person that is as excited about this as I am, and that is Garrett. He was raised up in a rodeo family, he's made the finals, and he knows how incredible this year has been, so he is extremely supportive."

This year will be Brittany's 17th NFR qualification. She has two World Champion titles, two Reserve World Champion titles and has come in winning the world over six or seven times throughout her career. "I have learned a lot over the years and with different horses. I have just done it for a really long time and think it is just like with anything. The more you do it, the more practice you have at it, the better you get," said Tonozzi.

*The barrel racing results for this week have changed earnings and may be changed again so as always these results are unofficial!

Hanchey Banks $25,824 at the Equinety Tiger Town Race

This past weekend in Pendleton, SC the Good Time Barrel Racing Association held their Equinety Tiger Town Showdown to give the best horses in the east another chance to run at big money. The 2022 Old Fort Days Derby Champions, Smooth Way Ta Heaven (Mouse) and Kristin Hanchey, topped a tough field of big time barrel horses. This team went home with $25,824 for the weekend to push their lifetime earnings over $200k. Mouse & Hanchey are always a team to reckon with so we caught up with them to get a little more info on their recent win..

BRR: Can you walk us through your Slot Race run?

Hanchey: Honestly I had to go back and watch the video. I couldn't remember a thing about the actual run. Before we left the alley I remember telling myself "She's going to be tight out there, find your line and trust her all the way." The next thing I remember was hearing my husbands cheer and looking at the clock. After that, it was a huge flood of tear filled emotions.

BRR: It was an incredibly tough bunch of horses and jockeys; what was it like running against a group like that and winning by over 2 tenths?

Hanchey: This was not only a bunch of amazing talented horses; there was a group of some of the most well respected jockeys and trainers that I have looked up to my entire life. It's an honor to just be in their same arena as them. Then to make a run like that, extremely surreal. I am blessed.

I really went back and forth about even making the trip to South Carolina. This past week Tracey, my dear friend and Mouses owner, was in a horrible accident. I can without a doubt say that the Lord saved my friend this week. I can't thank him enough for not making me ride life's ride without her. After seeing her sore but alive I decided I would practice what I preach. I would believe in myself and this horse and go do everything in my power to win that slot race for Tracey. If she could wrestle a dump truck and win then I had no excuse to sit at home and not even try!

BRR: Can you share with us about your mare; where your mare came from and her career up to now?

Hanchey: Tracey Williams purchased Mouse from Steve McDonald and Larry Ammons when she was a yearling. We lost Mr. Larry earlier this year, along with Blings Smooth Guy, Mouse's sire. So Mouse and I have had a few extra Angels running with us this year. My father, Bob Haberlandt, broke Mouse for Tracey as a 2 year old, then I took her over as a 3 year old. Thanks to a lot of help from my husband, Mouse has been pretty solid and strong from the start of her competition career.

BRR: What are a few things you did with her to have her at her best for this weekend?

Hanchey: On the day to day, Mouse gets a lot of saddle time. She requires a daily exercise routine. This was the first weekend in a long long time that it was just my husband, Jason, and I. Our girls stayed back home to hit a few local pro rodeos and jackpots. (Where my oldest filled her WPRA permit...proud momma moment LOL) Jason helped me warm up when it came time to exhibition. Of course he took Mouse over, she definitely loves him more than me. I think this weekend she was showing off for him (LOL).

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: Mostly pasture riding away from the arena; but at least 1 day a week we work drills and barrels in the arena. Most of my training is with barrels set up in the cow pasture or I use trees and bushes as barrels (LOL).

THANK YOUS: To the Lord above for saving Tracey this week.

SPONSORS: K&N Equine Solutions, Nancy Maxwell, Equinety, Vetline Equine, Equi-Level, CSI Saddlepads

BRR: Can you tell us a little about yourself and your barrel racing career?

Hanchey: I have been running barrels since I was about 3 years old. I have since the age of understanding wanted to just run barrels and train horses. So I can definitely say I am just a girl living her dream. The Lord has blessed me for sure.

BRR: What are your future plans for you and your horse throughout the rest of the 2023 year?

Hanchey: Mouse and I will compete at the 2023 Southeastern Circuit Finals in November. Beyond that our schedule is filled with some bigger shows and a goal to get qualified for the America.

BRR: How do you mentally prepare for big runs like that prior to entering the arena?

Hanchey: Pray, pray and pray alot more!!

My Lord and Savior is the only reason I am who I am and can do what I do. I want that arena to have more purpose that just 3 barrels. I want to be a beacon of light in this world for the Lord. When it comes to preparing for the arena I truthfully just try to prepare more for what the Lord has planned to do through me with the talent he has given me. Win or Lose I try to prepare my heart to accept the road he has ahead. If I can touch at least one person at every show I attend, make them feel more loved, have them leave feeling closer to the Lord then that is when I have truly won.

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Hanchey: My Bible, My dogs, and beef jerky.

CALLING ALL PINK, RUBY AND RIATA BUCKLE STALLION OWNERS

We are reaching out this year to more stallion owners/agents allowing them the opportunity to support Operation Unicorn through the Silent Stallion Auction and we would like to invite you to consider supporting our endeavors again this year.

YOU helped raise over $275,000 to be donated to the Special Operations Warrior Foundation in just 2 events!

Please consider joining us in helping dreams become reality.

Any stallions that are in the Pink Buckle, Ruby Buckle or Riata Buckle are eligible for the silent auction that will be live during the Pink Buckle Sale.

The auction item includes ONLY the stallion fee... the farm fee and shipping will NOT be included.

The outpouring of support and gratitude from the barrel racing community have been unbelievable!!! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us.

Thank you again for your consideration... you are in GREAT COMPANY already!!!

Caroline Boucher & From Famous To Vegas Sweep Cornhusker Breeders & Open Futurities

By Tanya Randall

Old Fort Days Futurity Champions Caroline Boucher and From Famous To Vegas ("Duke") added $9,878 to their career earnings by sweeping the Cornhusker Breeders and Open futurities, held September 1-4 in the Kiplinger Arena at the Red Will Fairgrounds in McCook, Nebraska. The victory in the $20,000-added Breeders was worth $6,953, while the $2,500-added Open paid $2,925.

"It was a fun futurity," said Boucher, an Aubrey, Texas, based French Canadian. "This was my first time to the Cornhusker. 'The people were super nice. They are very laid back. They were having pizza on Friday night to get everyone together.'"

The event changed venues from its traditional home in Broken Bow, Nebraska. The new facility was well received, according to Boucher.

"Everyone was saying the facility was super nice," she said. "It was a very clean facility, a lot of arena to warmup, a very pretty fairground."

Boucher and Duke were the first gunners through the gate in the venue since they were first out in the futurity.

"We didn't know what to expect," said Boucher. "He had nice barrel[s], but he missed his first strong stride away from the second barrel, so I knew he could be faster. It was a very pretty run. His first run is always a little bit slower than the second go-round usually. I think the more he runs the happier and more confident he gets."

They were a 15.439 on their first round to place fifth in the Breeders. Since they were the last runners out in the second round, Boucher knew a .3 was winning the round.

"I didn't think about the average," she said. "I wanted to have a pretty run. He kind of shut down two strides before the first barrel. It was a very pretty first but not as strong as he can, so I knew we were a little bit late. I knew I needed to ride a little bit more, so we didn't drop a barrel. The second and third, I just gave him his nose. We need to be as fast as we can. He had a super nice second and third barrel."

They won the round with a 15.364.

Duke's career earnings now stand at more than $190,000 with the busy fall season yet to come.

Boucher chose to go to the Cornhusker because Duke had several weeks off after taking third at the Royal Crown Futurity in Rock Springs, Wyoming.

"Because September is a very busy futurity month, we took the chance after Royal Crown to give him three, four weeks of not running hard; just keeping him in shape," she explained. "I told my husband we should drive to Fizz Bomb, but why not go to Cornhusker on the way to Wyoming?"

September through early October will be busy indeed. Although Duke won't run at every one, the upcoming futurity schedule is arduous. After Fizz Bomb this weekend—Boucher is already in Gillette, Wyoming, escaping the Texas heat—is an event every weekend: The Breeders Challenge Finale, The Ardmore Futurity, The Showdown in Texarkana, and then Pink and Ruby Buckles.

"I think it's maybe too much, so we need to be wise and choose," said she, noting that other trainers are having to make the same decisions. "We're all having to make the same decisions. We are having to choose by the horse and the incentive. We know that we need to skip one or two somewhere."

Duke won't likely go to the Showdown and isn't eligible for Pink Buckle. He is eligible for Ruby though. Bred by Carole Lampron, Duke is by 2.5 million dollar sire French Streaktovegas, out of Famous Aunt Martha, by Dash Ta Fame.

Boucher saw and had a deposit down on Duke just three minutes after Lampron had posted him on Facebook. She partnered with BIT: Switched to a Stabilizer from Stop & Turn after the Old Fort Days Futurity. Boucher said she felt Duke losing some of the roundness on the backside of the barrels, especially the second, with the Stop & Turn, and opted for the Stabilizer bit with its mullen mouth. "I'm a mullen person. I like how it feels and keeps the horse together," she said.

Since 1980

proudly presents

The Steve Tucker Memorial Awards

at the 2023 NBHA Music City Super Show in Murfreesboro, TN

1st in Each Open Division Saturday will receive a Custom Breastcollar, Headstall and Saddle Pad package!

1st in the 1D of Saturday's Youth Class will receive a pair of Reinsman Sport Boots from the Horse Tack World Booth onsite.

In Loving Memory

Steve Tucker

Steve Tucker not only was a beloved husband and father, but he was also an owner and the President of Circle Y Saddles at the time of his passing in January 2023. Steve was admired by many and devoted much of his life to his church and his love of Jesus Christ. As a native of Tennessee, it is fitting to honor his name at the NBHA Music City Super Show. Steve, you are missed dearly.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

In your walk with Jesus, can you look back and see that you have changed for the better? Or not! And have you ever had a time when you thought, "Wow, I think Jesus has helped me get over this (fill in the blank)?" AND THEN, JUST WHEN YOU THINK THAT PROBLEM IS WIPE OUT, IT REARS ITS UGLY HEAD?

For me, it was my temper. Explosive, unnecessary and quick, one day I realized Jesus had washed it out of me. . . .until the last clinic I was at. I was fine. Really. Until the clinician, to make a point about something, started trashing barrel racers, our 'crazy' barrel horses and our 'trashy' horsemanship.

I took it for about 15 minutes, and then I stood up. My hair was straight up I think. I could feel my heart beating in my face! I remember thinking I would get forgiveness later. I could see the horror on Mikes' face as he recalled our early marriage and my infamous temper. I opened my mouth and NOTHING came out! WHAT???

Unlike Balaam's ass in the Bible (Numbers 22:21-33), where God opened its mouth, He SHUT mine! (Balaam might be the first example of poor horsemanship!)

Word picture coming up!! Friends, we DO NOT have to make incorrect and ignorant statements to prove a point. We DO NOT have to lie about some one or some thing to make us feel better about ourselves.

There are stupid and mean people in every horse discipline. We've all seen them. And the point? People lie about God and His motives all the time, because they are ignorant of His Word. He doesn't kill our children, wreck our vehicles, make us sick or send bad weather to teach us something.

Please read John 10:10. GOD IS LOVE! He has NO EVIL in Him, so where would He get it to teach us something? He teaches us by the leading of the Holy Spirit. And if someone who is not a Christian sees us doing something stupid, guess what? They will be talking about God and about us being hypocrites at the next party.

We are to speak the truth in love (Eph. 4:15). I couldn't speak because there was NO love in me...
