Casi Conrad and Corona Dude Dancer on Target

By Tanya Randall

If the past two weeks are any indication, you don't want to mess with Casi Conrad and Corona Dude Dancer ("Salty") in a Shootout—a barrel shootout that is. Just a few weeks ago, the pair won the Summer Shootout in Oklahoma City. This Labor Day weekend, they claimed the 1D Championship at the ANHA 5D Shootout in Waco, Texas.

Their winning time was a spectacular 16.688, which claimed the Steve Fiebig Memorial Fast Time Buckle.

"When he took off I didn't think he was going that fast," said Conrad, a 31-year-old barrel racer from Hearne, Texas. "Wow, I couldn't fault him for anything in that run."

The victory was worth $1,401 of the $101,700 total purse, of which $12,500 was added to the barrels and $5,000 was added to the 5D Pole Bending Shootout. This year's event drew 583 barrel racers and 111 pole benders.

Conrad and Salty turned in a 17.875 on their first run, and a sixth-place time of 17.106 on their second for an additional $378. "I usually ride to the mouth of the alley before I let him go because he is so fast," said Conrad. "He was wanting to go so I took a hold of him and I guess that made him think it wasn't for real and we were just cruising through on our first run. He worked a beautiful pattern, but was just loping.

"On my second run, he really went to turn the first and he hit himself. I heard him hit himself and he ran a 1."

Amazingly, the Shootout round was just Conrad's 10th run ever on the 5-year-old gelding by Corona Dancer out of the Junoingood mare This Chicks For You. Conrad and her grandmother, who passed away exactly three months after his purchase, purchased Salty on March 27, 2010.

"I had always done this myself, buying young horses and stuff, and she got a wild hair and wanted to buy a horse. We were looking for something young that was ready to go on. I saw him when Latricia Duke had him, and she already had him running 1D times." Conrad and her grandmother decided to leave Salty with Duke throughout his futurity career. Conrad picked up him after the BFA World in December.

"I gave him a break when I got him home," she said. "He was pretty sore. He had fallen with Latricia before the JB Futurity (in November). Once he got better, I just rode him a lot at home to get things figured out. I haven't really worked him on barrels at home. I just rode him outside the arena, trying to get to know him."

Conrad, who started barrel racing as a teenager, has spent the past 10 runs trying to figure out what type of warm-up routine fits the speedy gelding.

"He's a lot of horse because he's really fast and he can get a little nervous," she said. "I would warm him up outside and bringing him in and just hand-walk him. I wouldn't get on until the drag before my run, so he doesn't get nervous. By the third run, he was really good. He was like, 'Hey, I got this now.'"

Conrad hopes to rodeo on the gelding and looks at the fall run of Texas fair rodeos like Seguin, Bellville and Liberty as possibly his first pro rodeos. However, she's mindful of the gelding's youth and mentality and she wants the horse to last for many years to come, so her actual plans depend all on how Salty's doing at the time.

"He's a pretty neat dude," she said. "I just ride him quiet at home and do outside stuff on him. When I ride him up the alley, he knows what to do. He's pretty free running. I don't know what he would do if you asked him for much more!"

ANHA stands for the American Novice Horse Association, created by Steve and Kathy Thornton of Rockdale, Texas. The Association catered to the novice classifications that once characterized the barrel racing industry that separated horses by the amount of money they had won, i.e., Green Novice was for horses that hadn't won any money and the $1,000 Novice was for horses that had yet to reach that earnings total, so on and so forth.

When the divisional format superseded the novice system, the Thornton's modified the Shootout. Now, each contestant competes in two 5Ds to determine their placement for the individual Shootouts. For example, the 30 contestants qualifying into the 4D only competed against other 4D horses and the 30 qualifiers to the 2D Shootout only compete against the other 2D qualifiers.

Tres Seis His Siring Double

A very rare feat for a sire was accomplished over the weekend with Ochoa winning the All American Futurity, the richest race in quarter horse racing. Ochoa is a 2 year old gelding sired by Tres Seis and out of Stolis Fortune by Stoli. On Monday afternoon he raced to a $1.2 million dollar payday with the brisk time of 21.058 for 440 yards. Earlier in the year Seis So Sweet raced to a $55,900 check in the richest futurity in barrel racing at the Old Fort Days Futurity in a time of 16.865. Seis So Sweet, a 4 year old filly, is also by Tres Seis and out of Stella D Oro by Takin On The Cash. In 2011, Tres Seis hit the speed sport double siring the winner of the richest quarter horse race and the winner of the richest barrel futurity! His pedigree, of course, tells the story as he is a grandson of Streakin Six on the top side and his second dam is a full sister to Tiny's Gay. Congratulations to his connections as this is believed to be the first and only time this has been done.

Ochoa Wins All American Futurity

Ochoa, a $25,000 Ruidoso Select Sale yearling purchase in 2010, earned a $1.2 million winner's purse in the All American Futurity at Ruidoso Downs on Monday, September 5.

Sent off as the 8-5 favorite, after posting the fastest time in the trials, the gelded son of Tres Seis broke sharply from the number nine post position and powered past the outside of the field to a one and one-half length win, in :21.05.

It was the first All American Futurity win for Roy Baldillez. Baldillez was catching riding Ochoa for seven-time All American winner Jacky Martin, who is paralyzed in an El Paso hospital, following a riding accident on Friday.

Veteran trainer Dwayne "Sleepy" Gilbreath, who trains Ochoa for co-owners Johnny T.L. Jones, Katsy and Monty Cluck, and D. Benson, won the All American Futurity in 1990 with Refrigerator, and in 1983 with On A High.

Jess Send Me, a 17-1 shot and one of only two fillies in the field, finished second; Tess Cos, at 9-1 was third; and Lotta Love For Robyn, the other filly, at 9-2, finished fourth.

Ruidoso Yearling Sale Up 26 Percent

The Ruidoso Select Yearling Sale concluded its three-day run on Sunday, September 4, with preliminary results showing a total sales increase of 26 percent over 2010 and an average price of $44,026, compared to $35,048 in 2010.

A Dash Of Sweet Heat, consigned by Julianna Hawn Holt, topped the sale at $650,000. The all-time record was set in 2008, when the colt First Prize Stanley, by Mr Jess Perry out of First Prize Dash, sold for $675,000

A Dash Of Sweet Heat, a bay filly, sired by Mr Jess Perry and out of Broodmare of the Year Corona Chick, was purchased by the A Dash Of Sweet Heat Partnership.

Corona Chick is the dam four stakes winners, among six earners of more than $100,000 each. Her produce includes two-time champin and All American Futurity winner Corona Cash; G1 winner and leading sire Corona Cartel; and G1 winner and leading freshman sire Valiant Hero.

The $650,000 price for A Dash Of Sweet Heat broke the Ruidoso Select Sale record for a filly that lasted just one day. Justice Down Toll SA, another daughter of Mr Jess Perry, brought $630,000 during Saturday's session. The half-sister to G1 Los Alamitos Two Million Futurity winner One Quick First Down was consigned by Vessels Stallion Farm and Gianni Samaja and was purchased by David and Sue Mackie.

The high-selling colt of the three-day sale was Class Jump at $310,000. The Corona Cartel son was consigned by Double Bar S Ranch and purchased by William Smith. He is a full brother to champion Carters Cartel, out of champion 2-year-old filly Jumpin Tac Flash. --Courtesy of www.SallyHarrison.com

Llano Teller Winner of All American Derby

Llano Teller scored a 9-1 upset in the $1,316,760 G1 All American Derby on Sunday, September 4 at Ruidoso Downs. He earned a payout of $658,380 for the 440-yard win, as well as an invitation to the $750,000 G1 Champion of Champions in December, at Los Alamitos Race Course in California.

Trained by co-owner Heath Reed, the gelded son of Teller Cartel, broke sharply, dueled with second-place finisher Prospect To The Top (11-1), then cleared the wire by one-half of a length, with a time of :20.867. It was his third G1 victory and second of the summer (he won the $703,000 Ruidoso Derby in June).

"I was thinking if I had a chance to break, I've got a chance to be in front at the wire," said Llano Teller's catch-rider Ramon Sanchez, who also won the All American Gold Cup, two races earlier on the program, as catch-rider aboard Noconi.

RTM Pro Postpones Sept 9-11 Barrel Race

RTM Productions has moved their September 9-11 Finals and Open Barrel Race to December 17-19, 2011. It will still be held at Diamond W Arena.

There were many discussions and alot of tough decisions involved in this move. One of the factors that played heaviest in our decision to reschedule to the December date was the number of large barrel races on the September weekend. We as a production company want to continue to put on the best races possible with the most contestants in attendance. So with this move, we will be bringing you as a finalist and in the "Open to Everyone Race" more prizes more money and more fun! We apologize in advance for the late notice and to anyone this inconveniences.

If you have any questions feel free to email me at whitney@rtm-barrelraces.com

“My hats off to our whole team,” said producer Kathy Thornton. “You never saw a barrel setter walk to a barrel the entire weekend. Our ground crew—Larry Davie and Mike Rutledge—did a fabulous job. We ran about 55 horses an hour. We didn’t have big drags because the barrels were moved at each drag, so the ground stayed consistent for everyone. No one had to run in the deeper ground after a big drag. Our stands stayed full. Everyone wanted to watch because they all had a chance for the short go.”

Sponsors for the event included Barrel Racer News, Cavender’s, Texas Equine Hospital, Brazos Valley Equine Hospital, MD Barns, Coats Saddlery, Alamo Saddlery, Cactus Saddlery, Tesky’s Saddles, Double J Saddlery, Sports Saddle, Crossroads Buckles, Tre Rios Buckles, Maynard Trophy Buckles and Yellowhair Buckles. WPRA Top Fifteen Tightens Up

As the #10-#20 positions in the WPRA standing have been a roller coaster the last few weeks, there has been one presence just rolling up the standings since July, that is Syndi Blanchard and her amazing mount Firewater Five. With only 29 rodeos so far this year, the team has moved in to the #14 position with $53,360 of earnings. This doesn't even include the more than $120k the team earned at Calgary that doesn't count towards the world standings. She is looking to repeat her 2010 NFR appearance in 2011 and as of now she is in good position to do just that. Britany Fleck is hanging on to the #15 position with $51,260 and Angie Meadors is on the outside looking in at #16 with $50,382 worth of earnings. Right now, veteran competitor Tammy Fischer sits #12 with $54,504 and the Kim Schulze sits #22 with $45,095, so less than $10k separates them with only 3 full weekends of rodeos left. The heat is on! Blanchard qualified #15 last year so she is more than used to the stress of this last month of the season. Her mount, Firewater Five (or Shotgun) is a combination of Fire Water Flit, Nonstop Jet, Jet's Pay Day, and Magnolia Bar bloodlines so he will be doing his part to keep them in the hunt. Over the last several years it has taken anywhere from $50k-$60k to qualify for the NFR and this year it looks like that number will be closer to $60k with the competition this year. It is going to be an exciting 3 weeks!

THE 2012 SPEEDHORSE BARREL STALLION REGISTER IS COMING!

The Speedhorse Stallion Register has long been deemed the #1 Resource of the Quarter Horse Racing Industry. We are now bringing that reputation, history, ability and quality to the Barrel Horse Industry.

- ★ We offer the longest promotional viewing time of any equine publication.
- ★ We offer the most affordable rates for promoting YOUR STALLION in FULL COLOR!
- ★ We will be promoting & distributing the Barrel Stallion Register at our booth at the Barrel Futurities of America World Championship in Oklahoma City, at no cost, as well as major barrel events & sales Nationwide & in Canada and Brazil.

The Speedhorse Barrel Stallion Register will be the "Go To Book" for the barrel industry. By incorporating Businesses and Services relevant to the Barrel Horse Industry, we will increase the number of people viewing the book. That, in turn, will increase the number of people (potential mare owners!), viewing YOUR STALLION!

★ ASK US ABOUT HOW THE QR CODE CAN IMPROVE YOUR MARKETING! ★

CALL US TODAY AT SPEEDHORSE!

BOBBY PHILLIPS • ROBIN HOFMANN
AMANDA GLIDDEN • KATI TRIMMELL 405.288.2145

We will put YOUR STALLION in front of more mare owners than any other publication. Hands down.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

There is something about the outside of a horse that is good for the inside of a man." That statement was reported to have been made by Winston Churchill and it's true!

Have you noticed how good it feels to get out and go for a ride at times when the world is battering you from all sides? It clears your head, problems seem smaller and you can pray for answers and solutions without a lot of distractions. Of course, this is assuming you're on a decent horse! If you're on one of those irritating ones, you might come back to the barn feeling no better or even worse than when you left.

But, there's a quicker and more surefire way to ease your mind and get peace. All you have to do is get quiet before the Lord and talk to Him. He can fix anything! Even if you have to shut yourself up in the bathroom for a few minutes of "aloneness", it's worth it! It's the true pause that refreshes!

Many years ago, there was an evangelist woman with a small cabin and a large bunch of noisy children. She was a great prayer warrior but she didn't have the luxury of a prayer room. So when she wanted to be alone with God, she'd sit in her chair and pull her apron up over her head and that was her prayer "closet" and the children knew to leave her alone because she was before the throne of God.

There are many Scriptures promising us that God will never leave us and that He is ready to help us if we only ask and believe. Memorize some of them. A couple of my favorites are: "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." (Matthew 7:7) and "...whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them." (Mark 11:24).

You can trust God to do what He says. Keep some of these Scriptures ready to recite at times when you need extra strength, peace and an uplift. You might not have time to saddle a horse and go for a ride!
