Alves Sweeps West Coast Barrel Racing Finals

By Hope Sickler

Labor Day Weekend in King City, California is the home to the West Coast Barrel Racing Association Finals where barrel racers all across the western hemisphere travel in hopes of claiming a piece of the pie. The finals this year had over $142,000 added and it was 39-year-old Darlene Alves from Camarillo, California who left the Salinas Valley Fairgrounds with the deepest pockets.

Alves ran her 11-year-old mare Nic N Shine at the WCBRA finals who she bought from Jerri Mann, although Alves explains that the mare was technically not for sale when she laid eyes on her 2 and a half years ago.

Nic N Shine is by Nic It In The Bud and out of a Shining Spark mare Shining In Seattle. Her barn name is "Nicolette" but many who knew her when Mann owned her know her as "Grumpy".

"She curls her nose up at you and pins her ears when you first walk up to her stall. She acts like she has no desire to be bothered by you but as soon as you walk by or ignore her she suddenly perks up and wants all of your attention," said Alves. "It is a total act and we all fall for it over and over again."

Before her barrel racing career, "Nicolette" was a reining reject that Mann purchased and trained on the pattern.

"She doesn't like to work very hard and is actually very difficult to warm up or do any sort of drills on. Most people don't believe it until they see it. She is just plain lazy. My kids ride her at home and eventually always end up getting off of her because she won't go fast enough for them. But she knows her job and once you get her in the arena she runs her heart out every single time."

Since finding "Nicolette", Alves has accomplished things that she had never even thought imaginable for herself; including 3 NBHA California District 17 Year End 1D Championships, an Honor on the Mountain 1D Championship, several buckles and other great prizes. In addition, Alves and "Nicolette" won the CNC Barrel Productions Slot Race and were the yearend California Permit Finals Champions last year and now they can add another big title to their resume: WCBRA Year End 1D Average Champions.

"This was my very first time winning the WCBRA yearend championship. Last year we did well and placed each day and finished 5th overall in the 1D average, winning the most money at the time that I have ever won. Now that we have won the title and had by far the best weekend that I have ever had barrel racing, this will be a hard one to top," laughed Alves.

Going into the weekend, Alves wanted to make smooth, clean runs and let the rest take care of itself.

"Early on in the season I took the lead for the WCBRA year end points and so I worked really hard all year to maintain that lead. Coming into the weekend was just icing on the cake to close what has been my most successful season ever. I just wanted to go in and make some good runs. I know that she is fast and if we stayed clean, our time is usually there and we place somewhere in the money. I can't lie, I really wanted one of those pretty Montana Silversmith belt buckles, too!"

2016 Jud Little Ranch Production Sale Approaching

The 2016 Jud Little Ranch Production Sale will kick off at 2:30 pm, Saturday, September 24th, 2016 following the Ardmore Barrel Futurity produced by Steve & Ross Wright. The sale will include 29 high end futurity prospects & broodmares.

The futurity prospects are sired by Jud Little Ranch sires, leading freshman barrel sire & NFR Qualifier, JI Dash Ta Heaven, Bugemforcash, Bestcreditmesunfrost, and Bug In My Frosty along with leading race horse sires Valiant Hero & FDD Dynasty. The broodmares include own daughters of Fire Water Flit and Cash Not Credit in foal to JI Dash Ta Heaven.

As always the Jud Little Ranch prospects come from the best dams in the business. This year's offering include prospects out of Tr Dashing Badger (Dolly), a 2 Time NFR Average winner and earner of $850k; Nicky Brick House, 2010 NFR & CFR Qualifier & earner of over $150k; Buggin To Kill, San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo Champion & earner of over $100k; and Frosty Feelins, NFR Qualifier & NFR Round Winner & earner of over $134K. That's just a few of the many distinguished dams represented in the 2016 edition of the JLR Production Sale.

The sale will take place at the ranch near Springer, OK and bidding will also be available on www.SuperiorLivestock.com.

This year's sale will take place along with the Ardmore Barrel Futurity & 5D Barrel Race which runs from Wednesday, September 21

In their first run last weekend, Alves and "Nicolette" posted a time of 17.475-seconds which ended up third in the first round and good enough for a check for almost $2500.

"Going into the second round, I was working the gate for about 3-hours and watched some smoking runs including Lead Baize's smoking run of 17.169 and thought there was no way I could top that. My good friend Ariel Hale who helped me at the gate all weekend gave me a little pep talk before our second run which really helped because we ran a 17.111," Alves explained.

With one round left, Alves hoped that she could keep her momentum rolling and make another clean, quick run.

"It was such a fun run and I just held on for the ride. I was so ecstatic when I saw a 17.162 pop up on the screen that I could hardly contain my excitement! We had cleared all three barrels three days in a row and we had clenched the weekend average title. It was so surreal."

Her speedy second round and third round runs netted her the win both days and clinched the average title and $10,920 on the weekend.

With a great weekend to close up a great season, Alves is grateful for her horse, her support system and the producers that put on the great yearend finals.

through Sunday, September 25, 2016 in Ardmore, OK at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum. The barrel race includes a $20,000 added Futurity & $5,000 added Derby along with a total of $17,500 added Open Races. The Open Races feature AQHA classes and are WPRA & BBR approved. The race will also feature a Qualifier to RFDTV's The American at 7pm on Saturday Night. For more information on the barrel race & schedule, go to www.ArdmoreBarrelFuturity.com

"It was an amazing show. The producers and the crew are top-notch, amazing people. There was not one detail they did not consider and as far as I was concerned not one thing that could have been done better for a race of that magnitude in that facility. I am so grateful for them and proud to call them my friends. Also, the support crew and friends from home that I had all weekend are so dear and special to me. The magnitude of encouragement I got from fellow barrel racers was amazing and something that I will cherish forever. It is a blessing and I thank God for the opportunity to live it."

Chris Martin & Frenchmans Perks Dominate 5-States Breeders Futurity

By Tanya Randall

The drive from Brookston, Texas, to Rapid City, S.D., may have been 19-hours behind the wheel, but the trip was well worth it for Chris Martin and Frenchmans Perks (“Jet”), the talented 4-year-old gelding owned by Jason Gunter.

Martin and Jet nearly swept the event, winning all but the second go, to pocket $7,838 of the $20,000-added purse.

“He was really good up there,” said Martin. “The first two rounds I was just trying to run clean because we’ve rolled some barrels over ... to win lots of money. Driving all the way up there, 19-hours, I was just going to try to be clean. I handled him a little bit, and he doesn’t really like it, he likes you to stay out of his way, and he got by the third barrel a little bit. The next round (the Finals), I decided I was going to stay out of his way and just let him go do it and see what happens. He REALLY worked the last round.”

Jet posted a spectacular 16.717 on a WPRA Standard—an arena record for facility—and won the average by more than 8/10ths.

“You just have to have a different mindset going into there,” he explained. “We’re used to making one fast run to qualify to get back to the finals and have the best average, but those Northern futurities you’ve got to run two rounds and you have a three-run average.”

This was Martin’s first trip up to the 19th Annual Event and he was impressed.

“That’s the most efficient futurity I’ve ever been to in my life,” he said. “They are spot on with everything. If they say they’re starting at 3:01, they’re starting at 3:01. There’s no delay. They run it like clockwork.”

‘Your wraps aren’t even dirty!’ It was crazy because you could get in the ground but you wouldn’t bury up. It was really, really good ground.”

The victory pushed Jet’s career earnings to more than $125,000. Martin credits the Frenchmans Guy gelding, out of the Perks Alive mare Our Blue Velvet, for changing his life.

“He’s validated a lot of things for me,” he said. “I didn’t really ride for the public. I would tune horses up and then I would start horses and sell them, but as far as having a horse and finishing a year? I always sold everything. This was the first Fort Smith that I’ve been in three or four years and prior to that I hadn’t been in 10 to 12 years. I would sell everything prior to Fort Smith.”

Having sold all his promising horses before he campaigned them left Martin with the stigma that he could train, but couldn’t compete.

“I wanted to keep a good one that I could go on to show people I could win,” said Martin. Luckily, Martin found a buyer in Jason Gunter that would allow him to campaign the gelding. “That was the whole point of selling him to Jason when I did. If I had kept him, I probably would have sold him by now and wouldn’t still be riding him.

“I’ve been through a lot in my life and everything I needed to learn in life, he was an example of that. He was just always so calm, cool and collected.”

Jet has been solid since he was a 3-year-old. Martin named Jet his horse for the BFA’s Super Stakes even though his training had been put on hold due to a torn suspensory. Even early this spring, Jet had to have another surgery to remove a splint bone he broke in a fall at the Diamonds & Dirt Futurity. Even though he’s been sound since, Jet has proven less is definitely more.

“He does everything I ask, so why ask him for me,” Martin questioned. “We send him to the aquatred at Selway and we pony him. He was trained when he was a 3-year-old. He’s changed my mindset.

Even with my 3-year-olds now, I do a lot of my training off of the pattern.”

With his focus on keeping Jet confident rather than seasoning him to varying conditions, Martin hasn’t entered many jackpots with the gelding.

“We’re trying to season them, but it’s all about confidence,” he said. “An older horse can get a little bit sore and battle through it. These colts lose their confidence and start to get hot. This colt is actually getting quieter and quieter.

“My goal with him was maybe two big events a month on him,” said Martin. With that in mind, Martin returned home after 5-States rather than going to nearby Gillette, Wyo., for the Fizz Bomb Classic. He’ll head back out West for the Parker-Wood Memorial Futurity in Heber City, Utah, in two weeks. In the meanwhile, Martin is riding several 3-year-old hopefuls for next year’s futurities and trying to gather everything up to move to a new facility in Collinsville, Texas.

Martin wanted to thank Jet’s owner’s, his CM Barrel Horses team, Dr. Keith Taraba of Northeast Texas Equine, his farrier Tommy Wilson and his sponsors Equi-Resp, Oxy-Gen, 5-Star Pads, Kroes Feet Stirrups, Legendary Equine, Equi-Sure and Spring Valley Ranch.

MARY BURGER

TRUSTS EQUINE 7 PRODUCTS

Congrats to Mary Burger, Winning Calgary, Cinch Shootout in Cheyenne, and having a record-setting earning in 2016. Mary uses Oxy Ulcer and Oxy Fluidity in her horse for the winning edge.

Champions use EQUINE 7

"I use Oxy Zen and Oxy Silver for Tic Tac's performances, especially over July 4th with fireworks. Cammander tends to be nervous even for slack, so I use Oxy Zen and Oxy Silver. My horses wouldn't be the same without your products! Especially with Tic Tac's age Equine 7 helps him feel his best on the road and keeps him working run after run during the busy summer months! Thanks!"

— Tillar Murry

Winner of 2016 MT PRCA Rodeo, Livingston
Placed 2nd at 2016 PRCA, Cheyenne, Wyoming

EQUINE 7

Often Imitated. Never Duplicated

NATURAL, DRUG-FREE REPLACEMENT FOR

Grimes & KG Justiceweexpected Top WA Qualifier

By Hope Sickler

The American Rodeo is gearing up for another exciting day of rodeo in February but first the qualifiers must be had and the barrel racers must come hither. This past weekend Moses Lake, Washington was home to the #3 qualifier on the list for this year and the draw was stacked full of some of the best horses and jockeys in the northwest. It was veterinarian Kathy Grimes who came out on top aboard her home-grown 9-year-old freaky fast, jet black mare KG Justiceweexpected "Issy".

"Issy was my very first embryo transfer endeavor and she has accomplished a lot for me in terms of barrel racing goals," explained Grimes.

In fact, this was not the first qualifier that she and "Issy" have won. They have qualified to the semi-finals every year since the conception of The American concept but some bad luck has held them back from advancing past the semi-finals in Fort Worth, Texas.

"We have had some just plain bad luck when we have gotten to the semi-finals. We hit a barrel the first year, the year after we had a nasty slip and then last year my reins flipped over her head on the wrong side of her neck at the first barrel. I am hoping that the 4th time is the charm to move on to the actual American."

Going into the qualifier race last weekend in Moses Lake, Grimes knew the territory better than anyone. With a clear mind of what she wanted to accomplish, she and "Issy" blazed through the cloverleaf pattern in 15.227-seconds, the fastest run of the qualifier just ahead of Rachel Stoller and Dats A Biankus who posted a time of 15.255.

"My run was nice and smooth which allows her to be fast," exclaimed Grimes. "We have been running at big outdoor rodeos for the past month so I was a little worried about my timing. It was a great race, great facility and the ground was in excellent shape."

Only about 100 miles from her home, Grimes was extra grateful for a qualifier being so close to home.

"I am very thankful to the producers as well as the BBR for the opportunity to run at this race so close to home. I love the idea of The American and being able to run at that much money; especially for those of us not in the Top 10 in the world to be able to do that is definitely unique and very much appreciated."

Miller Victorious at Ellensburg; 2016 Season Winding Down

By Hope Sickler

With only 3 short weeks left in the 2016 rodeo season, Ellensburg, Washington finished up on Labor Day. Champions were crowned and large checks were cashed. During these last few weeks of the season, any money won is imperative and every cent counts. 2010 NFR qualifier Nellie Miller left Ellensburg with the win and added another hearty chunk to her already $44,000 won this season. Now with $54,113.04 won, Miller is setting 18th in the WPRA World Standings.

Miller was riding an 8-year-old mare, Rafter W Minnie Reba "Sister" that she raised and her dad trained. She is a half-sister to Blue Duck (Rebas Smokey Joe), the horse she made the NFR on. She is by KS Cash N Fame and out of a Driftwood-bred mare. The pair was 51.92 on the 3 which gave them the win by over half a second ahead of Jana Bean.

"She is so much fun to ride and she tries so hard every time she enters the arena. She has really gotten solid this summer at all the different rodeo setups that we have been to," explained Miller.

Miller explained that the big, wide open arena in Ellensburg really fit her mare.

"The ground was great and she was outstanding on every run. She is really starting to become consistent and starting to love the rodeos."

This was the first time that Miller has won Ellensburg. Being a fan of the rodeo, she was grateful for the win, especially it being one of the last big rodeos of the season. Miller won the first round with a 17.23 and was second in the second round with a 17.42. She stayed on her consistent streak and won second in the finals with a 17.27 behind Jana Bean's blistering fast run of 17.03!

"It was an honor to win this rodeo. I have always enjoyed coming up here and the committee has always been great and they try really hard for us. They reworked the ground this summer to make it even better for us which was a really big effort on their part which all of us barrel racers appreciated. Good ground makes for an exciting barrel race," Miller said.

Prior to this year, we hadn't heard much of the California stand-out barrel racer and that is because she had bigger priorities which included starting a family of her own.

"I have two little girls, 4 years old and 1 1/2 year old, and they have been on the road with me all summer. My mom goes with us to help with the kids and they have really been enjoying it so far and settling into the rodeo lifestyle. I am so glad that I took the time to have a family and am grateful that I have the opportunity and the support system to come back out on the road."

Sitting in the top 25 in the WPRA World Standings, Miller plans on staying busy the next three weeks, entering most of the rodeos she can in an effort to squeak into the NFR.

"We still have a lot of winning to do in order to make that happen but my win at Ellensburg really gave me a big boost so I am crossing my fingers that it will happen for us but if not, we will have goats set for next year."

With only three weeks left, cowgirls and cowboys alike are hustling to get as much won as they can in the last few weeks of the season. Upcoming rodeos include Fort Madison, Iowa, Lewiston, Idaho, Puyallup, Washington, Albuquerque, New Mexico, Abilene, Texas, Pendleton, Oregon are just a few to name. With some purses of over $20,000, there is still a lot of money to be won in the final countdown to the NFR 2016.

Mary Burger of Pauls Valley, Oklahoma is leading the pack with $188,022.74 won, while Ivy Conrado from Hudson, Colorado rounds out the top 5 with $99,873.47 won. When getting down to the nitty gritty between about 13th and 20th, a lot can still change in the next few weeks. Stevi Hillman has seen a huge jump in her 2016 earnings after another successful week on the rodeo trail and is sitting safe in the #8 spot with $83,903.57 won. She is looking at making her first trip to the bright lights of Las Vegas in December!

Jana Bean from Fort Hancock, Texas sits in the number 15 spot with $70,896.35 won, while Amber Leigh Moore has seen a very successful summer sitting in 16th with $61,046.63 won. Jana Griemsman, Nellie Miller, last year NFR Qualifier Cassidy Kruse and Taylor Langdon round out the top 20.

With such a dramatic and tight race this season, there is a good chance that the 15th spot will not be clenched until the final day of the season. Many miles yet to travel and more cans to chase, these top cowgirls will not give up until they absolutely have to.

Hunter Family Says Goodbye to Flit N Fizz, 2000-2016

By Tanya Randall

Two-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier and three-time Rodeo Houston Champion Flit N Fizz ("Fuzz") went to greener pastures after a brief battle with colic on the morning of August 30, just 10-days after Fred and Nancy Hunter of Neola, Utah, announced the gelding's retirement and 12 days after Nancy was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. Fuzz was just 16.

"My heart is so raw," said Nancy Hunter, via text as she is currently undergoing chemotherapy. "I so loved him."

While many great horses have intelligible bonds with their riders, Fuzz was unique in that he was bonded to both Fred and Nancy. Not only had Fred trained Fuzz, but he also tuned on and warmed up the gelding for Nancy.

"Fuzz loved Fred and Fred loved him," said Nancy. "Fred said he loved his entire 10-year career. Fuzz trusted Fred so much. Fuzz was actually an anxious horse, but he felt so bonded with Fred, he would calm down. When he saw other horses running barrels, he would turn his head and tuck it by Fred's leg until I picked up the reins to go. Fuzz wasn't the best physically built horse, but he tried so hard and stayed so true to what Fred taught him."

Bred by leading breeders Harry and Vivian Blackwell of Naylor, Mo., Fuzz, a 2000 sorrel gelding, was by two-time WPRA World Champion Sire Dr Nick Bar out of the Power Train mare Sting It. "Fred had actually (ridden) the mom to Fuzz a few years before," Nancy said, after she won Rodeo Houston for the first time in 2013. "Harry had called and said he was going to send this horse out that wasn't going to make it in the futurity program. He was a stud, he cribbed and was little underweight and he could buck. He's not a natural stopper and Fred really worked on that. They wanted to sell him. No one was interested. I called tons of girls and couldn't get anyone to come look at him."

With her four boys grown, Nancy decided to start competing more and bought Fuzz. By the time the gelding was 7, he had seasoned out into a solid rodeo horse.

"He was one of the most consistent horses on the road," said Nancy. "Every run looked about the same."

In 2006, Nancy and Fuzz made their first of nine appearances at the Wilderness Circuit Finals and won their first of five yearend circuit championships. They also won the Wilderness Circuit Finals Rodeo twice and finished reserve for the yearend championship twice.

Fuzz had several favorite rodeos including Rodeo Houston, which he won three straight years, from 2013 to 2015. He won Caldwell, Idaho, four times—2010-2012 and 2014; he was second in 2015. He also won Preston, Idaho, three straight times, from 2013 to 2015. Fuzz had also won such rodeos as the National Western in Denver, the Colorado State Fair in Pueblo, the World's Oldest Rodeo in Prescott, Ariz., and many, many more.

Nancy and Fuzz had finished with the Top 30 in the WPRA Standings several times, but it wasn't until Rodeo Houston earnings counted toward the standings in 2014 that Nancy's NFR dreams came true. The lucrative payout allowed her qualify on her own terms without having to haul Fuzz beyond his physical limits.

"We've always had to look at doing it 'our way,'" said Nancy, after winning Rodeo Houston in 2014. "We've always had a lot of responsibilities and we couldn't go that hard."

At the 2014 NFR, Fuzz's composure on the questionable footing spurred World Champion Calf Roper and WNFR Commentator Joe Beaver to make the observation that Fuzz could probably run barrels in a parking lot and not fall down. The gelding developed that style through Fred's training and his willingness to shoe Fuzz for the situations at hand, thus giving the gelding confidence to work.

Nancy and Fuzz returned to Las Vegas in 2015. They won the fifth round and did their part to raise awareness for childhood cancer research through their Glitter Like Gold initiative.

Over the many miles and years together, the Hunters learned to cope with Fuzz's quirks, like his cribbing habit.

"He's cribbed forever," noted Nancy, after one of her Houston wins. "It's like a smoking habit. We noticed in pens that he can't crib in, he'll go off his feed. He gets depressed. So we made him a cribbing bar that we can clamp to the stalls that he can't crib in, and it's made him so happy. It's like how many people do you know contribute to the smoking habit of their family member? We just deal with it."

Although they'd been offered obscene money for Fuzz, the Hunters had made Fuzz apart of their family. It was Nancy's fondest wish that Fuzz would one day carry her granddaughter down the alley and then join her pasture of 30-plus year-olds. He had more than earned a home for life with the Hunter family.

The Hunters wanted to thank everyone for their sympathy and support through Nancy's diagnosis and Fuzz's passing.

"It has meant so much to us to hear all the kind words about Fuzz," she said. "We appreciate all of that and the prayers. It warms our hearts."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Have you ever found yourself in the wrong place at the wrong time? Of course. We all have. I was happily driving along by myself, listening to a cool Bible teaching tape on my way to the Rapid City barrel race. Sunshine, blue skies. Perfect day. I was cruising along on the interstate and came up on a pickup and stock trailer with cows. I was easing by and just when I got my pickup right up to the stock trailer.....a cow started peeing out the side.....all.....over.....my.....windshield.....and down.....the side.....of my pickup and trailer....YUK! YUK! YUK! It was like the perfect storm!

I admit, right here in front of everyone, that I didn't immediately count it all joy like the Bible tells us to do in James 1:2-4, "my brethren count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing." Ohhhhh noooo. I went RIGHT into what the Bible says NOT to do in Phil. 2:14, "do all things without murmuring and complaining."

Then when I got to the barrel race, I opened my mouth and offered unsolicited advice and then had to go apologize because the Holy Spirit told me I had to...but I did it. That's obedience.

Every single day we live we have challenges, we make mistakes, we correct them. It's life. So the really good news for me was this. I loaded my horses, feeling a little discouraged because of my less than stellar performance and headed home. Just as I pulled back onto the interstate, it began to pour rain, washing my truck and trailer! Thank you Jesus!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
