Jordon Briggs & Famous Lil Jet Win Ellensburg Pro Rodeo, Jump to No. 2 in World Standings

By Tanya Randall

Jordon Briggs and her tough 7-year-old gelding Famous Lil Jet ("Rollo") capped off their summer rodeo run with an $11,897 weekend in Washington State. Briggs and Rollo won the $22,500-added Ellensburg Rodeo for $8,850 and placed second at the Walla Walla Frontier Days for $3,047.

The 2009 National Finals Rodeo qualifier currently sits No. 2 in the WPRA World Standings with $99,983.

"That seems absolutely crazy to say that!" exclaimed Briggs, who missed more than two months of the winter run due to a broken ankle. "We had some catching up to do, but my horse had some way bigger plans than I did!"

At Ellensburg, Briggs and her Busby Quarter Horses-bred Dash Ta Fame, Blazin Jetolena gelding put more than 4/10ths on the field in the aggregate. They started off with an eighth-place run in the first round of 17.46.

"Everyone ran in slack on Wednesday," she explained. "I was up pretty early. My horse just made a really nice run. The ground dried out as slack went on and it got really fast, and they, of course, had beautiful runs."

They got their second run on Sunday afternoon in a very salty performance.

"We were ready to run on some drier ground in the perfs and Rollo loved it," she said. They won the round with a 16.98. "I think the fastest time all week had been a .2 and the first three girls were .0s and .1s, so I was like, 'Oh man! This is a fast track today.' Of course, you still have to have the mindset of making one more solid run to make the short round. The average was pretty open leading up to that final day because they ran it slowest to fastest. I went out there to make my run and Rollo here lately has just been beyond my imagination, running 16.9s and 17.0s (on WPRA Standard Patterns) pretty consistently."

In the Monday afternoon short go, Briggs was third out on the ground.

"Usually, those first couple of girls set the tone for how the rest of it was going to go," she explained. "Like in the second go, those first girls blew it out of the water with those runs so you know you have to go for it. In the short round, I was third out. Kelly Bruner was first out and hit a barrel. Jimmie Smith was next and something happened. I couldn't see anything but from the sound of the announcer it sounded like she had a little bit of ground trouble or something. My mindset was go out there and make a smooth run, set my horse up and stand him up for all three turns just in case the ground is a little different today."

They turned in a near arena record run of 16.93 to win the short

THE RUNDOWN w/Jordon Briggs

Famous Lil Jet, "Rollo" 15 h., 1,200 lbs.

BIT: Kerry Kelley Hemi with a chain port mouthpiece. "I changed headgear again. I finally figured out being out here and running outdoors so much, if the barrels are pretty close to the fence I can get away with my (No Hit Bit) hackamore, and that's what we feel the best in. If the barrels are nowhere near the fence, I need my Kerry Kelley Hemi with the ported chain so I can pick his front end up. With the hackamore, he can get a little low headed and push his nose down and if he doesn't have anything around to help rate him off I don't have as much control in that hackamore. After the Caldwell short round, he kind of ran by the first barrel a little and was pushing through the hackamore. He's just running. These outdoor pens have really got him running. My husband said it looks like his legs have gotten longer. I definitely need the ported chain especially on this harder ground to be able to pick up that front end."

SADDLE: Shiloh Contender

SADDLE PAD: 3/4" Shock Guard from Classic Equine

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Flexion on all four

SHOEING: Rims on front, plain on back

FEED: Purina Impact Professional

HAY: Free choice coastal on the road, alfalfa morning and night; At home, grass pasture.

SUPPLEMENTS: Individualized products through Horse Hair Analysis

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Magnets, Back On Track, Chiropractic care

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: Rollo is going to get the rest of the month off, but I can't give him too much time off because he'll get really fat. It's hard to keep him in really good shape. He'll get two or three weeks off and then I'll have to start exercising him again.

SPONSORS: Horse Hair Analysis, Classic Equine, Shiloh Saddlery, Rock N Roll Cowgirl, Rodeo Rigs, PHT

go and aggregate. It was Briggs's second Ellensburg title, having won the rodeo in 2009 on Frenchmans Jester, her first futurity superstar and NFR qualifier.

"I want to thank the rodeo committee," she said. "Washington is a tough state to get away with a rodeo right now. That community just loves rodeo. The sponsors were great. It was a really neat rodeo."

Briggs, who had the company of her husband Justin and daughter Bexley the past couple of weeks, was headed to her new home in Tolar, Texas.

"We've got a lot of work to do to finish up our place," said Briggs. "We've got a lot of fence to build and work to do on our barn. We have horses in three different places right now with three different people taking care of them. I'm so grateful for all the support that we've had so we could pull this off."

Briggs said she's going to try to get some of her futurity hopefuls rode while she's home too.

"I'm going to try to get back on my colts here and there," she said. "I've got three 3-year-olds that I'm going to put on the backburner and save until they're 5. Justin and I are going to be sharing a horse again for next year. We have a 4-year-old Mr Cinnamon Roll that will be going to the rope horse and barrel horse futurities. I've got the Hide Ur Fame mare that will be a derby horse next year."

Briggs has to make three Texas rodeos to get her count in for circuit finals. Luckily, she has several options close to her new home in September. Her former futurity standing Frenchmans Future ("Stoli") will get the call while Rollo gets a well-deserved break.

Cooked to Perfection.

The way horse feed should be.

For over 35 years, HYGAIN® feeds have been perfected with painstaking attention to every detail. Our feed range includes a not-so-secret ingredient: the Australian Sweet Lupin, a soluble super fiber that is low in starch and sugar with high energy sources for optimal conditioning with more control.

Made in an equine-only manufacturing facility for product purity with no cross-contamination, each of our feeds is formulated to deliver optimal health, enhance nutritional value, improve palatability and increase feed efficiency.

HYGAIN. The Highest Standard in Horse Nutrition.

Snyder Wins Big at Buckles & Barrels for Bailey

This past weekend at the Buckles & Barrels For Bailey Barrel Race in Las Vegas, NV; Amberley Snyder and her fast bay gelding French Open dominated the competition. They won the Friday & Sunday Open and were 2nd on Saturday on their way to the Open Average Title and $7,855 in earnings. Anyone who barrel races knows that is an amazing feat in itself; but if you know more about Snyder the feat becomes even more amazing!

In 2010, Snyder was in a truck wreck which ended with her losing feeling below the waist and being in a wheelchair since that day. Just 4 months after her wreck she was back on her horse and she hasn't stopped since. She went on to continue barrel racing; eventually competing in RFDTV's The American a few years back. Over the past few years, her and French Open have just gotten better and better, leading to an amazing year so far in 2021. They recently won over $11k at the Ruby Buckle Salina and made the Short Go at the Caldwell, ID ProRodeo just two weeks ago!

Snyder continues to inspire others across the country by sharing her amazing story of determination and courage.

We caught up with Amberley to ask her a few questions about her big win!

BRR: You had an amazing weekend; winning the Fri Open, Sun Open & the Average as well as winning 2nd on Sat. Can you walk us through your three runs?

Snyder: We love this pen!! Honestly, we just wanted a fun weekend. No pressure on ourselves and just try to put his feet in the right places! I didn't ask for more or less than normal, but I think focusing on enjoying the ride rather than having to win put us in a position to do just that!! After how we clocked day 1, I knew we had the confidence to keep it going! I just told myself to make that same run and his focus was spot on. I think his favorite part was coming back into the warm up pen after his run to the cheers- he perked his head and pranced every time!!

BRR: You have been winning along for several years on French Open. Tell us about some of your bigger wins on him. What are his lifetime earners?

Snyder: His first year running was in 2016 and this year has been our biggest!! We won the 2D at the first All In Race winning $10k. This year we set out on a goal to make circuit finals and have been on the rodeo trail hard! We really didn't find our groove until July a little, but more August! He placed well at the Ruby Buckle race in Salina too winning us almost $10k there! We have big goals for next year as well as long as he comes back from his well earned break this winter as strong as he is now!

BRR: What qualities make French Open such a special horse?

Snyder: He is fiery!! He knows he needs to be careful with me, but he certainly isn't afraid to test those limits. This past month I truly believe he has found a new level and wants to win as much as I do! I also love to see in pictures that he always has an ear on me... he listens to me a lot!!

We fell in 2017 and broke my femur. Since then he is extremely aware of ground and how to take care of me!

BRR: Anyone who follows barrel racing closely knows you lost use of your legs years ago but you overcame all of that to be an amazing rider! Can you share with us some the challenges this presents in just getting on to warm up at a race and your daily riding schedule and how you overcome these challenges?

Snyder: I need help with a lot. This year I actually convinced my friend to quit her job to help us achieve our goal of circuit finals so I had consistent help on the road and at home! I have a ramp at home to ride, but Legacy is mostly ponied right now. I get lifted on to ride, from there me and Legacy have a pretty good understanding that I think we try to leave our challenges at the stalls. There are moments where I feel we lack hustle or shape around a barrel that a bump with a foot would sure help though!

BRR: I know you are a goal setter, what goals do you have in mind for you and French Open?

Snyder: This year was to make Wilderness Circuit Finals (she sits 10th right now). Next year, I want to do that again. We have been tossing around the idea of the Canadian National Finals next year, but we will see what he decides.

BRR: With all you have overcome to do what you do on a daily basis, is there one favorite quote or saying that keeps you fired up?

Snyder: I have always loved "hard work beats talent when talent doesn't work hard" I am super aware I don't have things others do, but I try to put in the effort to make up for it!

Dacota Monk & BS Born Ta Cash Sweep Cornhuskers Breeders & Open Futurities

By Tanya Randall

Dacota Monk and the 5-year-old mare BS Born Ta Cash ("Sulley") have been in the mix at nearly every futurity they've entered only to have a hipped barrel cost them a check or spot in the aggregate. The Emory, Texas-based trainer had one goal in mind at the Cornhuskers Breeders & Open Futurity, held September 4-6 in Broken Bow, Nebraska—clean runs.

"We've left a lot of money on the table, hiping barrels," Monk lamented. "I knew I had to get it done. I was getting mad at myself because I knew it was me. Barbie (a.k.a. Famous Lemon Drop, his last season's superstar currently in the WPRA Top 15 with Stevi Hillman) was a little bit easier to safety-up on, but this mare will just drag that inside leg on the backside and just come through herself."

At Broken Bow, things finally went their way, but not without a heated battle with Royal Crown Futurity Champions Kyle Leleux and Dollys Streaknbadger ("Bentley"). The two gentlemen and their grays were nose and nose both runs with the edge going to Monk and Sulley.

The victory in both the $20,000-added Breeders and $2,500-added Open was worth $9,672.

Monk started the Cornhusker by entering the $5,000-added 3D Slot Race on Friday for an extra run, knowing his mare got better with more.

"She tends to run better when I get a couple of runs on her," he said. "My main goal was to trust her on the backside of the first, because that's where we've been hiping them. I was just trying to ride around the turn."

They finished two out of the money with a 15.304 in the Open Slot behind talented older horses. In the first go of the Futurity the next morning, they bettered their time to a 15.240 to place second in the round behind Leleux and Bentley.

"The first go of the futurity she felt really strong and was running really hard," Monk said. "She scared me to death on the backside of the first. She snapped back. I lifted my leg to get around it." In the second round, Monk focused on his riding as to not hinder the mare. They had their fastest time of the event, a 15.199, to take second again and win the aggregate.

"I'd been riding her pretty bad at the second," he admitted. "I've been leaning on her a little coming into the second. My goal for the second round was to sit up straight and ride her right, and I did. She went in and did her job."

Monk, who co-owns Sulley with Louie and Niki Saggione of LS Performance Horses, purchased the daughter of Born Ta Be Famous out of the Judge Cash mare Sulley from Shannon Taylor. The gray mare was bred by Kris Suard of Black Star Ranch, a former co-owner of Born Ta Be Famous.

Monk's sister Brittainy Hall was interested in an A Streak Of Fling filly that Taylor had so he had gone with her to take a look.

"Sulley was there and I asked about her," he explained. "I asked Shannon if I could take her home and ride her a couple of days and see if I liked her. I fell in love with her so we bought her."

Since it was later in her third year, Monk decided to hold Sulley for the 5-year-old futurities.

"She's just been super easy," he said. "She was started already to the right, just slow loping. She felt way more natural to the right so I switched her to the left (barrel first). She's just took off ever since. She's always really willing."

If the mare had one fault it was that she simply tried too hard, which often times meant overturning the first barrel.

"She's so athletic she was coming back on the wrong side of the first barrel," Monk explained. A switch from a bit to a hackamore helped. "She's super light and was gapping her mouth at the first

BS Born Ta Cash "Sulley" 14.2 h. 1,100 lbs.

BIT: Custom L&W hackamore

SADDLE: Circle Y Jackie Jatzlau Treeless

SADDLE PAD: CSI

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine fronts only

SHOEING: Rims on all four

FEED: Big V Feeds 12-8 pellet

HAY: Alfalfa cubes

SUPPLEMENTS: Show-Glo, MVP In-Sync

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Cold water spa when available

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: Lots of backing up to keep her hind end strong. I try to put her on the barrels twice a week, just slow work. Alyssa is her fitness training partner. She exercises her for me during the week. She's like a kid horse deluxe. I'm always having to tell Alyssa, 'Make her go faster!' She's a really easy keeper.

barrel. I put that on her and she finally rounded out and would let me place her. If I would touch her in a run with a bit, she would just come to me instead of where my hand was. Ever since then I've run her in the hack."

Monk and Sulley will run at the Fizz Bomb Classic in Gillette, Wyoming, this weekend. Although they've entertained some offers on the mare, Monk said he'd be content to keep her and raise babies out of her.

"She's been fun," he said. "She's got so much grit."

Women's Breakaway Roping will debut at the 2022 RODEOHOUSTON Super Series

Today, the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo announced that women's breakaway roping will debut at the RODEOHOUSTON Super Series in 2022.

Breakaway roping, sanctioned by the Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA), is an allwomen's event that has recently been added to professional rodeos across the country. At the National Finals Breakaway Roping in Arlington, Texas, the 2020 WPRA World Champion was crowned.

"Breakaway roping is the fastest-growing event in rodeo, and we are thrilled to feature our second women's rodeo event at RODEOHOUSTON in 2022," said Chris Boleman, Rodeo president and CEO. "Like women's barrel racing, breakaway roping is fast-paced and requires strong horsemanship skills, and it's an event that promises to keep rodeo fans on the edge of their seats."

Breakaway roping will be held seven nights during the 2022 RODEOHOUSTON Super Series, a tournament-style competition that crowns an event champion in bareback riding, bull riding, saddle bronc riding, steer wrestling, tie-down roping, team roping, women's barrel racing, and now, women's breakaway roping. RODEOHOUSTON will offer equal pay in the breakaway roping event. Champions in all events earn $50,000 on top of their Super Series earnings.

"This is truly a monumental day for the women in breakaway roping," said Jimmie Munroe, WPRA President. "Not only will they have the opportunity to compete and showcase their talent on one of rodeo's largest stages, but they will do so with equal prize money. The WPRA has had a long-standing relationship with RODEOHOUSTON and we are excited to expand our partnership to feature a second all-women's event at this historic rodeo."

2022 Women's Breakaway Roping Schedule:

- Breakaway roping will be included in one performance in each Super Series, with performance dates to be announced.
- The top two athletes from each performance will advance to the Semifinal round, for a total of 10 athletes.
- Top four athletes from the Semifinal round will advance directly to the Championship Shootout Round on Saturday, March 19.

"It's been great to see breakaway roping have the success it is having at PRORODEO® events across North America," said Tom Glaue, PRCA Interim CEO. "RODEOHOUSTON welcoming the ladies of breakaway is yet another example of that."

RODEOHOUSTON has been a WPRA sanctioned event for decades, with earnings from the RODEOHOUSTON Super Series counting toward qualification for the NFR and the WPRA World Standings.

"The WPRA is very pleased and excited that RODEOHOUSTON has decided to add breakaway roping to the line-up of their iconic rodeo for the 2022 edition," said Jolee Jordan, WPRA Roping Director. "It is awesome that WPRA members will have the opportunity to compete at the largest rodeo in ProRodeo and we look forward to growing the ropers' relationship with RODEOHOUSTON in the future."

AHQA Horse of the Year Scooter retired from competition

Scooter, the PRCA | AQHA Horse of the Year in steer wrestling in 2017 and 2018, was retired from competing on Sept. 2.

"He had a cracked kneecap several years ago and it is just not getting 100% right," steer wrestler Tyler Pearson said. "We would much rather retire him and turn him out than retire him and put him down."

Scooter is co-owned by steer wrestlers Pearson and Kyle Irwin. Scooter, 17, helped guide Pearson to the PRCA world championship in 2017 and also helped lead Tyler Waguespack (2018) and Ty Erickson (2019) to world titles.

"For us to have a horse like Scooter, who has horse of the year trophies in the house and murals, he means everything to us," Pearson said. "He's the one that got my career to where it is now. He has changed our life for sure. Everything we have at our place is because of him, including the house. It's all him. In our wildest dreams, I never thought he would be what he was. It was hard to take the news (Sept. 2) that he wouldn't rodeo anymore, but we would sure rather have him healthy out in the pasture (in Atoka, Okla.) living the good life."

Scooter was an outstanding equine athlete, especially at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas during the National Finals Rodeo. "He was so good in the box and would just run so hard," Pearson said. "He would just let you catch everything in a good spot. He would let you have a chance to win every time." Scooter last competed at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Fla., in April.

Pearson is now riding Casper, 12.

Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Church at the Barn has an adult Sunday school class. Question and answer. Needless to say, people have questions.

It's a fun class and because we are all different, there are questions asked that have never been a blip on my radar. But it's really good to get the BIBLE answer to concerns we all have. Especially when emotions are high. MY emotions were high on Sunday! LOL!

My poor husband. He can handle any question. When his wife is wound up, however, he is between a rock and a hard place! I don't know about you, but I'm getting fed up with being chest bumped by the devil!

I am a free, Christian, American, taxpayer, property owner and voter! I will NOT give in to this nonsense of being told what I can and can't do! Though I won't go picket and harass others, I am not afraid to stand up and speak up! Mike isn't either. But he'll do it God's way.

I have to get forgiveness later sometimes. . . . . How do we stand up for what's right? Prayer first. Prayer first. Prayer first. I have to keep saying that!

Surprise! God has the answer.

Luke 12:11-12 tells us that when we stand before rulers and authorities, don't worry about what to say because the Holy Spirit will teach us what to say. If you, like me, are ready to stand up for our Christian principles, pray first, then take Luke 12:11-12 with you.

Mike taught us about BOLDNESS on Saturday night. You can go to our website or Facebook and hear it for yourself! Together we can turn our nation around for good! God bless you!
