Cervi and Stingray Electric in Ellensburg

By Hope Sickler

Marana, Arizona cowgirl and 4-time world champion barrel racer Sherry Cervi can add another rodeo win to her very long and impressive resume. She and her superstar steed MP Meter My Hay otherwise known and loved as "Stingray" stole the show in Ellensburg, Washington when they took home the championship with a total time on three of 52.86.

Currently sitting 4th in the WPRA World Standings with $102,854, Cervi made three solid runs in Ellensburg on the 13-year-old 2011 AQHA Horse of Year "Stingray".

"Stingray" is a daughter of MP Frenchmans Hayday out of Miss Meter Jet, by Bar Tonto Jet. Miss Meter Jet is a full sister to Hawk, another champion barrel horse that has tremendously helped Cervi in her success around the cloverleaf pattern.

"She worked great in all three runs that we made in Ellensburg. I was very pleased with her and tickled that we left there with the championship," explained Cervi.

Posting a time of 17.54 in the first round and 17.70 in the second round, put her in the perfect position going into the short round. All she and "Stingray" needed to do was make another one of their trademark flawless runs and the championship could be theirs.

"Our short round run was great. It was just what we needed to do to seal the deal. Stingray put her best foot forward and got the job done."

Cervi, who had yet to win the prestigious Ellensburg barrel racing title until this year, was thrilled that she could now add that win to the lengthy list of rodeos that she has won.

"I love Ellensburg and the committee was great. They hand raked after every girl in the short round which I was extremely pleased with. They take great care of their contestants," Cervi added. Cervi left Ellensburg with a few nice paychecks, a customized buckle, pair of Montana Silversmith spurs and a beautiful customized purse.

With only a few short weeks left in the 2015 season, the WPRA World Standings are still going to be shaken up some before the final dice fall. With such a small gap between 15th and 20th, it really still could be anyone's game. Currently in 15th with $53,780, Deming, New Mexico barrel racer Meghan Johnson is just over $200 ahead of Florida barrel racer and former NFR qualifier Layna Kight. Not far off of Layna and her $53,564, is Alexa Lake with $50,346 and then last year NFR qualifier Jana Bean with $48,596. Hot on Bean's tail is Stephenville cowgirl Shelby Hermann with $48,290.76 and Canadian cowgirl Deb Guelly bringing up the top 20 with $47,968. However, with still a few more large rodeos to go this season, the 15th position could virtually go to anyone.

Looking back at last year's WPRA World Standings at this time, Kaley Bass was winning the world with $150,191 while 15th hole was Shelley Morgan with $66,826. Jana Bean made her move last year at this time when she moved from 17th in the world with $65,079 to 15th qualifying her to her first NFR.

With such prestigious rodeos such as Pendleton and Puyallup left in this season, it will be an exciting and nerve-racking watch until the very end to see who will make it to the city of lights this December.

Jud Little's Bar Nothin Barrel Bash and Production Sale approaches

The 2015 edition of Jud Little's Bar Nothin Barrel Bash & Production Sale is slated for September 23-27. The 13th Annual Bar Nothin Barrel Bash will be held at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, OK, while the Production Sale will be held at the famous Jud Little Ranch in Springer, Okla., just a few miles north of Ardmore on Saturday, September 26.

The Bar Nothin Barrel Bash features an impressive $60,000 in added money. The action kicks off with a 4D Barrel Race on Wednesday, September 23, and Thursday, September 24, before the 1st Go of the $30,000-added Futurity on Friday morning with a 4D Barrel Race to follow. For this year's race, the 4D prizes will be given to the winners in Friday's 4D; they must be picked up before everyone leaves Sunday and will not be mailed. Saturday morning will feature the 2nd Go of the Futurity. After the futurity, the barrel racing action will stop in Ardmore so everyone can head to the Jud Little Ranch for all the sale activities.

The 2015 Jud Little Ranch Production Sale will start with sale demonstrations at 3 pm with the Sale to start promptly at 6 pm. This year's sale features everything from 2- and 3-year-old started prospects, broodmares (2-in-1 and 3-in-1 packages), futurity-aged horses and weanlings with some of the best bloodlines in the country. 99 horses will be in the sale with most of them being riding age horses.

Some of the sires represented include multiple arena record holder and NFR Qualifier JL Dash Ta Heaven; NFR qualifier and 2-time All American Quarter Horse Congress Senior Barrels Champion Chicados Cash; leading sire, A Streak Of Fling; leading barrel horse sire, Fire Water Flit; along with top racing sires such as All-Time Leading Race Sire First Down Dash, Tres Seis, and Valiant Hero.

The backbone of the Little Ranch program has long been exceptional mare power. The sale will feature some of the best female families in the industry with the likes of Sign Of Passion, 2009 NFR Qualifier & earner of $150k plus; Scratchy Nick Bar, a full sister to Willy Nick Bar, the only horse to win both rounds and the finals of the BFA World Championship Futurity; Flitin Firin Cash, 2005 AQHA World Champion Jr Barrel Horse & 2008 AQHA World Champion Sr Barrel Horse & a NFR Qualifier; Frosty Fee-lins, NFR Qualifier & NFR Go Round winner & Cheyenne Frontier Days Champion; Des Delight, Multiple Futurity Champion & earner of over $106k; CD Nick Bar, dam of 2014 AQHA Reserve World Champion Junior Barrel Horse & Diamonds & Dirt Slot Race winner, Kisskiss Bangbang, just to name a few.

"This year we have a really nice set of horse, the best we have ever offered," said Jud Little, "This sale is going to be a really good opportunity for people to get some quality horses and top bloodlines. We have taken great care to make sure all the started prospects are riding like they should. Like every year, it will be an honest sale, when you pick up your buyers number, you will be given a sheet with all the veterinarian notes on all the horses that covers everything beyond normal health care and all no sales will be called right in the ring."

Sale catalogs were mailed last week. If you do not receive a catalog by the end of the week, email the Jud Little Ranch office at office@judlittleranch.com or give them a call at 580.653.2384. The catalog is also available as an "app" in the App Store, just look for "Jud Little" or if you don't have an iPhone just go to JudLittle.adsfactory.com. For more information on the sale, simply go to www.JudLittleRanch.com, hover over the News & Events tab and click on Horse Sale.

Barrel racing action resumes Sunday morning after Cowboy Church held at 9 am in the Hardy Murphy Coliseum with Dr. Virgil Trout. Then the $10,000-added 4D Barrel Race, with another $10,000 added in Future Fortunes Bonus Money, will kick off at 10 am sharp.

The first runs of Sunday's 4D will be the AQHA Class. In fact, each day's 4D and the Futurity will start with the AQHA class. Any one wanting to enter the AQHA class portion of any of the 4Ds or Futurity will need to be pre-entered by September 18. Entries will close to each 4D 2 hours after the class starts. To enter the Bar Nothin Barrel Bash or for more information, simply go to www.JudLittleRanch.com and browse over the tab, News & Events, and and click on Barrel Bash when it comes up or you may also go directly to www.FastEnter.com to enter.

A Note from World Champion Mary Walker

Many people, including our sponsors have questions about the newly formed Elite Rodeo Association and our role.

It's our understanding this organization will represent the top 55 rodeo athletes. We first assumed this meant current leaders and recent world champions.

Our goal for ourselves and our sponsors will continue to be the pursuit of another World Championship through the WPRA and the National Finals Rodeo. This path represents active competitors who are currently at the top of their game in both earnings and performance.

We also want to be clear we have no qualms about raising the visibility of rodeo and recognizing talent. It appears the ERA is breaking new ground with presenting rodeo as entertainment. However, we will not be asking Latte for an additional 15 runs per season.

Sweet Music – Kali Jo Parker & Tuneful Top Producers Gone Wild, American Qualifier

By Tanya Randall

Kali Jo Parker and her 6-year-old mare Tuneful (“Bonet”) will be making their second appearance at the Semifinals Rodeo to RFD-TV’s The American this winter. The duo topped Bobo McMillian’s Producers Gone Wild Race and The American Qualifier in Pasco, Wash., for total earnings of $5,462.

“I entered the American (Qualifier), not knowing if I was going to get to go or not,” said the barrel horse trainer from Wendell, Idaho. Labor weekend is a big rodeo weekend in the Northwest with Ellensburg and Walla Walla, holding their pro rodeos. “If I was doing good at Ellensburg, I probably wouldn’t have gone because I wouldn’t have ran her like that. I ended up not doing good (in the first go) at Ellensburg and it was pouring rain and it was a big muddy mess in Walla Walla, so I ended up turning out. It ended up worked out well for the American.”

They started their week in slack on Thursday night at Ellensburg before returning home for Filer, Idaho, a Wilderness Circuit rodeo in her backyard.

“I turned around to go back to Walla Walla on Saturday, but I didn’t end up running because it was a muddy mess, so I went on over to Pasco and let her rest,” said Parker, who is sponsored by Silver Lining Herbs and Ariat.

The little rest served them well with Bonet clocking a 16.800 on Sunday.

“Last year, she didn’t like that pen as well,” said Parker. “This year when she took off she felt like she was running up the pen a little bit, so I bumped her with my inside rein a little bit. She’s a big girl and she turned the first barrel really tight; I thought she was going to lose me! It worked good. Like Karen Gleason told me, ‘it was very efficient.’ Her second and third...she’s just one of those mares that if you keep your hand up and let her turn...Everything else was pretty easy.”

A standout futurity horse last year, Bonet is by Bono Jazz, a grandson of Merridoc via Jazzing Hi, out of Thinking Dash, a daughter of Pritzi Dash. She was bred by Ed Allred, who raced the mare on the track.

Next up for Parker and Bonet are pro rodeos in Lewiston, Idaho, and Puyallup, Wash. Bonet has done most of Parker’s winning at

Kathy Korell-Rach & Smoke N Sunshine Dominate 5-State Breeders Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Kathy Korell-Rach, riding Smoke N Sunshine, a mare bred by her parents, broke to ride by her father Gerald and trained for barrels by her mother Iva, swept all three rounds of the 5-State Breeders Futurity, held in Rapid City, S.D., to win $8,446.

"It's really surreal to have won all three go's," said the psychologist from Loveland, Colo. "I didn't think that was possible. After I won the first go I was really ecstatic and just wanted to be solid the next day. Tami Semas ran two horses ahead of me in the finals, and even though I try not to pay attention to the times, it's hard not to hear a 16.8! I thought to myself I could still hold it together in the average and just lay down what you know you can do, and for her to come back with the fastest time ever at 5 States...I'm just awfully proud of her. I'm going to cry. I'm very blessed and very honored. God has been very, very good to me."

Shine, a 5-year-old palomino mare, is by the Korell's National Finals Rodeo sire Smoke N Sparks, a son of Dash For Perks out of a daughter of Shawne Bug, and out of Runaway Frenchgirl.

Rach's dad had purchased Runaway Frenchgirl because of her pedigree. A selenium deficiency during her formative years left her unable to compete, but genetically she had a lot to offer. By the all-time leading living barrel horse sire Frenchmans Guy, Runaway Frenchgirl was out of Sheza Lou Lou, a daughter of Runaway Winner out of an Easy Jet daughter of the great racing mare Miss Louton. Sadly, the mare lost her life to colic this summer.

The Korell's had originally tried to sell the mare but had no takers.

"Dad had her on the market, priced at $10,000 until the middle of her 2-year-old year, and I guess everyone thought she was too much," said Rach. "Dad started her and he really liked her foot placement. He said, 'she really uses her hind end and I like her. Well, I guess we'll take her off the market and keep her.'

"Mom rode her and patterned her. Mom's a much better trainer than I am. She really puts a nice pattern on those babies, but she can get so darn nervous to compete and she's got a lot of old injuries that inhibit her when she goes to compete at a higher level, so (Shine) came to me and I went on with her. It's a family affair. No one else has been on her but us."

Making the win extra special for Rach was the presence of her father.

"My dad drove all the way from Riverton to Loveland to drive with me to 5-State," she said. "His birthday was actually September 4. I just think it's cute that it's a really cool birthday present."

Although she has a flexible schedule, "I couldn't be a good psychologist if I saw 40 clients a day," notes Rach, her job keeps her close to home, just in case one of her patients needs her. Even so, Shine has steadily won checks since winning her first barrel race in mid-December 2014.

"She's been accruing money at futurities, but our biggest win was at the Colorado Classic before this. We were reserve champions there. She's been placing at most of them," she said.

"She's just a good girl and so super consistent. I'd have to look at my records, but I think there have been 10 times that I've run her and not gotten a check. She might not always win it, but we're always right there."

Rach said Shine was "on point" at 5-State.

"With the amount of competition and so many tough horses... on any other weekend it might have turned out different," she said. "It was just that stinking tough. She was just really on point and made good runs."

Shine turned in times of 17.257, 16.942 and 16.799, respectively, on a WPRA Standard Pattern.

"I was so super proud of her," she said. "I've never run her twice in one day. I don't even exhibition her the day that I run. I saddle up, ask her to run and she usually does good, so I let her be. I didn't know how two runs was going to go. She warmed up a little bit like 'what are you doing? I already put out for you?'"

Outside of competition, Shine doesn't see the barrels much.

"I don't practice barrels at home," noted Rach. "I don't have an arena that's good enough to lay a run down in so I have to haul somewhere to make a run. Most of the time, we just lope circles or go in the back pasture. I never go around the barrels before I go somewhere. A lot of time barrels will be set up in the practice pen, but I avoid them. She really likes her job, so I let her do it and I don't overdo it."

Korell wanted to thank her parents for making "a really good product," and her husband Gabriel, who has "always stood beside me and been supportive and never complained about vet bills, long hours or working harder at home than he does at work." She also appreciated the help and support of her veterinarian Dr. Joe Strickland, chiropractor Dave McClain and farrier Jason Collins, who went above and beyond when the wet-weather caused problems for Shine.

"Shine has a sheered heel from an injury when she was really young, so he has to construct part of her front foot with epoxy," Rach explained. "We had a heck of time with shoes with all that wet weather. There were times that he was at my place twice a week, sometimes every other day it seemed, but he always made time for me. He has kept her really sound and I'm very appreciative of him."

Next up for Rach and Shine will be the Parker Wood Memorial Futurity and the RFD-TV's The American Qualifier in Loveland. "I don't really know from there," said Rach. "I like to rodeo. If that goes as well as I hope it would, I would like to quit my day job, but we'll just see. I try to live a little bit in the moment than to get ahead of myself."

Pascoe and JR Naughty Jet Soar at West Coast Finals

This weekend marked the biggest barrel race of the year on the west coast, the West Coast Barrel Racing Association Finals, so the Barrel Racing Report caught up with the 1D Champion, Katie Pascoe. Pascoe along with her blazing fast sorrel gelding, Jr Naughty Jet (Naughty) bagged checks totaling $8,730 along with a bunch of prizes.

BRR: Your horse placed in both rounds, then went on to win the Finals and Average. Take us through each run. How did your horse stay so consistent?

Pascoe: I came into the weekend just wanting to make three solid, positive runs. My first and second runs felt really good and very similar, so going into the third round, my goal was to remain focused and make the same run again. When he makes three runs back to back like this, Naughty can sometimes want to rate a little more into the second and third barrels, so I knew to expect that on Monday.

There was obviously a lot more energy in the air as the day went on (the last round was run slowest to fastest), but I kept my warm-up routine the same, and Naughty felt great. There was quite a bit of cheering and excitement going on for last couple of sets. Naughty never let on that he felt the adrenaline, but he definitely felt a little bit stronger. It was very fun!

BRR: This was the biggest barrel race of the year on the west coast, what was that experience like?

Pascoe: I hadn't been able to attend the WCBRA Finals for the past couple of years, and I was really excited to get to go this year. This finals is unlike any other. The amount of added money is unprecedented for a barrel race out here in California, and the producers did a phenomenal job. As a barrel racer, I truly appreciate being able to attend a race of this magnitude on the west coast. Winning this barrel race has been one of my goals for awhile, and accomplishing that was an amazing feeling.

BRR: Tell us a little about your horse, his history and his approximate lifetime earnings.

Pascoe: Naughty is by Blazin Jetolena. His mother is by On The Dash and out of a Pie In The Sky mare. He was born on our ranch in Morro Bay. Not many people know this, but my Mom gave him to me when he was born, and I will never be able to fully express my gratitude. Naughty always seemed like a pretty special horse. He has a great mind, and is super willing. When he was a four-year-old, I was living in New Jersey with my husband, Bear, and wasn't in California enough to think about taking him to any futurities, so Lindsey McLeod rode him for me through December of 2014. She and Naughty did very well together. He's very laid back, and he's a true pleasure to be around. He's probably won around $30,000.

BRR: Could you share with us a little about yourself and how you got into barrel racing?

Pascoe: I come from a rodeo family. My dad, John W. Jones, Jr., and his dad, John W. Jones, Sr., are both World Champion steer wrestlers. My Mom is also an accomplished barrel racer. My sister and I grew up going to rodeos, and we both competed in junior, high school, and college rodeos.

I have always loved barrel racing, and I love that it's something my Mom, sister, and I can do together. We started raising our own barrel horses about 10 years ago, and we are very excited about several of our young horses.

I married my husband, Bear, in 2013. He is from Porterville, CA, and he also has a ranching/rodeo background. He is a tight-end in the NFL, so we split our time between CA and wherever he's playing. He is incredibly supportive of me, and I'm super lucky to have him in my life!

BRR: What are your future plans for you and JR Naughty Jet?

Pascoe: I feel extremely fortunate to own a horse like Naughty. I don't have any specific plans for our future. I will probably enter a few rodeos this next year and see how that goes, and I will continue going to jackpots, as we have a few other young horses we are very excited about.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

In the natural, it sure looks like things are going to the dogs. Politics, world wars and a host of other things in the news on a daily basis can ruin your day if you don't know what God has to say about stuff. Well, he says we are winners and we will know all things. Read John 16:13-15. Then after you have mulled that around for a while, go ahead and read James 1:5-7. It tells us that if we lack wisdom, to ask God and He'll give it to us liberally. Those scriptures alone will pretty much take all the worry out of a person. Fear of the unknown seems to be the source of this stuff. But right there in just two places, God has reassured us that we can KNOW what we need to know. The catch is that you have to trust Him.

For example. Football. (I don't know a ton about it but I was a football cheerleader in HS! Is that like sleeping at a Holiday Inn Express??) However, I do know that when you are holding the football, you are going to get tackled. Doesn't mean you aren't going to win, it just means that you might have been at the wrong place at the wrong time.

Over the years in ministry, I can't begin to tell you how many times that people have come to us and told us that God told them they were to move to Gillette and attend church at The Barn. It rarely happens. They get a better idea. They will move to a town that is somewhat close to Gillette, get a different job and come once in a while. Now in football...the quarterback doesn't throw TO the receiver. He throws to a spot and the receiver gets THERE. As Christians, we need to do what God says. He knows where our blessing place is and we need to get THERE.

In these last days, we need to be in the right place at the right time. The Blessing place. We need His wisdom, not our own wisdom. But be assured, that when we do what He says, our victory is assured! God bless you!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY. 82717, 307/685-2272.
