Jordan Bailey Captures Sand Cup Futurity Champion with Ima Boy Gator, Reserve on PC Judge Madisun

By Tanya Randall

Jordan Bailey had a great Labor Day Weekend taking home first and second at the COVID-rescheduled $10,000-added Sand Cup Futurity.

Bailey and her homebred gelding Ima Boy Gator ("Thomas") topped the futurity for $3816, while she and PC Judge Madisun ("Junior"), owned by Josh and Kyla Miller, took second for $3,682. The Sand Cup title was the third futurity championship for Bailey and Thomas, who previously won the Yeti Classic and Idaho Barrel Futurity. It was also their first runs back after a turnout accident while attending the Royal Crown Futurity in Rocksprings, Wyoming.

"We're lucky to have been able to run him," Bailey said, recalling the incident. "He got his leg caught between a panel and a water spigot. He was pretty sore."

She says Thomas worked well in the first round, clocking a 15.978 to finish in the top 10.

"He struggled with the ground a little bit, kind of bobbled here and there," she said. "He clocked pretty decent, especially for his first run back. I was pretty happy with him."

They won the second round with a 15.590.

"The second run he was much quicker in his turns and he got along better with the ground," she said. "He was able to get up and run a little easier."

Thomas, who was bred by Bailey's mother Tammy, is by the Dash Ta Fame son On A Gator. He is the first foal out of Tammy's good barrel horse Ima Girl Judge, by Judge Cash. The circumstances surrounding his birth combined with his current performance have made Thomas very special.

"He's very special, at least to us," said Bailey. "His mother is my mom's good open horse. She won a lot of races for my mother. She was a true 1D horse. It was a very big deal because he was the very first baby out her. The minute he hit the ground things started to go south. We almost lost him and we almost lost her. We were super lucky they both survived."

Bailey said Thomas also has a large personality that's a lot like a mother.

"He's super bold, very strong willed, especially for a gelding," she said. "He loves to go in and work."

Bailey started Thomas using Paul Humphrey's Breaking The Mold program. Her mother Tammy sought out Humphrey a few years back when she was looking for training program that complimented their own. They were hooked after their very first clinic.

"After that clinic, we were 100 percent committed to his program," said Bailey. "It worked very well with our training program. Pretty much all of our colts get started on Paul's drills and progress through his program. As they progress with their training, we'll manipulate the drills for each individual horse."

Since COVID forced the cancellation of many events in the Northwest, many barrel racers were left with few options to but to haul further afield with their 2020 futurity horses.

"That's why we came down more east," said Bailey. "We don't normally travel this far very often. We probably wouldn't have come down into Utah and Wyoming as often as we have."

Bailey commended the Sand Cup on their production, saying "We were lucky for Sand Cup. It was great race, great production. Bobo did a great job, especially with COVID. We haven't been able to go to

"The weekend after Royal Crown we were supposed to have our big race, Bailey's Barrel Bonanza," she explained. "We ended up getting turned in and we had to cancel it. We had over 800 entries. It was crazy. We ended up having an appreciation race for the sponsors and the crew and people who helped out. It was really cool. Some of the sponsors who helped get the race going ended up donating 14 saddles for that appreciation race."

Lindsay Schulz & Miss Eedie Stinson Top American Qualifier, Open at Producers Gone Wild

By Tanya Randall

Lindsay Schulz and Miss Eedie Stinson were "on fire" this weekend at the Producers Gone Wild event in Moses Lake, Washington. The hometown team topped the American Semifinals Qualifier and the corresponding open race on Sunday to earn $3,957. They also placed second in the open on Friday to pump their earnings to $4,881.

"She was on fire this weekend," said Schulz of her 10-year-old mare Eedie. "She was all business. She's a good girl." Schulz and Eedie started their weekend with the warmup open on Friday. It's not something she normally does, but with the lack of competitive opportunities due to the tight COVID shutdown in her home state, Schulz felt it was necessary.

"She is strong and very powerful," Schulz explained. "She's always very honest on the pattern, but if you don't have your timing down on the pattern things don't always go as expected."

On Saturday, they tipped the second barrel to win the open with what would have been an arena record.

"We windswept the second barrel," she said. "I ran all the way to the third barrel before I even realized it came down."

On Sunday, they were spot on to earn their fifth consecutive qualification to RFD-TV's The American Semifinals Rodeo. Schulz purchased Eedie from her breeders Blair and Dalarie Philippi as a 3-year-old. Eedie is by leading barrel horse sire Eddie Stinson out of the Judge Cash mare Judge Two Cash.

"She was from right before the Eddie Stinson's started to peak—before BT Buddy Stinson and those came about," Schulz said. "I liked the bloodlines and thought, 'Oh, I'm going to have to find one of these Eddie Stinsons.' We were fortunate enough to have one up

Joe Painter had put 90 days of riding on Eedie before Schulz bought her, and Schulz spent another 90 to 120 days just riding her before taking her to the pattern.

"She is a heart horse and her trainability was like no other," said Schulz. "As soon as I started her on the pattern it was like a long-lost friend...and I believe with my soul she craves that arena as much as I breathe air."

"She just lit up like a ball of fire. It was super easy for her. She's never gone backward. She's always stayed super strong right from the get-go and here she is today. She's just incredible."

Schulz says Eedie's only quirk is that she's very watchy.

"She sees black spiders everywhere," she laughed. "Still to this day, she'll look like a 2-year-old going around an exhibition pattern. It's always entertaining. We laugh about it quite a bit, but she's all business once you put those leg wraps on her and get her ready to run."

Schulz says she tries to save Eedie for the bigger super show-type races rather than run her at regular jackpots or even rodeos. She did consider going to more rodeos this year, but COVID put a quick halt to that notion.

She also says COVID hasn't really slowed her training business down, which she found a little surprising. Although the lack of big money opportunities did leave her training at home a lot more.

"We were at a standstill for three months," she said. "There was nothing. It let me focus on some youngsters and get them ready to rock-and-roll by the time we got opened back up. There's definitely been a lot of minuses, but I can definitely see the gold at the end of the rainbow too."

Although she's a lifelong barrel racer, Schulz didn't grow up in a horse or rodeo family. She's grateful that her parents Tony and Christine Rose fostered her love of the sport.

"I eat, breathe, sleep barrel racing ever since I was 3 years old," she said. "Having that naughty pony that bucked me off on the way home, somehow I still ended up being a barrel racer. I just love it."

CROSS-FIT SUCCESS

Five-time American Qualifier Lindsay Schulz is a petite jockey. Her mare Miss Eedie Stinson is a 16.1 hand, 1,400 pound beast.

"I've never been on anything that big that can turn as quick as she can," said the Moses Lake, Washington, barrel horse trainer.

The mare's speed and strength proved to be a challenge especially after the birth of her second child. Not quite three months after his birth, Eedie left Schulz in the dirt in the second round of the Sand Cup Derby.

"I lost my stirrup coming around the first barrel on Eedie," she recalled. "Going running to second and I felt like one of those little tops with the strings on top—you know the ones that you pull the string and they spin...I spun around my saddle horn like a top and came off."

Schulz momentarily "threw her sucker in the dirt" before finding a solution.

"I was completely embarrassed and I knew I had to do something," she said. "I started doing cross fit and that was the magic key for me. I thank it every day. It gave me back my core strength and allows me to ride horses like that every day."

She noted how obsessed most people are with their horses fitness but says our own is equally important if we want our horses to perform at the level we've bred and trained the to.

"I don't think people realize how hard it is to ride these horses," she says. "They're getting faster and stronger. They're athletes. I'm a firm believer if you want to succeed in this barrel racing career, you got to put in that effort for your horses."

You wake up every morning and no matter how hard the work is there's something about being out in the barn all day long and being able to smell the horses makes me really excited."

She's grateful that her young family—husband Tyler and their two boys, ages 4 and 10—has continued to support her dreams. "I have a great family," said. "Everybody has been great about letting me follow my dreams no matter how big or small they are. I'm pretty fortunate."

THE RUNDOWN w/Lindsay Schulz

Miss Eedie Stinson "Eedie" 16.1 h., 1,400 lbs.

BIT: Dave Elliot Spur Up 13 "It's super light," says Schulz. "She's super sensitive and light in the mouth, so she doesn't take a whole lot."

SADDLE: Stoney - SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice Elite's on all four.

SHOEING: Aluminum shoes with pads on front. "I have a great farrier. His name is Eli Smith. He's been a game-changer as far as keeping my horses sound."

FEED: ReNew Gold - HAY: Alfalfa; on pasture

SUPPLEMENTS: Forco, electrolytes, TLC Equibone

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Acuscope/Myoscope from Nancy Nuckolls; veterinary care from Jared Sharp at Idaho Equine. "Eedie's kind of had some mishaps," says Schulz. "She's not the easiest horse to keep going down the road. He has just rocked her world and really kept her on point the last couple of years. We're very thankful for both of those people."

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "She gets rode five days a week. I'm really adamant about conditioning programs. These horses have to be spot on. Three days a week they're long-trotted. All my horses have to long trot for 25 to 30 minutes without breaking a sweat before I ultimately put them on a pattern. She never gets barrel work. I'll go work on my circles and make sure she's opened up in that rib cage and moving her shoulders freely. She's pretty easy that way. They get sprinted two to three times a month if I'm not running to make sure I keep those lungs in great condition."

Pink Buckle BARREL HORSE SALE

FRIDAY OCT 9, 2020 • 3PM

PINK BUCKLE BARREL RACE FUTURITY & 4D
OCTOBER 6-10, 2020 • LAZY E ARENA

This Guyz A KEEPER

2012 Palomino Stallion

THIS GUYZ A KEEPER

2012 Palomino Stallion

by FRENCHMANS GUY out of CLASSIC KEEPSAKE SI 98, by Dash For Cash SI 114

Here is your chance to buy a great stallion with all the work and promotion in place! You will not find one with a better chance of making a name for himself than THIS GUYZ A KEEPER for sale today. His dam Classic Keepsake SI 98 is a AAA daughter of one of the greatest sires of all time DASH FOR CASH SI 114, and her dam Rapid Volley SI 100 is a World Champion daughter of THREE BARS – a legend in Quarter Horse history! You can not get closer to Three Bars in a pedigree than this.

THIS GUYZ A KEEPER is stamping his offspring with his same traits – lots of bone, big frame, and pretty heads. Our riders sired by him are showing a lot of promise and will be able to compete in the roping as well as barrel events. "Joker" has a naturally kind disposition and is very athletic.

Riding 2-Year-Olds Averaged $17,000 at the 2020 Myers Performance Horse Sale

This stallion is 15.2, 1275 lbs., has great semen, ships great, and has 3 crops of colts on the ground to help promote him. The Myers Ranch will retain 5 lifetime breedings per year to the stallion. He sells with his Pink Buckle & Ruby Buckle Stallion Slots.

Please call Bill Myers 605-641-4283 or Debbie Myers 605-641-4282

Dream Come True – Ceri Ward & Chasin Misty Win Cornhusker Breeders Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Ceri Ward and her 4-year-old stallion Chasin Misty (“Max”) topped the Cornhuskers Breeders Futurity to claim the first championship of their careers. The victory at the annual event, held Labor Day Weekend in Broken Bow, Nebraska, was worth $6,391.

“I’ve won second multiple times, but this is the first time I’ve got the win,” said Ward. “It was exciting, especially to do on that horse.”

Max first caught Ward’s eye in the sale demonstrations at the 2018 BFA World Championship Futurity. She and her mom Kay were looking for her next futurity prospect and were taken by the stallion’s physical presence before they ever noticed his stellar pedigree. “When he first rode in he just caught our attention,” said Ward. “We weren’t even looking at the book (sale catalog), which is opposite of what we normally do.”

They were equally pleased when they saw the stallion’s pedigree. Bred by JB Quarter Horses, Max is by the late Chasin Firewater, a million dollar barrel horse sire, out of the industry’s leading producer Mistys Dash Of Fame, by Dash Ta Fame.

“We weren’t really planning on keeping stud and running, but the genetics—you can’t lie there—they’re as good as you can get,” she said. “The futurities are so tough as it is and you need the genetics to start with. You just hope that your training is good enough on top of that.”

Ward didn’t start Max on the pattern until spring of his third year.

“I just spent the first couple of months just riding and getting him more broke and giving him the tools I like to have before starting one on the pattern,” she said.

Max made his competitive debut in the Super Stakes at the BFA World Championship Futurity in 2019.

“He placed there and at all but a couple of futurities that I’ve been to all year,” she said. “The ones where he hasn’t placed I feel like have been my fault. I’ve kind of messed him up here and there. Stuff just happens when you’re going that fast.”

Ward said Max is as aggressive in his turns as he is with running in the pattern.

“He looks for the turn,” she explained. “He’s not cheat-y at all. When you ask him to turn, he’s going to give you everything he’s got. I think that comes from the try that he has. He’s one of the grittiest horses I’ve ever crawled on. He just gives you 110 percent every time. He’s so incredibly fast and talented it’s a pretty fun ride.”

In Broke Bow, they had a few bobbles the first day to finish one out of the money in the round. She missed the first barrel “a touch” but went on to have a nice second before flipping the reins over Max’s head.

“I’ve never done it before,” she said. “I reached up and put them back and I kind of missed the third a touch too, but he’s so fast he made up for it. I still wasn’t far out of placing.”

She says the second go got really fast. In fact, the second round was won by Nicole Laurence’s arena record on Frankly Packin Doc. “I knew I was going to have to be fast,” said Ward. “He spun the first. He spun the second. And, I flipped my reins over his head again at the second! I’ve never done that before, ever, and I did it two runs in a row there! I just left them on the same side and he peeled the paint off the third!”

Ward, along with her sister WPRA rookie Paige Jones, grew up running barrels. She started running at the futurities fulltime three years ago.

“I’ve rode colts and trained horses since I was little,” she said. “All the horses that I’ve rode since junior high, my mom and I have trained. Ever since then we’ve trained our own. I’ve ran at some futurities close around home, but in the last three years is when I’ve

THE RUNDOWN w/Ceri Ward

Chasin Misty “Max” 15.2 hands

BIT: Brittany Pozzi 127 two-piece

SADDLE: Robbie Phillips

SADDLE PAD: Schneider Performance Pad

LEG GEAR: Cactus Gear on all four

SHOEING: Steel rims

FEED: Purina Omolena 200

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Lysine, Purina Outlast & Super Sport

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: None; veterinary care from Josh Blyden at Interstate Equine and Kathy Brown

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: “I don’t work him a whole lot. Obviously, he get schooled some. I just try to keep him in shape and keep him rode. He is a stud and has a lot of energy. I spend a lot of time just loping circles and keeping him soft and responsive. A lot of times I’ll save him for the very last and I’ll go with my husband when they rope. I’ll run steers out on him and breakaway a few every now and then. I just piddle with him to give him something else to do every now and then. He’s trained and he’s good, so I don’t do a lot of schooling, but he does get some.”

SPONSORS: Robbie Phillips, Darla Schneider Pads

done it full time.”

Ward wanted to thank her mother, Kay Jones, for helping her pick out Max and her husband Reagan for all of his support.

“We spend so much time apart,” she said. “He rodeos full time so it’s hard for us to be gone at the same time. He couldn’t be more supportive of what I do.”

Ward has the wedding of a close friend this weekend so Pete Oen will get the jump ride on Max at the Fizz Bomb Classic in Gillette, Wyoming.

Whistle Stop Cafe Wins All American Futurity

Juggernaut filly Whistle Stop Cafe is unstoppable in the All American Futurity

The undefeated juggernaut filly Whistle Stop Cafe is now six-for-six in her career after capturing the $3 million All American Futurity (G1) on September 7 at Ruidoso Downs.

It is the first victory in the race for her jockey, champion rider Ricky Ramirez, as he guided her from Post 7 to get to the front early in the 440-yard race and never relinquished the lead, finishing a neck the best over Instygator. She stopped the clock in :21.437 and earned a first-place check worth $1.5 million.

"It means so much especially with all my family here," said jockey Ramirez. "It took me ten tries, but I finally got it done. That filly seems to enjoy it all. When I asked her, she had another gear. It was a great feeling to be on such a special filly in the All American."

This is the second All American Futurity victory for trainer Blane Wood, who also saddled Apocalyptic Jess to win the 2018 running of the race. He has trained the earners of more than $22 million in his career.

"Whistle Stop Cafe is the fastest filly I've ever had," said trainer Wood. "Her heart is bigger than she is. She's quiet and easy going but she knows her job. She had to earn it today, and that's what she did."

Apollitical Gold was third, a length behind Instygator. Jetz was fourth. Caliente Carmelo crossed the line fifth, but was disqualified to eighth for interference; Famous And Easy, who was sixth across the line, was disqualified to ninth. HR Princess Jess was officially awarded fifth place, and the remaining official order of finish was Flashing My PJs, Flash Bak, Caliente Carmelo, Famous And Easy and Eagles And Dragons.

Whistle Stop Cafe was introduced to the world with a win in her Heritage Place Futurity trial, captured the Heritage Place Juvenile, her Rainbow Futurity trial and the $1 million Rainbow Futurity (G1), and then the All American Futurity trial. She has earnings of $1,974,986.

Lainie and Raymond Whitmire's Whitmire Ranch of Sallisaw, Oklahoma, purchased Whistle Stop Cafe for $42,000 from the 2019 Heritage Place Yearling Sale. They have raced the earners of more than $2 million. They are also involved in the cutting horse industry and the barrel horse industry – earlier this year, they purchased top barrel racing stallion JL Dash Ta Heaven at auction for $1,750,000.

"It's amazing! We're so proud," said Lainie Whitmire. "There were ten awesome horses...and our train never stopped!"

Whistle Stop Cafe's breeder, American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame member Bobby D. Cox, has bred the earners of more than $32 million, led by Chazaq ($963,664). He is also the breeder of second-place finisher Instygator and was the breeder and owner of fourth-place finisher Jetz.

Whistle Stop Cafe is sired by Freighttrain B, a 2008 son of PYC Paint Your Wagon who earned $421,761 in his racing career and has sired the earners of more than $11.5 million, including BV Midnite Express ($769,319). Freighttrain B stands at Hart Farms at Kaplan, Louisiana.

Sinuous is a daughter of Mr Jess Perry out of Cox's good mare No Fees who in her racing career won four of 12 starts and earned $105,956. As a broodmare she has gotten 10 winners from 13 starters, including So Rapido ($122,317).

In the $200,000 All American Juvenile, Eye Work For You took the victory by a neck over Dulce Sin Tacha.

Eye Work For You was ridden by James Flores for owner Jose Guzman and trainer Jaime Hernandez. They covered the 440 yards in :21.613.

Finishing third was Relentless Rose, Candy Blood, Apollitical Redflash, Separate Sentence, A Dangerous Flash, Seven, Misscandymountain and Mane Street.

Eye Work For You was bred by Jose Acosta and is by Coronas Leaving You and out of the Mr Eye Opener mare Eye Love It. The gelding has won four of six career starts and earned $465,466, including winning the Remington Park Oklahoma-Bred Futurity (RG1).

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Recently Mike and I took a drive to South Dakota. Like you, we were hoping to sway their Governor to run for office in our state! LOL! On the way home, we stopped to get some ice cream. We walked in to the counter and this bubbly little girl hurried up to take our order. We ordered and Mike walked off. She smiled at me and gushed, "I just love it when OLD couples come in!!" I smiled and turned to see what couple had come in behind us... You guessed it. Sigh.

Then she proceeded to tell me that people are not staying married anymore and her friend doesn't believe in true love. But when she sees OLD couples, then she can encourage her friend that true love does exist!

Sooooo many thoughts ran through my head, but thank God did NOT come out of my mouth. (I thought she looked like she was 12.) She SAW something. She was encouraged by it. It brought her hope.

People are looking for stability, especially young people. My parents divorced when I was 16. Mike's were together until his mom went home to be with Jesus, after 60 plus years of marriage.

Bloody world wars were waged in my house. All wars came to a peaceful end in his. The difference? God lived in their house. He was given place. He was consulted. His Word was followed.

This week, read I Cor. 13:4-8. It is the road map of how love acts. Even if you're not married, loving people is of great importance. God loves you. God is love. So those scriptures are how God loves. Let's imitate Him! Your victory over trouble is someone else's hope that they can win, too!
