Halyn Lide & Jettin Ta Heaven Capitalize at Cinch Playoff Puyallup Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

2024 National Finals Rodeo qualifier Halyn Lide isn't giving up on her quest for a second NFR appearance. The China Springs, Texas, barrel racer and her great horse Jettin Ta Heaven ("Keeper") jumped from 22nd to 16th in the WPRA World Standings with a $16,910 victory at the $75,000 Cinch Playoffs at the Puyallup Rodeo, held September 4-7 at the Washington State Fair.

"He did really good," said Lide, who raised the 13-year-old JL Dash Ta Heaven gelding out of her Three O Jones mare Zeros Gypsy Jet. "I'm proud of him."

The Puyallup Rodeo took the top 23 in the PRCA's Playoff Series point standings plus the highest placing member of the final four at the NFR Open, not already qualified to the event. The 24 contestants were split into two sets of 12 with one group running on Thursday and Friday and the second making both runs on Saturday. The top four in each set on two runs advanced to Sunday's Semifinal. The top four in the Semifinal advanced to the Finals, held about an hour later, for $33,500 of the total event purse.

Lide said Keeper likes to see a pen before making his runs, so the practice time plus his experience in Puyallup last year helped.

"He's pretty smart and he ran there last year," she said. "I do get to take him in there before it starts. He knows how to make it work."

Lide and Keeper made the most of their top of the ground draw, winning their opening round in 13.71 to earn $3,510. They were able to salvage their bottom draw run on the heavy ground with a 14.14. Although they didn't win any money, their two run total of 27.85 tied with Chloe Gray—who was riding her JL Dash Ta Heaven mare Heavenly Red—and Leslie Smalygo to advance to the Semifinals.

The barrel racers got a small boon on Sunday for the Semifinals and Finals when the Puyallup Rodeo agreed to drag the arena before the barrels instead of just half-way through like they did in the rounds.

"That was really nice," she said. "I can't say it helped everyone,

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: BEMER, acuscope

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: "I alternate it a little bit. It depends on how much he's run. Last week, I was pretty bad to him. He ran three times at Ellensburg. He also ran at Filer, Langley, Lewiston and Walla Walla. After something like that he gets rest as long he can. Then we had four runs in Puyallup. He didn't get rode at all yesterday. I do try to let him move. I try my best to find good size pens to keep him in and he gets ridden every day if we're not running crazy stretches like that."

Biesel, Lisa Lockhart and Michelle Alley—an automatic bye into the Governor’s Cup in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. The remaining eight contestants for Sioux Falls will come from the Playoff Tour Point standings after the four remaining rodeos: Pendleton, Oregon, Albuquerque, New Mexico, Abilene, Texas, and Mandan, North Dakota.

“I got to go to Sioux Falls last year,” she said. “I really did want to make it back to the Governor’s Cup because it was so fun. I need redemption. I hit a barrel there (in the Semifinals). I’m excited that I get another chance at that. That’s my big goal right now.”

“Obviously, making the (NFR) again would be amazing. I think Keeper deserves it. There’s a bunch of strategy involved and there’s some things that are out of my control. I don’t think I did my best on the strategy and then the things that were out of my control didn’t help us out either.”

Lide said her season was “less than stellar” but she’s minimized the pressure on herself at this critical point in the season.

“I wasn’t dealing well with it in the beginning of the year because I wanted to make it back (to the NFR) since I made it last year,” she admitted. “I made big plans and thought I had horses that I could do crazy things. That’s really hard to manage. I had one get hurt and that changed everything. I didn’t handle that well.

“I put too many runs on Keeper. I felt like I got him tired. I took him to places I knew he didn’t like. I knew better and did it anyway. I tried to make the best of things when in reality I should have stepped back and let it be.

“In the end, I decided I’m going to enjoy this horse. He’s the most incredible thing that I could imagine. We’re just going to go have fun every run that they give us. That’s really all I’m here for.”

Lide’s reevaluation has allowed Keeper to surge late in the season.

“I did slow down on his rodeos,” she said. “If I take him to the places that he likes, he really does well. I took him to a bunch of rodeos with ground he didn’t like in June, and the beginning of the Fourth of July was a little hard on us too. I drove a billion miles. I went to Reno, Greeley, Ponoka and St. Paul. That was a little much. So I gave him a minute after that and that’s all it took to be ready. He didn’t need to be run as much as I was running him, and he didn’t need to be taken as far as I was taking him.”

The mother of two with her veterinarian husband Aaron (brother of No. 17 in the WPRA World Standings Katelyn Lide-Scott) had just dropped her husband and boys off at the Salt Lake City airport on her way to the pro rodeo in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Her family had flown in for Puyallup and her slack run at the Pendleton Round-Up.

She has to walk-up replace at Abilene because entered “out if slack” due to the conflict with the rodeos in Northwest.

“I wasn’t going to do that,” she said. “Then I got myself into this position where, ‘Halyn, you should probably fight for it...’ So, I now I feel like I better see if I can.”

As of now, the plan is to run Keeper at the remaining major rodeos: Albuquerque, Abilene if she walks-up, Mandan and Sioux Falls. He’ll possibly run at Amarillo too. She’s got Stoli My Ride (“Shark”) that may get the call if she needs him for Stephenville, Texas, the last weekend of the season.

“Whether we make the finals or not, honestly it would be really cool, but it really doesn’t have an impact on whether we live a full life or not,” she said candidly. “I’m just going to enjoy my horse. He’s 13 this year and I know they don’t last forever.”

HELD IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE PINK BUCKLE BARREL RACE AT THE LAZY E ARENA

Young Guns League Announces Special Enrollment – November 1 Deadline!

The Young Guns League is giving breeders & owners one more chance to get in on one of the most exciting opportunities in the barrel racing industry, with a special enrollment deadline of November 1. Created to encourage growth and genetic diversity in the sport, the Young Guns League showcases the progeny of up-and-coming stallions on a national platform. By limiting competition to foals from Young Guns League stallions, the playing field is leveled—allowing young sires to prove themselves while their progeny run for guaranteed payouts. The 2025 YGL Futurity and YGL Derby are held alongside the prestigious Pink Buckle each year, with:

$250,000 GUARANTEED payout Futurity | $250,000 GUARANTEED payout Derby

Only Young Guns League stallions and their progeny are eligible. Once a stallion's oldest foals reach 8 years of age, that stallion ages out of the program—but nominated foals remain eligible for life as long as annual nominations are maintained.

Special 2024-2025 Enrollment Offer: We know incentive rules can be overwhelming, and we don't want anyone to miss out just because they weren't enrolled in our inaugural year. For this year only, if you missed enrolling in 2024, you can catch up by paying: $325 for 2024 + $220 for 2025 = $545 total

This special enrollment offer is valid until NOVEMBER 1, 2025. Enrollments for all horses close December 1 ($350 for 2025 enrollment fee) and if you miss this date, your horse will be ineligible for the program going forward. CONTACT THE OFFICE TO ENROLL TODAY: OFFICE@PINKBUCKLE.COM

*Important: If you plan to run in the 2025 YGL Futurity or Derby, your horse must be nominated before the August 25, 2025 entry deadline.

Sydney Graham & Dupont First in Ruby Buckle East Derby, Open, Wins $54,976

By Tanya Randall

Dupont First (“Trump”) more than doubled his lifetime earnings with a $54,976 weekend at the Ruby Buckle East, held September 3-7 at the Georgia National Fairgrounds in Perry. The 6-year-old stallion, ridden by Sydney Graham, topped both the $280,000 Derby and $600,000 Open.

“I just don’t really have words,” said Graham, who co-owns the horse with Jimmy Parker as Run Away Ranch. “He did exactly what we all knew he could do as long as his rider showed up and stayed out of his way!”

In the 188-entry Derby, Trump and Graham threw down a 14.710 to win the first round and backed up with a second-place run of 14.802 to win the aggregate by more than three-tenths.

“In the exhibitions, he grabbed his butt and wanted to buck a little with me at the third barrel,” Graham chuckled. “I think he was mad at me! I think he was saying, ‘We didn’t drive 16 hours to go slow!’ I just let him roll in the rounds and kept my hands down. “The second round I was obviously more nervous. It’s always hard to go in and just make a clean run. He’s so calm that it helps me. He’s never given me a reason to think he’s not going to go in there and do it. I kept telling myself to breathe and keep my hands down, and it paid off.”

Graham, who grew up in a house of medical professionals, got her first horse at the age of 8 from Parker’s JP Bacacita Farms in Abilene, Texas. The man who started her on her horse journey nearly 20 years ago is now her partner with Trump.

With Parker’s ranch stallion getting older, Graham suggested they look at running-bred stallions to cross on his cow-bred mares. It didn’t hurt that the potential offspring would potentially fit Graham’s passion—barrel racing.

Parker took a little convincing.

“He’s convinced now,” Graham laughed, “but at first he was like, ‘We do well with the ranch horses. We don’t need to add any speed.’”

The pair went to the 2020 New Mexico Bred Yearling Sale, which was held in Oklahoma due to COVID restrictions in Ruidoso, New Mexico. After looking at many potential stallion prospects, Trump picked them.

“He was sticking his nose through the bars, trying to mess with me,” Graham recalled. “I said, ‘Let’s just get this one out and see what he is.’ I didn’t really know much about how he was bred or what the (sire) was, but we got him out and walked him around. He was the only one that didn’t rear up, run off or act silly. He was not big. He was not super tall. He was maybe 14 hands. He was built more like our cow horses than any of the other horses. He matched the cowhorse look but was bred like a race horse.”

They paid $16,000 for the colt bred by AQHA Hall of Famer and champion racehorse breeder Bobby Cox.

Trump was from the first foal crop of racing champion Duponte, who died in the spring of 2020. His dam is the First Down Dash, Six Fortunes mare First Fervor, a full sister to racing champion and Rainbow Futurity winner First To Flash.

It also helped that Trump had been paid into the Ruby Buckle Program.

Graham broke Trump herself.

“I swear he was practically born broke because he didn’t care,” she said. “He never threw a fit. He was always calm and gentle.”

In addition to his barrel training, Trump got a lot of life experience as a ranch horse on Parker’s New Mexico cattle ranch.

“We’ve done everything you can think of on him—brand, sort, ship,” said Graham. “I’ve ridden him in parades. I’ve ridden him into Tractor Supply. He’s just the best minded little guy ever.”

THE RUNDOWN w/Sydney Graham

Dupont First (“Trump”) 15.1 h, 1,300 lbs.

BIT: L&W Adios Pantalones Ring Snaffle

SADDLE: Jeff Smith C3

SADDLE PAD: The thinnest one made by 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine fronts and polos on rear; rubber bell boots over Classic Equine bells

SHOEING: Rims on front, plains on rear; shod by Hoyt Foster, Ryder Foster, Joshua Walker and Jim Poor

FEED: A little Purina Senior morning and night

HAY: Free choice New Mexico Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Complete Equine Performance Daily Lung, electrolytes

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Robbie Stidham, chiropractic care; Garret Smith for therapy at Short Round Equine Performance & Therapy Center; acupuncture from Brandy Switzer

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: “We don’t ever work the barrels, ever. We have a half-mile racetrack, so we ride the racetrack or go to the pasture. We hardly ever go to the arena. I try to keep the arena fun for him. Like barrels aren’t his job. I want that to be fun for him. We go to the ranch in New Mexico and gather cattle and do stuff like that. He’s definitely in pretty good shape just riding around. I hardly go to any jackpots anymore. If we do go, it’s got to be something that pays good and has good ground.”

SPONSORS: JP’s Bacacita Farms, Stidham Equine Sports Therapy, Olive Insurance

THANKS: Jimmy Parker, my boss and half-owner of Trump; my mom, Sandi Graham, “she gets drug around everywhere with the horses,” and “Everyone who has worked on Trump and has had a hand in keeping this horse going down the road and making him who he is.”

As a 5-year-old futurity horse, Trump was a finalist at the Golden Buckle, Elite Extravaganza, Old Fort Days 5-Year-Old and Ruby Buckle Central.

"I was new to the futurity game, so I missed a lot of entries for things," Graham admitted. "It was a learning curve for me."

She also had to learn to manage Trump's extreme speed. "He would get to running too fast and want to leave a barrel too soon," she said. "We had a lot of detours, but we'd still be in the 1D average making huge mistakes. I knew if he could just make a good run, he could win eventually. We worked a lot on just coming around a barrel, and I swear now I can't get him to go by one or step off one!"

Trump also started his pro rodeo career, placing at Mesquite, Texas, several times before an injury sidelined him in October of his futurity year.

His first runs back this year were in May at the Old Fort Days Derby, where they hit barrels to be "really dang fast."

"We went from stepping off barrels to dragging over barrels, which was way better in my opinion than half running off," Graham said. "It's just been a kind of a crazy journey with him, but he's always been a good boy. Always."

After tipping barrels to win races at a record-setting pace, Graham turned to friends for help. They suggested that she was causing more problems for Trump by trying to help or take evasive action on the backside of the barrels instead of dropping her hand and letting the stallion do his job.

To help her accomplish this, Graham started using rubber bands to help keep her hand lower, like Emily Beisel did at the 2020 National Finals Rodeo. The experiment was an instant success when they won a jackpot in Glen Rose, Texas, by more than 4/10ths with a 14.5.

"He runs really cool," she said. "His nose stays so low to the ground. He's built like a cow horse, acts like a cow horse, but runs like a race horse."

At the time of this interview, Graham, Parker and Trump were on their way to Pendleton, Oregon. They weren't running in the rodeo but were going to film scenes for Tin Top, a film series by Dusty Whitford that's available on HorseProTV.com. When they return home, the focus will turn to Trump's rodeo career.

"When they start for the 2026 rodeos, we're entered up," Graham said. "We'll mostly hit pro rodeos next year, but we will go to a few of the good paying derbies as well."

Seis Martinis & DaCota Monk Win Second Straight Ruby Buckle Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Seis Martinis (“MJ”) and DaCota Monk add their third futurity title for the year at the Ruby Buckle East, held September 3-7 at the Georgia National Fairgrounds in Perry.

They topped an extremely tough 102-entry, $280,000 Futurity where barely two-tenths separated the first few places in the two-run aggregate. The victory was worth $28,250 including $2,825 each for the stallion owner and breeder.

MJ and Monk also finished fourth in the 1D aggregate of the $600,000 Open for an additional $5,856. The stallion owner and breeder shares were $732 each.

All totaled, they left Perry with $35,570.

“She’s just something amazing!” exclaimed Monk. The pair won the Ruby Buckle West Futurity in South Jordan, Utah, this past July.

They opened their Perry campaign with a fourth-place run of 15.036 in the first round, which was a little more exciting than expected. Monk had to do some gravity defying work to keep the second barrel upright, when MJ made a big move going into the turn.

“Normally, she’s pretty ratey on her first run, but I had just come from Waco on a Standard (Pattern),” Monk explained. “So she just flew over (to the second), and I was like, ‘Stay two hands and drive her up in there.’ She just flew way out, like in a huge pocket. Then she was fixing to snap back on top of it, so I just pushed her forward. Then I saw the barrel was about to fall and I was like, ‘No!’ My reins are super long on her and I was able to barely touch it and flip it back up. That kind of cost us because she stepped off just a little bit. That set us up for the third to be another big pocket. She was running so fast it was crazy!”

For their second run, Monk chose to focus on his riding rather than tuning on the mare’s placement beforehand.

“Honestly, I only walk and trot on barrels in the warm up pen and I did that day before the first round,” he explained. “The second day, I said, ‘I’m not going to the barrels. I’m not messing with her. I’m just going to ride her better.’ I just went to my horse a little bit sooner and let her get in there instead of telling her to. I let her pick her spot and that was perfect. She’s just super honest, but sometimes she just shuts down and tries to turn hard, so I have to ride pretty aggressively. But when she runs like that, I have to remember to ride her honest, and then she is.”

They were fifth in the second round with a 14.910. Both of their futurity times placed ninth in the 1D of the Open as well.

MJ, who went into Perry with career earnings of $124,885, according to QData, now has lifetime earnings of $160,455.

The 5-year-old daughter of 10.8 million dollar barrel horse sire Tres Seis, out of Michelle Darling’s champion Frenchmans Guy mare Morning Traffic ($483,197 QData), was originally purchased as a yearling by Chad Beus. She got her start under the saddle of Logan Jensen before starting the pattern with Brittainy Hill, Monk’s sister.

MJ had a slow start to her futurity career with Monk as she was “a little timid” at the bigger events. After gaining confidence at the jackpots, MJ had her breakthrough victory at one of Monk’s favorite futurities at the BBR World Finals. She was also under new Futurity and was a finalist at the Old Fort Days 5-Year-Old Futurity and Colorado Classic.

“I think what makes her so good is she’s so consistent and so reliable,” said Monk. “She just has these really cool turns too along with her speed. Her turns are just so fluid. She’s just in and out and stays on top of the ground. As long as it’s not sticky ground—she likes to slide a little bit—she’s going to work.”

Monk and MJ have the Breeders Challenge Finale this week and the Texarkana Showdown at the end of the month before October’s Pink Buckle.

Grimes Sweeps Fizz Bomb & Blue Collar Breeders, Earns Over $70K

By Julie Mankin

By running two of the three fastest times recorded over the four-day 2025 Fizz Bomb Classic in Gillette, Wyoming – including a short-lived Cam-Plex arena record – Dr. Kathy Grimes, DVM, and KG Just Money won almost everything they were eligible to win.

“This is so cool,” said Grimes, who ran at the 2017 NFR on the gelding’s dam, KG Justiceweexpected. “This is the most solid and consistent and fast horse I’ve ever had at this stage of his career.”

The win comes 10 years after Grimes also won the 2015 Fizz Bomb Futurity aboard KG Blazin Nine Oh – a half-sister to this horse’s dam.

“Stacy [Thar] is so nice and so accommodating and that Fizz Bomb is so well-run; it’s so easy and there are plenty of stalls,” said Grimes, who’s been competing at the long-running Wyoming futurity since 2008.

This time in Gillette, Grimes swept both rounds of the Futurity that had 132 entries, plus the Blue Collar Breeders Futurity, and nearly did the same in the Open. Plus, she was the reserve champ in the Cowboy State Stallion Slot Race. Sunday, she had a 12-hour drive home to Medical Lake, Wash., where she’s a practicing veterinarian and operates Nine Oh Barrel Horses. But it was an easy drive, she said, with not only her three-legged rescue cat named Freeway but also a staggering $70K+ in earnings from her Fizz Bomb runs.

“It’s pretty exciting,” said Grimes. “I knew the futurity could pay well to win, along with the Cowboy State Slot Race and Blue Collar Breeders. But to win that much is just way beyond anything I could have dreamed. And to have the arena record for 24 hours!”

Grimes’ 5-year-old buckskin she calls “Showie” had already won six futurities this season and was coming off a $60,000-plus Royal Crown weekend in Rock Springs last month. Including his clean sweep of the Fizz Bomb Futurity, his LTE has reached $315,000.

“He’s just so smooth and consistent and takes straight lines and just gets around those barrels,” said Grimes. “I had never run him three days in a row before.”

Their 14.5 in the first round of the futurity, worth $3,701, was an arena record and also won the first round of the Open for $3,763 (Dusky Lynn Hall’s derby champ clocked a 14.4 the following day). “It’s almost harder after you make such a great run,” said Grimes. “In the second round, I just tried for a good solid run and didn’t want to make any mistakes.”

Despite running into glaring silver walls that are known to shorten the best horses up in Gillette, Showie clocked a 14.7 to also win the second round, giving him a Futurity total of $12,336. Plus, it brought his Open earnings to $9,502, plus another $2,789 in various sidepots. The same two runs meant Grimes banked $17,418 for sweeping both rounds and the average of the Blue Collar Breeders

Futurity, along with $3,579 in the BCB Open and a final $15,000 as Showie’s breeder. Finally, on Saturday night, their 14.8 placed second in the Cowboy State Slot Race for $14,200.

“I pushed him a bit too far past the third barrel and he stepped off it a little,” said Grimes. “But there’s so much money in that slot race, I wanted to be clean.”

Showie was pretty easy to train, Grimes said, and always seemed to understand what to do when she pointed him at a barrel. He doesn’t look, nor feel from the saddle, like he’s running very hard despite having clocked a 16-second run on a standard earlier this year.

“I’m not super clever and smart up there,” said the typically humble Grimes. “I need them to do their own thing and I just sit up there.”

Showie is her fourth six-figure-earning horse by different sires out of her black NFR mare. “Issy” is by Judge Cash and out of a mare that went back to Azure Te and way back to Texas Dandy. On the top side, Showie is by the late Mel Potter’s deceased stallion Dinero (Pc Frenchmans Hayday), a sire by which Grimes had never ridden any offspring. Issy actually went over a million dollars as a producer last month, she said.

“That mare had $461,000 in lifetime earnings, but a lot of that was rodeos,” said Grimes. “There weren’t many slot races back in 2012, and I didn’t travel much when she was a futurity horse. She won $20,000 that year and I thought that was cool.”

When Showie was born during the pandemic, Nine Oh was already standing four stallions and Grimes didn’t know what the future held, so she gelded him. But his future is still so bright. This year, while her focus has been futurities, she can’t stay away from rodeos.

“I often ask myself why I want to go to rodeos when I can make $50,000 to $70,000 a weekend on guaranteed good ground,” said Grimes. “But I still really love rodeos. I’m not sure why, except maybe just that old-school mentality.”

Last week, however, her rodeo horse was needing a break. So, Grimes hauled her 3-year-old filly to Gillette along with Showie. Unfortunately for futurity trainers, Grimes has another budding superstar coming. KG Fat Bottomed Girl, like Grimes’ 2015 Fizz Bomb champ, is out of Issy’s dam – the big-time producer Do It For Beau. And she’s by Grimes’ palomino stallion KG Azure Winnin Chex.

“I did some exhibitions with her and she didn’t spook at anything,” said Grimes. “I’m super proud of her. I just need to add speed.”

Exclusive: Stetson Wright gives update on timetable for return after Puyallup injury

Eight-time PRCA World Champion Stetson Wright was released from the hospital early in the day on Sunday, Sept. 7, and returned to the Cinch Playoffs at the Puyallup (Wash.) Rodeo to watch his brother, Ryder Wright, compete in the short round.

During the Sept. 6 matinee performance, Stetson Wright bucked off Calgary Stampede's Cloudy Skies in the saddle bronc riding and the horse stepped on his midsection. He immediately called for Justin Sports Medicine.

He was transferred to a local hospital and spent the night under observation. Wright sustained five broken ribs on his left side, a punctured lung and an injury to his pelvic area.

"They said I've already started healing quickly and all of the ribs that are broken lined up good," Wright told the PRORODEO Sports News on Sunday afternoon. "They said (I'm out) for six weeks, but we'll see what happens. In my mind, I'm shooting for (a return at) Sioux Falls. If it works, that's awesome. If it doesn't, that's awesome. We're just going to play it by ear that week."

The top four finishers at the Cinch Playoffs at the Puyallup Rodeo and the remaining eight highest cowboys and cowgirls in the PRORODEO Playoff Series qualified for the Cinch Playoffs Governor's Cup presented by Texas Precious Metals from Sept. 26-28 in Sioux Falls, S.D.

Wright sat second in the playoff standings in saddle bronc and atop the playoff standings in bull riding entering the finale in Puyallup, locking him in for Sioux Falls if he's ready to get back to competition.

"It feels really good," Wright said of returning to the grounds in Puyallup less than 24 hours after leaving to go to the hospital. "I was trying to talk them into letting me leave last night but with that lung being collapsed, they kept me in overnight to monitor it."

"But this morning when they came in and checked everything out, everything was looking good. The lung was inflated back up so it was all good. I told Ryder when I walked in here, that the smell of rodeo makes me feel better."

When Wright went down, several cowboys, including Ryder and world bareback leader Rocker Steiner, entered the arena to make sure everything was OK. After a few minutes, Stetson walked out of the arena with assistance, was treated by the Justin Sports Medicine team and left on his own power with his brother.

"It means a ton that from the chute boss down to the bull fighters, Rocker, Kade Bruno, Tanner Butner, they were all jumping down there (to help)," Stetson recalled. "Ryder literally didn't even celebrate his ride (he won the first go-round in Playoff 2). He got off as quick as he could and ran straight back there. Then he rode over to the hospital with me. It means a lot that every one of these guys checked in on me."

Wright said he'll return home to Beaver, Utah, to recover.

Specialty act Bobby Kerr passes away at 67

Multiple time PRCA Specialty Act of the Year Bobby Kerr passed away the afternoon of Sept. 5. He was 67.

Kerr's passing came after a long battle with esophageal cancer, which he was first diagnosed with and underwent treatment for in 2021. In 2023, the tumor had grown again and spread to his stomach, liver, chest and lungs. Doctors told him more chemotherapy treatments would only slow the spread, so he returned home to manage the pain himself.

It was successful for two years, as he continued to put smiles on the faces of PRORODEO fans across the country.

"We do whatever we can do for pain," Kerr told the PRORODEO Sports News in July. "We usually try to time it so it's kicked in so I can do my performance. I've tweaked my performance a bit, doing stuff I know I can do."

Kerr trained horses for more than 50 years and is well-known pairing his equine partners with dogs in his act.

One act, which he utilized while in Spanish Fork, Utah, involves a horse sitting in an old automobile with two dogs on the hood. It's one of his original acts that helped him earn the PRCA Specialty Act of the Year Award five times. He's been to the NFR once and in 2011 was named a finalist and fan favorite of the Supreme Extreme Mustang Makeover. He won the title in 2012.

In 2013 he was named IPRA National Finals Rodeo Showcase Champion. A year later he was a Mustang Million Finalist with two horses and made an appearance on Good Morning America.

Perhaps one of Kerr's most proud accomplishments, though, is his creation of the Texas Cowboy Hall of Fame, located in the Stockyards in Fort Worth, Texas. He was inducted into the hall he founded with his wife Susan in 2021.

"It was unbelievable," Kerr said of his induction. "I wasn't even rodeoing then. I knew a lot of cowboys because I used to build Western furniture. I never dreamed of being in it myself. It was a really special night."

Travel had become difficult for Kerr due to the pain in his abdomen. His wife, Susan, hired a driver for the rig to travel to rodeos. That allowed Kerr to fly to most of his destinations. His ability to overcome the pain he was in to still perform was an inspiration to rodeo fans and Susan. She said she is proud of how her husband battled his illness. He never complained and never felt sorry for himself in the process. He took things one step at a time, inspiring everyone around him along the way.

"I don't know if it's the adrenaline coursing through his veins that just gives him that little more oomph to go do what he's got to do," Susan said. "I know it's helping him, because I see him from the first of the day to the last of the day. Everybody else is getting tired and worn out, but by the last day, he's feeling so much better. It's just amazing to see, and I'm just so proud of him."

Kerr was told in November 2024 he wouldn't make it past the new year. He did that and more.

He didn't know exactly when his time would come, but he didn't shy away from it, either. He simply kept doing what he loved for as long as he could.

"Something can happen any day," Kerr said. "I just get a joy of when I get on my horse and get comfortable."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I was quizzing Thad about the first days of school. He was telling me that in a certain class, they can go to the back and ride a stationary bike while doing their work. I said, "Wow, that's awesome! When I was in school, we didn't get to do that! They just told us to 'Sit down and shut up!'" He said, "Yah, they didn't like kids back then... LOL!" Now, where do you start with that?! Kids weren't liked when I was 10?? Back then???? The possibilities are endless!

But it started me thinking about perception. Perception on how we're treated. Perception on what's acceptable to different age groups. Perception of what discipline is. When we discipline our children, we do it out of love. And we learn that from God. Hebrews 12:6-7 tells us, "For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth."

So, if you and I are being knuckleheads and being rebellious, He will correct us. Not with sickness, car wrecks or any other evil thing. He corrects us by the Holy Spirit. That still small voice that leads and guides us and gives us opportunity to repent and go the other way. He keeps us out of trouble. Thank you, Lord.
