Summer Kosel & FireWaterFrenchFame Claim Second Straight Ellensburg Rodeo Championship

By Tanya Randall

Mother Nature made Summer Kosel's second straight Ellensburg Rodeo Barrel Racing Championship a muddy mess.

"This was pretty average for me," chuckled the 2023 National Finals Rodeo qualifier. "In the Badlands Circuit, if I show up it's probably going to rain."

Kosel and her great horse FireWaterFrenchFame ("Apollo") made their first run at Ellensburg on dry footing and split seventh in the round with a 17.33.

Thankfully, in addition to adding more money this year, $40,000 up from $35,000, Ellensburg changed their format from two full rounds and a short go for a three-run aggregate to a progressive after one format. The top 48 from the first go advanced to one of four performances and the fastest twelve on two made a third run in the short go for a three-run aggregate.

"This was the first year that the people who didn't make it back (to the performances) didn't get a second run in slack," Kosel noted. "Everybody that made it back (this year) made a second run in the mud, so it was actually a very level playing field for the second round. If they would have had that second round starting in slack none of us that made it back to the perms would have placed."

Of the 48 that qualified to run in the performances, 37 opted to run in the mud. Kosel and Apollo were seventh again with an 18.43.

"When it had rained, I actually called my vet first," she said. "I had an idea of what I wanted to do because I knew it was going to be deep. My game plan was to boot up, Vetrap over the top of it with tape holding the Vetrap on and tape his bell boots on. I asked if that was a solid game plan or should I run him slick and tape his bell boots on. We agreed to do full boots with the Vetrap over them time to keep anything from sliding and keep the mud out of his boots."

An 18.25 in the short go gave Kosel and Apollo the rodeo victory by .06 over Kathy Grimes and KG Just Money and Heidi Gunderson and Wonder If Im Lucky, who tied for second overall.

"He kind of caught a pothole on the backside of the second," Kosel said. "But it's not like it got him strung out or out from under himself. He basically stood on his hind legs and picked his front feet back up when he nose-dived. It was almost like it made him angry, and he just ran and turned harder."

The victory paid $7,980.

Between runs in Ellensburg, Kosel opted to walk-up and replace a turn out in a performance at the Magic Valley Stampede in Filer, Idaho. She and Apollo finished fifth for $1,179.

"Emily Biesel and Hailey Kinsel picked me up along the Interstate and I threw Apollo in the trailer with just the bare essentials," she laughed.

Their next run was Saturday night slack for the Walla Walla Frontier Days, where they finished fifth for $2,146, before returning to Ellensburg for their second run.

All totaled, Kosel collected $11,305 on the week. She currently sits No. 17 in the WPRA World Standings with $92,684. She's $15,428 back of 15th with the lucrative Cinch Playoffs Puyallup Rodeo this week ahead.

Hallie Hanssen & JS Night Moves Sweep Cornhusker Breeders & Open Futurities

By Tanya Randall

JS Night Moves, ridden by Hallie Hanssen for Preslee Nellesen, swept the $20,000-added Breeders and $10,000-added Open futurities at the Cornhusker, held September 4-7 in McCook, Nebraska, for total earnings of $14,732 not including incentive sidepots ($17,885 total). The win in the Open paid $4,712, while the Breeders awarded $8,040.

"I thought he worked really well," said Hanssen. "I thought he was honest and smooth. I couldn't have really asked him to be any better."

They won the opening round in 15.206 and took second in the next round with a 15.097 to win the aggregate in both races.

"The first day, I got him a little bit up the pen at the first, but he had a really good second and third," Hanssen said. "I knew I could make up some time if I got a better first on him. The second day, I had a lot better approach to my first, and his second and third were really good."

Hanssen, a leading futurity trainer and rider from Hermosa, South Dakota, started riding Blackie in late February. The gelding had won both the Royal Crown and South Valley Equine Futurities in Buckeye, Arizona, with teenage jockey Payton Johnson in the saddle before he sold to Nellesen.

The new team hit their stride at the Ruby Buckle West in South Jordan, Utah, where they placed in the Futurity.

"I was starting to get him figured out," noted Hanssen. "I had made some runs on him (before then), but not enough." She said their biggest issue was the approach to the first barrel with the former stakes winner on the track.

"When there's a holding area, I can get a little better approach to the first on him," she explained. "At some of the other pens, you couldn't really come with an easy approach. He was having trouble with that situation, and I don't think he'd been run in many situations where they didn't have a holding pen."

Most recently, they took reserve at the Royal Crown and Open Futurities at the incentive's flagship event in Rapid City, South Dakota, and won the Today's Horse Magazine's Megabucks Open Slot Race.

Hanssen noted that it was nearly two years ago that Blackie was wrapping up his career on the track. The gelded son of 3.5 million dollar barrel sire Winners Version, out of Jeffrey Steadman's Judge Cash mare, Judging Julie, who won 10 of her 42 starts running from ages 3 to 7 on the track, finished fourth in a derby trial at Sweetwater Downs in Rock Springs, Wyoming.

On the track, Blackie won three of his 11 starts and only failed to light the board on three of those trips. He won the Energy Downs Bonus Challenge Stakes at Gillette, Wyoming, in his second outing on the track and finished just off the board in the Grade 3 Bitterroot Futurity. He started his barrel racing career with $34,953 won on the track.

"He's a really broke horse and is so easy to ride," said Hanssen. Blackie's earnings are closing in on the $200,000 mark at $183,728 once Cornhusker is added to his most recent QData earnings total.

Armenta Wins $34K at Las Vegas Barrels & Buckles For Bailey

By Julie Mankin

Fifteen-year-old Taylor Armenta of Bloomfield, N.M., and 12-year-old He's Got Cat Style ("Thor") really likes Las Vegas' South Point Equestrian Center. This spring, they not only won second in the American Rodeo West Regional Finals, but also won the 1D Open Average of the NBHA Las Vegas Super Show – for the second time in four years. Over Labor Day weekend, they again posted the fastest time inside the South Point.

Thor, the gelding with the curious mix of cutting and Thoroughbred blood, won the Xtreme Mini Million at the annual Barrels & Buckles for Bailey race in Las Vegas on Sept. 4-6 with a 14.271 – the fastest time ever posted in the South Point arena at that event. "I just love being in Las Vegas," said Armenta, who was only 9 when she got to cruise Mary Walker's great Latte through the pattern. "I think Thor likes it because the ground can hold him – its real soft and fluffy. And I like being at the South Point because everything is together; you never have to leave or haul your horse back and forth."

Michael and Paula Gaughan donated their South Point Hotel, Casino and Equestrian Center back in 2011 for the first annual Buckles & Barrels for Bailey. It's an annual race run by volunteers to benefit families with sick children and the doctors and nurses who care for the kids in honor of Bailey Patterson, 11, who died in 2021 of a terminal illness.

To start with, Armenta's 14.469 won the first round of the High Stakes race by almost two-tenths for $7,594. Then on Saturday, she and Thor caught the third barrel and just cruised home but still clocked an unbelievable 14.10. On Sunday, the duo laid down that 14.2 to win the Xtreme Million by a full tenth for $5,421, as well as Sunday's Open for $4,614 and Sunday's Lucky 7s for $681. Their haul on the two runs came to $24,095.

"Thor is all 'go' and no brakes," said Armenta, 15. "I run him as straight and hard as I can to the first barrel, and he loves running home. In slow work, I sometimes put a tie-down on him because he gets so strong leaving the third barrel. He has a real loud personality – he's fun to be around."

As if the Armenta family needed any more proof that Taylor is riding one of the greatest horses in the country, fans know that she and Thor swept the 2025 National Junior High Finals Rodeo in Des Moines, winning all three go-rounds. And in Arlington, they outran Heidi Gunderson's Wonder If Im Lucky and Mindy Holloway's Cornbread to win the American Rodeo Semi-Finals and $15,000, before tipping a barrel in the Showdown Round.

Thor was sired by Palo Duro Cat, a little palomino son of High Brow Cat with paternal lines to Doc's Hickory and Smart Little Lena, along with Peppy San Badger and Doc Bar on the bottom. And Thor is out of a half-thoroughbred mare whose second dam was out of an own granddaughter of Secretariat.

Armenta, a home-schooled sophomore who also breakaway ropes at high school rodeos, is the daughter of Russell and Audra Armenta. Taylor often rides with Cory Mars, who lined them up to buy Thor from Patti Carlile of Ignacio, Colo., four years ago.

"We ride with Patti a lot," said Taylor, whose 10-year-old sister Tierra also runs barrels. "And she gets on Thor to tune him up. He'll go stay with her next week while we're on vacation."

Armenta did well at the South Point with her younger horse, as well. On 8-year-old A Smooth Night – nicknamed "Legs" because he stands 17.1 hands – she earned $10,204. They first clocked a 15.1 for 2D money on Friday, then came back Saturday with a 14.5 that placed in the 1D, and a 14.4 on Sunday that placed in the Open and Xtreme, plus sidepots.

The gelding they bought from trainer Craig Stritzke is by A Smooth Guy out of Miss Savanna Seis by Tres Seis out of a Sixarun

Hes Got Cat Style

BIT: short-shanked L&W three-piece combination with wrapped bicycle-chain noseband

SADDLE: Burns

SADDLE PAD: 35 Custom Equine owned by Mary Walker

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice Strike on fronts; polo wraps on hind

SHOEING: Trevor Duhon applies rims with pads (because he paws) on front; slightly wedged hind shoes

FEED: Renew Gold Xtra

HAY: grass/alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: OE Nutraceuticals and Equinety

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Berner, nebulizer, liniment baths, ice boots, Rocket Legs mud after runs

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: We do a Brazilian workout in the arena that's 20-30 minutes of driving his body in little circles. Three times around each barrel and three times around the pattern. If slow, we walk or trot to our points, staying up and square.

SPONSORS: Outlaw Equine Hospital, Kingsville Brand, American Hat Company, OE Nutraceuticals, Justin Boots, Professional's Choice, Griggs Insurance Agency, CSI Saddle Pads, Burns Saddlery, Western Dove

THANKS: My parents for sure, and Cory Mars has helped me have great muscle memory. Outlaw Equine worked miracles after Thor got hurt in 2023, and Emily Johnson DVM of Kennedy Equine did great work on Thor's bruise right before this race.

daughter. Together, Armenta's paychecks on both horses in Las Vegas totaled $34,299. She said Legs will get the call at Armenta's first fall high school rodeo this weekend, while Thor gets a tune-up.

Then, Armenta is excited to watch Thor run at the New Mexico State Fair in Albuquerque under McKenna Coronado, who's on the bubble again after a 17th-place finish in 2025.

As for Armenta, she hopes to also chase NFR dreams as soon as she turns 18 and buys her WPRA card. In the meantime, she hopes for a second shot at a million bucks in Arlington next spring at The American. And over the long-term, she'd love to raise horses and rodeo while also getting "into the futurity and derby side of things," just like Kassie Mowry.

KB EL Tigre

2013 BUCKSKIN STALLION

Born Ta Be Famous x Talents Dark Angel
(Flaming Talent)

KB EL TIGRE offers an unmatched pedigree stacked with legendary producers, making him an exceptional addition to any breeding program. With his oldest foals now 6 years old, he is already proving his worth as a sire with money earners in the barrel racing, roping, and reined cow horse industries. Don't let his size fool you; he consistently produces offspring with plenty of size, athletic ability, and natural talent. Selling with his Ruby Buckle Stallion slot, currently a Young Guns League Stallion with the option to re-enroll for 2027. KB EL Tigre presents a rare opportunity with a proven pedigree, promising offspring, and an incredibly bright future for your breeding program.

INCENTIVES

All foals will be eligible for Ruby Buckle, Young Guns League, Royal Crown, Future Fortunes, Triple Crown 100, Legends of the South, Tomorrows Legends, Breeders Challenge.

CONSIGNED BY: David Brandon Smith
X-rays for all horses will be available through Asteris for your veterinarian to review prior to the sale.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Some things just stick with you. YEARS ago, Mike preached a message on Gal. 6:2. "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ."

In that message, he stated that "we all have our own little boatload of oppressive faults". There are literally 6 of us who remember the "boatload" part! We didn't focus on helping each other out with those faults, we focused on the "boatload". LOL!

Okay, so how much is a "boatload"? Sounds like a lot to me. Guess it doesn't really matter, we all have our faults. So, how do we bear one another's burdens?

Well, we don't point them out like Matthew 7:3-5 illustrates. The speck in their eye, the tree in mine.

We come along side of people and we help each other. We don't jump out of the pickup like my granddaughter did and take a video of my pathetic attempt at parallel parking on main street!!!

Help someone this week, in love!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
