Lang and Angels On the Moon Ascend at WPRA Finals

The Women's Professional Rodeo Association held their 2019 World Finals at the Extraco Events Center in Waco, Texas. It's an arena that Angels On The Moon (Angel) has proven she can excel in. "She really loves Waco," Alex Lang said about the 11-year-old mare. "For whatever reason, it just suits her. She's kind of a smaller mare and has long legs and is really finely built. She runs hard - I've never had a horse try harder, and I know she knows what it means to win. She's really special in that way." Lang also pointed out that Angel did well when Kassie Mowry ran her in Waco in the past, and Lang and Angel recently made the short round at the Heart O' Texas ProRodeo which was the exact same setup but unfortunately they tipped a barrel. "I was really determined coming into the WPRA finals not to do that," Lang said. And for some extra determination, she remembered last year's scenario at the WPRA World Finals. "I came into the short go second and hit a barrel, and I was disappointed in myself for that," she admits.

This year, in their fourth trip to the WPRA World Finals competing in the Card Holder Race, they won Round 2 for the second year and made the Short Go for the third consecutive year. Knowing what Angel was capable of achieving added some pressure, but Lang knew it was up to her to ride her to the win. "I just have to stay ahead of her. She's so quick that if you get behind on her in any way, you're going to get in trouble, so staying ahead of her is crucial," she explained. "It's really just a mental thing for me to ride her correctly. This year I finally did that where in years past, I haven't."

Their short round time of 15.811 combined with 15.755 for a fourth-place finish in round one and 15.657 for the round two win, gave Lang and Angel 47.223 to edge Dona Kay Rule's 47.225 on High Valor. "It's an honor to run against those horses. It was so close. I'm in awe of Dona Kay Rule's horse - he's so neat and the [AQHA/WPRA] horse of the year. It's a true testament to our sport and the horsepower - it's really amazing," the 26-year-old said complimenting the competition. "I'm still kind of in shock that we won because it was so tough." She continued, "It's definitely the toughest thing I run in all year."

Looking back on their weekend which was worth over $9400, Lang said, "It was fun! It was almost a blur honestly - I was so focused on riding her correctly that it all went so fast." She also said, "Thank you to the WPRA - the prizes were great, and the ground was phenomenal - that's so important to us."

Now looking ahead, Lang and Angel will compete at the Texas Circuit Finals and then later they get to go to RodeoHouston, thanks to their WPRA World Finals win. They also got to go to RodeoHouston last year because of winning enough money at the

The 2020 Kinder Cup Barrel Racing Championships Announce Changes

Ryan and Andre' Marie Dohrn, owners and producers of the Kinder Cup Barrel Racing Championships, today announced significant changes to their 2020 event. Andre' Dohrn said, "We extensively interviewed our contestants and sent out a very detailed survey. The changes for 2020 are based on what the contestants told us they want to see at the event."

In 2020 the slot race will be a 4 and 5 year old race with a one run competition format. The 90% payout will be changed to pay the top 10 winners, based on 50 entries; $50,000 - $32,500 - $30,000 - $27,500 - $25,000 - $20,000 - $12,500 - $7500 - $5,000. Ryan Dohrn said, "This requested change allows more money to be put into the pockets of our valued slot owners and competitors. In addition, slot horses will now only have to have to make one pass on the pattern."

The other barrel racing classes will see over $45,000 in added money in cash and prizes. Impact Gel saddle pads will also be offering over $10,000 in bounty incentives at the 2020 event.

Another change in 2020 competitors will notice is the addition of new dirt in the main arena. The Coushatta Pavilion has greatly enhanced the arena footing. Competitors can expect the same attention to detail on the ground as in the past with the same ground crew in place.

The Going Big Time Sale Company barrel horse prospect sale will be Saturday at 1pm CST with a free Cajun style lunch for all in attendance. The Kinder Cup sale has sold over $500,000 in barrel horse prospects. Ryan Dohrn said, "This horse sale will be one of the best in our history. We already have consigner commitments from some of the best breeders and trainers in the industry. Our yearly per head sale average is one of the highest in the industry."

For complete information visit, KinderBarrelRace.com or call/text Andre' Marie Dohrn at 706-495-5126.

I'm going to be way more confident." Lang added, "Kassie [Mowry] ran her in the shootout after I ran her at [Rodeo]Houston and she told me that I needed to get that mare back there to win that rodeo."

Lang got Angel, who's out of a Streakin Six mare and by Dash Ta Fame, about five years ago from Michael Boone and Mowry. "I owe them a ton. The opportunity to own her is amazing. I just can't believe all she's accomplished – she's awesome. She's really a phenomenal horse. She is very quirky, so we definitely cater to her, but obviously I'd do anything to keep her happy. She's your typical mare," Lang said with a laugh.

Angel made the short round at Fort Worth this year and for the third year at San Angelo. And now she gets to add the WPRA World Finals title to her accomplishments. "She's so consistent and gritty. I'm happy for her to get this recognition. It means a lot," Lang said.

As she talked about her appreciation to those who have helped her, including her parents, Carl and Rhessa, Lang said, "My dad was a huge help always telling me to have light hands – I have to thank him for teaching me to ride at a young age which made a huge difference in how I ride now. Both my parents were awesome – I can't think them enough for all they've done for me." She grew up in west Texas, but now lives in Harper. Lang went to UT in Austin where she majored in English. "Then I went to work for the governor and worked for him for about 4 or 5 years as a fundraiser. And I barrel raced. That was interesting – it was like living in two different worlds. It was fun and very busy," she said.

Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi – WPRA World Finals Derby

Another mare who is out of a Streakin Six mare and by Dash Ta Fame, Ima Famous Babe (Katniss), won the Derby at the WPRA World Finals and finished third in the Card Holder race with two-time WPRA World Champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi after breaking the arena record with a time of 15.564 in the short round. (Eight runs later, Tillar Murray and Royal Star Commander broke it again with a time of 15.534.) "She obviously loves Waco. I just won the [Heart O' Texas] rodeo on her there a couple weeks ago," Pozzi Tonozzi said. "I was super happy with her all weekend long, and now it's making my decision of what to get on at the NFR really hard," she said with a laugh. "I've been taking Mona to Northside (Fort Worth Stockyards Rodeo) and she's been running really good there.” While Pozzi Tonozzi said that she doesn’t know why Ima Famous Babe likes Waco so much, she hopes that she likes the Thomas and Mack but pointed out that she’s only 6 years old and was a futurity horse last year. ““We’ve raised and trained her. It’s been a pleasure having her – she’s always rose to the occasion. I’m super excited about taking her to the finals (NFR). And I’m glad I have one more derby year left on her too.”

She complimented the WPRA World Finals Derby saying, “The derby paid amazing. It’s probably one of the best ones there is – it had a lot of entries.” All totaled, she collected around $14 thousand dollars at the WPRA World Finals, and she appreciated the changes that were made this year. “I like the new setup. They made a longer alleyway and a longer run to the first barrel and I liked that a lot better. Also, they had more stopping room by the back gate, and they changed the ground up a little bit. I thought it was the best year yet.”

Winning the WPRA World Finals Futurity was Kassie Mowry on Famous Ladies Man. The WPRA Junior World Champion is McKenzie Morgan with over $40 thousand dollars won this year, while the Junior Division average title was won by Paige Jones on High Cotton Lane. Jessie Domann won the Permit Race on Ima Perry N Famous.

Ashley Thompson & Seis Shots Of Crown Defend Congress Sweepstakes Title

By Tanya Randall

Better make that order a double. Ashley Thompson of Clayton, Michigan, and Seis Shots of Crown won their second straight All-American Quarter Horse Congress Sweepstakes, held October 23-27 at Columbus, Ohio. Their victory was worth $7,963.

"It's a little hard to grasp," said Thompson, who had her husband Jason, their daughter and her mother in attendance with her. "There are so many people who have helped with this I can even begin to name them all. I would like to thank God, for his blessings, moments that we cherish, and His patience with me!"

The $20,000-added Sweepstakes, sponsored by TLC Equine Rehab, has two qualifying rounds, with the top 20 fastest times advancing to a final. The composite time between the Finals and qualifying time determines the winner.

After placing ninth in the first round with a 15.117 on Thursday and having a "disaster" of a run in the Junior Barrels on Saturday, Thompson and Seis came back that evening to turn in a 14.555, the fastest time of the entire show, a feat they accomplished in 2018 as well, to win the second round. That run also earned them the right to run last in the Finals on Sunday.

Making her final run, which was a 15.017 that placed ninth in the short, wasn't the most stressful part of the day, as Thompson says she didn't try to think about the implications of her Final run instead she chose to stay with her normal mental game of "just turning three barrels—the same as every run." It was waiting for the final calculations during the awards presentation that was the most stressful.

"They were saying what I needed to run to take the lead," she what they were announcing!”

It was an extremely tight race with .028 separating Thompson and Seis's 29.572 from Troy Crumrine and Dunn Ranch's Imafrenchmanprincess's 29.6.

Thompson, a massage therapist and nail technician, purchased Seis from her good friend Valerie VanSickle, who bred the mare along with her husband Bruce. Seis is by leading barrel racing and racing sire Tres Seis out of the LK Crown Royal, a Sun Frost, Endow (TB) mare that Thompson now owns as well.

Shortly after Seis turned 2, Thompson injured her knee while stepping off the filly and had to have surgery. Seis, who was loping the pattern at the time, got more than a year off while Thompson healed. When she went back to riding her early as a 4-year-old, Seis took to running barrels like a seasoned pro, winning the Indiana Futurity and the Michigan Barrel Futurity Association's year-end championship.

After placing in the Top 10 at the BFA World Championship Futurity, Seis got a little break before Thompson started legging her back up and running her again. However, their competition schedule got a surprise hold when Seis won a breeding to the all-time leading futurity stallion RR Mistakelly.

“We put her into a contest, where everyone submitted their mares and they picked 10,” she explained. “It was fantastic that they picked our mare to be one of the 10 because there were 100s of mares submitted. We ended up winning a breeding. It was an ‘Oh shoot! What do we do now! We thought we’d win a cool shirt or a hat or something! Not a breeding!’ It wasn’t something that we were planning for at the time.”

Seis ended up getting time off while Robin Weaver, the owner of Mistakelly, and Thompson each got an embryo pulled.

“We were kind of wondering how she’d be after we pulled embryos on her,” she said. “She was down for two- two-and-a-half months and she’s never had that long off since I got her back going. She likes running barrels, I think. It kills her when the trailer leaves without her, so she’ll remain on it until God tells me different.”

Celebrity Status, Yates and FiestaNozShezFamous Top Mountain States Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier and aged event champion Kelly Yates of Pueblo, Colorado, found herself back in the winner's circle at the Mountain States Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 25-26 in Loveland, Colorado.

She and her homebred 8-year-old mare FiestaNozShezFamous ("Gucci") had a great rodeo, placing second in the opening round and winning the second and third en route to the aggregate win. All totaled, she won $8,025.

"She was pretty much amazing," Yates said of Gucci, a daughter of leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of her two-time WPRA Reserve World Champion and champion producer Firewater Fiesta, by Firewater Flit. "I had taken another horse up there and was going to run her Saturday afternoon. (They had two performances on Saturday). I knew Shali (Lord) had won the year-end, and if she won the average I still would get to go, but I thought I had a shot at the average. The ground was good, and she felt and looked good, so I kept running her. She was pretty much amazing."

It has been a tumultuous year for Yates, who lost her mother Jan, her rock and biggest supporter, on March 4.

"She was on my shoulders every run," she said. "I know she was pushing me just as hard as I was pushing myself."

Yates, who has four Mountain States Year-End Championships on her lengthy resume, says it was hard leaving home to go to rodeos after her mom's passing.

"That totally changed a lot of things and my plans," she said. With everybody going off to do something, I went to a lot of rodeos and came right back home. It was a little difficult making all my rodeos this year. I have some great horses right now, but it's just difficult to get away."

Yates had strong performances at rodeos in Colorado Springs and Cheyenne, Wyoming—one of the few she went to in that state. The rest were day-trip rodeos within Colorado.

"I can't say it's been a bad year, because I've been pretty successful when I have gone off and done stuff, but it's been pretty humbling trying to regroup and get back to going," she said. "It just seems like one thing, right after another. It's been tough. I know it's not over, but it will get better."

Yates says appreciates all the support she's had this year in and out of the arena.

"There's so many people I'd like to thank, but I don't think that's possible," she said. "I don't think enough room on that paper to thank everyone that's helped me through this—my mom's passing. Everyone has been so supportive.

"I'm so blessed I've got my family, friends and my horses. I'm very blessed that my mare has done what she's has. I'm so proud to be going to Kissimmee."

Yates also wanted to wish good luck to Shali Lord, who is headed to the NFR sitting fourth in the WPRA World Standings. Lord had a commanding leading going into the Mountain States Circuit Finals Rodeo and claimed her second straight year-end, and fourth overall, year-end championship.

"I love our circuit finals," said Lord. "We have so much fun. It's a great group of girls. We have an amazing awards program. We have some great sponsors and we do a silent auction. I order all the awards and we have a really great banquet. It's something that I look forward to every year."

Lord, who wanted to thank her family for all their support, also finished second in the aggregate at the Circuit Finals, earning $4,012. She and Frosted In Fame ("CiCi") posted the fastest time of the rodeo to win the first round by nearly 3/10ths.

"She worked so good," said Lord of her first run. "I was first on the ground. She was just zeroed in. The third round, I was ninth on the ground and I got her by the first barrel so she was little bit longer."

Lord, who calls Lamar, Colorado, home, got CiCi, a 9-year-old daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of the Sun Frost, Judge Cash mare Judges Fancy Frost, in late spring and made her first run on the mare in late May. She says it took her the summer to completely click with the mare, who won several rodeos toward the season's end.

"When we started running a little bit more, it clicked," said Lord. "I think we finally got our confidence together. She's so talented. I'm glad that it's happened at the right time."

Lord ran Streakin Boon Dox, a son of A Streak Of Fling, in the second round of the Circuit Finals. Streakin Boon Dox also belongs to Joe and Carla Spitz, who owns her main mount for her circuit & year end earnings, the talented stallion Freckles Ta Fame ("Can Man"), and he'll be close to Las Vegas in case he's needed as a backup for the NFR.

Both Lord and Yates commended the Mountain States Circuit Finals Committee and the efforts of their circuit director Carla Beckett.

"They do a great job on our rodeo in Loveland," said Lord. "We have great sponsors. All the rodeo committees in our circuit. We had some great rodeos. They tried really hard making the ground good. Carla Beckett, our circuit director, has done a lot of work this year. It's her first year. I think it's been a learning experience for her, but she's done a great job!"

Arena Record Caps Off 2019 WPROA World Finals

The 2019 WPROA World Finals came to an electric finish with Wrangler NFR qualifier Tillar Murray setting a new arena record inside the Extraco Event Center in Waco, Texas.

Murray, of Fort Worth, Texas, won the short round in the WPROA Card Holder Race on Sunday, October 27 stopping the clock in a time of 15.534 seconds. The previous record prior to today was held by Taylor Langdon with a 15.57 set earlier this month at the Heart O' Texas Fair & Rodeo. That time was bested twice during the WPROA World Finals with two-time WPROA World Champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi running Ima Famous Babe stopping the clock in 15.564 seconds as the ninth runner out on Sunday. Murray came eight runners on Royal Star Commander later and turned in the record run.

"I can always tell when Commander walks down the alley if it's going to be a nice run and today he came to win," said Murray after the record run. "Win or lose though, I treasure every run I get to make on him."

Alex Lang captured the average title in the cardholder race and earned a spot in the 2020 RodeoHouston. Lang finished with 47.223 on three runs on Angels On The Moon, barely edging first-time Wrangler NFR qualifier Dona Kay Rule who finished with a 47.225 on the 2019 Barrel Racing Horse of the Year High Valor. Pozzi Tonozzi was third in a total time of 47.250 and Murray took fifth with a 47.481.

Pozzi Tonozzi took the average title in the Derby division riding Ima Famous Babe with a two-run time of 31.336, followed by Kelsey Lutjen on VF Chasin Cans with a 31.440. Hilary Van Gerpen won the world title aboard PC Judge Cash N Lace the same mount she won the WPROA Futurity World Title a year ago.

Kassie Mowry aboard Famous Ladies Man took the futurity average title at the WPROA World Finals with a 31.712, while Cayla Small on Slick N Black was second in 31.993. Karen Gleason won the world title aboard Mobetta Fame. Colleen Vondra took home the Futurity 2D World Title on SCF Lakewood Fame.

In the Junior Division it was McKenzie Morgan taking home her first WPROA Junior World Championship. Morgan of Maryville, Tennessee won over $40,500 on the year and although she didn't compete in Waco, her lead was too great for anyone to catch her. Taking home the average title in the junior division from Waco was Paige Jones on High Cotton Lane. She finished with a two run time of 31.577 to edge Alexis Lynch on Firin To Be A Hero with a 32.165.

Winning the Permit only race was Jessie Domann with a 48.422 on three runs. She easily filled her permit picking up $1,036 for the average alone.

WCRA Aligns With All-IN Barrel Race & Breakaway

World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) and ALL-IN Barrel Race and Breakaway are proud to announce they have aligned for the December 2019 ALL-IN Barrel Race and Breakaway event in Las Vegas. This alliance announcement is a continued effort to expand opportunities for rodeo athletes around the globe.

The collaboration between the two organizations will give barrel racers and breakaway ropers the chance to nominate and earn competition and consolation points. WCRA's alignment with the event will maximize athletes' efforts to possibly compete in one of WCRA's $500,000 semi-finals events and possibly move onto a one-day $1,000,000 major rodeo.

This Alliance event will also serve as a "sneak peak" to WCRA's 2020 Expanded Points. WCRA's 2020 Expanded Points format will award competition points to up to forty (40) places at the Division One Gold Level Alliance event. Whereas, formerly under normal circumstances, WCRA points would only be available to up to 10 paid positions.

With the announcement of expanded points, 30 more athletes will receive competition points when competing at the December 2019 ALL IN event.

According to WCRA President Bobby Mote; WCRA is able to maintain the amount of points paid to both the first and last position. Essentially, more athletes, receive more points within the spread, but the overall effect of the expanded points doesn't upset the integrity of the overall points scale. In addition, athletes must have a qualified ride/run to receive expanded points.

The ALL-IN Barrel Race will pay WCRA competition points to:

- Top 10 racers in the 1D, 2D, 3D and 4D
- The ALL-IN Breakaway will pay WCRA competition points to:
 - Top 15 Ropers in 1D and 2D as well as the Top 10 in the 3D

"Our number one mission is to advance the sport of rodeo with alliance partners like ALL IN," said Mote. "Due to demand for competition points, we are introducing our Expanded Points platform for select events in 2020. The ALL-IN events, paying over $800,000 seemed like a great opportunity for us to offer a "Sneak Peak" for athletes to see the benefits of this new initiative. The expanded points initiative will improve the value of competing in WCRA Alliance events and more importantly reward athletes whom are consistently doing their job while competing at these events."

WCRA also announced that the December event held in Las Vegas at the Orleans Arena will be a "Nominate, Win and You're in" event. The champions from the event who nominate their efforts prior to the start of the event will receive an automatic exemption into the WCRA $500,000 semi-finals held in Guthrie, Oklahoma at the Lazy E Arena in May 2020.

participating in the December 2019 event are encouraged to use the one-time use coupon code "ALLIN2019" for a $50 discount on their nomination.

ALL IN Breakaway is a unique breakaway event offering a 3D format and $100,000 cash and prizes payout with The ALL IN Barrel Race having a guaranteed $700,000 cash payout. More info and dates on the barrel race can be found here while details on the breakaway event can be found here.

Since launching in May of 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $5,600,000 in new money to rodeo athletes.

Qualifying for events will be based purely on performance and on series points, rather than dollars won, through the Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ). For athletes interested in learning more about the WCRA and the VRQ, or you're an event producer/promoter interested in aligning with the WCRA platform and the new expanded points initiative, please visit wcrarodeo.com or call 833-368-3787.

WPROA Announces 2019 Committee and Contract Awards

The WPROA is pleased to announce their contract award winners that work tirelessly behind the scenes to make it all happen and keeps the Association alive and well. Each winner will be officially recognized during the annual WPROA Star Celebration on Thursday, Dec. 5 at the Grand Ballroom of the South Point Hotel and Casino.

Honored this year with the WPROA Announcer of the Year award is longtime PRCA member Doug Mathis. Mathis has become a top rodeo announcer with his biggest assignment being the Fort Worth Stock Show and Rodeo. He has also announced the Dodge National Circuit Finals Rodeo (2005), circuit finals in the Wilderness, Mountain States and Prairie Circuit, calls the action at the New Mexico State Fair & Rodeo (Albuquerque), the Kit Carson County Pro Rodeo in Burlington, Colorado and the Central Wyoming Fair & PRCA Rodeo in Casper, Wyoming. In addition to his announcing duties, he has worked in the NFR media room for over 20 years making sure the round winners get to the TV interviews each night as well as help facilitate any media contestant interview requests.

Fans never see them but they are key to a successful rodeo. They are known as rodeo secretaries and are tasked with organizing and disseminating information to contestants, judges, stock contractors, announcers, committees and media. This year's WPROA Mildred Farris Secretary of the Year is Rowena Nelson, hailing from the Badlands Circuit. Nelson grew up around rodeo as her family raised bucking horses. She began working rodeos when her boss at the vet clinic suggested she secretary the Cody (Wyo.) Night Rodeo. Now 30 years later she works several rodeos throughout the year and has served as secretary or assistant for at least 10 circuit finals rodeo.

"The devil is in the details," Nelson told the Tri-State Livestock News earlier this year. There's no room for errors but if they occur the secretary is the first to fix them. "Mistakes happen, and people catch them, and we fix them."

As important as secretaries so are Judges at each and every sanctioned event. The Judges are there to enforce the rules and make sure the rulebook is followed. This year's Judge of the Year is Harry Rose. Rose has been selected again to work this year's Wrangler NFR marking his 26th year.

One of professional rodeo's longest partners, Wrangler, will be honored with the WPRA Partner of the Year award. Wrangler and the Wrangler Network stepped up in 2019 to provide an additional opportunity for WPRA barrel racers and breakaway ropers with the newly created Wrangler Network Tour adding close to $50,000 in bonus money. In addition to being the Partner of the Year, Jeff Chadwick, Director –Western Special Events for Wrangler, will be honored with the NFR Achievement Award.

Rodeo photographer James Phifer will receive the WPRA Media Year for 2019. Phifer not only shoots several PRCA/WPRA rodeos throughout the year but he is the official photographer of the WPRA World Finals and the National Barrel Horse Association (NBHA). In fact, he has shot the WPRA World Finals a total of 10 times and like Mathis, he also works the Fort Worth Stock Show and Rodeo.

There is no doubt that rodeo would have a hard time existing without hardworking rodeo committees. The WPRA honors rodeos in each circuit with the Justin Best Footing Awards that will be announced on Wednesday, Oct. 30, but they also recognize rodeos in the large, medium and small rodeo category. The Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo in Colorado Springs, Colorado and the Dodge City (Kansas) Round-Up tied for the large rodeo of the year in the WPRA for 2019. There was also a tie in the medium rodeo category going to the Range Days Rodeo in Rapid City, S.D., and the Cowboy Capital of the World PRCA Rodeo in Stephenville, Texas. Winning for the first time in the small rodeo category is the Jesse Andrus & Mike Hillman Memorial in Roswell, N.M.

The WPRA would like to congratulate each of the award recipients as well as those that were nominated for these prestigious awards.

Headin' For Home

Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I sure don't want to presume that anyone out there is like me. You aren't. But I have found that if I have questions or concerns about God, someone else may have them, too. Getting a good perspective on who God is and how He operates can be daunting... or simple.

My family was a mess when I was growing up and you just couldn't count on them for much. And I carried that over into my walk with God. I either wouldn't give Him my cares, or I just slugged it out on my own. But I'm learning.

Most of you won't know that Mike went to college on a music scholarship. He can play a lot of instruments well and he can sing... really sing. So when our middle granddaughter, who has been taking violin lessons for a month now, called him up the other day to ask, "Papa, do you think you can learn Mary Had A Little Lamb on your guitar so you can play with me?", I received yet ANOTHER revelation. Seriously???? Of COURSE Mike can play that! Basic guitar 101.

I am sure that God wonders just what the heck we're thinking we question if He can help us, or if anything is impossible to Him. And just so we don't forget, He put it right there in Matthew 19:26. Give it to God this week and watch Him take care of you!!
