40 Years QUALITY & PERFORMANCE

Three-peat for Lisa Lockhart at Phoenix Hondo Rodeo Fest, Wins $72,000

By Tanya Randall

Record-breaking cowgirl Lisa Lockhart won her third straight championship at The Hondo Rodeo Fest, held November 13-15 at Chase Field in Phoenix. The Oelrichs, South Dakota, barrel racer won $47,000 for winning her event and $25,000 for splitting the high-money bonus, The Maverick, with calf roper Riley Webb.

The invitational rodeo featured eight contestants competing three rounds for an aggregate title. Other barrel racers competing were Emily Beisel, Carlee Otero, Hailey Kinsel, Hayle Gibson-Stillwell, Mackenzie Mayes, Tricia Aldridge and Wenda Johnson.

"It's just so fun to get to do something different," said Lockhart. "They're trying to elevate the sport with their uniqueness with their concerts and street fest. They're trying to improve opportunities for the cowboys."

Lockhart, who rode Blazin Ta Betty, World Champion Famous Lil Jet's sister, to the Hondo titles in 2024 and 2025, got the win on 10-year-old WhenTheStarsAlign ("Jupiter"), owned by her college rodeo teammate Lana Tibbetts.

When her young gelding Y Try Firewater ("Copper") came up sore toward the end of summer, Lockhart knew she needed to find help for Rosas Cantina CC, owned by Mill Iron Livestock, and her elder gelding Prime Diamond ("Cutter"). She was in particular need of something that would excel inside when Tibbetts offered Jupiter.

Like Copper, Jupiter was bred by Copper Spring Ranch. The lanky gelding is by Prime Diamond, the sire of Cutter and broodmare sire of Copper, and out of the Stoli mare Startini. Tibbetts had purchased him a 2-year-old at the Ranch's 2018 sale, trained him and ran him sparingly, mostly at the bigger regional jackpots and the larger incentive events, like Pink Buckle.

Although they seemingly clicked instantly, Lockhart said Jupiter was a challenge because of his inexperience in the rodeo environment. In fact, he'd been in less than a handful of rodeo performances before Lockhart took his reins in October and he'd never run at anything with the environment of The Governor's Cup in Sioux Falls or The Hondo.

"I knew he was talented," Lockhart said, "but I didn't know if he was going to step up to this next level."

Jupiter's biggest issue is confidence. For The Hondo, Lockhart made sure she got there early so Jupiter would have an extra day of practice to settle into the arena.

"I spent every minute in there that they allowed me," said Lockhart. "I just tried to give him confidence. Like when you're going down the alley and he's spooking at stuff, I'm petting him like, 'Come on Jupiter. Stay with me. We've got a job.' You've got to encourage him because he's the biggest scaredy cat.

"But he wants to be a good boy. He really does. He wants to do his job. He doesn't want to hit a barrel. He's been able to handle what I've thrown at him because it's been a lot, like with The Hondo with all the noise and stimulation."

On their first run, Lockhart and Jupiter clocked a 13.700, which initially won the round. However, with the timer malfunctioning for Wenda Johnson, the production crew let all of the contestants make a second run on Saturday morning. They would be able to keep the time of their fastest run.

Emily Beisel, who ran Ivory On Fire for second in the Friday performance, jumped on Dashing Olie to win the first round in 13.6.

Lockhart opted to ride recently crowned Wilderness Circuit Champion TS Kissem Goodbye ("Kissy") that Keith Nellesen purchased from Amanda Hammer that Monday.

"I had kind of breezed her through a little bit in practice that very first day," said Lockhart. "I didn't do any more than that because I wasn't planning on running her and then (the time malfunction) happened, so I thought, 'Well, here we go!' Emily was a .6 and there was a .7 and she was an. 8. We had a pretty good mistake on the second. She was a little bit free and I probably overhandled her. I thought she did great so that was encouraging."

With Jupiter's time from Friday night, a 13.700, being faster, she was allowed to keep that time for second place.

In the second round, Lockhart and Jupiter got faster with a 13.536 to take the round win. They were second again to Beisel and Olie in the third round with a 13.506 but took the $20,000 average win.

Lockhart has also managed to win the high money bonus all three years as well. She split the $50,000 bonus with team ropers Erich Rogers and Paul Eaves in 2024 and won it outright last year. All totaled, the 20-time NFR qualifier has won $241,500 at the three Phoenix events.

Not only has the rodeo been exceptional for her bank account, it's also been the best prep event for the National Final Rodeo that she could ask for.

"The atmosphere…the intensity is there," she said. "The pressure is there. I couldn't ask for anything better to get ready. And I've never really had that until the last couple of years. I've always said going into the NFR I don't feel prepared, but the last couple of years I have felt prepared because that's a great situation to be in prior to the NFR.

"It's a huge confidence booster. We don't know what's going to happen tomorrow or next week, but at least I know we can. Whether we get it done or not, we know we can. He just keeps stepping up."

Lockhart strongly commended the crew behind The Hondo, and she has plans on making their next events in Tampa Bay, Florida, and New Orleans.

NFR Ready – Sydney Graham & Dupont First Top WPRA World Finals, Wins $15,833

By Tanya Randall

National Finals Rodeo bound Sydney Graham and her 7-year-old stallion Dupont First ("Trump") collected $15,833 at the WPRA World Finals & Elite Extravaganza, held November 12-15 in Waco, Texas.

Graham and Trump topped the Boot Barn Pro Rodeo Barrels (formerly Cardholder's Race) by .063 on three runs over Kassie Mowry and Force The Goodbye to win $7,618. They also swept the Markel Derby for an additional $4,714. Their 15.575, the fastest time of the event, also topped the $20,000-added TQHA Open for $3,251.

"He sure loves Waco," said the Abilene, Texas, barrel racer who is headed to her first NFR seventh in the WPRA World Standings with $157,781. "He worked phenomenal. That's just his pen. He goes right to his spots and he's fast with mistakes. We always just keep going."

Their 15.575 was their second run of the event. Graham said the key to that run was Trump's cut off the third barrel.

"He really snapped back on the third barrel on that one," she said. "I knew when he turned the third like that that it was going to be absolutely fast. We sometimes get in a hurry and leave the third a little bit too soon, but he really turned the third that day."

The win in the Pro Rodeo Barrels moved Graham into third in the early 2027 season world standings with $8,704. She and Trump previously placed at the pro rodeo in Lubbock, Texas.

Graham said she doesn't have any more runs planned for Trump until Las Vegas. She did however sneak up to the Fort Worth Stockyards (a well-known NFR prep setup) on Saturday night to run her NFR backup, Famous Bully Secret, owned by Alex Daigle.

"I think (the WPRA Finals) was what I needed (with Trump)," said Graham. "I'm probably going to take the backup horse through again at the Stockyards maybe this weekend. I'll just keep Trump in shape. I think he's ready though.

"Obviously, I'm an NFR rookie and don't know what to expect, but I think it's going to be great. The experience is probably going to be like a dream come true."

With the winter building rodeos already secured through her position in the 2026 World Standings, the likely Rodeo Houston contestants earning spots through the WPRA World Finals are Hailey Krahenbuhl and her comeback kid Saaul Good and Jordan Driver and Judge JB Cash, who finished third and fifth, respectively. The other top finishers are already qualified for Rodeo Houston through the 2026 standings.

Graham is hoping she can take the "Kassie Mowry route"—big wins with less hauling—to the 2027 NFR. Now with their first full rodeo season on the road under their belts, Graham knows which setups fit the talented son of Duponte, out of the First Down Dash mare, First Fervor, that she co-owns with Jimmy Parker as Run Away Ranch.

"Now I know where I don't have to go," said Graham. "I went to a bunch of duck off (rodeos) just because I was trying to get myself in a comfortable spot at the end of the year. So I don't think I'll have to go to near as many, hopefully. I was still seasoning him last year when I was at those big rodeos, and we didn't do as good as we probably would do now."

It wasn't long once Trump got the hang of the outdoor setups that he came into his own.

"I think a light switch went on as soon as we stayed outside," Graham said. "He was like, 'Wow! This is my tea!' It was a little bit hard at first. I ran him at Jackson, Mississippi, (where a 13.83 won) and then turned around and ran him outside at Tucson, Arizona (where the fastest time was a 17.25). He definitely got lost at Tucson! I think he just started paying more attention. He kind of knew what to expect and he started to adjust a lot better. He was just so green when we started off. He's definitely seasoned now!"

SIZE MATTERS IN NEBULIZING

Two scientific tests every horse owner should ask about

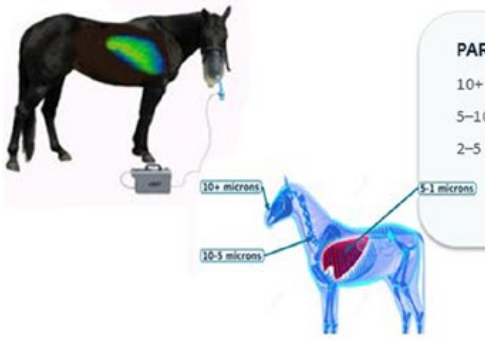

To ensure you are doing the best for your horse, your nebulizer should have these two scientific tests available.*

1 | NUCLEAR SCINTIGRAPHY

A radiopharmaceutical is inhaled, and radiation emitted by the horse is captured by external detectors (gamma camera) to create an image. The distribution and amount of uptake indicate how the lungs are functioning. The scan demonstrates that Equi-Resp ELITE can deliver Silvaplex into the lower respiratory system.

2 | PARTICLE SIZE DISTRIBUTION

Malvern testing (how nebulizers are tested): Equi-Resp ELITE shows a 3.1.94 particle size. Rapid Flo has tested at 2.5 particle size. Smaller particles can travel deeper; our Elite is proven to reach the lungs.

PARTICLE SIZE & AIRWAY REACH

10+ microns | Nasal passages
5–10 microns | Upper airway / trachea
2–5 microns | Lower airway / lungs

EQUI-RESP

Carver and Bling's Smooth Girl Sweep Southeastern Circuit Finals

By Julie Mankin

A pair of roan daughters of Bling's Smooth Guy dominated the Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo this season (he's by A Smooth Guy out of Sarah McDonald Waguespack's NFR mare Fame Fling N Bling).

Kristin Hanchey's mare Smooth Way Ta Heaven ("Mouse") was named the 2026 WPRA Southeastern Circuit Horse of the Year and won Hanchey her first year-end championship despite the mare needing shoulder surgery this year and battling colic.

And Taylor Carver of Broxton, Ga., swept every round and the average of the Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo on Nov. 13-15, in Davie, Fla., to rake in $12,717 on April Snipes' 7-year-old mare Bling's Smooth Girl ("Skittles"). That was despite Carver having to re-run in the first round, 40 minutes after they missed her time. "The first run felt better than the 14.7 on the re-run, but she still won the round," said Carver, 31.

The next night, Carver and Skittles tied Josey Murphy for the win in the second round with a 14.93. And Carver won the third round by her biggest margin yet, with a 14.59, to clinch the average title by a full half-second over Hanchey.

"She's really free and she had gotten by first in the first two runs," said Carver. "The third day, my goal was to get her set up a little better for first. That was her best first barrel all weekend." Carver and Skittles were just two weeks off winning the 2D world title at the NBHA Open World in Perry, Ga., for more than $11,000 (Carver also won the 1D title on Snipes' other 4-year-old mare Fired Up On Vodka).

Immediately after the Circuit Finals, a friend hauled Carver's two Open mares home to Georgia, while Carver got dropped off at the airport in Fort Lauderdale to try to fly to the BFA World Championships. Snipes and another friend had hauled her colts out to Guthrie, Okla. But the FAA grounding played havoc on that plan.

"My connecting flight from Dallas to Oklahoma City was cancelled, so I tried to rent a car but they were booked," said Carver. "Finally, I had to Uber from Dallas to Guthrie, which is a three-and-a-half-hour drive. I got there at 5 a.m. yesterday morning, in time to exhibition."

Her win in Davie marks Carver's second qualification to the NFR Open. She'd made it there three years ago, but also got into Calgary that summer. She had to choose, and ended up going to Canada.

"I'm 100-percent going to Colorado Springs this time, and if I do get into Calgary again, I'll do a lot better job scheduling it," she said. Skittles is out of Violation's Secret – a paternal granddaughter of Special Effort out of an appendix dam. She was bred and raised by Darlene Barlow, for whom Carver trained Skittles before she was sold to Snipes.

"I ran her as a futurity horse and won a lot on her then," Carver said. "She had an injury and was out close to a year, but I've been back on her for a year now. This summer, I took her out West to rodeos for three weeks and she got seasoned and really took to it – we won Casper and she just did really well at the rodeos."

This was Carver's eighth Circuit Finals. She'd placed second a few years ago, and second again last year on another other mare.

"Skittles is just really fast in her turns and really clocks even if she gets by a barrel," said Carver. "She's super light and easy to ride, but you kind of have to gear her down a little bit and guide her to the barrels to get really smooth turns."

As a full-time trainer, it's tricky for Carver to also rodeo during springtime, but she'll prioritize futurities because she has a really nice set of 2027 colts.

"In summer, though, we don't have much around my house that I'm missing, so it's a great time to head West," she said. "Much better weather, too!"

Carver admits her end goal is to make the NFR one day, but said she takes a realistic approach throughout each season.

Austyn Tobey & A Streak Ta The Moon Dominate Great Lakes Circuit Finals, Earn $12,568

By Julie Mankin

After finishing a disappointing 18th in the WPRA world standings this season but having a fantastic Canadian Finals Rodeo, Austyn Tobey of Bemidji, Minn., almost won every round of the Great Lakes Circuit Finals Rodeo in Louisville, Ky., Nov. 12-14.

Riding Haley Bechard's mare A Streak Ta The Moon ("Fragile"), Tobey's 14.99 placed second in the first round before she won Round Two with a 14.83, then also won the third round by a whopping three-tenths of a second with a 14.58.

"It was dang sure the fastest run I've ever made in Freedom Hall and I've won a lot of rounds in that arena," said Tobey, 25, who had a 14-hour drive from home to her circuit finals. "Really, my second run wasn't very pretty. On Saturday, I just tried to smooth it out. I knew it would be faster, but did I think it would beat them by three-tenths? Probably not. That mare's incredible."

The 10-year-old bay roan was trained by Cheyenne Wimberly. She's by A Streak Of Fling and out of Wimberly's great rodeo mare Dash Ta Suz, by Dash Ta Fame out of Six Moon Suz – a maternal granddaughter of Hempen.

In Louisville, Tobey clinched the average title by more than six-tenths of a second over three runs to earn a total of $12,568. She said Fragile's turns are unique and don't necessarily look fast, but really shut off the clock.

"She takes about two steps around each turn and it's a really rough ride," said Tobey. "But she's in and out. If you can stay in the middle, it's fast."

Tobey said she and Bechard, of Florida, both ran Fragile at various times this season. The mare was Tobey's main mount at October's CFR in Edmonton, where they placed in every round and were reserve average champs, earning $65,601.

"The CFR definitely helped us," said Tobey. "Getting to run her all five rounds at the CFR meant I could actually learn the mare, versus just jumping on her here and there. We've just fit like a glove since Day One; I was really confident on her going to Louisville."

In the Great Lakes' year-end standings, Emma Ricke of Lawton, Iowa, edged Tobey by just $272 to win the championship and clinch the other trip to Colorado Springs. This marks Tobey's third straight qualification to the NFR Open.

"I met Haley through our friend Jane Melby," said Tobey, who has a bachelor's degree in chemistry. "She has turned into a great friend and hauling partner."

Tobey's mom used to compete alongside Melby. Having grown up 45 minutes from Melby's arena, Austyn has been riding with her virtually since birth. Last season marked the first time Tobey left the Great Lakes circuit.

Now that she got into this winter's building rodeos, Tobey hopes to keep the momentum going.

After a Record $8.8 Million Season, the Buckles Thank Their Founders and Look Ahead to 2027

Pink Buckle week pays $4,959,750; Ruby Buckle pays $3,921,397 across three events

"The Buckles" have wrapped a record-breaking 2026 season. The ninth annual Pink Buckle, held in Guthrie, Oklahoma, paid out $4,959,750, including the Young Guns League Derby and Futurity, to barrel racers, stallion owners and breeders. Another $3,921,397 went out across the three Ruby Buckle events, bringing the 2026 total to more than $8.8 million.

None of it would be possible without Chad and Tiffany Beus, along with Lance Robinson, who founded Pink Buckle and Ruby Buckle and built them into some of the richest events in the sport. Equine Network completed its acquisition of the programs in April 2026, and the Beuses are now moving into an advisory role.

"Chad, Tiffany and Lance built something special for stallion owners, breeders and contestants. They have shown exceptional dedication and professionalism, and we are honored to carry their legacy forward," said Connie Gentry, Chief Executive Officer, Western Sports Group, Equine Network.

Kourtney Malpartida, Chad and Tiffany's daughter, will continue with Equine Network and will be instrumental in providing continuity across the Pink Buckle and Ruby Buckle programs.

To lead the programs into 2027, Equine Network has promoted two members of the Buckles team.

Kayla Jones — Director, Barrel Racing Programs. Kayla joined Equine Network in February 2025 as Marketing Director for Pink Buckle, Ruby Buckle and the Young Guns League. She brings more than 12 years of barrel racing event production experience as founder of the Colorado Classic Stallion Incentive and host of The Money Barrel Podcast, as well as competing herself. In her new role, Kayla will lead and oversee operations and growth for the Buckles programs. She will also drive strategy for additional barrel racing event opportunities, working closely with the team, contestants, stallion owners and sponsors.

Kylie Sisam — General Manager, Pink Buckle and Ruby Buckle. Kylie has been a key part of the Buckles team for more than five years as Brand Manager and Stallion Coordinator. Her work with stallion owners and across the programs has been integral to their growth, making this promotion a natural next step. As General Manager, she will lead day-to-day operations, continue to manage the stallion program and support the team behind Pink Buckle and Ruby Buckle.

"Kayla and Kylie know these programs, and the people in them, from the inside. With their expertise and the support of their teams, they will keep delivering outstanding experiences for our stallion owners, breeders, contestants, producers, sponsors and stakeholders," Gentry said.

Looking ahead to 2027

The Buckles will pay more than $9 million across Pink Buckle, Ruby Buckle and the Young Guns League in 2027, with new classes, deeper Opens and new opportunities for senior and up-and-coming contestants.

Ruby Buckle returns with more than $3.9 million guaranteed across three regional races:

- Ruby Buckle Central and Horse Sale: April 24–May 2, Lazy E Arena, Guthrie, Okla.
- Ruby Buckle West: June 21–26, Bastian Agricultural Center, South Jordan, Utah
- Ruby Buckle East: Aug. 18–22, Georgia National Fairgrounds & Agricenter, Perry, Ga.

New at every 2027 Ruby Buckle race:

- A new Senior class paying $35,000
- The Open 5D grows to $645,000, paying 20 deep in each D

A Young Guns League side pot at West and East, with $10,000 added at each

New Ruby Buckle side pot: Ruby Buckle is also teaming up with the Minnesota Breeders Futurity in Winona, Minn., in June 2027 on a new side pot for contestants in the northern states, with $30,000 added.

- Pink Buckle returns Oct. 2–10, 2027, at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Okla., with more than $4.5 million guaranteed:

- The Open 5D grows to $1.5 million, paying 25 deep in each D
- A new Limited Rider class in the Derby and the Futurity, paying $35,000 each, for contestants with less than $200,000 in lifetime earnings

The final 2027 nomination deadline is Dec. 1 ($350). Nominate at pinkbuckle.com, therubybuckle.com and younggunsleague.com. All 2027 information, including schedules and class details, will be posted on these websites and on the Pink Buckle, Ruby Buckle and Young Guns League social media pages.

About

About Pink Buckle, Ruby Buckle and the Young Guns League. Founded in 2018, Pink Buckle is a barrel racing stallion incentive program dedicated to growing the number and quality of barrel horses. Its annual Pink Buckle Barrel Race and Select Sale brings together breeders, stallion owners, horse owners and contestants. Ruby Buckle extends that mission through three regional races each year. Pink Buckle and Ruby Buckle offer some of the largest payouts in the sport, with exclusive competition opportunities for eligible offspring of enrolled stallions and payouts for contestants, breeders and stallion owners. The Young Guns League promotes growth and genetic diversity in barrel racing by giving the offspring of young stallions a national platform to compete and earn prize money.

About Equine Network. Led by Tom Winsor, CEO, Equine Network has built the leading commercial platform in the approximately $2.5 billion US equestrian-based sports market, consolidating amateur and semi-professional competitions across Western and English disciplines. The business today comprises approximately 40 owned and operated competitions and more than 800 sanctioned third-party events, generating revenues primarily from events, league-level adjacencies and member services.

Premier Women's Rodeo Expands International Opportunities to Athletes in Australia

Premier Women's Rodeo (PWR) is excited to announce new international partnerships in Australia, creating opportunities for Australian cowgirls to qualify for the 2027 PWR Championship, May 13–16, at Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas.

As part of its expanded international qualification opportunities, PWR has partnered with Top Gun Breakaway Roping, Australia's largest breakaway roping event, taking place January 15–17, 2027, at White Park Complex in Scone, New South Wales. The event will feature a 10-head breakaway roping competition with $3,000 in added money. Champions in the Open, Rookie and Novice divisions will each receive a Partnership Exemption to compete at the 2027 PWR Championship.

"This is an exciting opportunity for Australian breakaway ropers to showcase their talent on one of the biggest stages in the world," said Christine Gall, Founder and Promoter of Top Gun Breakaway Roping. "As Australia's biggest breakaway roping event, Top Gun has always been about growing and elevating our sport, and this partnership with the PWR opens the door for ropers of all levels who wouldn't normally get this chance."

Additionally, PWR is proud to recognize three outstanding Australian bronc riders who have earned Partnership Exemptions through the World's Richest $10,000 Ladies Bronc Ride at Warwick Rodeo & Global International Bronc Match. Charli Simmonds, Tilly Pryor and Hayley Rose have secured opportunities to compete at the 2027 PWR Championship.

"Women's rodeo is growing around the world, and we want Premier Women's Rodeo to be at the forefront of creating opportunities for these incredible athletes," said Linsay Rosser Sumpter, Commissioner of Premier Women's Rodeo. "Providing opportunities to athletes in Australia is about more than bringing international competitors to Fort Worth. It's about opening doors, building relationships and giving talented cowgirls, regardless of where they call home, the opportunity to compete on a world-class stage. We couldn't be more excited to welcome these Australian athletes into the PWR family."

These partnerships mark an exciting step in PWR's continued commitment to growing women's rodeo on an international stage, connecting talented cowgirls across the globe and creating new pathways to compete at the highest level.

About PWR (Premier Women's Rodeo)

PWR is a new women's rodeo brand owned and operated by PBR – the global leader in bull riding and part of TKO – built to become the premier business and competitive platform in women's rodeo. A rebirth of the Women's Rodeo Championships, which launched the Women's Rodeo World Championship in 2020, PWR brings proven momentum, having paid nearly $4.5 million to women athletes, delivered the highest-rated rodeo telecast in history on CBS, and produced the richest women's rodeo event in the world with $1.25 million in payouts in 2025. PWR is the only all-women, multi-discipline championship featuring Breakaway Roping, Barrel Racing, Team Roping, and Goat Tying, with equal payouts across disciplines and a tiered Pro, Challenger, and Limited classification system that creates true competitive parity and accessibility for athletes ages 13 and up. Through year-round qualification via the Virtual Rodeo Qualifier, championship competition in iconic venues alongside the PBR World Finals, and national broadcast exposure, PWR removes traditional barriers while leveraging PBR's unmatched marketing, media, and storytelling power to build star athletes and elevate women's rodeo to a mainstream sports audience.

World Champions Crowned at 2026 WPRA World Finals in Waco

It was an action-packed day at the WPRA World Finals with world titles doled out in the roping division and futurity/derby division.

Winning her 25th WPRA World Title is the only female roper to win over $1 million in WPRA earnings all with a rope in hand, the legend Jackie Crawford. Crawford teamed with all-around hand Haiden Thompson to win the average at the WPRA World Finals on Saturday which landed them both No. 1 in the world. Thompson as the heading world champion and Crawford as the heeler. The 2026 world title is actually Crawford's first on the heeling side having won the heading world title five times (2011, 2014, 2016, 2023 and 2025).

Thompson not only grabbed the team roping heading world title, but she also added a second all-around title to her resume. Thompson is quickly building her resume in the WPRA ranks and will be looking for more as she makes her National Breakaway Finals debut in Fort Worth in December. The Yoder, Wyoming, cowgirl won the all-around title in 2024, followed by the Resistol Rookie breakaway roping title in 2025.

Another past champion grabbing her third tie-down world title was Gracie Gambino. Gambino won the average title as well finishing the weekend with a two-run time of 30.6 seconds.

Winning the world title in the futurity and derby division for the horse aspect was Cadyn Nelson aboard CatchYaOnTheFlipSide (1D futurity world champion), Colleen Vondra riding Im Heavens Bully (Futurity 2D) and Bergan Buesser on Tres Machos (Derby).

Action wraps up in the barrel arena Sunday with the average winner in the ProRodeo barrels being awarded along with the permit only. Full results can be found on wpra.com.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

If we haven't succumbed to the world's way of doing things, by buying Valentine decorations this month, we are eagerly anticipating Thanksgiving! It's kind of become the forgotten holiday. Halloween is surging ahead and it seems we jump straight to Christmas!

As Christians, we are to be a thankful group. We have so much to be thankful for. I'm thankful that I'm not headed for hell. Jesus paid the price so I wouldn't have to. Making Him Lord of my life secured that for me. Romans 10:8-11.

But back to planning ahead. In August, Mike and I ran to Rapid City for an appointment. We went into one of the big box stores and lookie there, Christmas decorations!!! I stopped so fast Mike almost ran into me! What in the world!

Seems like planning ahead has hit an all time high. That's a little early even for me. I love Christmas! There is something we should be planning for 24/7, 12 months of the year. Jesus' return! We are to be looking for Him, planning for Him, expecting Him! The only decoration that that requires is a willing heart. A heart turned to good. A heart of love.

Have a blessed and wonderful Thanksgiving!
