Schelli Creacy & Nico Suave Earn RFD-TV's The American Semifinals Rodeo Berth

By Tanya Randall

"I can't watch that video from Saturday night without crying," said Schelli Creacy, champion of the RFD-TV's The American Semifinals Qualifier in Glen Rose, Texas, thinking of her horse Nico Suave. "I know that was all him, all his effort. All that he was waiting on was for me to sit where I needed to sit. That's the kind of horse he is, if I be the good human and do what he needs me to do."

Creacy, Stephenville, Texas, and the 4-year-old gray gelding were the best of 93-entry field with the fastest time of the BBR Texas Regional Race, a spectacular 14.600. The win in Qualifier paid $2,093, while the carryover win the open was worth $1,161.

"I was pretty proud of my riding Saturday night," said Creacy, the daughter of rodeo contractors Terry and Delia Walls. "That was the first time I sat in the middle of him like he's needed me to on all three barrels and not get in his way. I'm not taking credit for any of it. He's been waiting on me to do it right."

Nico was bred by Creacy's husband, Adrian Mortimer, an Australian cutting horse trainer. The gelding is by noted Western performance horse sire Playgun out of the Australian cutting-bred mare Dennys Little Dawson.

Playgun is the son of Freckles Playboy, who carries the blood of Sugar Bars and Leo through his sire Jewels Leo Bars. He is out of Miss Silver Pistol, who boasts a maternal half-brother to Flit Bar in her pedigree.

Dennys Little Dawson is by Docs Lawson, a son of Doc Spinifex, a son of Doc's Oak that was imported to Australia, and out of a Freckles Playboy, Doc's Oak mare. Her dam Dennys Treasure traces back to Doc Bar and Peppy San Badger on top and was out of foundation Australian Quarter Horse Mare named Sargoods Treasure. Unfortunately, the pedigree tree beyond her is unknown.

Creacy said that Dennys Treasure was one of Mortimer's best cutting horses.

"She was quick and fast," she said. "In fact, he says that's where Nico quickness and quick feet comes from. His grandmother was freakishly fast."

Nico's dam Dennys Little Dawson was trained for cutting and shown a little, but like her son, she got too big to cut on.

"We never dreamed he would be what he is," said Creacy. "Adrian had him on cattle his whole 2-year-old year. He got too big and he never really 'took a hold' like my husband likes them to. He handed him to me."

Creacy didn't know what she was going to do with him. Selling him to a roper was high on the list because he had the size.

"He was just really nice to ride," she said. "He's got a really laid back personality. All I did was keep turning-back on him in the practice pen while my husband was cutting. Of course, everything I have, I trot them around the barrels just to show them the pattern. We had a couple of people come look at him when I first got on him, back in January of 15. We priced him to a couple of people, but they were only half-interested."

"I just kept going with him. I had always wanted a futurity colt and he was the right age. He kind of took to the pattern. He's just so smart. You have to show him the right way you want him to do something the first time because he just picks up on it so quickly. After a couple of months of riding him, I told Adrian that if I ever wanted to futurity this might be my opportunity to do it."

Creacy, who has spent most of her time the past few years with her son Flint's sporting activities, played with the idea of entering Nico in the BEA Juvenile, but with their involvement in the NCHA Futurity, which is held at the same time, she "chickened" out. Diamonds & Dirt in March ended up being the first big test for the gelding.

PRCA Announces 2016 Live Streaming License Agreement with FloSports

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association announced a license agreement with FloSports Nov. 3 to live stream three PRCA events in the coming days and weeks on FloRodeo.com. The RAM Wilderness Circuit Finals Rodeo in Heber City, Utah, will be broadcast live Nov. 3-5 at 7 p.m. MT nightly; the PRCA RAM Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo in Davie Fla., will be live streamed Nov. 10-12 at 7:30 p.m. ET nightly; and the PRCA Citrus Stampede Rodeo in Inverness, Fla., will be featured live and on-demand worldwide Nov. 18-19 at 8 p.m. ET each night.

"There is no more exciting sport than professional rodeo, and we couldn't be happier to partner with the PRCA to bring these competitions to a worldwide audience," said FloSports CEO and co-founder Martin Floreani. "With subscribers from more than 100 countries, we know our audience will love these events, and we look forward to serving millions of die-hard ProRodeo fans."

"The PRCA welcomed the opportunity to license FloSports to provide ProRodeo fans live access to three 2016 PRCA events they can't reach by any other means," said PRCA Commissioner Karl Stressman. "We hope people will enjoy it, both here at home and internationally, as we continue to work to provide more content to satisfy the demands of the greatest sports fans in the world."

To access the live coverage and replays of all events, users must sign up to become FloPRO subscribers on FloRodeo.com. Monthly and annual FloPRO subscriptions are $20 and $150, respectively. Yearly subscribers also gain access to premium content across the FloSports network of sites, including the newest FloSports.com platform, FloRodeo.com. FloSports content is available on all screens now with the recent launch of the FloSports' Roku and Apple TV apps.

PRCA joins forces again with Mexican Federation in co-sanctioning agreement

PRCA Commissioner Karl Stressman and Mexican Rodeo Federation President Guillermo "Memo" Herrera have signed a contract to renew their organizations' co-sanctioning agreement for a second season in 2017.

This most recent contract was signed on Oct. 31 at the Government Palace of Chihuahua, Mexico.

"By continuing to open our doors to the country of Mexico, it will build on a great opportunity for the PRCA to continue to reach a whole new fan base and another source of new members and contestants," Stressman said. "This will also allow our current members the opportunity to continue to compete in another part of North America."

About 15 events are tentatively scheduled - to be capped by a Finals - with the top performers from the regular season and the Finals qualifying for the PRCA's RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Fla.

Herrera said the continued partnership with the PRCA will benefit Mexican contestants, as well as the Federation.

"Signing this second co-sanctioning agreement means a lot more than the first," Herrera said. "It means that the PRCA has approved of the way we work together and the results of the first 'experimetal' season. We plan to exceed 2016's results, and the PRCA's expectations in all aspects - more members, more rodeos and bigger purses. We have learned a lot in the last 12 months."

Herrera said the Mexican contestants who qualify for the RNCFR in Kissimmee - the season leader and the champion from the Finals Rodeo in each event - will benefit from being able to test themselves against the best in the world.

For the second consecutive year, rodeo fans will be able to utilize the complimentary Cowboy Christmas Express for access to the Las Vegas Convention Center, in addition to the nightly round-trip NFR Express service to the Thomas & Mack Center, for the Wrangler NFR. Running Dec. 1-10, the Cowboy Christmas Express will provide round-trip shuttle service from eight hotel properties to the Las Vegas Convention Center. Service commences at 8:30 a.m. and continues to 4:30 p.m. each day from the following hotel partners: Caesars Palace, The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas, Golden Nugget, The Mirage, Monte Carlo, Orleans, South Point and Treasure Island

Contract personnel for 2017 RNCFR announced

The contract personnel for the April 6-9 RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo have been announced.

At the Silver Spurs Arena in Kissimmee, Fla., Bob Tallman of Poolville, Texas, and Roger Mooney of Ellijay, Ga., will handle the announcing duties.

Tallman, a member of the ProRodeo Hall of Fame, will be announcing at the RNCFR for the 10th time in his career. He also announced at the RNCFR in 1987-92, and 2014-16. Mooney will be announcing at his eighth RNCFR, and third in a row.

Jackie Higlin of Rapid City, S.D., is the RNCFR secretary. Higlin worked as both assistant secretary and head secretary at the RNCFR when it was held in Pocatello, Idaho, in recent years. She was the assistant secretary at the RNCFR in Kissimmee last year. Rebecca Martindale of Ganesvoort, N.Y., is the assistant secretary.

Timers are Kim Sutton of Agar, S.D., and Jenny Murray of Wellston, Okla. This will be Sutton's third time as a timer at the RNCFR, to go along with her appearances in 1993 and 2016.

J.J. Harrison is the barrelman, making his first trip to the RNCFR. Bullfighter Kenny Bergeron Jr., of Lawrence, Miss., has worked the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo twice (2010-2011), but this will be his first RNCFR. Fellow bullfighter Scotty Spencer, of Athens, Texas, who has been a PRCA member since 2005, also will be making his RNCFR debut.

Pickup man Jason Bottoms of Corsicana, Texas, returns for the second straight year, and is joined by Brent Sutton of Agar, S.D. Benje Bendele III of Dublin, Texas, is the music director. Bendele has worked more than a dozen RNCFRs, including last year in Kissimmee.

Gerry Byrn of Stephenville, Texas, is the livestock supervisor. This will be his third year in that position.

“About two weeks before, I took him to Glen Rose and entered him for the first time. He cruised through a nice pattern and was in the 3D. He just wasn’t running yet. I took him down the barrel race they had before Diamonds & Dirt and he was in the 1D.

“He ran the fourth fastest time of the whole weekend and placed fourth in the first round at Diamonds & Dirt. I came back in the final round and hit the second barrel, just barely. We got a little preview into how much he could run, but I think more than anything, it’s that move he makes around a barrel. He flattens out and runs hard, but he just has that move around a barrel that you can’t teach them. He’s just a natural at it.

“I haven’t had him get fractious or nervous or off his game. He hasn’t been out of the 1D since Diamonds & Dirt. He’s super honest and wants to give you his whole effort every time he runs. Any mistakes usually made are usually pilot error, and I’ve made plenty.”

After winning the opening round of the WPRC World Finals Futurity, Creacy hit barrels with Nico. So, for Glen Rose, she had her mind made up that she was going to ride Nico like he needed her to.

“He doesn’t anticipate his turns,” she said. “He just wants to get tight and in a hurry. Sometimes he’ll get them on the backside leaving them. That was all I was thinking about Saturday night. Just stay in the middle of him and let him make his turn and ride him around the barrel. I was determined not to get in his way.”

Creacy wanted to thank her husband for all the work he put into Nico. Not only did he start the gelding, but he handles his shoeing as well. He also coaches Creacy through the little details that make such a big difference.

“I’ve just learned so much horsemanship since I’ve been married to him. I have to give a lot of credit to my husband for the way this horse was started and all the detail stuff—the shoeing, the saddle—that I wouldn’t be able to do on my own. He’s the behind the scenes guy.”

Creacy’s also grateful that no one bought Nico when he was for sale.

“I’m very grateful to be his person,” she said. “This horse gives me a lot of peace. I’m pretty dang grateful that we didn’t price him and pawn him off on a team roper! I’m glad that God intervened in that!”

Calli Van Tassell & Kimmie Wall Capture Wilderness Circuit Championships

By Tanya Randall

Newly crowned Wilderness Circuit Finals Champion Calli Van Tassell and first-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Kimmi Wall will be visiting the Sunshine State next spring for the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo.

A rookie member within the WPRA, Van Tassell used two great horses to win the average championship at the Circuit Finals Rodeo, held Nov. 3-5 at Heber City, Utah. The elementary school teacher from Draper, Utah, picked up $5,749.

"I had an awesome week to say the least," said 23-year-old Van Tassell, who wanted to thank her fiancé Uriel Dominguez, her parents and sponsor for their support. "It was a really cool experience." Van Tassell placed in all three rounds and won the average, riding two horses. BH Best Of Fame placed fourth in the first go and dramatically daylighted the field, which included two NFR qualifiers—Wall and Sarah McDonald—to win the third round. She rode Bobbie Jo Scott's Lil Pep O Gold ("Toby") to a fourth-place finish in the second go.

"My first go-round run, I didn't feel great about that run. It was an okay run, but I felt like there were a lot of problems in it," she said. "My second go-round run, it was a great, but there were a couple of things I would have liked to have fixed. In the third round—if you could say any run was a flawless run, it was that one!"

Bred by Fast Fillies of Utah, Fame, a 7-year-old bay gelding is by all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of BH Wyoming Star, by Special Leader. Van Tassell's family was involved with racehorses and Fame was given to her by Bob and Linda Ellison when he was a 4-year-old because he's partially blind in his right eye.

"I didn't run him as a futurity horse because he just wasn't ready," said Van Tassell, who also won the Parker-Wood Memorial Derby with the gelding this year. "I just started running him two years ago about this time. He's still kind of new to all this, but he just took to rodeo life really well."

Van Tassell won the Eagle Mountain, Utah, pro rodeo on her permit over Memorial Weekend at the end of May and purchased her card immediately afterwards.

"I had the least amount of rodeos going in (to the Circuit Finals), but I just went with it," she said. "For a lot of people, things don't happen overnight, but for me it really came together."

ings, she won Filer, Idaho, on Toby and placed with him at Blackfoot, Idaho, and Herriman, Utah, too.

"He's just a really cute, fun little horse," she said of the gelding who also did the lion's share of earning for Vickie Carter during the 2016 season. "He only stands about 14.1. He's just a little package of dynamite. He's super cute!"

Bred by Crossroads Ranch, Inc., in Washington, Toby is a 13-year-old gelding by Snippy Dun It, a son of legendary reining horse sire Hollywood Dun It, out of Miss Melody Badger, by FW Slim San Badger.

Van Tassel said she plans to rodeo quite a bit more in 2017. She only went to 17 this season.

"How much more I go will depend on how well I do," she said.

Kimmie Wall, Roosevelt, Utah, will be making her second trip to Kissimmee, Fla., for the RNCFR, but this time as the yearend champion for the Wilderness Circuit. She picked up $33,699 in her circuit towards her first NFR qualification.

"Julie Herman, our circuit director, and Melissa Taylor did a fabulous job with our Circuit Finals and awards," noted Wall. "They went above and beyond. We just had a great circuit finals. They just made it really special. We just really had a great time this year."

At the Circuit Finals, her homebred mare TKW Bullysfamous Fox was making her first runs back since running at the Pendleton Roundup in early September.

"It was good for her to get a little break," said Wall of the 8-year-old bay mare by Bully Bullion out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Gateway Ta Love. "That's really not her best pen. She doesn't love that pen, but she did good."

The Circuit Finals ended up being more of a celebration for the Wall family before the big event in Las Vegas.

"I had all my family there," she said. "We had a great time. Very seldom do we get to camp out like that and I got to spend time with all my circuit friends."

The event was also pretty emotional for the entire family as the presence of her mother-in-law Dawna, who had passed away May 15, was greatly missed.

"It was pretty emotional for all of us, especially the kids," she said. "It was the first time we've all been together and realized that someone wasn't there. She was the driving force behind all of our dreams; it didn't matter what it was."

Columbia River Circuit Championship Icing on the Cake for Moore

By Hope Sickler

This weekend wrapped up the Columbia River rodeo season when the circuit finals were held in Yakima, Washington. With a total of three go-rounds, contestants had one performance Friday night and two performances on Saturday to make it count. Winning the year-end in the Columbia River Circuit is 2016 NFR qualifier AmberLeigh Moore and her great mare CP Dark Moon "Paige".

"Paige started the season strong and never looked back. She worked outstanding all year and we won some of our biggest circuit rodeos including Union, Oregon, Sisters, Oregon, and Elgin Oregon," explained Moore.

With a long year on the road, Moore opted to give the 7-year-old mare by Darkkelly 2 weeks off in the middle of the summer to ensure that the mare stayed healthy and feeling her absolute best.

"I gave her some time off between Cheyenne and Hermiston and she came back stronger and faster. She has a heart of gold and truly loves her job. I am very grateful to have her as my dance partner." Going into the circuit finals, Moore wanted to give herself the best possible chance to capitalize on the fantastic year that she had. Go-round wins were not her #1 priority but instead, to stay consistent and stay ahead of the pack when it was all said and done.

"Paige was very consistent in Yakima and had 3 very nice runs. We placed in every round and even won the third round. I was very grateful for the runs that she gave me and how solid she stayed, making the same run every round and getting faster every run we made in Yakima," Moore said.

Placing 4th in the first round, 3rd in the second round and then winning the third round with the fastest run of the finals, Moore and "Paige" were the epitome of consistency.

"I am very pleased about the season we had in 2016, not only overall but also in our circuit. I absolutely love the Columbia River Circuit and think we have some of the greatest and toughest rodeos all year. For "Paige" and myself to be able to hang with the tough competition up here is pure joy and winning some of these great rodeos is just icing on the cake."

When asked how she and "Paige" are preparing for their first trip to the NFR in less than a month, Moore stated that "Paige" is getting plenty of trail riding to stay legged up in preparation to make 10 runs in the coveted Thomas and Mack.

Grimes Goes for the Gusto

Veterinarian and veteran barrel racer, Kathy Grimes, is always a force to be reckoned with when it comes to three barrels and a fast horse. Grimes and her main partner in crime, KG Justiceweexpected, swept the tough field barrel racers this past weekend at the Columbia River Circuit Finals when they left Yakima with the average win, guaranteeing herself a spot at the Ram National Circuit Finals the beginning of April. Grimes total time on three runs of 37.04 edged out AmberLeigh Moore's total time on three of 37.35-seconds.

"I was very pleased with how the circuit finals went this year. Last year, "Izzy" and I had good runs in the first two rounds and then in the third round, we broke pattern. After we turned the third barrel, she must have seen something and went on the wrong side of the second barrel running home; right between the barrel and the two women raking the barrel. I couldn't believe it, so you could say I was ready for some redemption this year," laughed Grimes. Grimes and the stunningly beautiful daughter of Judge Cash placed second in the first round, won the second round and finished third in the final round, securing them the average win and a trip to Florida.

"I won the average at the circuit finals in 2014 and that was the first year that they had the RNCF in Florida. I didn't do very well that year so I am anxious and grateful to be given the chance to go back to Florida and get another shot at it. I will be more prepared this time and I will know what to expect."

How can you follow 2016 CFR Action if you're not at the rodeo itself?

Rodeo Canada will be posting event-by-event results throughout the CFR - on their official website www.rodeocanada.com and on their Facebook and Twitter accounts. A nightly news release will also be available for download, and will be sent out to Media.

For the 11th year, 840CFCW Radio will broadcast each performance of the Canadian Finals Rodeo from Northlands Coliseum in Edmonton. And you can also listen to the action this year on 910CFCW in Drumheller. The live broadcasts will begin at 7:30 from Nov. 9-12 with afternoon performances starting at 1pm on Nov. 12-13. Another listening option is via the feed on the 840CFCW website (www.cfcw.com). Join host Tim Ellis and his crew of David Schmidt, Duane Daines, Jenna Verhun, Ted Stovin and Dianne Finstad for all of the action.

Shaw TV will offer delayed television coverage of this year's CFR

in the following locations: Edmonton, Edson, Fort McMurray, Hinton, Lloydminster & Red Deer as well as on the Shaw YouTube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/user/ShawTVEdmonton>

*Please note that CFR will not be available on Shaw Direct

Inaugural ERA Finals Kicks Off Friday

ERA Finals Info; Courtesy of ERA

The inaugural 2016 Elite Rodeo Athletes (ERA) World Championship, a three-day "Live" event taking place on Nov. 11-13 at the American Airlines Center, will also be broadcast across three popular media platforms, including FOX Sports 2 and SiriusXM's Rural Radio, along with Florodeo.com.

Broadcast scheduling for the ERA World Championships:

- FOX Sports 2 – Championship Sunday's Final Round, Monday, Nov. 28(9 p.m. EST)

- SiriusXM Rural Radio (Channel 147) – Live coverage all three days

- www.Florodeo.com (FloSports.com) – Live stream all three days

The $1 million 2016 ERA World Championship is the season-ending event of the 2016 ERA Premier Tour where only the world's best rodeo athletes and livestock compete. After 11 tour stops awarding more than $1.4 million in prize money in its inaugural season, the 2016 ERA Premier Tour culminates with the ERA World Championship which will determine the season's best in bareback riding, saddle bronc riding, bull riding, tie-down roping, team roping, steer wrestling and barrel racing.

Only at the ERA World Championship in Dallas will fans be able to see the world's biggest rodeo stars. Trevor Brazile, the 23-time World Champion; Luke Branquinho, the five-time World Champion Steer Wrestler; Tuf Cooper, the three-time World Champion Tie-Down Roper; Fallon Taylor, the 2014 World Champion Barrel Racer; Derrick Begay and Clay O'Brien Cooper, World Champion Team Ropers and more fan favorites will only compete for world championship titles at the ERA World Championship this season.

The leaders in each event going into Dallas are:

Bareback Riding: Steven Dent (Mullen, Nebraska)

Saddle Bronc Riding: Isaac Diaz (Desdemona, Texas)

Bull Riding: Neil Holmes (Houston, Texas)

Steer Wrestling: Tyler Pearson (Louisville, Mississippi)

Tie-Down Roping: Shane Hanchey (Sulphur, Louisiana)

Team Roping: Derrick Begay (Seba Dalkai, Arizona) and Clay

O'Brien Cooper (Gardnerville, Nevada)

Barrel Racing: Lisa Lockhart (Oelrichs, South Dakota)

The contestant roster for the ERA World Championship represents 135 world titles and will make this week's competition the must-see event of the season.

Tickets for the three-day competition start at $31 and can be purchased online at www.ticketmaster.com, by phone at (800) 745-3000, at the American Airlines Center Box Office or Ticketmaster kiosks located inside Fiesta Foods, Macy's, Walmart, and the Shops at Willow Bend Mall. Tickets subject to additional fees. The competition begins at 7 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 11-12 and at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 13.

BARREL RACING REPORT

The ERA World Championship week will kick off on Nov. 9-10, with "The Last Chance Qualifier," a double-qualifying event taking place at Fair Park in Dallas. A partnership between the ERA World Championship and RFD-TV's THE AMERICAN is offering aspiring rodeo athletes a fast track opportunity into the ERA World Championship and THE AMERICAN's semi-finals, which will be held Feb. 15-17 in Fort Worth, Texas, at Cowtown Coliseum. The Top 2 finishers in each discipline at the Last Chance Qualifier will advance. The Last Chance Qualifier begins at 12 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 9 with barrel racing and steer wrestling. The action begins at 10 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 10, featuring tie down roping, bareback riding, saddle bronc riding and bull riding. Each session is free to the general public.

On Thursday, Nov. 10, Kay Bailey Hutchison Convention Center will open its doors for the ERA Expo, the ultimate fan experience offering a western shopping mall with 100 vendors and live country music. It will be free to the general public and provide plenty of opportunities for fans to meet their favorite cowboys, get autographs and take pictures. Anthony Lucia, the voice of the ERA Premier Tour, will also be on site with his show Live with Lucia for a little "real talk with real cowboys" for fans to enjoy. For more information on the Expo go to www.eradallas.com.

Tour stop #11 in Sheridan, WY will air Monday, November 21 at 9 pm ET on FOX Sports 2. For more information about the 2016 ERA World Championship and the ERA Premier Tour, visit www.erarodeo.com.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

When you read this, we will have a new president. For better or for worse. What now? Pray.

In all the media frenzy of the last months, it has become so easy to get caught up in the fray. But.....when the smoke clears and we refocus on what is right, we will be amazed at just how distracted some of us have become. Did you know that neither Donald nor Hilary can heal our bodies? But God can. He sent Jesus so that "by His stripes, we are healed." I Pet. 2:24. And did you know that Donald and Hilary cannot meet our needs. But God can. He promised us in Phil. 4:19 "and my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." And Donald and Hilary cannot protect us. But God can. Read the whole of Psalm 91.

But the best thing of all is.....God never lies. We can count on Him in EVERY part of our lives.

I doubt we could say the same about whoever is now president.

Let's return God to His rightful place in our lives from this moment on.....FIRST place.
