Lightning Strikes Twice – Smalygo & Justaheartbeattofame Dominate Championship Sunday at Rodeo Houston

By Tanya Randall

Her peers knew it, and a lot of diehard fans knew it, too. It wasn't a matter of if, it was when Leslie Smalygo and Justaheartbeattofame would take Rodeo Houston, held February 27 to March 17 at NRG Stadium.

After two dominating runs on Championship Sunday, Smalygo and "Gus" took home the $50,000 top prize for winning the crown jewel of the winter rodeo run.

"It still doesn't seem real," Smalygo said.

She pocketed $58,000 total from the $242,000 guaranteed purse to take over the No. 1 spot in the WPRA World Standings with $67,213. The boost in the standings means her 14-year-old partner hopefully won't have to run his legs off for a second National Finals Rodeo qualification.

"It means I can pick the pens he likes and keep him a little more fresh for the year, which I couldn't last year," she said. "I can capitalize on my runs without having him fatigued all the time."

After making the NFR in 2022, Smalygo missed the 2023 NFR, finishing 21st in the WPRA World Standing with just $7,000 more than she has just six months into the 2024 season. The late season push to qualify the 2022 NFR also gave Gus—her only rodeo horse—very little recovery time for last year's winter rodeos.

"Last year was kind of a sophomore slump," she said. "He didn't get much rest after the NFR. This year, I stopped in October and didn't touch him again until December."

Heading into Rodeo Houston, Smalygo was sitting 43rd in the Standings with $9,213. After running in the small indoors, Gus was more than ready to take on Rodeo Houston with an arena setup tailor made for him.

"There's no fences. It's just wide open," she explained. "Fences shut him down quicker and make him a lot tighter than he already is. He felt comfortable there."

Smalygo also had a different approach after failing to advance at last year's rodeo.

"I was so nervous last year because Houston is so big and the pattern is so small," she said. "It's like the NFR.

You run through those bucking chutes, it's a hard right, blind entry. I was worried about finding the first barrel. This year, I was like whatever happens is going to happen. I never once got nervous. I was just having fun the whole time."

Lightning Strikes Twice

She and Gus had a lot of fun, never finishing lower than third on any of their six runs in the tournament-style rodeo.

On their first run, Smalygo got her hand tangled in Gus's mane running to the third barrel.

"I just decided that I was going to whip because he was going to turn," she said. "So I whipped, he turned, and on the way back, I got my reins."

Their 14.70 was good enough for second.

On the next run, Gus went nearly down to his hip turning the second barrel, but they still placed third with their slowest time of the rodeo, a 14.85.

By their last run of the Super Series, everything was in order, and they clocked a 14.61, the third fastest time of the six rounds of competition thus far. They were the champions of their Super Series, earning $6,000 and a trophy guitar.

Nearly two weeks later in the 23-day rodeo, Smalygo and Gus turned in a 14.76 to take second in the semifinals and earn a spot for the championship round.

The Championship Round whittles the last 10 barrel racers down to the four Shootout qualifiers. Smalygo and Gus were first out in the "long round" and posted an incredible 14.51.

"My long-go run, I was like 'Oh my gosh! He just ran a .51!' I thought he had given me everything he had. He had perfect barrels. I don't know if we have anything left in the tank," she said.

Before the Shootout she told her husband Glenn, who had taken off from work to stay with her through the rodeo, that it was a great day to win $50,000 but she was just ecstatic making it to the final run.

Then she found out from rodeo producer Binion Cervi that she was going to be first out on the ground again for the Shootout. She was so surprised that she had to ask him again if he was sure.

"That never happens!" she exclaimed. "I never have top of the ground!"

With just 45 minutes between the two runs, Smalygo's biggest concern was if Gus was fit enough to make another run.

"He likes to run twice in one day, but I didn't know what he had left in his tank," she said. "He did not let me hold him in the alley and he took off. I was like, 'OK!' I just started kicking. It didn't seem as clean as the first run, but he powered and ran so much

HELLO HOUSTON

Rodeo Houston is the richest rodeo of the winter run. The limited entry rodeo is limited to 40 entries with the majority coming from the Top 30 in the 2023 WPRA World Standings. They also include the top two finishers from the Cardholder's Race at the WPRA World Finals that haven't already qualified as well as the winners of two surrounding county events: the Waller County Fair in Rodeo in Hempstead, Texas, and Fort Bend County Fair & Rodeo in Rosenberg, Texas.

The field of 40 is split into five Super Series of eight contestants. Each Super Series has three rounds and pays six holes deep. The top four on money won in each series advancing to one of two Semifinals. The top four in each Semifinals advance to the Championship Round, while the remaining Semifinalist have one more shot through one of two Wildcard rounds. The winner of each Wildcard makes up the Championship Round's field of 10.

On the last day of the rodeo, the top 4 from the Championship Round will make a final run in the Shootout with its top prize of $50,000.

harder."

Initially, she thought they ran a 15.35, not a 14.35, the fastest time of the entire rodeo.

"I thought, 'Well, I guess I just screwed that up!'" she chuckled. "Everyone was screaming. I looked at the screen on the TV in the back, and it said 14.35 and I was like 'No way!' I held my breath the whole time.

When neither Paige Jones, Megan McLeod-Sprague nor Lisa Lockhart could out run her, she broke into tears.

"I did not think that was going to happen," she said, lamenting how unlikely it was to make two incredible runs like that back to back. "Lightning doesn't strike twice for me, it just doesn't."

Heart Of A Warrior

It actually has once before, when she stumbled across a line of horses that would change her life.

Smalygo wasn't looking for any specific prospect while looking at racehorses for sale on the Internet, but a gelding by Justaheartofawarrior, a son of Lanes Leinster, out of Yawl A Fame Maker, by Dash Ta Fame, caught her eye.

"I didn't really know what I wanted or what worked for me, but I heard that the Dash Ta Fames were really good and the Lanes Leinsters were really good. This combo could work," she said.

She flew to Utah to try Alotaheartabifame, even though her father Tom Foster advised her not to buy the horse.

"He was only track broke, but he did everything I asked," she recalled. "I paid $4,000 for him and brought him home."

"Hurley" was a natural on the barrels.

"He was like Gus," she said. "Show him once and that's just the way it is. He was so easy. He went straight into the 1D the first time I entered him after three weeks of training. I got offered a bunch of money for him four months after I bought him. I sold him because I wanted to pay off my debts."

Smalygo also knew Bart and Vicki Amsler had the gelding's younger full brother, Gus, whom she bought when his track career ended.

Gus, too, was a quick study, winning early on with little training. "We just melted together," she said. "It's been like that from the first time I put a saddle on him. We have so much feel for each other."

After a couple of years of dominating the amateur rodeo circuit—they won one year by more than $14,000—Smalygo decided to buy her WPRA card in 2019.

"The first two years I only did the circuit to learn how to do the books and to learn if I even wanted to stay on the road, if this was something I really wanted to do," said Smalygo, the 2021 Prairie Circuit Champion. "The third year, I was like, 'We're going to venture out a little farther.' That was the year I made the NFR."

Smalygo is well on the way in her quest for a second NFR berth, thanks to Gus.

"He knows me inside and out and I know him like the back of my hand," she said. "When I run him, I'm not nervous anymore. I have more confidence in him than I do myself. He's helped my confidence, knowing that he's going to do his job regardless."

Rookie Sadie Miller Notches Big Win in Montgomery

By Tanya Randall

WPRA Rookie Sadie Miller got her first pro rodeo win at the $10,000-added Southeastern Livestock Exposition in Montgomery, Alabama, over March 15-17.

The 20-year-old from Jonesboro, Arkansas, and her 13-year-old gelding Runaway Frenchman ("Dakota") turned in a 14.48 to win $4,190 at rodeo where a mere two hundredths of a second separated first through third.

Miller made her winning run in slack, which she said helps her with Dakota, who she purchased last September.

"Because he is so new to me, I was able to get a calm, smooth run because there wasn't a crowd," she explained. "When there is a crowd, he's ready to roll. I think slack helped me this time. He just really took care of me. He's been really great. He's very confident, which makes me confident. He let me put him in spots and he just did what he was supposed to do and clocked really well."

Unlike many of her fellow rookie contenders, Miller did not grow up in a horse family. While her mother had limited experience when she was a child, Miller's biggest exposure to horses was through movies and television.

"I always wanted a pony," she said. "I wanted to be a cowgirl. I thought they looked really cool. I've always loved animals, so I was naturally drawn to horses."

She suspects she had to wait until her four older brothers were done with their sporting activities and out of the house before her parents Nate and Joy took the deep dive into horses.

"I didn't start riding until I was 10 or 11," Miller recalled. "I didn't have very good horsemanship skills. I begged my mom to take me for lessons. Then, we got my first low four-figure horse. He ran 20-second patterns and taught me the ropes of barrel racing. I just did local shows and never ventured further than two hours

Her interest in the sport went into high gear about five years ago. "In 2019, I really started getting into it," she said. "At the time, I probably couldn't have told you the names of two pro barrel racers. Then we went to the NFR to watch. We enjoyed it, and my dad asked if I ever would like to compete like this? I said, 'Absolutely not!'"

Her junior year of high school her barrel racing goals changed dramatically when her family purchased Ona French Bound Jet ("Chester"), a 2014 gelding by Frenchmans Feature out of Honor Bound Rose, by Mr Honor Bound.

"I just wanted a step up horse for those local horse shows, and he ended up being about a million steps up," she laughed. "He showed me how fun barrel racing was when you go super-fast. If it wasn't for him, I don't think I ever would have started pro rodeo." Winning changed her outlook on the sport.

"I started watching and trying to get better, seeing what the pro girls were doing," she said. "I thought it looked like so much fun. I finally got to where I just wanted to practice and not go to college and rodeo instead."

Miller filled her WPRA permit two years ago on Chester at a jackpot but waited to buy her first card until the 2024 season. Prior to the start of the 2023 season in October 2022, Chester had injured his hock, so she started looking for another.

"I decided to wait another year so I could find another pro rodeo horse, so he could heal," she said. "I didn't want to just take off with my one horse because I didn't think that was fair to him."

It took until September 2023 to find the horse they were looking for.

Miller had contacted her friend Cayla Cory, asking her to keep an eye out for a pro rodeo caliber horse that "was going to be confident" because she had never rodeoed before. In turn, Cory had messaged Dee Ratliff, who just happened to have Dakota who fit the bill perfectly.

Bred by John and Lis Hollmann, Dakota is by NFR Sire Firewater Frenchman out of the Mr Sun O Lena, Runaway Winner mare Payla Pinta.

"We drove down to Texas to try him, and I knew immediately that I wanted to buy him," Miller said.

A rodeo rookie in the truest sense—her only rodeo experience was through the American Contender Tournament Eastern Regional and Wild Card Round in Arlington, but she'd never been in a performance. It was imperative that she have a horse that knew enough to make up for what she didn't.

They made their pro rodeo debut at Hempstead, Texas, and picked up nearly $1,300 at their second rodeo in Bellville, Texas, a week later. Since then they've placed at Marshall, Texas, Lake City and

SPONSORS: Master Saddles, Troxel, Haygain Hay Steamers, Hot Headstalls, Barrel Bling

THANKS: "The rodeo committee in Montgomery, Alabama, was phenomenal," she said. "We showed up there late and had no idea that we couldn't build pens and had to get stalls. A guy named Charlie came and helped us get some stalls. Dakota is a very buddy sour horse, like intensely so. The horses would not be able to see each other through the stall and Charlie actually got a hammer and took those boards out for us. So a huge shout out to Charlie!"

Okeechobee, Florida, and they got their first win in Montgomery.

"It's been going pretty good," she said. "If it wasn't for him this would look a lot different."

While Miller would like to finish in the Top 30 of the WPRA World Standings, her first goal is to take the year to learn and improve herself.

"My plan for my rookie year is to come out of it a much better rider than when I started. That's my biggest goal—to improve there and get some better horsemanship. Those pro girls can do amazing things. They're such good riders. I want to be able to ride like that."

 Sadie Miller sits #4 in the 2024 WPRA Rookie standings with $8,619 as of 3/19/24.

Phillips & VF Expensive Taste Masterful in Mercedes

Abby Phillips has been winning at the prorodeos for a number of years now so if you have been following prorodeo very closely you have most likely seen her name toward the top of the results in rodeos across Texas and the surrounding states. The addition of VF Expensive Taste last summer with her on the rodeo trail has pushed her into the #7 position in the WPRA Standings after Rodeo Houston. Phillips started and trained Andi and now they are winning at the rodeos. This exciting team won the very tough rodeo at Mercedes, TX to keep them on pace to qualify to the 2024 NFR. This team has been winning through the whole 2024 rodeo season so far so we caught up with Phillips to ask her about her plans and her amazing mare!

BRR: Can you walk us through your winning run at Mercedes?

Phillips: My mare was so correct and responsive in that run and really allowed me to place her to win. She had a winning mindset from the moment I stepped on her that morning! I knew she had something big planned!

BRR: You have done really well throughout the winter and are sitting high up in the standings (#7 as of 3/19), what are your plans through this spring?

Phillips: It's been a dream start to the season and we definitely have plans to keep rodeoing hard in hopes of clinching our first Nationals Finals Rodeo qualification.

BRR: I know you started placing on VF Expensive Taste last year and it just seems like your partnership gets better and better. What have been the keys to that?

Phillips: I think experience as a team is definitely helping us to keep raising the bar. This winter has brought a lot of success and failures in a way, but I've learned a lot about my mare and how to help her in certain situations. She has a winning mindset, so when something is going wrong I've learned it's usually an adjustment I need to make on my end.

BRR: Your mare is just 7 years old, is there anything extra you do to keep her in the right mindset at the rodeos?

Phillips: Keeping her happy and wanting to do her job is always something I remind myself of. I fully believe when a horse wants to win, it's hard to beat them. Andi is very strong willed in whatever she does so I've found it's definitely easier to put all her energy towards being great at something. When she's confident there's not much she will back down from. She really is an incredible athlete who has helped me become a better rider and competitor.

BRR: I know you have been running and winning at prorodeos for a number of years now. What have you learned over those years that you feel makes it easier to win now?

Phillips: I think with experience you learn a lot about yourself as a competitor. I've worked a lot on my mental game and I do think it's been a big key to our success this year. A lot of people are afraid of failure, but I think rock bottom teaches us some of our most important lessons.

BRR: How do you mentally prepare for big runs like this weekend prior to entering the arena?

Phillips: Going into big runs like this weekend I try to just be as prepared as I can. I think confidence comes from knowing you and your horse are ready, and all the hard work has been done. It's no fun being in the alley and not feeling 100% about the situation ahead of you.

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Phillips: 1 My dog Duke, he's my buddy; 2 Lifesaver gummies; 3 AirPods. . . my friends will understand that one. LOL

Frenchmans Guy Inducted into AQHA Hall Of Fame

On Saturday, March 16, 2024 during the 2024 AQHA (American Quarter Horse Association) Convention in Las Vegas, NV, leading barrel horse sire Frenchmans Guy joined Shining Spark and Blue Valentine as the three horses in the 2024 AQHA Hall Of Fame Class. Along with the three horses, three men were also inducted; Dr. Jim Heird, JD Yates and Paul Jones.

Frenchmans Guy's journey to the AQHA Hall Of Fame started on June 1, 1987 when he was born in South Dakota to breeders James & Francis Louiseu. Frenchmans Guy was destined for greatness from the start as both his sire, Sun Frost and second dam Casey's Ladylove are both already in the AQHA Hall Of Fame. However, Frenchmans Guy was set to make his own mark in the quarter horse world. He found his way to the Myers family close to St Onge, SD as a weanling and the rest, as they say, is history.

After running and winning himself at futurities and rodeos in barrel racing the spunky palomino stallion started to produce winners in his very first crop of colts. Since then, Frenchmans Guy has sired champions in barrel racing along with nearly every performance horse event. As a true all around quarter horse sire, his get and grandget are also calf roping horses, team roping horses, steer wrestling and hazing horses and pole bending horses at the highest levels. Along with this he has even produced a race winner and grandget that competed in the reined cow horse pen.

Frenchmans Guy's sire career coincided with an exciting growth in the barrel racing industry. His offspring went on to win most all the major barrel racing futurities and derbies throughout the country while he maintained his position near or at the top of the leading sires list every year. This made him a cornerstone in the barrel horse breeding industry. His sons and daughters were in high demand throughout his career and their sales pushed the industry to new heights in the sale ring.

According to QData, his progeny have $13.2 Million in earnings as of 3/19/24. His sire career started in the 90s when the barrel racing results were just starting to be tracked and only most major events were tracked. Many of his roping horses, steer wrestling and hazing horses rodeos earnings aren't included at all so it would be very difficult to estimate a real progeny earnings total for Frenchmans Guy.

Frenchmans Guy's leading earner is NFR Qualifier Morning Traffic, earner of $483,197 during her career; his second leading earner is NFR Qualifier Teasin Dat Guy, earner of $428,324; his third leading earner is futurity, derby, and rodeo champion Bring It On Guys, earner of $336,582; his fourth leading earner is another NFR Qualifier Guys French Jet, earner of $289,212; and his fifth leading earner is futurity and derby champion Guys Dashing Jet, earner of $252,938. (All data via QData)

Throughout his sire career, Frenchmans Guy has been known for the variety of riders his offspring could fit along with their long performance careers. His get routinely won at the highest level with kids all the way up to professional trainers and many times they would pick up checks into their 20s.

As a testament to his sturdy, correct build Frenchmans Guy lived to be 34 years old, passing away August 13, 2021 at Myer Performance Horses in St Onge, SD where he had spent most of those 34 years. The elegance, speed and quickness he carried himself with and passed on to his offspring will be seen in the performance events for years and years to come.

Announcing the Young Guns League!

Stallions in a league of their own.

Pink & Ruby Buckles are pleased to present this developmental league for up and coming stallions! We are offering this option to Pink/Ruby stallion owners as a way to strengthen their breeding programs and continue to have a marketing advantage within the industry.

The first-ever Young Guns League 2D Derby & 2D Futurity will be held in conjunction with the Pink Buckle Barrel Race at the Lazy E Arena! The $250,000 2D Derby will have 2 rounds and be held Oct 6 & 7. The $250,000 2D Futurity will have 2 rounds and be held Oct 8 & 10.

The mission is to encourage growth and genetic diversity within the barrel racing industry through the promotion of young stallions' progeny. The ultimate goal is to cultivate a proving ground for young stallions' progeny that allows them to compete on a national platform and amass earnings without having to compete against established stallions' progeny.

Young Gun Stallions can only be enrolled for a limited timeframe. A stallion is eligible for enrollment until his oldest foal crop turns 8 years old. After the stallion's first foal crop has reached 8 years old, he can no longer be considered a 'Young Guns' stallion. Thus, 'aging out' of the program.

The competition is limited to Futurity and Derby aged offspring. Young Guns stallions' offspring compete against other Young Guns stallions' offspring only.

Nominations are due yearly for $200 by Aug 1. All horses need to be nominated yearly to be eligible to compete starting from the year of birth or the year the Young Guns stallion enters the program. As long as your horse is nominated yearly, they will be eligible to compete in the YG 2D Futurity and 2D Derby. Additionally, Young Guns nominated horses are eligible to compete in the Double Down program which is a way for Pink Buckle, Ruby Buckle and Young Guns League nominated horses to win money in Open races, regionally. Both pinkbuckle.com and therubybuckle.com have all the Double Down information.

We encourage interested stallion owners to reach out to a current Pink or Ruby Stallion owner to see if they plan on enrolling a stallion themselves. If they are not, you can negotiate with them to use their position. If you are unsuccessful securing a position, please reach back out to us via email with your stallion's name and age of oldest offspring. Once the contract deadline has passed (April 1) we will review our list and reach out to those we have a position for. FMI office@younggunsleague.com

AQHA Hall Of Fame Class of 2024

Induction into the American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame is the highest honor bestowed by the American Quarter Horse Foundation. This year, we will induct three horses and three men in the Class of 2024: Frenchmans Guy, Blue Valentine, Shining Spark, Dr. Jim Heird, J.D. Yates and Paul Jones.

Frenchmans Guy

Foaled in 1987, Frenchmans Guy quickly made his mark in the American Quarter Horse world. While his performance record predates any modern-day recordkeeping system, his progeny and grand progeny have been at the top of the charts for the past three decades. By Sun Frost and out of Frenchmans Lady by Laughing Boy, Frenchmans Guy sired 1,969 American Quarter Horse foals that have earned more than $13 million and 2,528 AQHA points, mostly in barrel racing. His top-three leading progeny are Morning Traffic ($482,697 LTE), Teasin Dat Guy ($426,052 LTE) and Bring It On Guys ($323,718 LTE).

Blue Valentine

In the 1950s and '60s, it would have been hard to predict the effect that Blue Valentine, a hardy blue roan Joe Hancock-bred ranch stallion, would have on the American Quarter Horse industry. But hindsight being what it is, we know that even though Blue Valentine only sired 210 registered American Quarter Horses, his influence is still seen in the breed nearly 70 years later. "Blue" passed on his speed, good bone, gentle disposition, longevity and cow savvy. Few horses have made such an impact that their reputation outlives them by more than a few generations.

Shining Spark

His progeny earned more than 39,000 AQHA points, 40 AQHA world championships and more than $10 million, mostly in National Reined Cow Horse and National Reining Horse association competition. Shining Spark had the spark that ignited a bloodline that set new standards in value. By Genuine Doc and out of the American Quarter Horse Hall of Famer Diamonds Sparkle, Shining Spark was NRCHA's all-time leading sire from 2003 to 2020, and that association's first $3 million sire. Of his 1,411 American Quarter Horse foals, Shining Spark's top-three foals by earnings are Shining N Sassy ($259,262 LTE), Shine By The Bay ($178,699 LTE) and A Shiner Named Sioux ($161,891 LTE). This is his third equine industry hall of fame induction.

Dr. Jim Heird

Jim Heird grew up in East Tennessee, the son of a tobacco farmer, who, up into the 1960s, still plowed his fields with mules. But it was horses, not mules, that inspired Jim. He was 13 when he saw his first American Quarter Horse. That love of horses charted the course of Jim's career in academia, but also in the American Quarter Horse industry. He was an AQHA director for Colorado in 2009 and became a director for Texas in 2011. He has served on the judges, international and show committees, show council and AQHA Animal Welfare Commission; and was the chairman of the judges committee, 1989-1991; show committee, 2008-2010; international committee, 2013-2015; show council, 2008-2011; and commissioner of the Animal Welfare Commission, 2011-2015. He was elected to the AQHA Executive Committee in 2015 and served as AQHA president in 2018.

J.D. Yates

J. D. Yates holds the distinction as the youngest man in history to qualify for the prestigious National Finals Rodeo at the age of 15. He has won more than $1.6 million in professional rodeo, qualified for the NFR 21 times, the National Finals Steer Roping 11 times, has 47 AQHA world championships under his belt and has had a hand in the making of several AQHA Superhorses. One has to wonder what J. D.'s favorite win has been. "The next one," he says every single time he's asked. Roping is a sport that was shared with J. D. by his dad, Dick, and now J. D. is sharing it with his son, Trey, who has qualified for the NFR three times. Success is in this family's genes.

Paul Jones

Paul Jones, the only racing trainer to win 14-straight AQHA champion racing trainer titles, has 4,436 wins and 460 stakes wins, and his horses have won more than $89 million. His career highlights include winning the All American Futurity three times (Teller Cartel, No Secrets Here and Running Brook Gal), the Champion of Champions six times (Whosleavingwho, The Down Side, Cash For Kas, Wave Carver, Good Reason SA and Rylees Boy) and the Los Al Two Million two times (A Reagal Choice and Good Reason SA). "Paul has dominated many racing categories, but his main goal is to accomplish what is best for his owners and his horses," says his wife, Marin Jones. "He knows his horses intimately, without even looking at their name tags."

Make plans to join us to celebrate the Class of 2024 at the 2024 American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame Induction & Reunion Celebration September 6-7 in Amarillo, Texas. HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

When was the last time you read the Bill of Rights? Or our Constitution? I think it was 8th grade for me. I'm sure I've forgotten most of it. Until now. Here we are in the U.S. And oh, the turmoil. And the lies. How do we keep from believing the lies? We must KNOW what the truth is! John 8:32.

It's the same with the word of God. If we don't read our Bible and know what it says, the devil, who is the father of all lies, can lead us around by the nose and wreak havoc in our lives. John 8:44.

Why would we let that happen? Laziness. It's so easy to let someone do our thinking for us. But if we read the Bible, AND DO WHAT IT SAYS, it is very difficult for the devil to gain any ground. And when we wield the sword of the Spirit, we are on the offensive and we gain ground. Eph. 6:13-18. That's where we need to be!

We can be victorious against whatever the enemy tries to do. In our country and in our church! Let's be informed, obedient, watchful, and wise. And happy spring!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
