DaCota Monk & TNR WannaSeeMeCanCan Collect $47,100 at Royal Crown Futurity

by Tanya Randall

DaCota Monk and TNR WannaSeeMeCanCan, owned by Billy and Suzonne Franks, captured their fifth futurity title with a $24,946 Championship in the $75,000-added Royal Crown Futurity, held May 21-28 at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City.

Monk and Can Can, a 4-year-old mare, also finished second in the $10,000-added South Valley Equine Open Futurity for $6,715, second in the Breeders Challenge Qualifier Futurity for $5,572, third in the $2,500-added Open Slot Race for $4,271 and third in the Breeders Challenge Open Qualifier on Sunday for $2,861. They also picked up open checks totaling $2,723 for a $47,088 event haul.

Of that total, $4,969 went to connections of Can Can's sire, Eddie Stinson, and $2,257 went to Victory Farms, who owned her dam Chase This Ivory, by Ivory James. Niki Saggione, who owned the mare prior to the Franks, earned $843 for nominating her to the Breeders Challenge.

Monk and Can Can, who came into the Royal Crown with $112,819 in career earnings according to QData, had previously won the BBR World Finals Futurity, which was held in Barn 8 of the fairgrounds. Thankfully, the Royal Crown crew basically turned the Barn 6 arena into a similar set up. Their winged alley and holding pens eliminated the ramp into the arena.

"I liked that set up a lot," said Monk. "I don't like it (the normal downhill run of Barn 6) for any horse, but for babies especially, it's not good for them to run down a hill to a blind first barrel.

"We like to watch too, even if they don't let you all in, if you happen to be in there you can. They had it to where you could come up back behind the holding pen if you wanted to watch a certain horse. "The ground was really good. I've never been a fan of Barn 6, but I'm a fan of it now!"

Monk also enjoyed the extra exhibition time provided by the Royal Crown. He said it was vital after Can Can's "wild" experience at the Old Fort Days Futurity in Fort Smith, Arkansas, the week prior.

"I wanted her to do really well at Fort Smith, but it wasn't in the cards for us," said Monk. Initially, it looked like Can Can would miss the historic futurity with an abscess, but luckily it blew in time for her to make her runs.

"She ended up tenth in the Finals," said Monk. "She was super excited to be running, I think, because we were a little wild at Fort Smith, especially for her."

Thankfully, Monk knew that Can Can would like the setup since she had won in something similar.

"I knew that the set up was perfect for her," he said. "I just needed to trust her at the first barrel, and I really didn't the first run. That really made me mad. She wants me to hold her line to the first, but she also wants to get in there sooner than most horses to nail the first. Sometimes I hold the line too long. If I do, she'll go by it a little bit or turn it normal instead of that crazy snap back that she does."

Monk also knew he had to be aggressive to the second on the hard turning mare.

"Anytime there are big walls she's even harder to get around the second because she sets so hard and turns hard. I knew after I got around the first, I needed to be really aggressive to get her around the second. I'm glad I did because we barely squeaked around it. She's pretty easy at the third, but we rocked it. I really had to ride

“I’m always wanting to be clean to win the average, but I figured if I hit the first barrel going for it, oh well...,” said Monk, who was secretly hoping to run a 14.6. “I knew I needed to go to the saddle horn as soon as we reached the timer, so she’d set up and find the first barrel. I trusted her but I panicked a little bit. That’s why I leaned into the barrel a little bit. We squeaked around it. Thank God! She snapped around it. It was a really fast first barrel. “I knew I needed to be really aggressive around the second. I’ve never smooched around a barrel, but I was smooching the whole time trying to keep her going up and around. She was even tighter at the second.

“Once she smoked those two, I was like, ‘We can’t hit the third!’ In one of the videos, you can see I really stepped her out for a huge pocket at the third, which she doesn’t need. I was just trying to be clean. I think that’s what cost us our .6.”

Their 14.707 was second behind Mark Bugni and Five L Rockin Heaven’s 14.628, the fastest time of the event.

“I knew it was going to be fast, but I was still super shocked,” he said. “She’s just a freak. Her feet never quit moving. She’s just so quick and so fast and so fun.”

Sharin Hall & Hello Stella Dominate Royal Crown's Oklahoma City Derby & Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

Veteran barrel horse trainer Sharin Hall and her homebred superstar Hello Stella dominated the Royal Crown event, held May 21-28 in Barn 6 at the State Fairgrounds in Oklahoma City.

The duo from Pilot Point, Texas, claimed an impressive $55,558. They swept both rounds of the $50,000-added Royal Crown Derby for $24,356. The fastest of their two runs, a 14.653, won the $2,500-added Open Slot Race for $6,519. Their first round winning time of 14.693 swept the Open and Royal Crown Open on Friday for $6,319. They were second in both Opens on Sunday for $4,538.

Of the $55,558, additional incentive purses accounted for $13,826. They were first and second in the two open qualifying races for the Breeders Challenge Finale, earning $9871. A victory in Tomorrow's Legends and Future Fortunes open race bonuses awarded $1,875 and $2080, respectively.

While all the earnings will be awarded to Stella for database purposes, $6,264 went to the Jarvis family on behalf of their stallion The Goodbye Lane, Stella's sire. In addition to the owner purses, Hall collected $4,665 in breeder and nominator earnings.

Hall also wanted to give a shout out to her "therapy" team for helping manage her chronic shoulder injuries.

"I have literally been doing physical therapy on both of my shoulders since February of last year," she said. "When Stella got hurt last summer, I worked on myself. BioAdvance Medical Center really did me a lot of good. They did my stem cell therapy. Freedom Health Center in McKinney, Texas, has done all my physical therapy and rehab. It's made a huge difference."

now has more than $811,000 in career earnings.

"I had no idea it was that much money," said Hall. "I literally cannot believe that. Royal Crown has great paying events and they're so accommodating."

Hall admitted to being on the "struggle bus" for about six weeks leading up to the Royal Crown.

"I have some bad luck, but it's OK!" said Hall. "This is part of barrel racing. Those runs are what pushes me to get what I got at Royal Crown."

At the Old Fort Days Super Derby, just the week before in Fort Smith, Arkansas, Stella stumbled going into the second barrel in the Finals after posting the fastest qualifying time.

"She literally caught her left front foot with her left hind going into it," Hall explained. "When she caught herself, she powered forward and threw that right front way out there to keep us from going down."

Even after doing therapy on the mare all week, Hall almost didn't run at the Royal Crown because of the bumps and bruises from the stumble.

"I decided to get on her and see how she felt," she said. "If she feels sound and doesn't give me any signs that she's hurting, I'll run her. Then she goes in there and does that! Holy moly!"

After setting the all-time futurity earnings record at $445,029 (EquiStat) as a 4-year-old, Stella was out about six months during her first derby year with an Achilles tendon injury.

"When she got hurt last year, I asked my vet 'What am I going to have?' He told me 95 percent. I feel like I've brought her back and she's 100 percent," Hall said, who credits the ReVita Vet Laser and shockwave therapy with the recovery and management of the injury.

“She’s gotten bigger and stronger,” noted Hall. “She’s pretty automatic, but I’m like ‘You can’t do it completely on your own, Stella! You still have to wait on your mother!’ That’s been our struggle honestly. I’ve just got to ride my horse, and honestly, that’s what I did this weekend. I rode my horse with confidence. When I do that, she does her job.”

While she had originally planned to rodeo some last summer prior to Stella’s injury, Hall has tested the waters a bit more in 2023. She’s placed at both San Antonio and Austin, Texas, rodeos and currently sits 38th in the WPRC World Standings with $16,276.

“When they had that qualifier for San Antonio, I thought ‘Let’s go and see what happens!’” said Hall. “She proved to me that she definitely should be there, but again, this mare does not need to prove anything to anybody anymore. After her getting hurt and God having a different plan than my plan, I really don’t plan anymore. I mean I do plan, but if it doesn’t happen, it’s OK! We’ll just be led by what he wants us to do and that’s how I’m going about my year.”

Hall did enter the Reno Rodeo and has tentative plans to make a Fourth of July run.

“As long as she’s happy and sound and we draw good, we’ll go run,” she said. “If the NFR would happen, great, but I’m not going to chase it and wear my horse out going up and down the road.”

She added it would have to be a scenario like Kassie Mowry and Wenda Johnson’s qualifications on lucrative wins at limited rodeos.

Hall has her hands full writing a book, training next year’s crop of futurity horses and just life, like her husband’s birthday last weekend. She’s also hosting an online course.

“When you buy the course, you have access to all those little things—thoughts and theories and therapies that I have done to get those two winning runs at Royal Crown,” she explained.

As always, Hall is grateful to God for her equine partner.

“Life just takes us for rides and I’m so grateful for Stella’s ride” she said. “I know how cherished every ride is on that mare.”

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Do you like to be appreciated for what you do? Do you like to receive a compliment? Most people do. I know I do. I want to cultivate a habit of recognizing good work and accomplishments of people around me.

For some, it's very difficult to tell someone else that they've done well. That's pride. Somehow they think it diminishes their worth. It does not. The Bible tells us in Hebrews 3:13 to encourage one another daily so we aren't hardened by sin. This is vital in your homes. Encourage those closest to you. A loving compliment is like a breath of fresh air to the one receiving it.

Well, what if you don't have someone to give you an attaboy? Get a Fit Bit! I bought one recently. . . .and I HATE to read directions. After Megan got me all hooked up and on line and synced up and whatever else a person needs to do, I strapped it on! I want to walk at least 10000 steps a day.

Well, imagine my surprise when I'm riding my horse and my arm starts vibrating! I looked down and my Fit Bit was telling me 'Well Done!!!' An attaboy! Woo Hoo! Maybe I'll get another one for my other arm!

I had done little or nothing but that little device made me feel so good about myself! LOL! Give a compliment this week!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
