Sam Smith & Miracle Tash Top Grande Prairie Stompede in Alberta

By Tanya Randall

Sam Smith of Rimbey, Alberta, and her 14-year-old mare Miracle Tash (“Deana”) got their first pro rodeo victory at the Grande Prairie Stompede, held May 26-29 in Alberta. The victory at the $8,000-added event was worth $3,619.

Smith had originally planned on running her new horse Tsunami Unleashed but opted for her old faithful.

“I actually entered Grande Prairie with the plans to run him,” said Smith. “After slack the ground was kind of hard and not ideal, so I thought I’d take old faithful, and she liked it.”

Deana, 14, has been in Smith’s hands since she purchased the mare from Megan Lewis in 2017. The daughter of Dean Miracle out of Cash Task, by Special Task, was bred by Alan Woodbury and was trained by Judy Myllymaki.

“I made the College National Finals on her out of the Southwestern Region in 2019,” said Smith, who was rodeoing for Tarleton State as a graduate student while working for Classic Equine. “When I went to the College Finals, she wasn’t quite right. She ended up having surgery that fall. I gave her the year off with COVID because we didn’t have any pro rodeos. I ran her at most of them they had up here last year and placed at a few.”

With Canada’s stringent COVID lockdown in 2020, Canadian rodeo didn’t return until last year, and even then, it was in limited

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: “I do lots of interval training. I’m lucky enough that I live in a hay field. I made my dad work me a barrel patch at the back of the quarter section. I’ll walk down to the back corner. I’ll trot and walk, lope and walk and do some sprints and then slow back down and trot again and then walk back home. I don’t sprint every day, but I’ll do it a couple of times a week if we’re not running. If we’re running I’ll leave them out. The day before we leave I like to have a light day and not put too much stress on them so they’re not sore for the trailer ride the next day.”

capacity.

“We had a really short season last year,” Smith explained. “It’s looking like we’ll get to have a full season this year. We hadn’t been to Grande Prairie since 2019. The committees were just waiting for things to open up so they could have people in the stands. I’m looking forward to having the big rodeos again.”

The lack of rodeo also meant that Tsunami would be a little behind in his rodeo career because there were none or few to go to the past two years.

“I just bought him this spring and I’ve been running him quite a bit,” Smith said of the LDS Unleashed gelding. “He hasn’t really been hauled to the rodeos yet. I’m just going to try to split my runs, so I’ll run the mare where I know she’ll work and the gelding will get everywhere else to get him seasoned. I’ll run her at the really big money and run him at the rest and see how it goes.”

Smith, who works for the family’s bison ranch, Smith Exporting, grew up rodeoing thanks to her older sister Taylor Flewelling.

“My parents didn’t rodeo at all,” she explained. “My older sister decided she wanted a horse when she was younger. My parents are awesome and supportive so they bought her one, and here we are. We never grew out of it.”

Smith often hauls with her sisters Taylor, a breakaway roper, and her younger sister Kennedy, who competes in both but is mainly focusing on barrel racing.

“My younger sister just filled her permit this spring, so I get to enter with her,” Smith said. “My older sister made the Canadian Finals in the breakaway last year, so we’re hauling with her also. It’s a cool little family production now.”

AIRWAY EQ

"Air-Way EQ is the first product I have seen work in aiding airway/lung health and help clear up a cough. I use Breathe'O2 paste for pre-run support, it also helps clear the airway, allowing him to breathe easier and work harder."

Mindy Holloway & Heavens Got Credit Make Bank at Money & Beaches

By Tanya Randall

When Heavens Got Credit (“Cornbread”) got past his first barrel more than he ever has, Mindy Holloway thought she taken the 1D exit, but much to her surprise, she got the richest win of her career at the 2nd Annual $10,000-added Money & Beaches Race, held May 24-26 at the Circle T Arena in Hamilton, Texas, with a 15.519, the fastest run of 900 plus entries.

“I thought, ‘Oh my gosh! We’re going to be lucky to be a 16!’” said the realtor from Mineral Wells, Texas. “When we went around the second barrel, it was so nice and so smooth, I thought we can make up some time. The third barrel was nice and he ran really hard on the way home.”

Holloway was completely shocked to hear the words, ‘New Leader!’

“He was so bad warming up up that day,” she laughed. “He was so full of himself. He was on a mission that day!”

Holloway’s haul for the weekend is $14,785 so far with more incentive money still coming in! She and Cornbread were fourth in the $5,000-added 5D warmup race on Friday for $932. They also won the 100 percent payback, Fast Horse Challenge on Saturday for $3,640.

Holloway carried over her time from Saturday to Sunday so that gave her two chances to win in the $10,000-added, 90 percent payback 4D, which she did, essentially tying for first place to win more than $10,000.

“That’s by far the biggest paycheck I’ve ever had for a weekend,” she said. “I’m very thankful for the producers putting such a big barrel race together where we can go and not have to put a lot of runs on our horse to win that kind of money. That’s important to me, especially with a horse like Cornbread. Our runs are limited. We never know how many we’re going to get to do. To be able to take advantage of these higher payouts like this is just incredible.”

Bred by the late Jud Little, Cornbread is by champion sire and performer JL Dash Ta Heaven and out of Credit Chicado, by Cash Not Credit out of Chicados Flame, by Flaming Jet. Credit Chicado is a full sister to Chicados Cash, who also sired a big winner at Money & Beaches, Chase My Ace, ridden by Tiffany Lujen.

Holloway purchased Cornbread a little over a year ago from Edwin Cameron and Tiany Schuster, but she knew the gelding very well since her husband Cutter broke him as a 2-year-old and she also got to train on him.

“When he was a 3-year-old, Tiany was hauling for the NFR and called me and asked if I would ride this horse for her,” she explained. “She sent him to me and I got him ready for his futurity year.”

Schuster had Cornbread patterned, but Holloway put the finishing touches on the gelding and did all his hauling and exhibiting. When Schuster came home from her NFR run, Holloway told her she had a winner on her hands.

“You could just tell from the beginning,” she said. “I would always tell my husband, ‘Man, I hope she comes and gets this horse. I don’t want to screw him up.’ I told her she needed to enter him in every futurity she wants to go to.”

Cornbread was on the of the Top 10 futurity horses in the country in 2018 with more than $90,000 won. Unfortunately, the gelding spent his 5-year-old year recovering from a right hind leg fracture that occurred during his last run as a 4-year-old in Oklahoma City. When he was brought back as a 6-year-old, he bucked. He was later diagnosed with kissing spines and had surgery.

“Toward the end of his 6-year-old year, Edwin started running him and he placed on him at the NBHA World,” Holloway said. “I bought him at the beginning of the next year. My husband and I had such a big connection with him because he had ridden him getting him started and I had ridden him getting him ready. It just felt right. We just wanted the horse to come to us.”

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: “I just keep him exercised during the week. He rides worse at home than anywhere else. He’s not my favorite one to ride at home, but we get through it. When you take him to a barrel race, he’s a completely different animal. At home, he’s a total handful. I think it’s just because he’s a total brat. He has so much personality—good, bad and ugly! He’s just a lot of horse when it comes to personality.”

When Holloway picked him up, Schuster told her not to be mad at her because he was slow.

“She was serious as a heart attack,” laughed Holloway. “I thought, ‘It’s OK!’ In my mind, I knew the horse and his ability. I wasn’t getting him thinking we were going to go win the world. I just wanted him because he’s a nice horse and I would go have fun on him. Now, it’s a joke. Oh, yeah, he’s slow! He IS NOT slow!”

Holloway, who also operates Betty Barrel Racers, a subscription-based events page on Facebook, has been very successful at the tough North Texas barrel races and has qualified for the American Semifinals and competed at WCRA events in Fort Worth. She and Cornbread have dabbled a little with pro rodeos—the gelding filled her permit—but she’s not convinced she’s made for rodeo.

“It freaks me out a little bit,” she laughed. “I can hardly make myself run him on bad ground knowing that he’s going to give 110 percent. I’ve got to get more educated on where I can take him. I’m still a minnow in that pond.”

Say good-bye to a great Barrel Racer, Vicki Callicrate

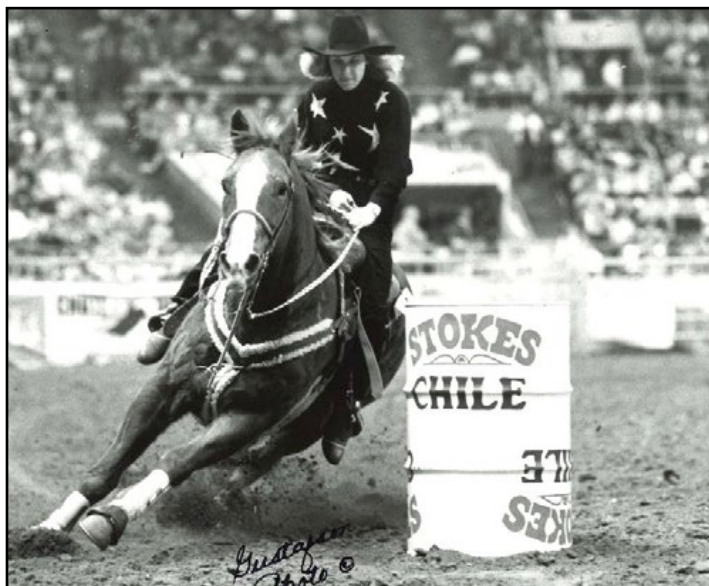

Vicki passed away at the age of 70, peacefully, Saturday, May 7th, 2022 at her home in Wheeler, Kansas.

If a horse had the ability and the right mind, Vicki could make them a winner. She was best known for her winnings on her big sorrel gelding "Shorty". Vicki left behind a trail of great accomplishment in our Barrel Racing world. She was a member of the college rodeo teams at LCC and CSU, winning several championships. She won the WPRA (formally GRA, Girl's Rodeo Association) circuit finals. She ran at Madison Square Gardens. She qualified for the NFR several times, but never attended. She won several rodeos, futurities and derbies. She was a WPRA Gold Card Member.

When Vicki showed up at a rodeo or other, those that knew her knew that she would go home with cash in pocket. She was a great contender. Her riding skills and communication with a horse was nothing short of awesome.

There are not many that rode in the same category that she did. She marked her way in the success of the world of Barrel Racing.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It's spring in Wyoming. If you are south of us, you are probably enjoying summer... Did you know there is a surefire way to tell when spring arrives up north? Red faces! I think red faces come out even before some of the birds get here.

If it's 40 degrees and the sun is shining, we are outside. You will see shorts and flip flops usually accompanied with a sweatshirt or jacket. But hey, it's spring. It's been months and we are by golly going to get some sunshine on us! LOL!

How can you tell you're a Christian no matter where you're from?

Glad you asked. Your love walk should be a telltale sign. Your joy level should be evident. Your peace. Your ability to remain cool, calm and steady in the face of diversity. How quickly you forgive. How slow you are to be offended. Your heart for all the things of God. Your attendance in church. Your giving. Your honesty and character. Repenting quickly when you sin and turning away from it.

Let your love for God shine for all to see, no matter the time of year!
