Hallie Hanssen & Ms French WallaWalla Sweep Ruby Buckle Futurity & Open

By Tanya Randall

Making any sort of tack change before an event is always done with much thought, consideration and a touch of apprehension. Sometimes those changes aren't born out of necessity but rather sentimentality.

For veteran horsemen Lee and Hallie Hanssen of Hermosa, South Dakota, the magnitude of the $730,000 Ruby Buckle, held April 25-May 1, warranted a sentimental tack change. Ms French WallaWalla had earned the right to wear a memorial headstall that Danyelle Campbell had made with the mane of her late sire The Kandyman decorating its browband tassel.

While Lee is usually the more emotional half of the couple, his million-dollar rider wife got a little weepy after taking the lead in the second round and aggregate of the $260,000 Futurity with a 16.875 on a Standard Pattern.

"Right after I ran the 16.8, they wanted to do an interview," noted Hallie Hanssen. "I'm usually not too emotional during interviews, but that got to me a little bit."

Hanssen and Walla, who swept the Sand Cup Futurity just over a month ago, started their Ruby Buckle with a second-place 17.109 in the first round.

"I remember the first run when she took off for that first barrel I thought, 'Oh my gosh! There is no way you're going to be able to turn this' as fast as she was running. I kind of checked her a little and she was like 'Whoa! Barrel!' and just came back. I honestly don't know how I stayed on her. She's just so fast and can just turn and be going the other direction," recalled the 2020 WCRA Women's Rodeo World Champion.

They took the second round with the second fastest time of the event, a 16.875.

"The next run, it was really muggy that day and I didn't warm her up too much," she explained. "She's not really hot when you warm her up but it was so muggy when you went inside the Lazy E that she was just sweating like crazy. I told Lee, 'I hope she has some gas because she's almost spent right now' as sweaty as she was. She still had it in her gas tank I guess!"

With the Futurity running on Tuesday and Wednesday and the $460,000 Open running on Friday and Saturday, Hanssen had a long wait to see how they would fair with their carryover times. When the final horse ran, Hanssen and Walla had taken both the Futurity and Open titles for total earnings of $57,229.

"I'm just in awe of her," said Hanssen. "When she goes in there and runs as fast as she does... Winning the Open was almost more of a shock! The open had so many good horses. I just couldn't believe she held on to win that!"

In the blood

Walla encompasses many of the winning bloodlines of Hanssen's career.

Walla's sire The Kandyman teamed up with Hanssen as a 2-year-old. Royally-bred by Heath Boucher, The Kandyman was by Tres Seis and out of Heath Boucher's great mare Famous Silk Panties, a two-time $100,000 slot race champion. Panties, a daughter of Dash Ta Fame, is out of multiple champion barrel horse producer Martinis And Bikinis, by Bully Bullion.

Valerie Vansickle-Kiphart owned the young stallion when he was sent to South Dakota.

"He was born to be a barrel horse," said Hanssen. "It was so easy for him. I left him home that winter because he was ahead of my 3-year-olds. When I got back on him, he was awesome still. Val owned him for most of his futurity year then she decided we should buy him. We never even thought that would be a possibility. We made it happen.

“Val has been a big part of him. She’s bred some mares to him and has some his babies. She was still very involved with him. I think for her to see Walla go out and do this, it is as emotional for her as it is for everybody else. That’s what she had hoped for when she sent him here as a 2-year-old.”

The Kandyman, who won the Valley Girls Barrel Daze Futurity, had his career cut short due to a chip in his knee. He had fallen badly at the Kinder Cup Futurity in Louisiana. Although he appeared fine and came back to win the Barrel Daze, his knee blew up.

“We sent him down to Dr. Reece Hand (in Weatherford, Texas),” said Hanssen. “He did surgery on him and rehabbed him. I got back on him but he was never really as sound as he was before, which Dr. Hand had said he might not be at that point. We decided at that point to just retire him.”

Sadly, the Hanssen’s lost the promising young sire to colic complications in late 2020. The Hanssen’s have offered a few contracts on his frozen semen, but they don’t have as much as they would like because they lost him so young. He was only 7 when he died.

“We did sell some contracts this year,” said Hanssen. “We just haven’t decided what we’re doing on him now. We might go to ICSI because we don’t have a ton of it and we’d like to keep him in all the incentives.”

Walla, who was bred by Tom and Barb Westover of Egan, South Dakota, is out of French Streakin Izzy, who is a product of the magic cross between A Streak Of Fling and PC Frenchmans Flirt, a full sister to Frenchmans Guy. Izzy is a full sister to French Streakin Jess, the young champion sire the Hanssens manage for the Westovers, as well as the late French StreakToVegas, who Hanssen rode to multiple futurity wins and a BFA Derby Championship.

“I’m just really thankful to Barb,” said Hanssen, who is grateful that Westover chose The Kandyman for her great mares. “She had a chance to sell Izzy, but she decided to keep her. She also has another one that I rode, French StreakOfBling, that she kept. She’s been breeding both of those mares to The Kandyman.”

Walla was the second foal from The Kandyman’s first crop to hit the ground in 2017. The filly got her name because of her family’s success at the Valley Girls Barrel Daze Futurity in Walla Walla, Washington.

“The Kandyman won Walla Walla. French Streakin Izzy placed really high in a round. And we were in Walla Walla when she was born,” noted Hanssen.

Westover later sold Walla to Chris and Clara Herren of All-In Barrel Horses of Crooks, South Dakota, who put her in training with Hanssen.

In Walla, Hanssen got the speed and forward motion in the turns that she enjoyed with her sire and his paternal half-sister Tres Movidas. From her dam, she got the quick-feet and wrapping turn style of that hall of fame maternal line.

“There’s a lot of history there,” said Hanssen of Walla’s breeding and career. “It all came full circle. That’s so exciting to be able to do that. We’re all like one big team.”

Of Walla’s $57,299 in Ruby Buckle earnings, $48,703 went to All-In Barrel Horses. The Hanssens got $5,731 on behalf of The Kandyman and the Westovers collected $2,865 as the breeders.

“I just really think what they’re doing with the Pink and Ruby Buckle and how they’ve made it grow so quickly is just incredible,” said Hanssen. “The barrel horse industry is just booming and I think that’s very uplifting to trainers, owners, breeders, stallion owners to actually see the money they’ve put into the programs and that people are going.”

AIRWAY EQ

"Air-Way EQ is the first product I have seen work in aiding airway/lung health and help clear up a cough. I use Breathe'O2 paste for pre-run support, it also helps clear the airway, allowing him to breathe easier and work harder."

SUCCESS STARTS HERE

Ferdina Banks at Mon-Dak Barrel Daze

The 1st Annual Mon/Dak Barrel Daze sponsored by Copper Spring Ranch and Rodeo Rigs was a great success. Over $24,000 was paid out May 1 & 2 at the All Season Arena in Bowman, ND. Close to 400 plus runs took place at the weekend's event which was WPRA, NWBRA, UBRC, BBR, and Extreme Million approved.

The big winner was Jill Ferdina aboard Eddies Cookin winning the Open 5D Sat. for $612 and jump riding Illegally Talented for a weekend total of $1,700. Kara Langerud had a nice weekend winning $1055 and the fast time award a custom shirt from Wyld Sisters Custom Western Performance on VF Strike It Famous for the Sunday win of $612.50. $1,000 Distinctive Performance-Maggie Polonic Futurity sidepot Sat was won by Becca Gilley on FM Fast Burnin Fuse for $382 and Sun Kelly Conrado on Sheza Shaker Guys for $423. $500 NutraLix Senior sidepot was won by Linda Mealio on Mac Fly Sat and Sun for $361. $250 Twitchell Cattle Co Youth sidepot was won Sat by Kelly Sorenson on Mr Dash Rip Rock for $106 and Sun Carlee Miller on DHR Perks Only Okie for $122.

$1,000 Church Race sponsored by Castle Rock Ranch-Lammi, Upper Edge Construction-Erickson and Lechner Family was won by Kate Hatter on Feature Me N Speed for $265 and a Wild Rags by Lois scarf. A thought provoking message was given Tim Erickson with God Miraculous Healing testimonies from Lynette Erickson, Tycie West and Jonea Bauske. The church race raised over $800.

Special thanks to Nick Erickson(sec) and Kevin Gower(ground) and all those who pitched in to help. The Classic Equine lucky draws were a hit. Special thanks also to Ingram Quarter Horses, Plains Horizon Equine Insurance and The Cowboy Papparazzi Photos. Complete results located at rodoerigs.com. Courtesy of Lana Tibbets.

Bailey & PC Mari This Judge Top Idaho Futurity

This past weekend at the Idaho Barrel Futurity a name that has popped up a lot over the last couple years jumped to the top of the standings; Jordan Bailey and her mom's grey rocket Pc Mari This Judge placed in both rounds on the way to an Average Championship! This is just the first time of many the Barrel Racing Report will be catching up with this young upcoming star!

BRR: Can you walk us through your runs at the Idaho Barrel Futurity on Pc Mari This Judge?

Bailey: The first round she ended up being on the bottom of the ground and it was pretty deep so I had to remember to stand her up and help her around each barrel and she handled it really well! The second run she was on the top of the ground I still helped her around the barrels to stand up and was really surprised and happy on how consistent she was with both her runs!

BRR: Tell us a little about your horse and what you have won so far this year?

Bailey: She can be pretty spicy, she definitely likes her job! She is a super sweet mare and loves to be around people. When we entered her the very first time she was 2nd in the futurity against this year's futurity horses and last year's futurity horses. After that she placed in the 1D in a couple open races close to home before the New Year. During New Years she won Reserve 1D in the futurity at the New Years barrel race in Red Bluff, California. She won 5th in the average at the C-N Futurity. Then she won the WBRA Futurity Shootout in Moses Lake. The next weekend she won the SWWA

Futurity. After that she qualified us for the Breeders Challenge Futurity (Finals) at Barrel Daze. Then she was Reserve Futurity Champ at the High Cascades Futurity and then she won the futurity at IBF!

BRR: Can you share with us an exercise or training tip that was vital to the development of Pc Mari This Judge?

Bailey: I had started Madi on the pattern using Paul Humphrey's program and my mother Tammy Bailey's help.

BRR: As we go through the results in the Northwest, we see your name in the results over and over. What are some of the keys to your training program that leads to such great success?

Bailey: I would have to say a couple years back being able to have the chance to take one of Paul Humphrey's clinics really helped me with all of my horses and gave me a great direction with my colts. My mom helps me a lot when we are at all the races.

BRR: What are your plans for the rest of the year for Pc Mari This Judge?

Bailey: Our plans for Madi is to keep futuritying her throughout the year and make her into a consistent 1D horse and to hopefully one day replace my good mare Cash Mia if she can!

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Bailey: My mother (LOL), our mini golf cart, and my working bridles.

Hailey Kinsel & Jordon Briggs Split Guymon Pioneer Days Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Hailey Kinsel and her great mare DM Sissy Hayday (“Sis”) and Jordon Briggs and her rising rodeo star Famous Lil Jet (“Rolo”) split the barrel racing victory at the Guymon Pioneer Days Rodeo, held April 30-May 1 in the heart of the Oklahoma Panhandle.

The modest farming and ranch community of 11,000 generously added $7,500 per event, making it Oklahoma’s biggest rodeo.

“It’s pretty cool that little town is able to do that and have that honor,” said Kinsel, the three-time and defending WPRA World Champion.

She added it was great to see packed stands and have that “normal rodeo” feel again as opposed to the half-empty stands due to COVID restrictions.

“I think it’s really important in 2021 to go back to those rodeos that pushed through last year for us, having to do their rodeos at half capacity,” she said. “They stuck it out. They had their rodeos for us. This year I hope they’re reaping the benefits. I hope all of us coming to their town is helping them as much as it helped us last year.”

Kinsel, who collected $5,518 for the Guymon victory, has been running up and down the road for past the month but not so much for rodeo. Her mom Leslie had a health issue come up in early April so Kinsel has been splitting time between her personal home in Stephenville, Texas, where she has her and her mother’s horses, and her hometown of Cotulla, Texas, where her mom is thankfully recovering.

“It definitely changed the trajectory of my April,” said Kinsel, noting that her mother is doing well. “Most of April I turned out. I went the last week of April to Athens and Lufkin because I needed to make some circuit rodeos. I was determined to go to Guymon because Sis loves Guymon.”

In fact, back in 2017, Guymon was Sis’s first outdoor rodeo. A reserve championship proved to Kinsel that Sis had what it took to make a true rodeo horse.

“I didn’t have a concept of what a Standard Pattern was, having grown up going to youth rodeos,” she recalled. “I just knew the arena record was a 17.1 and I ran a .20 in the perf. I was pumped. It didn’t even register to me at the time that it was a 17.2 on a Standard. I just knew it was a fast time at Guymon. It’s kind of funny looking back now that everyone judges things—Standard Pattern... this or that.”

Kinsel said the setup at Guymon fits Sis because it allows her “to run and go play” and she’s easier to ride.

“My timing on that kind of run is usually pretty good,” she said. “I do like to get running on her (to the first barrel). I think we do a little better if she can get her head shake in and hit a gear or two before I have to rate her back. At Guymon, you can go 9-0 into the first. For me, I like her there because she is pretty easy and fun. It’s just go fast and let her take care of the rest.”

Guymon, which was open to all WPRA card and permit holders, had its first round in slack on Friday morning. The top 40 would be distributed amongst four performances—Friday night, Saturday matinee, Saturday night and Sunday afternoon—while the remaining contestants made their second run after a short break after the conclusion of the first round.

Running fifth on the ground toward the end of slack, Kinsel and Sis were second in the first round with a 14.39 behind past Guymon Champions Shali Lord and Freckles Ta Fame. They had their second run on Sunday, where they were fifth out again. Kinsel and Sis sealed the tie with a fourth-place 17.26.

Kinsel has a slew of Texas circuit rodeos coming up and will likely run her backup horses. Most of the work will go to the Damon and Donna Hodges’ DH Jess Stellar (“Jules”), while she also has Thunder Stones (“TJ”), Coronas Share Of Fame (“Nala”) and her mother’s mare Viva La Corona (“Viva”) to split the load.

Meanwhile, Sis will likely be getting another break. The Dillon Mundorf-bred daughter of PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Royal Sissy Irish, by Royal Shake Em, has only made two rodeo runs since winning a third American Rodeo title and probably won't run again until the Old Fort Days Rodeo in Fort Smith, Arkansas, Memorial Day weekend.

"I won Fort Smith one year on her; she's pretty fun there, but Jules would be pretty fun there too," said Kinsel, who currently sits 26th in the WPRAs World Standings with $11,936. "I'm kind of waiting and seeing with her because I like to run her where it will pay the most. I'm looking forward to some of the bigger paying rodeos this summer and letting her get her groove later in the year." The Guymon Co-Champion is also looking forward to more rodeos this summer.

"I'm going to try to (go) here and there," said Briggs, who currently sits 20th in the Standings with $17,487. "We're just going to see how the scheduling goes with everything."

Briggs, a 2009 National Finals Rodeo qualifier, predominantly trains and campaigns futurity horses. This year, however, things are a little different. She and husband Justin are selling their place in Chilton, Texas, and moving to Tolar, Texas, near the Cowboy Capital of Stephenville. They've just started working on the Tolar property.

"I'm going to stay in Texas until the end of June so we can kind of figure out what we're doing," she explained. "We're going to be homeless for some period of time. We're meeting a barn builder at our place in Tolar Wednesday, so hopefully we can get the ball rolling there, but they say it takes six weeks before you can get your metal ordered."

Her first stop outside of the upcoming Texas rodeos will hopefully be the Reno Rodeo in Nevada. She'd like to make the Fourth of July run and stay out through Cheyenne. Her mother, four-time WPRAs World Champion, agreed to go with her to watch her granddaughter Bexley.

The horse making this all possible is Rolo, a 7-year-old Busby Quarter Horses-bred gelding she's owned since he was a yearling. Rolo is by leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of the Blazin Jetolena, Lady Perks mare Blazin Black Beauty.

"I've known that horse was extremely special since he was 3-year-old," she said. "I had planned on entering him in the (BFA) Juvenile and that's when I found out I was pregnant, so ended up saving him as a 5-year-old futurity colt."

Rolo, who is also a money earning head horse, won more than $100,000 as a futurity colt.

"He was so solid, just made the same run every time, placed everywhere and won a couple futurities," said Briggs. "His derby year I took him to a few rodeos. The first few I took him to he was kind of looky in the perfs. He wouldn't really clock up. I'd always be one or two holes out everywhere I went. Finally last August, he ran two 16s on a Standard Pattern in Dodge City. I went to a few more last fall and he won three more rodeos. I knew he was going to be a really special rodeo horse."

Since training horses are her business, it's not usual for Briggs to keep one like Rolo around.

"It's been a big struggle to keep a hold of him," she admitted. "I feel like we're finally financially sturdy enough to keep one. My emotional state was kind of getting sick of starting over every year. I just wanted to keep one that I know I can have fun on and know will pay the bills when I need him to. I think he's a very special horse. I always tell people, I don't think I deserve him, but I don't think anyone else deserves him either."

Rolo had done so well at the rodeos last fall and early winter that he kept Briggs near the Top 15 even though she missed three months due to a broken ankle. Her biggest disappointment was placing high enough at Odessa, Texas, to get an invite into San Antonio.

"It wasn't two weeks later that I broke my ankle and I had to turn out," she explained. She had tipped a barrel on a futurity colt at a jackpot and the barrel bent her toe back to her shin, taking out the ligaments and few bones in her ankle in the process. "That was a heartbreaker because I felt I finally got my chance to run at some big money and get me into some bigger rodeos."

After eight weeks off her ankle plus a month of physical therapy, Rolo started making up for lost time.

"I've been to seven rodeos and he's placed at all seven of them," she said. After falling in the short round at San Angelo, Texas, Briggs was hoping it was her turn in Guymon. Briggs, who ran at the Ruby Buckle Futurity earlier in the week, was out midway through the first half of slack on the typically heavier ground.

"They always say it gets faster towards the end because it dries out," she explained. "They have to water it so much because it's so dang dry up there. I had to run in the mud a little bit on Friday. I just had to go for it and make a run to try to place. The ground looked safe but there were 150 more barrel racers after us." She and Rolo split third with Rande Prindle and Red Man Jones in the first round with duplicate times of 17.41.

"It's been a long time since we've ran in a big, outdoor pen, like since August," she said. "I was a little hesitant. That's probably the longest run we've ever had to the first barrel. He got a little strong but he came back to me controlled. He handled the muddy ground really well."

Briggs had a favorable draw—second out—in the last performance for her second run.

"I had a good feeling about it after he worked so well in slack," she said. "I had such a good draw position for my second go round, I knew I just had to trust him and not do anything stupid and let him work. And that's what he did."

Ironically, Briggs didn't know she had split the rodeo win until she called her family.

"After Hailey ran they kept saying there's a new leader," she said. "I kept doing the math in my head. I was pretty sure we tied, but they never said anything. I just went back to my trailer thinking I was winning second and I was pretty tickled with that. I called my husband. My husband, my mom and my dad were watching it on TV and they said, 'No, you tied!'"

Briggs collected $5,300 for her share of the title after taking second in the second round with a 17.24.

"It was a great rodeo," she said. "The hospitality was amazing. There were so many people there. They couldn't have fit another car in a parking lot within a mile of that arena."

Flingin Silk Panties Tops Inaugural Ruby Buckle Sale

Flingin Silk Panties topped the inaugural Ruby Buckle Sale, held Thursday, April 29 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma. The 3-year-old stallion prospect was one of the 65 consignments walking through the ring. With 52 changing hands, the sale netted just shy of $1 million at $918,200 for an average price of $17,668.

Cosigned by Lisa O'Rourke Fulton, Flingin Silk Panties commanded a bid of $82,000 from Kimberlie Lowery of Lowery Farms. The beautiful bay roan colt, by Fulton's $5 million dollar barrel horse sire A Streak Of Fling, is out of proven performer and producer Famous Silk Panties, who also produced Ruby Buckle Open and Futurity Champion Sire, The Kandyman. Prior to the sale, Flingin Silk Panties had four months of training with Pete Oen. The colt looked every bit the part of his royal breeding.

With three Eddie Stinsons placing in the Ruby Buckle Futurity aggregate the day before, Pritzi Stinsi 37 brought $76,000 from Italian buyer Maria Ballini. The pretty moving sorrel 3-year-old daughter of $3.3 million dollar sire Eddie Stinson is out of the stakes winning daughter of Pritzi Dash, Blue Grass Bounce. Pritzi Stinsi 37 was lightly working the barrel pattern under the direction of her consignor Tricia Aldridge.

Nacho Bizness was the third favorite with bidders. The 3-year-old gelding, by $1.1 million dollar hot sire Epic Leader out of multiple futurity finalist My Lady Bug Leo, a $100,000-earning daughter of Shawne Bug Leo and the black-type producer Lady Rompin. The Isabella Quarter Horses consignment was well started on the pattern by Kassie Mowry and was pointed to the 2021 BFA Juvenile. Jason and Kortney Kizer signed the $36,000 ticket on the powerful built sorrel gelding.

National Finals Rodeo qualifier and BFA World Futurity Champion Sooner Superstar was the high-selling broodmare and fourth high-seller overall. The 2003 daughter of multiple NFR sire Cash Not Credit out of the youth rodeo mare Star Eyed Money, by Denvers First Mate, sold in foal to homozygous roan Metallic Cat son, Metallic Malice. Consigned by Ty Smith, Sooner Superstar sold to Suzonne and Billy Wayne Franks for $35,000.

Rounding out the top five high sellers was the 3-year-old mare Sheza Blonde Secret. Consigned by multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Shali Lord, Sheza Blonde Secret is by champion racehorse Hez Our Secret (earner of $887,426) out of the Hollywood Heat mare, Dudeshollywoodblonde. The cool colored dun mare had been hauled and exhibited in preparation for the 2022 futurities and moved like a winner. Marcus McCrary signed the ticket at $33,000.

Overall, yearlings averaged $9,742; 2-year-olds, $14,013; 3-year-olds, $24,364 and 4-year-olds, $23,417. Older horses averaged $17,750. The only broodmare changing hands sold for $35,000, while the only embryo changing hands sold for $25,000.

BARREL RACING REPORT NEWS

Hall of Fame Induction Weekend Slated for July 15-17

The ProRodeo Hall of Fame Class of 2020 Induction Weekend will be July 15-17 and run in conjunction with the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo in Colorado Springs, Colo., the ProRodeo Hall of Fame and Museum of the American Cowboy announced April 28.

The induction ceremony – honoring Cody Ohl, Grated Coconut, Butch Kirby, Jim Sutton Jr., Sunni Deb Backstrom, Randy Witte, the Ellensburg Rodeo and Martha Josey – will be Saturday, July 17.

The golf tournament, a fundraiser for the Hall of Fame, will kick off the weekend at Cheyenne Shadows Golf Course on Thursday, July 15, while the Cowboy Ball will be Friday, July 16.

The Class of 2020 was named last year, but because of restrictions surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic, inductions were postponed.

Now, those eight selections will be honored this summer.

"It is so great to be able to plan and finally hold this event to induct this amazing class of rodeo legends," Hall of Fame Director Kent Sturman said. "We are so thankful that the COVID restrictions are easing up in the state of Colorado and El Paso County, which will allow us to host the event here in Colorado Springs. We are hopeful that restrictions will ease up more as we move closer to the dates so that our Induction Weekend this year will look very similar to events of the past."

The Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo is scheduled for July 14-17. The rodeo at the Norris Penrose Event Center in Colorado Springs was postponed due to the pandemic in 2020. The rodeo, which paid out more than $280,000 in 2019, draws the best cowboys and cowgirls in North America.

"Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo is extremely proud to be considered the PRCA's hometown rodeo," said Mike McCoy, president of the PPOB Rodeo. "And as such, we welcome the ProRodeo Hall of Fame and its inductees to the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo to be our guests to celebrate their huge milestone of being inducted into the Hall."

The golf tournament will have breakfast and registration at 6:30 a.m. with a shotgun start at 7:30 a.m. Lunch and awards will follow at 12:30 p.m.

Don't fear criticism...
 If it is untrue — discard it...
 If it is ignorant — smile...
 If it is justified — Learn from it.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

The Bible is full of solutions and answers. As you read it, start looking for them. Then put them into practice. It will simplify your life and bring great peace, because you already have the answer. His name is Jesus!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.

Sometimes the word "but" is used just before the excuse. I would have called . . .but. The other day I was thinking that doing a sermon on the 'buts' in the Bible would be interesting. Why?

Because often in the Word, 'but' is the answer, not the excuse. I know I have had you look at John 10:10 often. The devil comes to steal, kill and destroy BUT I (Jesus) have come to give you life and that abundantly.

John 16:33 is another example. "These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation, BUT be of good cheer, I have overcome the world." Problem solved!!
