Boucher & From Famous To Vegas Hit Lucky Dog Jackpot, Win Futurity, Breeders Challenge

By Tanya Randall

French Canadian Caroline Boucher and her 4-year-old gelding From Famous To Vegas ("Duke") topped the $10,000-added Lucky Dog Futurity and Breeders Challenge Qualifier Futurity, held in Memphis, Tennessee, May 4-7. The dual victories were worth $13,542 including open carryovers.

Boucher and Duke, whom she co-owns with Marylene Menard, were fourth in the first go and second in the second go to win the average. The Lucky Dog Futurity paid $5,220, while the Breeders Challenge paid $5,061 total (including stallion owner and nominator payouts).

"He did really well," said Boucher, who also placed in the futurity average with Chasin A Stone and HP Rollin Rollin. "We were just back from Ruby with the standard pattern and the arena (in Memphis) was very small. The first run, he was running very hard. He thought the first was further! I was trying to tell him, 'You need to understand that the first barrel is right there!' The second run, he figured out we were in a small pen."

Bred by Carol Lampron, Duke is by 2.1 million dollar sire French Streaktovegas out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Famous Aunt Martha. Boucher put a deposit down on the yearling gelding as soon as she saw his ad on Facebook.

"I saw him one morning when I was sipping my coffee," she explained. "He was on Facebook for three minutes when I called Carol Lampron and said I wanted that horse and am transferring you a deposit. Then I called my girlfriend Marylene Menard and said, 'Do you want to be partners on a very pretty horse?' She's just like me, so she said 'Yes, go get him!'"

Boucher said Duke was a very easy horse to train.

"He's the kind of horse that needs to train every day because he gets fat easily," she chuckled. "I really need to work him out every day, but he likes to work. He has a very fun personality. He always says yes. He was a very easy horse to train. He's always been very turny, so I'm only working him to get the cardio and the fitness."

Duke made his competitive debut at the BFA World Championships and later the OKC Futurity, but a deep-seated abscess kept him from performing his best.

THE RUNDOWN w/Caroline Boucher

From Famous To Vegas ("Duke") 15.3 hands, 1250 lbs.

BIT: Stop & Turn

SADDLE: Seven

SADDLE PAD: Seven

LEG GEAR: Seven Saddle or Iconoclast—it's always one or the other

SHOEING: Aluminum rims with 3D pads; shod by Olivier Pelletier, her husband. "We started with the 3D Pads because of the abscess and he felt so good in them, I tried them on two other horses!"

FEED: Purina Ultium Gastric Care

HAY: All he can eat alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Redmond mineral, Pureform Full Stride (carried in Canada)

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: See article.

SPONSORS: Seven Saddles, Pro Trainer Horse Exerciser

THANK YOU: To her husband, Olivier, and her parents for always encouraging her.

“It started in November in the bottom of the foot and it took until mid-January for it to pop out at the cornet at the top of the foot,” said Boucher. “The first show that he was really feeling good was the Royal Crown in Arizona.”

Although she was worried that the two months spent battling the abscess would leave Duke behind the other colts, he was quickly caught up with more runs. Duke has placed in the average at the Select Stallion Stakes Futurity and picked up checks at the Ruby Buckle and Royal Crown Buckeye futurities.

“I think he will continue to get better, the more runs he makes,” she said.

They have the Old Fort Days Futurity in two weeks, which is immediately followed by the Royal Crown in Oklahoma City.

Summer Kosel & Firewaterfrenchfame End Spring Run with a Big Win at Guymon

By Tanya Randall

Glenham, South Dakota, barrel racer Summer Kosel ended her spring run with a $6,256 championship at the $8,000-added Guymon Pioneer Days Rodeo, held May 5-7 in the Oklahoma panhandle farming and ranching community.

Kosel and her 9-year-old gelding FireWaterFrenchFame (“Apollo”) won the first round with 17.01 and came back in Sunday’s performance with a 17.12 to place third in the second round and win the aggregate.

“I just sent him in there and just tried to stay with him—cue him when I need to and stay out of his way when I need to—and it worked out for us,” said Kosel, a mother of four children with husband Kevin, a rancher and rodeo contractor. “Apollo and I both like running outside more than inside. I just know that when I’m outside all I have to do is sit up and ride and let him work and he’s going to clock. It’s more relaxing and more fun for both of us.”

Kosel picked up Apollo as a 6-year-old in 2020. Bred by Carol Warren, Apollo is by 2.4 million dollar sire Aint Seen Nothin Yet out of NFR producer Fire Water Flyer, by Fire Water Flit. He is a half-brother to Shu Fire, who helped Jessie Telford qualify for the National Finals Rodeo. Apollo’s maternal line is deep in barrel horses, going back to his granddam Texs Futurity Winner, a daughter of Magnolia Bar.

The gelding had actually just started his barrel racing career and only had two jackpots under his belt when Kosel purchased him.

“The Andersons in Nebraska bought him as a yearling,” Kosel explained. “They were making him a calf horse. When he was 6, they decided he wasn’t going to make a pro level calf horse, so they sent him to my friend Emily Pauley to start him on the barrels. She had him right at 50 days when my husband bought him.”

Kosel seasoned Apollo as a derby horse and started rodeoing on him in the spring of 2021.

“I thought if I’m going to rodeo I may as well throw him to the wolves and see how we pan out,” she recalled. “We went to New Town and he ended up placing at his very first pro rodeo. We went on from there.”

Last summer, Kosel’s plans changed after her friend Kailee Webb talked her into making a rodeo run outside the Badlands, their home circuit.

“I actually didn’t plan on rodeoing very hard last year at all,” Kosel admitted. “I was going to do what I always do, which is stay in my circuit. My friend talked me into entering Casper, Cheyenne and Sheridan. We went to Casper and he ended up winning the first round, placing second in the second round and winning the average. Then we went to Cheyenne and we broke the arena record. After that my husband was like, ‘You might want to go and see how you end up.’ So that’s how I ended up going to the Northwest. He did well enough to get me in the Top 30 to get into the winter rodeos for this year.”

Kosel said Apollo made his first run of the season at the National Western in Denver. The gelding had bruised his hock on his first-round winning run at the Ellensburg Roundup in Washington last Labor Day Weekend.

“He won the round, came out sound, was perfectly fine for a half-hour, 45 minutes after his run and then he picked up his left hind leg and wouldn’t put it down,” she recalled. “He ended up just bruising his hock, but I gave him the allotted time as if he fractured his hock. I gave him four full months off and Denver was his first runs back since September 1 of last year.”

Kosel currently sits 11th in the WPRA World Standings with $33,618 after picking up checks at Fort Worth, San Antonio, Houston, San Angelo, Red Bluff, Clovis and Guymon all aboard Apollo. “One thing about Apollo is he always gives 100 percent,” she said.

THE RUNDOWN w/Summer Kosel

FireWaterFrenchFame (“Apollo”) 14.3 hands “He’s a little guy, but he’s built like a brick truck.”

BIT: Three-piece short shank lifter with no curb

SADDLE: Martin Stingray; switches between the Stingray and a Brazilian depending on how much movement she needs in her body. She typically uses the Brazilian inside and the Stingray outside.

SADDLE PAD: 5-Star with the wither relief

LEG GEAR: Iconoclast on all four

SHOEING: Shod by Lee Olsen.

FEED: Nutrena Pro Force Fuel

HAY: Alfalfa and grass mix

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP, especially for allergies

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Flair Strip; nebulizer treatment two hours pre-run for allergies

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: “The thing I love to do with Apollo is gather cattle on him. That’s Apollo’s favorite job—doing ranch work. He runs barrels just because I ask him to. I do breeze my horses. I think that’s really important to make sure their lungs are healthy. When I’m trying to get his muscles built up, we lope a lot of circles and do a lot of backing up.

SPONSORS: Med Vet Pharmaceuticals, Kingsville Brand

“He’s just blessed by the blood of Jesus. He’s amazing! That’s all there is to it.”

Kosel is currently home resting up for the summer run and catching up with family.

“I’m going to stay home until June 1 and hang out with my family,” she said. “I’ve missed out on a lot. It’s not all sunshine and roses on the road; it’s really hard, especially when you have a family.”

She wanted to thank her husband and her family for all their support.

“My husband has definitely stepped up to the plate and taken on a lot of extra responsibility. He’s done it very graciously,” she said.

Kosel will start her summer run with Woodward, Oklahoma, and Weatherford, Texas, before heading out to Reno.

“I just kind of end up where God sends me,” she laughed. “I have friends that help babysit me along the way.

“Last year Kailee Webb traveled with me to the Northwest. Jill Moody was who took her under her wing when she first bought her pro card. We went to all the circuit rodeos together for three years. If I’m on the road and ever have a question or need a place to stay she has someone lined up for me to call. She’s a huge blessing, just helping me be confident enough to venture out by myself. Even though she wasn’t coming with me she was still always there.”

Shannon Buss & TNT Unleashed Tafire Heat Up at Yellow Rose Futurity

Over the weekend in Claresholm, Alberta, the Yellow Rose Futurity & Derby featured some of the best futurity & derby horses in Canada! In the Yellow Rose Futurity TNT Unleashed Tafire & Shannon Buss stayed consistent through the two rounds to win the average. The pair won the first round with a 16.509 and won second in Round 2 with a slightly quicker 16.434 to win the average with a time of 32.943 and a nice check for $9,391. TNT Unleashed Tafire is by the leading Canadian barrel sire LDS Unleashed (by Dash Ta Fame) and out of a Fire Water Flit/Doc O Dynamite mare. We caught up with Buss to ask her about her big win.

BRR: Your two runs at the Yellow Rose Futurity were very consistent; within a tenth of a second of each other. Can you walk us through both your runs?

Buss: I just wanted to go out there and make a smooth run where I nailed my lines and had soft barrels. I really didn't expect him to run what he ran in the first round but he has been shocking me since the day I started to enter him. He is very deceiving. I don't think he has really figured out how to run yet. The second round I just focused on the same thing. I say to myself, "Two hands up into your hole and melt in your turn." I actually would of been thrilled to be slower. I wanted to make money in the average. My husband is a Team Roper and he always says when you safety up, you start to make mistakes so operate out of feel so I just did the same thing I did the first round.

BRR: What allowed you to be so consistent through your two runs?

Buss: I make sure my horses take responsibility for themselves. I do not want to have to place them a bunch. I feel like when they take responsibility for themselves, it builds confidence. I know I can trust him to do his job because my homework is done and he is confident in his spots. I try and really make sure there are no holes before I move on in brokenness or on the pattern. I will go back if there is, and I am not afraid to not enter or slow back down if I feel a hole. I will also ask them for it and then back right off. I never keep asking them for their life every run. I also try to not pick. I just want them really confident in themselves. I think having a program you stick to and building their confidence makes them consistent. They don't second guess themselves or worry.

BRR: Can you share with us where your gelding came from and his career up to now?

Buss: He was raised by Billy & Marci Laye and out of their great Stallion LDS Unleashed. I was riding at Marci's one day and she asked me to hop on him, I fell in love. He had 16 rides but his willingness was like nothing I ever felt before. I bought him and we just got him really broke and roped a little on him. I started him on barrels as a 4 year old and I just started to enter at the end of January. I never exhibitioned him as a 4 year old but we hauled him to a few Rodeos to see the sights. I would freak out because I was so far behind and Kandi would always say "The Unleashed's are not your typical horse, they catch up fast." That was definitely true with Duncan.

BRR: What are a few things you did with him to have him at his best for this weekend?

Buss: I make sure he is happy! He is a very expressive horse. I say you can tell what he is thinking based on how he looks at you. I make sure he gets chiro, massage, and sees my vet on a regular basis, even if I don't think he needs it. I am OCD about making sure he feels good.

THE RUNDOWN w/Shannon Buss

TNT Unleashed Tafire (Duncan) Sorrel 5 year old gelding. He is 15.3 ish and maybe 1300 lbs. He is fairly big.

BIT: Elliott

SADDLE: Shiloh — SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine — LEG GEAR: Classic Equine

FEED: Alfalfa Pellets, Whole Oats, Beet Pulp

HAY: Grass mix

SHOEING AND CARE: My husband is my chiro and my farrier, my vet is Chad Hewlitt and my massage lady is Maria McDowell. I will use Mellissa Marshall for Magna Wave. Rebeca Williams for Pro Scope.

SUPPLEMENTS: Herbs for Horses Mineral, biotin, and galozyme. I also give Zesterra. I will give Sucralfate on big weekends.

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: I slow work 1-2 days a week, long trot in the field and do 1 day of fast work (breeze). I'll try and get to a jackpot a week to keep our timing sharp. I will try and let him have at least one day where I ask for nothing and sort of just let him do what he wants. I do try and give him 2 days off a week.

SPONSORS: My husband believed in me long before he should have. Kandi, who I talked to before and after every run, sometimes every ride. Marci, who is always there when I need her eyes or some support. My friends Britt & Chelsea for always answering my phone calls about Duncan. My friend Farron who helps me walk in faith. My in-laws and my Mom for always helping out with my son and stuff around our place. There have been some pretty amazing people in my life that have supported us and cheered us on and I want to say thank you to all of them! Also, thanks to Barry Buss Pilot & Hauling for the sponsorship!

BRR: Can you tell us a little about yourself and your barrel racing career?

Buss: I am a Realtor, a Mom and a Wife. I always rode colts growing up. My parents didn't know anything about horses so they bought me my first 2 year old as a little girl who had no business with a 2 year old. It was a train wreck but it ended good. I would go ride with whoever would let me growing up. I really enjoyed riding young horses. I still love riding colts. I barrel raced a little bit growing up but I wouldn't say I knew what I was doing I started to take it seriously 7 years ago. It's taken me this long to have some success. I had a string of heartaches where I learned all about what not to do with a barrel horse and then I had 2 really nice futurity horses get injured. I learned a ton along the way and promised to do my best to not wreck another horse training wise or with doing the wrong things soundness wise. This is my first futurity horse that I have actually been able to go on with. I would say it all changed when I started to ride with Kandi Horn and Marci Laye. They kind of set my training program up.

BRR: What are your future plans for you and your horse throughout the rest of the 2023 futurity year and beyond?

Buss: I just want to keep making smooth, clean runs and have a confident, sound horse at the end of the year. I would like to go to rodeos one day so I always have that in the back of my mind.

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Buss: Jesus, My phone & Coffee

WRWC Final Athlete Roster Announced

Ahead of the 2023 Women's Rodeo World Championship (WRWC), scheduled to storm the Fort Worth Stockyards at the Cowtown Coliseum May 17-20, the organization has announced the final roster of 193 female rodeo athletes set to compete.

The WRWC is the largest event purse in the history of women's rodeo. It will pay out $750,000 in 2023 while crowning World Champions in both the Pro and Challenger classifications in the following disciplines: Team Roping (Heading and Heeling), Breakaway Roping and Barrel Racing.

The fourth edition of the WRWC will be hosted at the Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth May 18-20 in conjunction with the PBR World Finals, with a roster comprised of 50-barrel racers, 46 team roping pairs, and 51 breakaway ropers.

The roster is highlighted by 2022 All-Around Cowgirl, Hope Thompson (Abilene, Texas). Thompson earned the ultimate cowgirl accolade by accumulating World Champions Rodeo Alliance leaderboard points, then putting an exclamation point on the world all-around race with an impressive showing at the 2022 WRWC. With $231,000 in WCRA earnings alone, Hope is the winningest cowgirl in the WCRA's brief history. In 2022, she won $36,200 and has a shot at another $120,000 should she strike in both the breakaway and team roping.

Hope has earned three WRWC titles—two in the heeling and the 2022 world all-around crown. She won the first championship in 2020 heeling for Riley Smith (Whitsett, Texas), where the two talented Texas women walked away with $110,000 each and the 2022 WRWC Challenger championship title.

The 2023 roster includes 2022 Breakaway Roping champion Martha Angelone (Stephenville, Texas) and runner-up Britta Strain (Bryan, TX). In the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round, a ferociously contested Breakaway Roping Event Championship race capped off a slug-fest between Martha Angelone (Stephenville, Texas) and barrel racer/breakaway roper Britta Strain (Bryan, TX).

The 2022 Team Roping champions Kylie Mclean (San Tan Valley, Arizona) and Megan Gunter (Mccammon, Idaho) return this year. The duo earned a remarkable 6.65-second time in 2022 to take home the top spot. Tracey Nelson (McDavid, Florida) and Kaylee Billingsley (Phoenix, AZ) notched a valiant 7.96-second run to take the number two spot. Mclean and Gunter took home $60,000 individually, a Jesse Jaymes Silversmith's buckle, and the WRWC barrel racing Event Champion Title.

Each WRWC Event Champion will take home a minimum of $60,000, while the All-Around Champion will collect a $20,000 cash bonus. The WRWC is a culmination of a year-long race of women's rodeo events worldwide. On May 17, WRWC will host a Last Chance Qualifier where an additional 9-39 athletes will to the roster. The additions will be based on discipline and entries.

All qualifying rounds of competition will be held May 18-19. The top 12 in each roping event will advance to the May 18 Showdown Round. The top three from the Showdown Round will progress to the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round to duke it out for the $60,000 prize. Barrel racers will be exempt from the showdown round, with 12 athletes advancing directly to the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round. Detailed advancement can be found here.

A complete tentative competition schedule of events is listed below

May 17 - Noon CT - WRWC Last Chance Qualifier

May 18 - Noon CT - WRWC Round 1

- 7:30 pm - WRWC Perf 1

May 19 - 10 am - WRWC Round 2

- 7:30 - WRWC Semi Finals

May 20 - 1:00 - WRWC Showdown Round & Triple Crown of Rodeo Round

The event will be broadcast daily on PBR RidePass on Pluto TV and Cowgirl Channel.

The 2023 WRWC will also be featured on Cowboy Channel the week of May 22 at 8 p.m. ET each night.

National Sports Personality Bonnie-Jill Laffin joins Cowgirl Channel

National sports personality Bonnie-Jill Laffin, has been named host and reporter of the new Cowgirl Channel, the sister network to the Cowboy Channel. She will also co-host and anchor "Women's Western Sports Roundup," the first women's western lifestyle and cowgirl culture television show covering the latest stories and interviews with the industry's leading women, event highlights, music, fashion, and more. Recently launching on Monday, May 1, "Women's Western Sports Roundup" airs weekdays at 12 p.m. ET.

"I am thrilled to be joining The Cowgirl Channel and to work with some incredible women," said Laffin. "My heart has always been with horses and the western culture, so it feels good to get back to my roots. I hope people will tune in because we are doing something really special and raising the awareness of women in western sports."

Laffin has several firsts in her career. She is the first and only female NBA scout, holding an executive position with the Los Angeles Lakers. She is the first to dance on a professional level for three teams in two sports, starting with the NBA and the Golden State Warriors and moving to the NFL with both the San Francisco 49ers and the Dallas Cowboys. She is also the first female to be awarded six championship rings in two professional sports, earning a Super Bowl ring while cheering for the 49ers and five NBA championships during her time with the Lakers.

"Bonnie Jill's passion for the western lifestyle has been most impressive," said Patrick Gottsch, founder of Rural Media Group. "Her long-time advocacy for women's sports makes Bonnie-Jill the absolute perfect fit to anchor our new Cowgirl Channel and its original programming."

Laffin is also a competitive barrel racer, and recently created her own rodeo drill and flag team, The Liberty Belles, and is a member of the Alameda County Sheriff's Mounted Posse. She and her beautiful mare, Elsa Rae, were selected to ride in the 2023 Rose Bowl Parade. Devoted to giving back through her own non-profit Hounds and Heroes and Horses, Laffin matches shelter dogs with combat veterans and rescues horses for equine therapy for disabled veterans. ## 2023 Cinch World Championship Junior Rodeo Open Entry Now Open WCRA Division Youth (WCRA DY) and the Lazy E Arena announced that entries are now open for the Cinch World Championship Junior Rodeo presented by Montana Silversmiths (WCJR) in Guthrie, Oklahoma, July 25-29. The 2023 event will have over $200,000 in guaranteed added money and is open to any youth athlete ages 19 and under (as of the first day of competition). The 2022 WCJR paid out more than $271,000.

Entries for the youth world championship event opened on May 1 at Noon CT and will close on July 6. Entry fees for the Junior Division (ages 19-13) will be $350, while Youth Division (ages 15-10) will be $250 per entry. All entries will be taken on nextgenrodeo.com.

In July 2022, the Lazy E Arena and the WCRA Division Youth (DY) announced they would join forces on the 2023 Cinch World Championship Junior Rodeo. The 2023 event is open to youth athletes competing in 11 disciplines which include – Bareback Riding, Ladies Breakaway Roping, Saddle Bronc Riding, Steer Wrestling, Team Roping Heading, Team Roping Heeling, Tie-Down Roping, Ladies Barrel Racing, Ladies Pole Bending, Ladies Goat Tying, and Bull Riding. WCJR athletes can enter only one age division and once per discipline. Roughstock events are Junior Divisions only.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

After last week, I'm sure that people are attracted to someone ELSE working... lol!
Mike and I took a week of our vacation to do some much needed maintenance around our place. We tore out the fence on two sides of our small property and replaced it. We live by a pretty busy highway.

We had bicycle riders, runners, walkers and school kids pass by as we labored along. If the runners would have stopped, we could have gotten their heart rate up tamping fence posts! Nope. We got to know our neighbors. We like them. They just wanted to visit.

We received lots of waves and horn toots. Guess they couldn't see that I was exhausted! No family members showed up to help. And no, we didn't ask for any help. Most people have their own list of projects to get done. But that doesn't apply to your church.

Do you volunteer to help at your church? Teach a Sunday school class? Spruce up the outside? Sing? Help in the kitchen during dinners? In God's house there is room for everyone to have a part, for everyone to do something. YOU have a part. Matt. 6:33 tells us, "Seek first the kingdom of God, and ALL THESE THINGS WILL BE ADDED TO YOU!"

Friends, you cannot outgive God. What you give Him will be multiplied back to you! Isn't that a good deal?

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
