Ava Grayce Sanders & Tampa Bay Rey Deal Crowned National High School Rodeo Finals Champions

By Tanya Randall

Ava Grayce Sanders and Tampa Bay Rey Deal (“King”) took the 2021 National High School Rodeo Association Barrel Racing Championship home to Vero Beach, Florida.

The 15-year-old jockey and 8-year-old gelding turned in consistent runs all week to take home the championship in their rookie appearance at the National High School Rodeo Finals in Lincoln, Nebraska.

“Our goal was just to stay consistent and make it back for the finals,” said Sanders, the Florida High School Rodeo Reserve Barrel Racing Champion. “King is normally really great about being consistent.”

They won their performance with a 17.501 and placed third in the first round. Using the same game plan for the second round, Sanders and King posted a 17.525 for fifth in their performance and 12th in the round. They held the lead in the two run aggregate going into the final run.

By virtue of random draw, Sanders and King were the first runners out in the finals. They stayed consistent with a 17.547, good enough for fifth in the finals and aggregate win.

“We just went in there to make another smooth, solid run,” she explained. “Our goal is never to win it, just make sure we have another smooth, solid run. We ended up holding the average through four drags by 1/1000th of a second.”

Cornville, Arizona’s Karsen Jackson, who ran in the very last drag, topped the finals with a 17.311, but finished with a 52.574 to Sander’s 52.573.

Sanders, however, didn’t stick around after her run to see how things played out. She went back to the stalls to care for King.

“I didn’t even know I had won!” she exclaimed. “My mom and my best friend had to run and come tell me. I was completely clueless. I already had my jeans tucked into my boots, I had hosed him off and got him water. I was just sitting there talking to him. They were like, ‘Ava Grayce! You won!’ I was like ‘No Way!’ I was honestly shocked!”

Her mother Cathy said telling her daughter that she won was one of the best moments of the NHSRF.

Cathy related, “When we walked up, she said, ‘Momma, I really tried.’ I said, ‘Ava Grayce, baby, you won!’ It was really a pretty special moment. She was really more concerned about her partner than herself. I think that made it even better.”

Her mother was also proud of Sander’s ability to handle the pressure of not only going in with a lead but with handling the outside distractions as well. Right before making her Finals runs, she had to do appearance obligations for the NHSRF production crew.

“That was really a shock to us,” said her mom. “She’s very regimented in how she handles herself and has a warmup routine and all of a sudden that got blown to bits. We were like ‘Oh my gosh, Ava!’ She had to be first out in the first event and the production of NHSRF wanted introductions and interviews, and she needed to set that aside, jump on her horse, and go make a solid run when she’s holding first in the average. That’s a lot of pressure for a 15-year-old kid. For me, that was the most compelling thing. I was so impressed with her for being able to hold herself together and hold him together to be able to make another smooth, solid businessman run and walk out of there as the National Champ.”

He doesn’t get a lot of slow work because I don’t feel like he needs it. I will occasionally do the four barrel drill by Joy Wargo, which has helped him tremendously. I highly encourage anyone who is having trouble getting their horse to move their feet around the barrel to try that drill. It keeps them quick and snappy. Other than that, it’s just lots and lots of long trotting.

parents enrolled her in a horse camp which led to Indian River Riding Club. Just two years had passed before Sanders' desire and ability began outpacing the horses she had access to when King came along.

A cutting horse reject, King is by the High Brow Cat, Peppy San Badger stallion Dealwithacoolcat out of Dual Rey, Doc's Oak mare Emily Rey. He was trained for barrel by Dalton Locke, who sold him to Sanders as a 3- coming, 4-year-old.

Although Sanders was young and her horse green, they clicked instantly. In 2019, they won the NBHA Youth 1D World Championships. They have since qualified multiple times to the American Semifinals, Jr American and Jr NFR. Earlier this year, they were the high-money earners at the Jr American / Patriot with $35,417!

Sanders decided to test the rodeo waters more after having so much success at the larger jackpot races.

"I wanted to do something on a national level, so we decided to high school rodeo," Sanders said. "I wanted to try something different. I wanted to try going to something outside of the Southeast and really 'testing our salt.' I wanted to prove to myself that he could do it and I could do it."

The biggest change with the switch from barrel races to rodeo was the atmosphere. In fact, Nationals was the second time for Sanders to run King at an outdoor event. Their first was the week before at the International Youth Finals Rodeo in Shawnee, Oklahoma.

"We didn't not have the greatest time at Shawnee," Sanders admitted. "I went in there thinking, 'I've got this. I've run him a million times,' but it was his first time in a big, outdoor pen. At Shawnee, they have three pens going at the same time, so it was all really new for him. Our first go we didn't do so hot, but we dialed it in for the second round. It was honestly a great learning experience for me and for him, just learning that we need to be more in tune with each other. It really gave us confidence going into Nationals."

She was also really grateful to the NHSRF production crew for dragging every five runners.

"That's what we're used to at barrel races and it made a huge difference for me and gave me confidence," she said. "I knew it was going to be fair and better for the health of my horse."

Sanders, a rising junior attending public school, said she's unsure of her future plans with King. They qualified for another Jr American while in Shawnee and she's currently considering the World Championship Junior Rodeo this week in Guthrie.

She wanted to thank her sponsors for helping her go down the road and keeping King healthy and safe, her parents for supporting her dreams and God for the talent to do this.

Johnson Wins Gold at Days Of '47

Wenda Johnson and her pair of speedy First Moonflash geldings; Macgyver Moonflash & Steal Money, have been tearing up the rodeo world. Between the Calgary Stampede, the Ogden, UT prorodeo and this big gold medal win at the WCRA Days of 47 win in Salt Lake, UT; Johnson and her team have won just under $50k in the last few weeks! This week Johnson got on the speedy Macgyver Moonflash to run a smoking 16.9 in the Gold Medal Round to take the $25k and a gold medal. We caught up with her to talk about her most recent win.

BRR: Can you take us through your two runs at the Days of 47?

Johnson: The Days of 47 1st round was Mac's first run after his big slip at the Semi-Finals in Calgary 4 days prior. It was important to see how he was feeling and make sure he was feeling alright. He felt good, and in the final run, he was ready to make a run.

BRR: With the Olympics going on right now as well, what was it like getting a gold medal around your neck at the Days of 47?

Johnson: The Olympic theme, was amazing!! And definitely a great feeling to have the gold medal placed around my neck.

BRR: Right now both your horses Mac (Macgyver Moonflash) and Mo (Steal Money) are winning wherever they go. They are both by sire First Moonflash, but how are they similar and how are they different?

Johnson: They are similar in athletic ability but differ in personality and style. Mac is smooth and solid, Mo has a lot more torque and explosive movements.

BRR: Tell us about Macgyver Moonflash & what makes him so special?

Johnson: Mac is such a sweet, kind, and willing horse. He is easy to be around and really wants to do his best. He is definitely develop-

SUCCEED® Means Speed!

“SUCCEED is a game changer.”

Cathy Allen

“I stumbled across SUCCEED back in 2007 for a horse that had many behavioral issues and a lot of anxiety. With SUCCEED, she went from being a problem child to a champion. I trust SUCCEED because I have used it and won with it for over a decade.”

Cooked to Perfection.

The way horse feed should be.

For over 35 years, HYGAIN® feeds have been perfected with painstaking attention to every detail. Our feed range includes a not-so-secret ingredient: the Australian Sweet Lupin, a soluble super fiber that is low in starch and sugar with high energy sources for optimal conditioning with more control.

Made in an equine-only manufacturing facility for product purity with no cross-contamination, each of our feeds is formulated to deliver optimal health, enhance nutritional value, improve palatability and increase feed efficiency.

HYGAIN. The Highest Standard in Horse Nutrition.

Summer Pauly & JL Little Wag Crowned NBHA Teen World 1D Champions

By Tanya Randall

Summer Pauly of Dry Ridge, Kentucky, made her first trip to the NBHA Youth World Championships ten years ago aboard a pony she trained herself. In 2021, she left Perry, Georgia, as the NBHA Youth World Teen 1D World Champion thanks to the efforts of JL Little Wag (“Wags”), owned by champion horsewoman Janis Wagner.

Pauly, 17, grew up idolizing her neighbor, who has titles from the All-American Quarter Horse Congress and AQHA World Show to the International Finals Rodeo.

“Ever since I was a little girl I always dreamed of being as fast as her,” said the rising high school senior. “I’ve always looked up to Janis.”

She coveted her horses, especially Wags. Bred by the late Jud Little, Wags is by leading barrel horse sire JL Dash Ta Heaven and out of Wagner’s homebred mare Reneoni, by Rene Dan Jet. Reneoni is out of Regally Royally Red, who along with her full sister Dinkys Purple Rain, carried Wagner to numerous barrel racing, pole bending and rodeo titles.

“I’ve known Wags since he was a baby,” noted Pauly. “I told Janis, ‘I want to ride this horse someday.’ She said, ‘Well, when I get him trained, I’ll let you ride him.’”

This past February, she got the opportunity to ride Wags.

“She called me to come over and ride,” Pauly recalled. “When I got there, she told me to put my saddle on Wags. I had no idea! I rode him around a little bit and she said, ‘Well, take him through the pattern.’ We clicked instantly.”

Pauly’s first competition on Wags was a couple of months ago.

“Me and Wags really clicked from the very beginning,” she said. “I’m really excited about it. We’ve only been to a handful of shows. He’s done very well for me.”

Nerves got Pauly’s youth world off to a poor start.

“The first go I was super nervous because I knew what he could do and I had a lot of expectations,” she said. “I over rode him. I had to rethink what I did. The one thing I’m told to do on that horse is just sit there. The more I want to ride him the worse he is. He’s better if you just sit there.”

“In the second go, I played it really conservative just so I could make it to the Finals. I believe he was eighth in the Perdue Arena. I was thinking he had some more because I was very conservative on that run because I didn’t want to hit a barrel.

“In the Finals, I told my mom, ‘I’m just going for it.’ I relaxed in the back. When he was going in, he was ready. He was calm and collected for me. He can sometimes get a little out of control, but the calmer he is, the better he’s going to work.”

Pauly wanted to thank her mom and whole family for all of their support.

“They’ve done a lot for me,” she said. “My mom takes me to all these shows. I honestly couldn’t do it without her. My grandpa takes me whenever my mom has to work.”

She also wanted to thank Wagner for the opportunity to run Wags.

“I’m not sure I would have won the world without this horse,” she said. “It really means a lot.”

Pressley Green & Little Jetsablazin Win Historic NBHA Youth 1D World Championship

By Tanya Randall

When Pressley Green won the NBHA Youth 1D World Championship, she and her dad, Michael Green, became the first father-daughter duo to hold youth 1D world titles. Like his daughter, the elder Green was 12 when he won his first of two NBHA Youth World titles in 1999.

"I really wanted her to win it," said Michael. "We were talking about being on the Wall together."

The youngest Green also marked the family's third generation to win an NBHA 1D World title. Michael got the family started with his youth titles in 1999 and 2002. His father Mike, an NBHA charter member and long time director, won three senior 1D titles in 2008, 2014 and 2015.

Not to be left out Janelle Green—a.k.a. 'MeMe'—won the senior world 1D title in 2016, and her great uncle Talmadge Green won the open 1D world title in 2013.

Pressley, an eighth grader, said none of this would have been possible without her Aunt Madeleine, also a past NBHA 1D reserve world champion. Madeleine was about Pressley's age when she fell in love with a petite, stocking-legged Palomino mare that she wouldn't let her dad sell. That mare became the legendary futurity horse Sissys Little Coin.

"We wouldn't have any of these horses without her," said Pressley.

Both of Pressley's finalists were out of the great Packin Sixes mare. Her champion Little Jetsablazin is by leading sire Blazin Jetolena. Blazin is Janelle's main horse.

"I wish she was mine, but she's not," said Pressley, who tipped a barrel on the mare to win the All American Youth by 4/10ths back in June. "I keep trying to talk her into it. 'MeMe, why don't we trade horses or something?' I've rode her four times now. I really like her."

She's already laid claim the Sissys Slick Design, a 6-year-old stallion by leading sire Slick By Design.

"PawPaw gave him to me the other day," she said. "He said I could have him if I was the good little girl I was supposed to be, so he's mine now!"

Michael said she has his dad completely wrapped around her little finger, so the transaction comes as no surprise.

At the NBHA Youth World, Pressley had a tough first round. "In the first go, I was really nervous and didn't get any (of her horses) back," she said. "I didn't really like that arena as much as I liked the big arena. In the second go, the only horse that made it back was Blazin. I was really happy because that was the one I really wanted to make it back."

She got Slick back to the Finals through the Redemption Round, a third run where each division winner got a bye into the short go.

In the Finals, she ran Slick first. She says he reminds her of her first great horse Bam Bam. Registered as Tastefully, Bam Bam was a generational champion for the Green family and carried Mike to his 2015 title.

"I was sitting a close second after I ran," she said. "He kind of stopped at this first and bowed off of his second and third. I was still very excited because I've been really trying to get with him. We're finally starting to get consistent."

On Blazin, Pressley got a little nervous at the start where the 11-year-old mare can be a little fractious. Her PawPaw had the mare's hindquarters to the arena and told her to be ready to go when he turned her around.

"When I turned the first, I was like, 'I turned a really good first barrel so I can't hit the second.' I made it past the second barrel and I thought if I get past the third barrel, I'm going to really have to go for it," she said. "When I saw my time, I started crying!"

Her dad, who stayed in the stands to film and take pictures, was so nervous he was shaking.

"It was crazy," said Michael. "Even winning both of mine at 12 and 15, it wasn't even a drop in the bucket to what it feels like to watch your kid do it. I tried to get my camera ready to take pictures for her run and I couldn't even hold my hand steady!"

Pressley wanted to thank her dad for cheering her on, her grandpa for helping her and "God for letting this happen."

Pit Vipers -- Kelly Bruner & French Zone Win Snake River Stampede

By Tanya Randall

Former National Finals Rodeo qualifier Kelly Bruner may just have another go at the big dance in Las Vegas. She and her homebred mare, French Zone ("Hollywood"), now owned by Charlie Cole and Jason Martin of High Point Performance Horses, topped the $23,000-added Snake River Stampede in Nampa, Idaho, for $11,258.

"That's her type of pen," said the Millsap, Texas, veterinarian of the Ford Idaho Center. "She likes a smaller pen and a wall. It's just a matter of getting her all the way to her spots."

Bruner and Hollywood made their first run in slack on Monday, turning in a 16.69 which finished fifth in the round. They won the short round with a 16.54 to secure the aggregate.

"The week before I had turned out of everything and went home," Bruner noted. "I ran (Hollywood) twice at Cowtown Coliseum, Friday night and Saturday. We were going to come back out if she worked good at Northside in that coliseum because it's similar (to Nampa). She smoked two really fast runs but caught barrels on both. She was a 13.6 and a 13.7. That's when we decided that nothing is wrong, so back out they go!"

She's got her two homebreds in the trailer. Hollywood, an 8-year-old daughter of Frenchmans Guy out of the Thoroughbred mare Star Zone, by Wild Zone, is splitting runs with Tufferenell ("Nell"), a 6-year-old daughter of Tres Seis out of the Leaving Memories mare Memories Formicha.

While Hollywood got the call in Nampa, Nell ran at Cheyenne, Wyoming, and Ogden, Utah. They got rained out at Spanish Fork, Utah.

"I'm pretty proud of the fact that both of the horses that I'm running we've raised and trained," she said. "I feel like from here on out it's going to be horses that we've raised. We've got some really nice stuff that's coming up."

Bruner and her husband Jack have a solid band of proven producing or performing mares including Romancing Suzy, the dam of her NFR horse Suzytresseis, and No Miss Taken, a daughter of PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Star Zone.

THE RUNDOWN w/Kelly Bruner

French Zone, "Hollywood" 15.3-16 hands, 1,250 lbs.

"She's a big Frenchmans Guy because she's got a Thoroughbred mom." BIT: Professional's Choice 6-inch shank with a ported mouthpiece. "I call it the Bit of Champions because it's what I used on Suzy (her NFR horse Suzytresseis). She doesn't like a tiedown or a bonnet, but she needs something to remind her to slow down because she's very free."

SADDLE: Modified Martin Lisa Lockhart Fearless

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice on all four

SHOEING: Thicker steel shoe to add more depth and concavity; shod by her husband Jack Bruner

FEED: Equilene by Bluebonnet

HAY: Alfalfa

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Shockwave therapy for her neck; attended to by Dr. Marty Tanner

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "I usually try to ride them five to six days a week if they're not running. I just try not to get her hot. She's a super good rider. She does flying lead changes and rides like a Western pleasure horse, really collected with a pretty headset. I'll do a little light barrel work, like walk her or trot, just to remind her to slow down because she does get really free."

SPONSORS: Jack Bruner, High Point Performance Horses

"We've got about four Tres Seises at the house," she added. "I really like the Tres Seises. I've got a couple of HP Dash Ta Fiestas that I'm hopeful for. (One of which is a 3-year-old out of Hollywood). We do have some Firewater Ta Fames and we're excited about them too."

Even though her profession is practicing veterinary medicine, Bruner has made a lot of nice barrel horses. Hollywood, who sold to High Point before the 2020 Fourth of July run, helped get Ryann Pedone to her first NFR. Just recently, Hollywood's half-brother by Frenchmans Fabulous, Fabulous Zone carried Toni Dixon to a round win at the Calgary Stampede.

"I was thrilled!" said Bruner of the horse she called Pinkie that's now known as Mr Fab. "When I ran there, he ponied me in for every run. Now, he got to be the man! He would never run in the mud for me, but he does for her! He loves her and he's her pride and joy. It's nice when someone else can take your horse and do a good job with it."

After last year's NFR, High Point offered Hollywood back to an extremely appreciative Bruner.

"They could have put someone else on her, but I'm lucky I'm the one," said Bruner. "They've been wonderful."

Incidentally, this is the third Martin and Cole-owned horse to have won the Snake River Stampede. Michelle McLeod won it with their horses Slick By Design in 2013 and Kellies Chick in 2015.

Prior to Nampa, Bruner was sitting 37th in the WPRA World Standings. The victory bumped her to 24th with $28,121. She's got rodeos in Helena and Lewiston, Montana, Preston, Idaho and Rock Springs, Wyoming, this week and four more rodeos the next.

She said she plans to stay on the road until "I give in or get something done—at least a couple of more weeks." Bruner has flown home to work whenever possible. She's got Josey Groves driving for her and taking care of the horses while she's home and Betty Thompson holding down the fort at the veterinary clinic while she's on the road. She's extremely grateful to have the help of both ladies.

2021 WPRA World Finals Returns to Waco in November

The 2021 WPRA World Finals presented by Nutrena will return to the EXTRACO Event Center in Waco, Texas, for the eighth consecutive year this November. Next to the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, the WPRA World Finals is one of the biggest events of the year for the WPRA that attracts the highest caliber of barrel racers and female ropers from across the country.

In 2020, the WPRA partnered with Elite Barrel Racing in co-producing the weekend event which paid out $375,000 in cash and prizes. In 2021, the WPRA World Finals will run alongside the Elite Barrelnanza, November 11-14.

"We are excited to return to Extraco Event Center and build on the partnership with Elite that was started in 2020," said Jimmie Munroe, WPRA President. "This is our opportunity to recognize and crown our world champions in our futurity/derby and junior division as well as our all-around, team roping and tie-down roping. It is shaping up to be a great weekend of women rodeo in action."

The WPRA World Finals will once again feature a $15,000 added card holder barrel race with money counting toward the 2022 ProRodeo Standings. The permit only race will boast $5,000 added and each of the roping disciplines (breakaway, team roping and tie-down) will feature $5,000 ($10,000 total for the team roping). All totaled the WPRA World Finals will boast $60,000 in added money with the Elite & TQHA featuring a $20,000 added open race with an additional $10,000 Texas bred incentive.

For more information on this championship event visit www.wpra.com in the coming weeks.

The Only Gold Medal Rodeo in the World

While the 2020 Summer Olympic Games in Tokyo are just getting underway, the Only Gold Medal Rodeo in the World came to a close on Pioneer Day in Utah at the Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo presented by Zions Bank in Salt Lake City. Making the evening more special was that July 24 was also the National Day of the Cowboy in 2021.

Breakaway roper Tacy Kay Webb turned in the fastest time stopping the clock in a quick 1.95 seconds to win her first Gold Medal. Webb, of Madisonville, TX, got a standing ovation from the sold out crowd thanking her for her work as an ICU nurse in dealing with COVID-19 since the start of the pandemic.

"This past year has been tough seeing this virus first hand and the patients battling against it. It was not easy," stated Webb. "To go through this past year, I just have to step back a little and realize how blessed I am to be able to do what I love."

Reigning WPRA World Champion Breakaway roper Jackie Crawford captured her second consecutive silver medal stopping the clock in 2.28 seconds and Bradi Good captured her first bronze medal in a time of 2.48 seconds. Webb pocketed $25,000, Crawford $12,500 and Good $6,000.

A total of 288 competitors took their shot at a share of the $562,500 in prize money and three in each discipline were awarded with a Gold, Silver or Bronze medal.

World Champion Clayton Biglow kicked off the night with a 90.5 point ride on Northcutt-Macza's Stevie Knicks to win his first gold medal to go alongside his gold buckle. Biglow of Clements, CA, finished ahead of Richmond Champion with an 85 on Powder River Rodeo's Two Buck Chuck, and Garrett Shadbolt and Taylor Broussard tied for third with an 84.5. Shadbolt received the bronze medal after having the higher score in the semifinal round.

Another world champion found his way to the top of the medal podium in the steer wrestling. Tyler Waguespack took the title in a time of 3.69 seconds, outrunning Jesse Brown in 4.39 and Cody Devers in 4.43 seconds. These are the first medals for all three men.

Tanner Green was the big winner of the night capturing two medals in two different events. His first came in the team roping when he teamed with Will Woodfin for the Gold. They stopped the clock in 5.08 seconds to add $25,000 each to their bank account. Green returned in the tie-down roping and finished third to collect the bronze medal. Green of Cotulla, TX, stopped the clock in 10.15 seconds in the tie-down roping.

All-around world champion Ryan Jarrett can now add a gold medal to his gold buckle after stopping the clock in 8.03 seconds to win the tie-down roping. Marshall Leonard took silver in a time of 8.95 seconds.

It was a dogfight in the saddle bronc riding with Brody Cress and Chase Brooks both posting 90.5 points on the night. Cress of Hillsdale, WY, spurred Sankey Rodeo's Black Tie, while Brooks of Deer Lodge, MT, was matched with Powder River Rodeo's Miss Valley. Cress received the Gold based on the Days of '47 tiebreaker rules that reverted to the higher score in the semifinal round. Canadian Kolby Wanchuk took bronze with a 90 point ride. Wanchuk of Sherwood Park, Alberta, rode Northcutt-Macza's Get Smart for $6,000.

While an ICU nurse took top honors in the ladies breakaway roping, it was a nurse practitioner atop the medal stand in the barrel racing. Wenda Johnson turned in the fastest time of the week when it counted the most. Johnson of Pawhuska, OK, stopped the clock aboard Macgyver Moonflash in a time of 16.948 seconds. Hallie Hanssen, who came in as the No. 1 on the WCRA segment 8 leaderboard, took silver in a time of 16.997. Michelle Darling and Acey Pinkston tied for third with a time of 17.184 seconds. Again the tiebreaker rules for medals went back to the faster time in the semifinal round. Darling had a 17.114, while Pinkston finished with a 17.353. They did split the money with each receiving $4,500.

Brazilian Claudio Montanha Jr was the only one to turn in a qualified ride on the final night scoring 91 points on Phenom Genetics' Arctic Assassin. He walked away with a Gold medal and $25,000. The silver and bronze medal went to the Dalton's — Dalton Rudman and Dalton Davis. Rudman received the silver after scoring 90.5 in the semifinal round and Davis got bronze due to his 88.5 in the semifinal round.

The Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo presented by Zions Bank, took place at the $17.5 million state-of-the-art Days of '47 Arena at the Utah State Fairpark, custom designed and built for rodeo. The venue—an outdoor arena located in the heart of Salt Lake City—features over 10,000 stadium-style seats.

For only the sixth time in the history of rodeo, riders competed for Gold, Silver or Bronze Medals. The first two times were in conjunction with the Olympic Winter Games in Calgary (1988) and Salt Lake City (2002), when rodeo was part of the Cultural Olympiad and the other three times being the Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo 2017-2019. 2021 marked only the second time for breakaway ropers as their event was added to the roster in 2019. The medals awarded at the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo were produced by OC Tanner, the same company that made the Olympic medals for the champions of the 2002 Olympic Winter Games.

CBS will air the Gold Medal Round of the Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo on July 31 at 11 a.m. MT with Craig Hummer and Ty Murray calling the action and Kate Harrison handling the sideline reporting.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Summer time is wedding time! My friend and I were talking about a wedding she would be going to the following weekend when my youngest granddaughter piped up from the back seat. She said, "Would you take a picture of the grooms face for me?" Okaaaaay. That was a new one. She went on, "The first thing I look at when I go to a wedding is the bride's dress! But I always look at the grooms face next!"

After my friend said she'd try, we went on to other things. But later on I was driving home and I started thinking about that strange request. And BAM!, the Lord showed me something.

When Jesus returns, He's returning for His bride, us. And then I thought about what His face would be like. What would your face be like if you had given your life for someone and then returned to receive that person to yourself for all eternity?

Such love... such compassion... such sacrifice. What WILL Jesus' face show when He sees us? I can only imagine... and rejoice that I will be ever with Him for all eternity because I asked Him to be my Lord. Romans 10:8-10.

Have you asked Him to be your Lord? If you haven't, do it now. He's coming soon for His bride!
