Rookie Bayleigh Choate & Hail To Be Famous Sweep Ponoka, Earns High Money Honors Over Fourth

By Tanya Randall

WPROA Rookie leader Bayleigh Choate was the high-money earner over the Fourth of July Run, affectionately known as Cowboy Christmas, with $26,267.

"I've been blessed this week, that's for sure," said Choate, a Georgia native now residing in Fort Worth, Texas.

Her clean sweep of the $55,000-added Ponoka Stampede, held June 27-July 3 in Alberta, Canada, alone was enough to earn the title with a $21,302 paycheck. She also placed second at the $12,500-added Williams Lake Stampede, held June 30-July 2 in British Columbia, for $3,647, sixth at the $3,000-added Airdrie Pro Rodeo, held July 1-2 in Alberta, for $761 and seventh at the $3,500-added Raymond Stampede, also held July 1-2 in Alberta, for $557.

"My first run started with the long round at Ponoka on Monday," she explained. "We rested Tuesday. Wednesday we made the long drive to Williams Lake. We got there early so I could let the horses rest. I ran there Thursday night. Then we had to drive all night long to try to make the 3:30 perf at Airdrie on Friday. Saturday I was up in slack in Raymond. Sunday I made my final and final four runs at Ponoka."

Choate ran two talented horses that she purchased from Cody and Luann Johnson's Twisted J Ranch.

Hail To Be Famous ("Dash"), a 7-year-old chestnut gelding, was actually bred by Luann Johnson's sister Terri Willingham. He is by Dash Ta Fame out of the Flaming Talent, Docs Superstar Bar mare, Itty Bitty Boon, a full sister to NFR qualifier Top Tally and three-quarter sister to 2007 WPROA World Champion Talents Dark Angel.*

"We've owned him since he was a 3-year-old," Choate said of Dash. "I've probably ran him 30 times his 4-, 5-year-old year then he got hurt and was off for two years. Dash just got released to compete Memorial Weekend, beginning of June."

TJR Stinson Blue ("Boozer"), a 5-year-old blue roan gelding, is by the Johnson's stallion Eddie Stinson out of YO Threatnin Frost, by Pat Cowan.

"I've had him since he was a baby," she said. "He was my first futurity horse, my first horse to do everything with. I just love that horse!"

Choate chose Hail To Be Famous ("Dash") for Ponoka even though the gelding had extremely limited rodeo experience.

"I was up in Wainwright the week before and I ran him there," she explained. "The pens are kind of similar, Wainwright and Ponoka. He won Wainwright and the average there. Boozer is not really confident outside yet. He's still learning. I thought, 'Well, I'm going to run Dash.'"

Her plan almost backfired from the start, when a mounted shooting demonstration before the barrel racing terrified Dash.

"It scared the death out of him and he ran halfway around the track," she said with a laugh now, because at the time it wasn't so funny. "I about didn't get back up there to make my run. He stone cold froze and would not go anywhere near that arena. They were setting the barrels and I'm still half way around the track and he's not moving."

Choate did make it to the arena on time and Dash posted the fastest time of the event that ended up winning the first round. "I was really shocked how he handled it after all of that," she said.

make two runs on Sunday.

Ponoka took the top 12 from the long round to a Final, where the top four on two runs advanced to a Showdown Round.

Choate and Dash won the Final to lead the two run aggregate. They also won the Showdown Round with its big $7,500 check for first.

With her big weekend, Choate took a commanding lead of the WPRA Rookie Standings and jumped into the Top 5 in the WPRA World Standings.

The 19-year-old filled her WPRA permit last year at her very first rodeo in Denton, Texas. She was just trying to get her feet wet but ended up earning a spot in the Fort Worth Rodeo with the win.

"I knew I wanted to rodeo but I didn't know when I wanted to rodeo," she said. The qualification to the lucrative winter rodeo determined her "when."

"I didn't even know what I was doing," she laughed. "For the first six months I literally made rookie mistakes every time I went in the pen. I felt like everything went wrong."

Choate had $500 won when she got the call to fill a position at Rodeo Austin in March.

"I was sitting in Montgomery, Alabama, and I had just hit a barrel," she recalled. "A friend called me and said, 'It takes one rodeo to turn your whole year around.' I'm thinking, 'Yeah, right. You're just telling me that to make me feel better.'"

"Then the WPRA called me and told me that they had a spot open at Austin. We drove all night to get Austin for the perf the next day. Austin was the rodeo that turned my whole year around. I had to call that girl back and tell her, 'You were right!'"

Choate said the biggest difference came when she quit trying to win and started trying to place.

"When I started thinking, 'just pull a check,' I started doing better," she said. "I was trying too hard. You look at the standings and see these girls have $50,000 won and I have $500! What am I doing? It was hard. I felt like I was trying too hard to win and when I quit trying to win and started to roll with it, I started doing good."

Her summer run plans were dictated by the Calgary Stampede qualifier held in Innisfail, Alberta, in June. After earning her spot at the Stampede on Dash, Choate decided to stay in Canada.

"I thought if I qualify for Calgary, I'll just stay up here and if I don't, I'll just go back," she Choate, who is out in the first pool at the Calgary Stampede, starting July 8. "I stayed up here because I qualified. Now we're just hanging out."

She said she misses the heat, but her horses are enjoying the cooler weather in Canada. The Canadian people have also been great, she added.

moved up into the Top 20!

"The people are so nice," she said. "Everyone has been so helpful and welcoming. The rodeo committees have been great up here. I've really enjoyed it."

Choate is most grateful to have her parents, Mike and Mandy Ralston, with her on the trip.

"I want to thank my parents," she said. "They have been so supportive through the good times and the bad times. Financially, they've helped me tremendously. They're there helping me drive and set up pens. They're always there for me. Having them travel with me this summer has been so nice. I'm so thankful for that. This wouldn't be possible without them because I have no clue what I'm doing!"

In 2007, Kay Blandford won the WPRA World Championship, while Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi won the Professional Women's Barrel Racing (PWBR) title through the PRCA.*

Shelley Morgan & HR FamesKissAndTell Win Greeley, Earn $20,868 Over Fourth

By Tanya Randall

It's Tuesday morning, July 5, in St. Paul, Oregon, and Shelley Morgan has no plans to go anywhere at the moment.

"I'm on strike," laughed Morgan. "No vehicle time today!"

The Eustace, Texas, barrel racer and her great 8-year-old mare HR FamesKissAndTell won $20,868 over the Fourth of July run. The "Cowboy Christmas" haul bumps Morgan into the WPRA's Top 10 with $55,856.

She started off with a win a $14,079 victory at the $25,000-added Greeley Stampede, held June 25-30 in Colorado, picked up $4,289 for fifth at the $35,550-added St. Paul Rodeo, held June 30-July 4 in Oregon, and pocketed $2,410 for splitting seventh at the $25,000-added Cody Stampede, held July 1-4 in Wyoming.

"This is our first time to St. Paul and I think it's at the end of the world," Morgan chuckled. "We ran at Cody the night before. I think that was Sunday. I don't even know what day it is! I think it's Tuesday. We ran at Cody Sunday night and drove all night to get to St. Paul."

While all-night drives are fairly common during peak rodeo season, they're not something that Morgan is willing to do often—like more than one a year, if that.

"I know everybody does it, but I don't like to do it," said the three-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier. "I'm not an all-night drive person, so I wasn't looking forward to it the whole time. I was really trying hard to win every rodeo before this one so I wouldn't have to make that drive."

Morgan's summer run actually started with the Reno Rodeo, where she picked up $7,391 for placing sixth. After the short round band Rex, chopped two hours off the 15 hour trip by overnighting in Winnemucca, Nevada.

"Sunday was a big drive for us to be in Greeley for slack Monday morning," she said.

Due to ground issues, barrel racing slack was stopped after 50 so the ground could be reworked. Those contestants had the opportunity to run again.

Luckily, Morgan didn't have to take that option as they stopped it before her drag. She and Kiss were second in the first round on the safer footing.

Their second run was also in slack the next morning, where they again finished second in the round.

Thankfully, they were able to stay nearby and allow the horses to rest comfortably for the Thursday night short round.

"A friend back home knew some people in Colorado, and oh my gosh, it was the nicest place and the best people, Sydney Schleich and her mother Denise Barton. They were so sweet. We stayed there the whole week. The horses rested and loved it. I wish I could take them and their place with us everywhere I went. I give them credit for Kiss doing so well because she was so well rested."

Kiss won the Greeley short go to claim the aggregate, and she also got another night's rest in her peaceful digs before heading out for the grind over the weekend instead of making an all-night drive to Red Lodge, Montana, for Friday morning slack of the $7,000-added Home of Champions Rodeo.

Instead, Friday was a drive day to Belle Fourche, South Dakota, for the $7,000-added Black Hills Roundup, held July 1-4. Morgan ran Kinda Heavenly ("Phoebe") there on Saturday morning slack. The JL Dash Ta Heaven mare was just out of placing.

Saturday night, Morgan ran Kiss in the performance at the $10,000-added Mandan Rodeo Days, held July 2-4 in North Dakota. "Kiss had a little trouble there," said Morgan. "She slipped into the first barrel so I pulled up."

They had a seven-and-a-half hour drive to Cody, Wyoming, the next day. Kiss had a good run in the third performance that evening.

"I had not convinced Rex to not go to St. Paul at this point, so we loaded up after that and headed to St. Paul," she sighed, recalling the more than 15 hour drive. "That's my one request when he makes our schedule—no all-night drives—well he made one."

Morgan and Kiss were last out in the last performance and came close to winning with their fifth-place finish.

The 8-year-old mare, by CEO out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Fames Fiery Kiss, had just a few select rodeos before starting the summer run. She typically excels in the West.

"It's always been her favorite out here," said Morgan. "You play with your head because you're seeing yourself drop in the standings. For the past three years, she's had really good summers. Do you just depend on that fact? What if she doesn't have a good summer this year? I'm just going to have to trust my gut because she likes this run out here."

Morgan has Elko, Nevada, slack on Thursday, and she plans to run Phoebe. Friday, she runs in the slack after the performance in Vernal, Utah. Phoebe may get another run in the slack after the Saturday night performance in Laramie, Wyoming. Then it's on to Estes Park, Colorado, where Kiss gets a chance to defend her title on Sunday in slack.

The next week is the NFR Open, formerly the RAM National Circuit Finals, in Colorado Springs.

Gateway To Success -- Leslie Smalygo and Justaheartbeattofame Top Cody & Red Lodge

By Tanya Randall

2021 Prairie Circuit Champion Leslie Smalygo and her tough gelding Justaheartbeattofame ("Gus") won two of the three Gateway Rodeos over the Fourth of July to collect $13,801. She was one of top money earners over "Cowboy Christmas" and jumped from 35th in the WPRA World Standings to inside the Top 20 with total earnings of $36,387.

"Isn't he amazing," Smalygo said of her 12-year-old gelding, by Justaheartofawarrior out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Yawl A Fame Maker. "He's 16 hands so small pens aren't his forte. He likes these big wide open pens with barrels off the fence. He's not going to run past a barrel."

Smalygo and Gus topped the Cody Stampede in Wyoming and Home of Champions Rodeo in Red Lodge, Montana. Those two rodeos, along with Livingston, Montana, are "gateways" to entrances to Yellowstone National Park.

This is the first time Smalygo has made a rodeo run outside of the Plains States.

"I've really never ventured out," she said. "I usually stay in my circuit and go up to South Dakota because that's where a lot of my family lives. This year I'm trying to actually go after it."

Smalygo started her summer run in Reno, Nevada, where she picked up $5,462. After missing the money at the $25,000-added Greeley Stampede in Colorado, Smalygo headed to the $25,000-added Cody Stampede, where she and Gus took the lead in the very first rodeo performance. Then it was an hour up the road to the $7,000-added Home Of Champions, where they again took the lead out of the rodeo's very first performance.

years,” Smalygo said of her 17.14 that won Red Lodge. “That made me feel really good.”

Making it even better was that her father’s cousin lives just a half-mile from the arena in Red Lodge, so she had great accommodations.

“They had belly-deep grass and a freshwater creek running through it,” she said. “They really didn’t want to leave.”

The hardest part was waiting to find out how she ended up.

“It was giving me gray hair,” she chuckled. “You never rest when other people are running, like Jordon Briggs, because they’re so tough and don’t make mistakes.”

The only hiccup on their Fourth of July run was a wet pen for Monday morning slack at the $14,500-added Livingston Roundup. They were putting together a nice run until Gus did the splits at the third barrel.

“Last night I gave him a big PEMF treatment,” she said. “He’s feeling great today (Tuesday). He didn’t have any soreness, but I’m going to do it again when I get to Estes (Park), so he’s fresh. After Estes, he has a vet appointment in Littleton because I just want him fully checked over before I go to Colorado Springs.”

Smalygo has limited her entering to keep her horse fresh. She’s up at Estes Park on Wednesday and then will have a rest until the NFR Open (formerly RAM National Circuit Finals) in Colorado Springs.

“I’m trying to do what’s best for him,” she said. “He’s the one that’s doing most of the work and he deserves the rest. I just want

Teton Ranch Announces New Format for The American Rodeo 2023

The American Contender Tournament Qualifying Events will run July 2022 through February 2023, all leading to the richest single-day rodeo in Arlington, Texas on March 11, 2023!

To further advance the western sports industry and bring increased opportunities for athletes to compete in cities across the country, Teton Ridge has announced a newly revised qualification system for The American Rodeo 2023.

The American Rodeo is an unrivaled celebration of the pioneering spirit of the American West and represents the richest single-day event in all of western sports. The improved, re-imagined tournament-style format, The American Contender Tournament, features increased prize money as athletes make their way through the competition structure, and delivers more opportunities than ever before for athletes to advance toward the richest single-day in rodeo.

The new format will also make it easier for fans at home to follow their favorite athletes on their path to The American Rodeo 2023.

"Since Teton Ridge acquired The American Rodeo last year, our ambition has been to elevate western sports to a national stage," stated Joe Loverro, President of Teton Ridge Sports. "The revitalized American Contender Tournament is a first step towards that long-term goal."

Made up of multiple qualifying rounds dedicated to each of the eight disciplines of rodeo, the newly launched format will host more than 50 events in cities coast to coast, beginning in July 2022 through February 2023. Rodeo athletes will have the opportunity to earn a spot at The American Rodeo by going through a clearly defined, highly competitive tournament-style series of qualifiers that culminates at the Contender Tournament Finals in Texas.

Teton Ridge has added guaranteed prize money to regional semi-finals and regional finals upwards of $900,000 which takes the total prize money opportunity to nearly $6 million. Rounds are outlined as follows:

Round 1: The American Contender Tournament, consisting of three regions (East, Central and West) and hosting up to 54 qualifying events, is open to athletes of all levels and ages. The expanded selection of contender events will welcome thousands of new and existing athletes to compete for their chance to advance to the Regional Semi-Finals.

Round 2: The American Contender Tournament Regional Semi-Finals features up to 100 top athletes in each discipline joining the automatically seeded athletes from the 2022 PRCA/WPRA world standings, who will compete for the opportunity to advance to the Regional Finals.

Round 3: The American Contender Tournament Regional Finals, which will be three nationally televised events, will host the Top 10 athletes advancing from the Semi-Finals plus two athletes who have earned a spot through the Redemption Round, a last chance qualifier after a regional Semi-Finals.

Round 4: The American Contender Tournament Finals kicks off The American Rodeo week in Texas with nationally broadcast events, bringing the Top 4 athletes from each Regional Finals plus one athlete advancing through the Contender Tournament Wild Card

The American Rodeo (www.americanrodeo.com) is where all roads ultimately lead to the richest single-day rodeo on March 11, 2023, as the chase for the $1 million bonus culminates.

The nationally broadcast event will turn all eyes toward Texas as the Top 5 Contender Champions go head-to-head with the Top 5 in the world standings for a high-stakes showdown!

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We were so blessed to celebrate Independence Day! It is wonderful to be so free when so many people in the world are not. As we all know, freedom came with a price... and a fight.

Men and women had to fight to keep that freedom and many lost their lives doing it. That's the highest price paid, your life. Jesus gave His life so you and I can be free from sin, and the penalty that needs to be paid...death.

When we ask Him to be Lord of our life (Romans 10:8-13) all sins we ever committed, or ever will commit, were paid for, and now, "whom the Son sets free, is free indeed." John 8:36. What a heritage! What a blessing! What a gift!

At the 4th of July parade, there were some young people, around 14 or 15 years old, that were asked if they knew what we were celebrating. They didn't know.

At the same time, many people don't know who Jesus is and why He came. We are falling down on the job... Maybe, just maybe, those of us who are Christians could be better at telling people about our Lord and Savior. Maybe, just maybe, we can share His goodness, His peace, His prosperity, and His healing! Those things are all worth celebrating!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.

WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN OUR FACEBOOK LIVE STREAMED BIBLE STUDY!
