Ericka Nelson Takes First & Second at The Mega

By Tanya Randall

Ericka Nelson took $14,430 home to Century, Florida, from the $50,000-added Mega Barrel Race, held August 17-20 in Jackson, Mississippi. She had four horses make the Finals and win 1D checks.

"I don't even know what to say about all that!" said Nelson. "Thank you Jesus for all the blessings!"

The 2019 National Finals Rodeo qualifier topped Saturday's Final Round on Troublenvrlooksogood ("Dexter") with the fastest time of the event, a 13.820, to squeak past her NFR mount Good-FrenchmanFriday, now owned by her 11-year-old daughter Rainey.

"When I ran Dexter she told me that I should have pulled up," Nelson laughed. "He shouldn't have outran Friday!"

Dexter, a 9-year-old gelding, belongs to Max Liddic, whose daughter Beth Miller owns Nelson's good rodeo mount PC Cash ("Bud"). Liddic purchased the First Down French gelding out of Michelle Deboer's mare Tatango Twist Te, by Triple Twist Te, in the spring of 2020.

"He had some soundness issues going on so we took about a year to get him right," said Nelson. "I rodeoed on him in the spring of last year and took him with me last summer just to see how he'd be, and he did really well."

In Jackson, Dexter qualified for the Finals on his first run of 14.314, but Nelson opted to run him again in the second round, where he clocked a 14.133 for seventh.

"I haven't made a bunch of runs on him recently," she explained. "Normally, he gets a little stronger. He was at the bottom of the ground the first round and top of the ground the second so I thought that would help him have a little confidence."

War horse Friday only had to make one qualifying run after placing ninth in the first go with a 14.199.

Darren Scholl, who owned the BHR Frenchies Socks gelding throughout his career, offered the 15-year-old gelding to Nelson late last year.

"He offered him to us and we bought him," Nelson said. "He said he was giving him to Rainey whether we wanted him to or not. He's been with us since Christmas."

Rainey had run Friday a few times but he was giving her trouble at the gate.

"Both of their confidence was getting really low," Nelson explained. "I really didn't want to run him anymore because there really wasn't anything more he could do for me that he hadn't already done. I wanted it to be them. She had been begging me to run him. I told her he might not go in for me either, but we'll see. I ran him at a rodeo last weekend and then took him to the Mega. So, I've made three runs on him. Rainey is ready to take back over now. She said she's ready to go to the barrel race!"

Up until Nelson ran Dexter, Friday was winning The Mega with a 13.867.

"Rainey was really, really wanting him to win it," Nelson said, who won $3,619 on Friday. "I told him he didn't have to go fast if he didn't want to. I just wanted him to go in so she would be seeing him go in again. He wanted to go fast, but you can never tell. There's so many tough horses at those things. You just don't know whose day it is. You can't be confident until the last horse runs." Nelson also placed 11th in the Finals on TBR All About Me ("Diva") and won $1,657. Diva qualified for the Finals in the second round with an eighth-place 14.151.

"Angie Curkovic owns her," said Nelson. "She let me jump ride her at a couple of circuit rodeos last year when I didn't want to take mine down there. I did really good on her. In December, she offered to let me take her to some rodeos."

The 12-year-old Call Me Together Paint mare won $1,647. Not to be left out, Bud also picked up a $423 1D check in the first round and finished in the Top 20 in the Finals.

"He did good too," Nelson said of the 12-year-old PC Frosty Bid gelding. "He just had a little ground trouble but won some money too.”

Nelson wanted to thank the owners of all four horses.

“I would like to thank the owners for trusting me with their horses,” she said. “It’s a job I am grateful to be entrusted with.” She also wanted to thank her veterinarian April Andrews, who also does her equine chiropractic work and Mari Little, who does acupuncture

Nelson also wanted to thank her friend Rachael Fillmore, who helped her with all the horses.

“I couldn’t have survived without her help,” she said. “It was so hot. I said, why did they put me so close together? They said, well you’re about 70 apart. I said that’s too close today I’m getting too hot! I said if I fall out, someone kick me to the side while I come back to!”

She also wanted to acknowledge the extra security in Jackson that was very much appreciated.

“The security in Jackson this weekend was amazing,” she said. “There was one way in and one way out and there was a cop sitting there 24-7. I want to thank whoever was responsible for that because safety there can be an issue.”

Dream Team — Mark Bugni and Jill Lane's JL Roc Lost A Sock Win 10th Futurity Title

2022 has been the year of JL Roc Lost A Sock and Mark Bugni! The magic combination of Mark Bugni and a Jill Lane owned/bred sorrel JL Sirocco horse hit once again. A few years ago the same team had a magical year with JL Roc Paperscissors. Winning the futurity at the Southwest Desert Classic pushed their futurity title count to 10 for the 2022 year. The gentle giant just glides to win after win with a unique style and class. This weekend they are staying in Utah looking to add the Glen Wood Memorial Futurity Championship to the list. We caught up with Bugni to ask him a few questions about their amazing year...

BRR: Walk us through your runs at the SWDC.

Bugni: We arrived at Rock Springs, WY having fallen down the week before on bad ground in two different events prior and it finally caught up to him. I realized in the couple runs before Rock Springs that he was pausing and throwing his head up on the finish of first barrel. Luckily, Dr. Don Lee and Mark Stewart (chiro) were there so Mo got the attention he needed. Also thankful for running into Cody Hornbuckle who did dental work to get all the horses fixed up.

My first run in Salina had a touch of the same move around the backside of first barrel where he shook his head a little and lost a touch of momentum but he managed to run the fastest time of the night. In the first round of the Futurity, I tuned that first barrel finish a little in the practice pen and he was much smoother and win the round. Round 2 of the Futurity, he felt like his old self smooth and strong. He did step on a shoe which may have cost him a tic of time, but I honestly didn't feel anything but the shoe was bent heavily.

BRR: How many futurity titles does this make for you and Mo? What are your earnings at for the year?

Bugni: 10 Futurity Titles with total earnings as of 8/22 of $287,397

BRR: As the year has went on what changes do you feel in Mo? Also how has your preparation and riding leading up to events changed?

Bugni: Mostly, I can feel his maturity to the competition atmosphere. He is spunky in the warmup pen and gets real calm and relaxed in the holding area.

I haven't really changed anything about our program other than now I feel like I can run him in any pen without exhibitions or open riding. I still feel like he's better in the second round but he will still win or place you high in round one. I've just learned to enter the warm ups the night before the Futurity rounds.

BRR: Throughout your career you have trained a number of big winners. What traits does Mo have in common with those other winners? What qualities are unique to Mo compared to the other winners?

Bugni: The common traits are that they all want to get out of the pen and do something, they all have a high level of cooperation, lots of natural ability, and are pretty sound overall.

Mo's unique traits are his huge desire to compete, he's playful when he recognizes the competition atmosphere and can have his confidence broken if someone wants to pick on him for his personality. He also has huge stamina I assume from the thoroughbred side of his pedigree. And of course he obviously has a HUGE HEART!!

BRR: What are some funny/entertaining quirks that Mo has? Can you tell us a little about his personality?

Bugni: Mo is a very sweet, loving horse and has a huge level of confidence when he's treated like the king he is.

THE RUNDOWN w/Mark Bugni

JL Roc Lost A Sock ("Mo") 16.2, 1500-1600 lbs. "He moves like a big horse but turns efficiently like a little horse."

BIT: The Perfect Bit with the second to longest shank available and twisted, single-break mouthpiece and recently a Reinsman with copper inlay twist and roller in the middle.

SADDLE: Burns

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine

SHOEING: Steel rims on all four.

FEED: Purina Equine Senior

HAY: Grass, alfalfa mix

SUPPLEMENTS: UlcerGard, 100x Gut

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "Just keeping him exercised and keeping the edge off."

SPONSORS: Outlaw Equine, Burns Saddlery, Elite Hoof Care, RodeoRigs.com and Jill Lane Quarter Horses

He is a bit of a maniac in the warmup pen in race day. When he's loping around to the left he plays with his nose to the outside and plays with the bit.

He will drop a hind lead and haul butt around the pen when he's feeling ready. It's annoying but forgivable when "he's in it to win it."

BRR: What are your plans through the rest of his futurity year?

Bugni: We are entered up fairly heavily to keep the opportunity open to reach new records of Futurity titles earned and possibly high money earnings.

Upcoming races include:

Glen Wood Memorial; Fizz Bomb Classic; Breeders Challenge Finals; Pink Buckle; Possibly AQHA Finals & OKC Futurity

BRR: When you leave for a futurity/barrel race what are a few non-horse related things that are a must have for you?

Bugni: Non horse related items I must have on the road are:

My dog Max; My blue boat seat for the bleachers; My Elite LQ trailer and Dodge truck and a pair of reading glasses for all the small print I am forced to read! LOL

Margo Crowther & Shes Packin Fame Conquer Caldwell Night Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

After winning the 2021 NBHA World Finals, Margo Crowther said she had one major box to check off on her list of accomplishments with her great mare Shes Packin Fame (“Sissy”).

“I’ve checked off a lot of my boxes with her except for the NFR,” the North Fort Myers, Florida, barrel racer had said.

Now, she’s a little closer to checking off that box thanks to a $8,074 victory at the $22,000-added Caldwell Night Rodeo in Idaho.

“I need that! I needed to get off that bubble,” said Crowther, who collected $11,402 on the weekend and moved from 16th to 13th in the WPRA World Standings with $74,538.

Crowther and Sissy had their first two runs in Caldwell in back-to-back slack on Tuesday. They were second in the first round and third in the second.

“I had never done that before with Sissy,” said Crowther. “That was interesting. I had an option to trade into Friday night’s performance but I chose not to. It was good because I came right back after finishing second to Hailey (Kinsel and DM Sissy Hayday) in the first round to be even faster with a 17.12. It was nice to be leading the average the whole week. I made the right call.”

From Caldwell, it was on to Canby, Oregon, for a Thursday night run, followed by an overnight drive to Moses Lake, Washington, for slack the next morning. She and Sissy picked up $2,423 for third in Canby and $905 for eighth at Moses Lake.

Crowther had planned on running at Burley, Idaho, on Friday night, but wasn’t able to make it from Moses Lake.

“Slack in Moses Lake took forever and there were road closures, so I wasn’t able to get to Burley in time,” she said. “Caldwell was on the way, so I just stopped there to rest for the short round.”

In Saturday night’s short round, Crowther and Sissy turned in a solid run of 17.35 to place fourth in the round and win the aggregate.

“I really just wanted to go in there and have a clean run,” she said. “In the past at Casper (Wyoming) and Salinas (California), I wasn’t leading the average at those so I knew I really had to step it up to have a good time to be in the top of the average. I ended up second at Salinas and Casper. This time, I had to have a different game plan. I knew I needed to make a clean run and a safe run. I went for it, but I also feel like I rode smart. I didn’t want her to slip and have it cost us. I kind of let her do her thing and stayed out of her way. It was really a fun run. The energy in that arena was awesome. It was really exciting. The committee at that rodeo was really awesome. I also got to do a victory lap and I’d never got to do that before. It was great!”

Crowther had purchased Sissy, the Frank Moore-bred daughter of Carrizzo, out of the Packin Sixes mare Heidis Packin Sixes, as a 3-year-old from Craig Brooks. Sissy had a successful futurity season until she fractured her hock after falling at a race in Tampa Bay, Florida. The following year, Crowther and Sissy, with her surgically repaired hock, won the 2017 Old Fort Days Derby. They’d qualified for several Southeastern Circuit Finals, but this is the first year for them to experience the Northwest run.

"I've actually never rodeoed after Cody, Wyoming," Crowther admitted. "It's been fun. My mare has really taken on the rodeo performances and is enjoying them really well. I could tell she sometimes didn't love them in years past, but this year it all clicked."

She said it's "surreal" thinking about what she went through with Sissy's hock and everything.

"She's been a huge blessing as I've said in the past, but this year, she's really stepped it up," she said. "Looking back at what she's been through and what I've been through with her...all the other horses have come and gone but she's been my rock. I wouldn't have any of this without her. She's so gritty. I've been super blessed with how well she's been staying sound, mentally and physically."

Crowther has another Carrizzo in the trailer, Peytons Call To Fame, who belongs her to good friend Lindsey Stock.

"I had trained him and ran him as a 4-year-old and then I sold him to her," Crowther explained. "She was gracious enough to let me borrow him. I hauled him and Sissy as 4-year-olds, and it's funny that I have them both in my trailer again as 10-year-olds."

Crowther said the hardest thing for her is being away from her three children: Sawyer, 12, Stella, 10 and Saylor, 3.

"It's been hard," she said. "It's so far away. Every now and then, I'll Google how far it is away from home, and it's like two days! It's a crazy amount of time.

"My husband's been home and my parents have been a huge

It was really difficult because of the time zones when I was in the Northwest. It was 4 in the morning when I was driving to Moses Lake from Canby and my daughter Facetimed me while she was getting ready for school. That was kind of crazy!"

This week Crowther has Tremonton, Utah, on Tuesday, Kennewick, Washington, on Wednesday, Bremerton, Washington, on Friday and Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, on Sunday.

Cinch named title sponsor of Playoffs

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association® (PRCA) names Cinch as the title sponsor for the inaugural Playoffs.

In March, the PRCA announced the Playoffs will take place at the Puyallup Rodeo at the Washington State Fair, Sept. 8-11, and will crown the champions of the season-long NFR Playoff Series presented by Pendleton Whisky. The $1 million payout just before the PRCA regular season ends on Sept. 30 will play a key role in catapulting athletes into the 2022 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo presented by Teton Ridge.

"We are proud to have Cinch as the title sponsor for this lucrative rodeo," PRCA CEO Tom Glause said. "Cinch is a great supporter of the PRCA and to have them sponsor such a high-stakes rodeo is a natural partnership."

In 2018, Cinch became a PRCA sponsor and is elevating its sponsorship.

The Cinch Playoffs is the culmination of the most prestigious event series on the PRCA circuit. The Top 23 competitors in each event from the NFR Playoff Series Standings – plus each winner from the NFR Open powered by RAM, which took place in July in Colorado Springs, Colo. – will compete for their share of $1 million in Puyallup.

The Cinch Playoffs provides one last opportunity for ProRodeo athletes to punch their tickets to the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

The ProRodeo season concludes Sept. 30. The Top 15 athletes in the PRCA | RAM World Standings in each event will qualify for the 2022 Wrangler NFR.

The Cinch Playoffs will air on The Cowboy Channel and stream on the PRCA on Cowboy Channel Plus App. For more information, visit cowboychannelplus.com.

Stetson Wright breaks regular season all-around earnings mark again

In just his fifth season of ProRodeo, Stetson Wright continues to rewrite the record books.

After earning $17,927 over the weekend at three NFR Playoff Series presented by Pendleton Whisky rodeos, the Milford, Utah, cowboy has now broken the PRCA record for the most money won in the all-around in a single season again with $332,023 in saddle bronc riding and bull riding.

Last season, Wright broke the record that was previously set by Trevor Brazile in 2015, when he ended the 2021 regular season with $320,482. He would then go on to set the all-time single season earning record after the NFR with $686,513.

At 23 years old, Wright is showing no signs of slowing down anytime soon. In 2020, he was the PRCA World Champion in the all-around and bull riding. Last season, he added his fourth and fifth gold buckles by winning the all-around yet again and capturing his first saddle bronc riding world title.

He currently sits No.1 in the PRCA | RAM World Standings in bull riding and second in saddle bronc riding. His 2022 season has been spurred by 21 all-around, 11 saddle bronc riding, and 11 bull riding wins so far this season.

Wright will have a golden opportunity to add to his regular season earnings total with still five weeks remaining in the ProRodeo regular season, which concludes on Sept. 30.

The Cinch Playoffs at the Puyallup Rodeo at the Washington State Fair, Sept. 8-11 will play a key role in catapulting athletes into the 2022 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo presented by Teton Ridge with a $1 million payout.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I'm sure there are many of you that have attended your high school class reunions. Bet some of you had a great time and some hated it. I just attended another one last weekend. It was great! Many of us still have some of the same friends from high school. Some of us never look back.

On my way home from the last night of the reunion, I believe the Lord asked me, "What kind of a friend are you?" Well, of course I thought, "I'm a GREAT friend!" But it gave me something to think about.

As Christians, do you influence your friends, by your actions, to act right, live right, and speak right? OR. Do you do the right thing on Sundays and the rest of the week have one foot planted firmly in the Word and one foot planted firmly in the world? If you do, it's easier to shift your weight with whatever group you happen to be with. That my friends, is not a good thing!

Matthew 5:14-16 tells us we are a light of the world, and we shouldn't hide it. If you catch yourself compromising the Word this week, stop, repent and let yourself shine!
