Do Or Die -- Ryann Pedone & Feel The Sting Win ProTour Finale, Earn NFR Berth

By Tanya Randall

A year's worth of effort came down to a single run on Saturday night for veteran futurity trainer Ryann Pedone. Aboard the royally-bred Feel The Sting ("Stinger"), Pedone rose to the occasion, winning the Gold Buckle Beer ProRodeo Tour Finale in Rapid City, in dramatic fashion.

The $5,936 victory bumped Pedone to 11th in the WPRA World Standings to qualify for her first Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, to be held at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, this December.

"It meant something to me—something that I've never felt before," said Pedone of the win. "There were so many people that went into it; it wasn't just me. That made the win even more special, because I know how many people sacrificed to set me up for that opportunity."

The Situation

The battle for a coveted spot in the WPRA's Top 15 was intense. In a COVID restricted season, fewer rodeos were held. Those that were...they were tougher than normal because the depth of talent wasn't scattered across the United States.

Going into the final weekend of the season, just three rodeos remained—Stephenville, Texas, Woodstown, New Jersey, and the Tour Finale, which was limited to 24 contestants who had qualified throughout the season.

With nearly $40,000 being awarded in Rapid, everyone below 10th in the WPRA World Standings had a chance at being significantly shuffled. The tightest battles, however, were between Wenda Johnson, Jessie Telford, Brittney Barnett, Ryann Pedone and Ivy Hurst. Both Pedone and Hurst were less than $2,000 behind Barnett in 15th. The later three were all out in the first set at Rapid.

The Tour Finale rodeo format split 24 contestants into two pools with each getting their first and second runs on consecutive nights. The top eight in the average at the conclusion of the two rounds advanced to a Semifinal round. Only the top four from the Semifinal advanced to the Final.

At the conclusion of the first set, Barnett, riding her gritty paint mare Chicks Keen O Pocopoo ("Paint") had the edge. She was placing well in both rounds, but more importantly leading the average.

Pedone, on the other hand, was in a tight spot. She was splitting the lead in the first round and was a little long on her second run, leaving her fourth in the average.

Hurst, who was finally back on her great horse Top Of The Roc ("Diddy"), came up a little short. Her only hope was a win at Stephenville.

Barnett had a favorable draw—the Sunday performance at Stephenville, so she remained in Rapid, while Hurst and Pedone headed down for Thursday evening slack. After slack, Hurst, who had dominated last fall, was officially out of the NFR chase.

Johnson, who didn't have the rodeo count to qualify for Rapid, made the most of her only opportunity to clinch her first NFR berth, with a solid run on MacGyver Moonflash, and was sitting third after slack, and ultimately finished fourth.

For Pedone, it looked as if her luck had gone from bad to worse, she and French Zone were just out of placing, following the nearly manicured ground. It was so much faster that only Pedone and Shelley Morgan, who had been splitting first and second, were tied for seventh and eight at the conclusion of the first round.

A Change In Fortune

Pedone was preparing to run her three futurity colts at the Ardmore Barrel Futurity in Oklahoma that she got the call she had made the Semifinals in Rapid.

When she got the call Friday night that she'd made it back, Pedone's response was "You've got to be kidding me! There's no way!"

Pedone hadn't even watched to know how things were going. As it turns out, Cindy Smith, the last runner on Friday night, tipped the third barrel and cemented Pedone's position in the average.

"She texted me yesterday," Pedone said of Smith. "She said, 'I was walking back to my trailer I was thinking, 'Oh, Gosh! That let Ryann get in and she better take advantage of it! She better not let us down and take advantage of that opportunity!'"

Going into the Semifinal, Barnett had her first trip to the WNFR clinched. She had picked up $1,608 which was enough to move her to 13th in the standings. That placed Telford, who had tipped on both of her runs at Rapid, in the vulnerable 15th spot. Only Pedone had the opportunity to move her.

Before the Semifinals, Jason Martin, who co-owns Stinger with Charlie Cole, told Pedone that a third-placed finish, worth $2,000, would clinch her NFR qualification.

"Jason tells me all I have to do is be third in the long eight then you're in, just third," said Pedone. "I thought, 'Ok. We'll try our best.'"

Pedone and Stinger were second out and posted their best run of the rodeo a 16.16 even with a spinout on the third barrel.

While cooling out Stinger, Pedone had asked Robert Gifford, who had driven and taken care of the horses on the road all year, to text her to let her know how she finished.

"He texted me back and said you're sitting third," she said. "Then he texted me again and said you got fourth! You're in! I was like who all is in the top 4? He said, 'It's just Dona Kay (Rule), Nellie (Miller) and Hailey (Kinsel). You'll be fine!'"

Her initial reaction was a chorus of ... the emojis that resemble chocolate ice cream.

"At that point, they only pay two holes out of four and I only needed $387!" said Pedone, who got calls of encouragement from World Champions Joe Beaver and Martha Josey after her run. "Joe Beaver called me and told me I need to shoot for the stars. I said against those three I need to shoot for the moon and pray I land on a star!"

Mind Games

First and foremost, Pedone wanted to make sure she didn't get in her own way.

"I've never been able to close a deal like that. I've noticed as I've gotten older I've gotten better at it," she said, recalling her chance to win the BFA Futurity with her first homegrown futurity horse, Cause For A Kiss. "I needed a fast time to get back to the Finals at BFA and I did that. I probably could have won it but I choked in the Finals. I've had other opportunities like that I think my brain just got in the way."

Pedone knew she needed to fix her third barrel if she was going to have any chance of making the NFR.

"The third barrel has cost me a few times," she admitted. "When I made that first run at Rapid, I felt it was going to be fast, but the third barrel—when you watch it—I hit him going to it and came in too wide and then he came off wide because he was just too strung out. When I was cooling him out, I went and schooled him a little bit on the third. I don't know if I was schooling him or me. I decided that I wasn't going to whip him to the third. I was going to whip him to my second, smoke my second and run straight up into that third and smoke the third. That was my game plan."

When Dona Kay Rule and High Valor set the pace with a 16.09, Pedone knew it was "do or die" time.

"I was like, 'Eh, we're going to freaking go for it. I already had my game plan. I was confident because I know that horse. He loves the sport. I knew I could just call on him and he would rise to the occasion. If he feels healthy, he's like just bring it!'"

They turned their fastest time of the rodeo, a 15.97, that held off both Miller, Kinsel and their world champion mounts.

"I fist pumped," she admitted. "I'm not a big fist pumper. That was the third time I fist pumped. I have never felt so much gratification on a win. When I won that slot race on Sweet Choco Taco I was appreciative of the win and of the horse, but this one was different. Those boys just believing in me, so many people going above and beyond..."

"I got really emotional. That's why I was looking all over the place during that interview afterward. I forgot to thank my husband on TV!"

A self-professed non-people person, Pedone said she was overwhelmed by the messages of support and congratulations.

"It was a big eye-opener," she said. "I was blown away at how nice people were...even competitors that may not like me. I was blown away by the messages, even Jessie Telford sent me a nice, nice message. I could not believe it!"

Rarest of Opportunities

Eight years ago, Martin and Cole purchased an egg out of Sherry Cervi's great mare MP Meter My Hay ("Stingray"). Feel The Sting, a 7-year-old stallion by Dash Ta Fame, is the first foal out of the two-time WPRA World Champion.

As a 2-year-old, Stinger was sent to reined cowhorse trainer and World's Greatest Horseman Champion Ron Ralls for breaking. Cole and Martin then began the interview process for a barrel horse trainer for their royally-bred charge. They asked Pedone to go to Ralls' and take a look at the colt.

"I went home that night and prayed, 'Dear Lord, please give me this shot to have a horse like that!' Jason had told me not to get too excited because we're going through an interview process. The main reason I have this horse is because Sherry Cervi recommended me," she said.

Stinger had a solid 4-year-old futurity year and as a 5-year-old derby horse, Stinger won his first pro rodeo in the fall. An injury and then breeding season gave him a slow start to 2019, but the stallion finished the year as the BFA points champion in the derby.

It was last summer that Pedone was asked if she would consider going to more rodeos. Wanting to keep Stinger and Dash Ta Jones (“Jonesy”), whom she’d been riding for Cole and Martin, in her barn, she decided to go rodeo.

Jonesy did well enough late last season to get Pedone into the winter building rodeos where Stinger was expected to shine. When Jonesy was injured again, Stinger had to take all the runs until Cole and Martin purchased French Zone from Jack and Kelly Bruner.

“This should be a testimony to anyone that buys a new horse,” she said. “Yes, there are those dream teams that just fit instantly, but a lot of times it’s six months to a year. I didn’t have time to get with that mare. I had to change my riding style.

“That poor mare got thrown to the wolves. She placed here and there and got me that huge win in Sikeston. I would have never even been in contingency if not for that win. I owe that mare a big thank you.”

Pedone wanted to thank Martin and Cole for the opportunity to ride their horses, Dan Houck for his mad travel agent skills, her husband and veterinarian Don Lee of Double X Equine for his support and help keeping her horses going, Jack and Kelly Bruner—Kelly for her help with French Zone and Jack for his help with Stinger’s feet, her ever supportive family, Jodee Miller for jump riding her colts at Ardmore, Jessica Morris for taking care of her horses at home, Robert Gifford for all his help on the road, Ann Thompson for being the “Wizard of Oz” when it comes to entering, and so many others who have supported her and encouraged her along the way.

Not one to publicly express her Christian faith, Pedone was grateful for the outcome in Rapid.

“I just felt this force that was there that helped make it happen this way,” she said. “I was OK with being 16th because I believed I tried as hard as I possibly could. When that first barrel stayed up in the first round when it should have gone down, and I should have been bumped out, but for whatever reason I wasn’t... I do believe it was a bigger force than me, even though it was just a rodeo and there’s so much going on in this world...it just makes me teary-eyed thinking about it.”

PINK BUCKLE BARREL RACE FUTURITY & 4D
OCTOBER 6-10, 2020 • LAZY E ARENA

REFERENCE DAM

KR Tinkerbell

AL CAPPONE - KR TINKERBELL, by Dash Ta Fame

(2021 foal in utero in recipient)

Al Cappone is a slot race money earner, Futurity money earner and a 1D champion. He is by Shawne Bug Leo (sire of over $850,000) and is out of TR Double Cash by Texas High Dasher, a $1 million producer. This makes him a half sibling to TR DASHING BADGER, $800,000 LTE, 4x NFR QUALIFIER, and 2x WPRA Reserve World Champion, and WPRA money earners Tr Cashen Badger and TR Illuminator Cash. KR Tinker Bell is by Dash Ta Fame and Futurity money earner Fix My Chassis who was trained by Janna Beam Brown. KR Tinker Bell has been a 100% 1D champion cross on Shawne Bug Leo himself making this foal in utero bred very similar. She is the dam to multiple 1D champion Leo's Pretty Woman, 1D champion and arena record setter Fame on the Bottom and to Sadie's Superman, 1D money earner.

Recip with foal in utero is consigned to the Pink Buckle Sale making this baby eligible for $200,000 every year at no extra cost through their sale incentive program.

Blue Collar Boss – Troy Crumrine Collects $65,600 in Blue Collar Breeders Cash

By Tanya Randall

All-time leading futurity rider Troy Crumrine nabbed the lion's share of the Blue Collar Breeders bonus funds at the Ardmore Barrel Futurity, held September 25-27 in Oklahoma.

Crumrine and the 4-year-old stallion Blazin Boss ("Jax"), owned by Hayle Gibson of Redcrest, California, topped the Blue Collar Futurity incentive for $63,500 in total earnings. The owner's share was $48,500, while Jax's breeder Amy Williams collected $15,000.

The Waynesfield, Ohio, based trainer also topped the Blue Collar Open incentive, earning $2,100 on the 7-year-old stallion SR Industry Titan, owned by Tom and Nick Wylie of Swanton, Ohio.

When combined with his non-incentive earnings from Ardmore, Crumrine collected $80,884.

"I thank God every day for giving me something that I love to do," said Crumrine, who also wanted to thank his family and his help at home. "That Blue Collar is such a good deal."

Crumrine got his big-money earner Jax in March this year. Hayle Gibson, who he had met on his first trip to the Arizona futurities, had asked Crumrine if he would be interested in campaigning another stallion. The Katie McCaslan-trained son of Blazin Jetolena, out of the Dash Ta Fame, Marthas Six Moons mare Famous Moonlight, was already running when Gibson made the purchase.

"She sent me a video of him and he looked nice," Crumrine recalled. "I told her if she wanted to take a chance, take the gamble and buy him, if he turns out I think you'll hit a homerun with Blazin Jetolena and Marthas Six Moons and Dash Ta Fame on the bottom. I don't think you can go wrong with that kind of breed-

Crumrine actually made his first runs on Jax at the Elite Futurity in Waco, where he picked up the colt.

"I didn't get any exhibitions on him, but I thought he's already declared and he's here I may as well just run him," he said. "He run two seconds off both days and he was scared to death. I could barely get him out the gate. Of course, he never got to see the arena or anything, so he had a good excuse. He was just green."

Then the COVID shutdown hit. While he didn't have a lot of places to season Jax with runs, Crumrine did have a lot of time to get the colt caught up.

"It was a good thing," he said of the forced break from hauling. "He reminded me a lot of Hoosier Fame, not quite turn style, but you could just feel that potential. You knew it was there, it was just a matter of time before you got it."

Jax steadily progressed, running a half-second off the top horses at the Ruby Buckle in early June.

"He might be a half-second off a really nice horse, but I didn't mind because he was really green," Crumrine said. "You could tell he was getting better and better. He just kept building. I knew he had it in him because he was making mistakes when I was doing it. I just knew he needed more runs.

The biggest confidence booster for the pair came with an Indiana Futurity Championship earlier this September. On their first run, they ran right with Cindy Patrick's multiple American Semifinals qualifier Flit Ta Heaven.

"Me and Titan but heads with him all the time," Crumrine said of Patrick and Flit Ta Heaven, "so I knew what kind of horse that was, and for (Jax) to run that kind of time I could tell he was catching up."

At Ardmore, Crumrine and Jax finished 15th in the first round with a 14.985 and placed second in the next round with a 14.764.

"I took a little bit too much caution because I let him step out a little on the first and the second," he said. "When I run the second round, I was thinking if I run a .9 or an .0, I was still going to get a pretty good average check. Then I got to thinking if I play it too cautious and I run just out of the money, I'm going to be really mad that I didn't let the colt work to his potential. So, I went in there and trusted him to do his job. I think I've got him broke enough that if he does get in a little bit of trouble he'll let me get him out of it."

On his second run, Jax got a little bound up in the ground, but thankfully rather than completely bailing on the turn, he finished it the best he could.

"I think it just made him mad," he said. "When he left the first barrel, he was probably three feet out from where he should be after he got himself picked back up. He shot across the pen and probably turned those two barrels better than he ever has in his whole life. He was running. I was shocked when he run a .7. I knew when he turned that second and third barrel we made up a little bit of ground."

It was enough to get the Blue Collar victory and place third in the Ardmore Futurity.

"We were an eye blink away from second and I don't think Kassie had us by much," he said. "From first to third was so close. She had two eights and we both had sevens and nines."

The difference was just 2/100ths of a second. With Titan, one of his all-time favorite horses, Crumrine collected $9,863 after winning the American qualifier and Saturday's Open with the fastest time of the event, a 14.534, and taking second in Sunday's $10,000-added Open.

He run so good for me all weekend there," Crumrine said of the son of Firewaterontherocks out of one of his great futurity mounts, Mulberry Canyon Moon, by Marthas Six Moons. "He wants to please you. He wants to do his job. He's got a really good way of doing it. He's as quiet as a church mouse and I think anyone could ride him."

Kassie Mowry & Mistys Money Blurr Earn Ardmore Barrel Futurity Championship

By Tanya Randall

The Ardmore Barrel Futurity, held the last weekend of September, is always one of the toughest all year. Held in the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Oklahoma, barrel racers flock to the annual event, making for a great payout.

Kassie Mowry of Dublin, Texas, and Mistys Money Blurr were the best of nearly 180 entries in the $20,000-added Futurity, finishing .015 ahead of Molli Montgomery and First Famous Chic in the two-run aggregate. The victors pocketed $7,007.

"I love the Ardmore Futurity," said Mowry. This was her second straight, having won it last year on Epic Guy, and her third overall, having won it on BR Golden Leader as well. "Ross and her crew were just the best. The ground was just amazing. We were able to let the horses roll and that was a lot of fun. The tractor drivers did an incredible job, especially with ground that can get deep. It thought it was pretty fair and even. It paid well. It was just a lot of fun, and it's consistently good year after year."

Money was incredibly consistent with runs of 14.881 and 14.848 in spite of getting a little break before the futurity to heal from an overreach.

"He was a little bit fresh going into it," said the two-time NFR qualifier and multiple aged event champion. "I only did the one exhibition going into it. He's always been pretty good that way. He's never been very colt-acting or spooky. He trotted through really nice.

"His first run, I felt he was really focused and had a nice smooth run. That's what I wanted to do. Since I had been off of him for a little while I didn't think my timing was super good. He has a really long stride, so if he makes a mistake it's a really big one. He can't get out of trouble like a smaller strided horse can. It was just a really solid run. I was on the bottom of the ground and I knew it was a little bit slower so I just wanted to make that smooth solid run so I could maybe be faster for the second round. He definitely did that.

Before the second round, Mowry schooled Money a little on the pattern because it was the first time she had the opportunity to do so in weeks.

"I worked him on the barrels in the warmup pen and got him a little too sharp. Going to the first barrel, I wanted to send him in there faster, but I still wanted him to hook on to it. I over did it a tad. He was really tight coming into the first barrel and had to take a stride by it to get around it and not hit it because he's so big. It wasn't the best first barrel, but there's no substitute for speed. He finished the turn and got across the pen faster than I think I ever have in my life. It was like he knew we needed to make it up. After that I was just a passenger. I was just holding on for dear life! He was on a mission!"

Bred by Joe and Dee Lynn Braman, Money is by The Money Depot, an On The Money Red stallion out of a daughter of Jet Of Honor, out of the legendary barrel horse producer Mistys Dash Of Fame, by Dash Ta Fame.

Mowry is largely responsible for Money's creation as she suggested his sire.

"Dee was wanting an outcross and I was just throwing ideas at her," she explained. "There were a couple of those that I saw doing well out of really small foal crops, so I thought there might be was sent to Michael Boone for patterning as a 2-year-old.

“He had him loping around the barrels perfectly,” said Mowry. “I got him in the fall of his 2-year-old year and just messed with him a little bit. He was so far ahead. He had a ton of feel and a lot of ability. He was extremely mature for a 2-year-old. He’s 16.3 right now, but he was really big for a 2-year-old also, like intimidatingly big. I was a little afraid of him. He just had so much ability so I just turned him out after I got the feel of him. When I got him back up in the spring it was pretty easy for me to add speed to him. He really was an outstanding 3-year-old—clocked all year and was very consistent. He was for sure slot horse caliber.”

Money was Mowry’s slot horse for the BFA Super Stakes, but when she got to Guthrie she could tell something wasn’t right.

“When I got there I was like who is this horse? I don’t know this horse! He was just acting not like himself, wasn’t working like himself. I thought it was his nerves but looking back I should have known better. When I got him home I took him to my vet and we discovered that he had a strained suspensory,” she said.

Erring on the side of caution, Mowry gave Money months off instead of weeks.

“He came right in time for quarantine, so there was nothing,” Mowry lamented. “When things started happening again, it was all breeders futurities like Ruby Buckle, and he wasn’t eligible to go. So, he really hasn’t been to but three or four futurities. He’s done really well at the ones he has been to, like in the Top 5, but doesn’t have the Equi-Stat (earnings) that a lot of these horses do.”

Mowry was happy to get the victory at such a tough futurity because it proved she was right about Money’s talent.

“I feel like it’s been tough for this horse to show what he is,” she said. “We knew he was a great horse. Winning the Ardmore Futurity, I felt like he got to show what he could do. Right off the bat, he got hurt and then he couldn’t run in a lot of these futurities because they were limited. He didn’t have a whole lot of opportunities. I’m so proud of him coming through at something like that against so many good horses. We were right about him. It’s a really good feeling when you’re really high on one and we were really high on him as a 3-year-old.”

Women's Rodeo World Championship Relocated to Texas

WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) and PBR (Professional Bull Riders) today announced that the Women's Rodeo World Championship will be relocated from Las Vegas to Fort Worth, Texas due to COVID-19 restrictions in the State of Nevada.

The $750,000 event paying equal money in all disciplines will be hosted November 8-12 (qualifying rounds) at the Will Rogers Memorial Center with the final six from each of the four disciplines competing at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas alongside the PBR World Finals in the Championship Round November 13-15.

According to WCRA President Bobby Mote; every effort was exhausted to keep the event in Las Vegas but due to the state's COVID restrictions for live events the organization was unable to proceed with confidence.

"Fortunately, this particular relocation is a huge game changer allowing the championship round to run within the PBR's marquee event making it that much more historic," said Mote. "Crowning the champions in one of the most iconic stadiums in the United States during the PBR World Finals continues to raise the bar for women's rodeo and put them on one of the largest platforms in all of Western Sports."

Athletes competing in four disciplines—breakaway roping, barrel racing, and team roping (heading and heeling) will compete for their piece of a historical $750,000 purse along with an all-around $20,000 bonus. Champions in each discipline will walk away with a minimum of $60,000 each.

"As WCRA continues to lead the industry charge in women's professional rodeo we are proud to offer equal money in all disciplines and to feature their efforts during the PBR's marquee event as well to millions on a CBS Sports Network Telecast," said Mote. "This event will place these athletes onto a historic stage. A revolutionary event with this level of payout and visibility in women's rodeo has never been done before and it is only year one."

Open entries for the championship event are open and have been extended until October 25 at 11:59 p.m. CT. Entry fees are $750 and are taken on entrytool.com.

Athletes can nominate their efforts with WCRA and earn points for the WRWC Leaderboard (W20) until the extended deadline of October 18 at 11:59 p.m. CT. The top four ranked athletes in each discipline on the leaderboard will automatically advance to the main event.

More information about the event including payout, overview schedule and format can be found at www.womensrodeoworldchampionship.com or contact support@wcrarodeo.com.

Details regarding stalls and host hotel will be released to athletes at a later date.

Since launching in May of 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $7,700,000 in new money to rodeo athletes.

Breakaway roping world champion to be crowned at Globe Life Field

In conjunction with the 2020 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, women ropers will compete for the first-ever world championship: The Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping and a $200,000 purse at this three-day event.

Breakaway roping is one of the hottest events sanctioned by the Women's Professional Rodeo Association, and the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association is proud to share the venue with some of the best cowgirls in rodeo for this event. The PRCA and the WPRA have been working together for the last year to promote breakaway roping and grow the sport.

"We are thrilled that we've been able to move breakaway roping to this point and so appreciative of the good people at Wrangler for helping us make this possible," said George Taylor, chief executive officer of the PRCA. "We're giving our fans everything they wanted and more at the Wrangler NFR this year. This 10-day event – the Super Bowl of rodeo – will be a spectacular fan experience."

The Wrangler NFBR will take place over three days during the Wrangler NFR this year. Cowgirls competing for this first world championship will be in the arena Dec. 8-10, 2020. The Wrangler NFBR will be a separate ticketed event from the Wrangler NFR.

"We are excited about this new chapter in the storied history of the Women's Professional Rodeo Association," said Doreen Wintermute, CEO of the WPRA. "We are thankful for our partnership with the PRCA to grow this women's discipline and this is a huge step to have this inaugural Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping event alongside the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo."

"We're a newer event and trying to earn our stripes like anybody else," said Jordan Fabrizio, a top-ranked breakaway roper. "To have the opportunity to be in that environment, in that venue and compete at that level it's just a spectacular opportunity for the sport of breakaway, the sport of rodeo, and for women and girls coming up."

Arlington Mayor Jeff Williams praised the decision to name a world champion cowgirl roper at this year's event.

"I couldn't be prouder that the PRCA has selected Arlington for the inaugural Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping in December," Williams said. "We can't wait to crown the world champion breakaway cowgirl at Globe Life Field, the new gold standard venue not only for Major League Baseball but also for many special events, especially rodeo!"

For fans who are unable to attend the Wrangler NFBR at Globe Life Field in December, the three performances will be live streamed on the Wrangler Network (www.wranglernetwork.com) and will be rebroadcast at a later date on The Cowboy Channel.

Your DoppelWrangler Can Be Featured at the 2020 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo

Even fans who won't be at Globe Life Field might end up on TV!

If you're not going to be at the Wrangler® National Finals Rodeo (NFR) this year, you can still be there! Globe Life Field (GLF) in Arlington, Texas, will play host to the most celebrated event on the rodeo calendar December 3-12, 2020. Though not everyone will attend the NFR in person this year, they will be able to have their own personal 2D DoppelWrangler in their place!

Organizers are making it possible for fans to have a nearly life-size image seated for the rodeo and possibly even end up on TV! Now through October 31, fans can order a 2D version of themselves (or a loved one) – known as DoppelWranglers – to be in attendance for the Wrangler NFR.

"We're getting creative and this is going to be a fun way for fans to participate, even if they can't be there in person," said George Taylor, chief executive officer of the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA). "And we're helping some very worthy causes at the same time."

Other sporting events have used this approach to help fans to engage more deeply when they can't attend in person. The PRCA and GLF are kicking it up a notch. Three different tiers of DoppelWranglers can be purchased, with varying benefits at each level and with the proceeds going to fund four great charities.

The Fan level DoppelWranglers will be placed randomly throughout the arena. This first option will sell for $100.

The Cowboy DoppelWranglers will allow a cowboy hat to be worn in the image and will be placed randomly. This option is available for $125.

The Gold Buckle DoppelWranglers may include a cowboy hat and will be placed in the most likely televised seating locations during the Wrangler NFR, which will air live on The Cowboy Channel. This option will be available for $200.

To reserve a DoppelWrangler for the 2020 Wrangler NFR, fans need to go to the same portal as for tickets at www.texasrangers.com/NFR. DoppelWranglers must be ordered by October 31. Proceeds from DoppelWrangler sales will benefit four nonprofit charities: Jr. Rodeo, Justin Cowboy Crisis Fund, Pro Rodeo Hall of Fame and Museum of the American Cowboy, and the Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation.

"We are thankful that Rangers fans and NFR fans can join us at Globe Life Field in person and as DoppelWranglers," said Neil Leibman, chief operating officer, Texas Rangers and chairman of the Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation Board of Directors. "The funds raised from the sale of cutouts will make a significant impact on the communities the Rangers Foundation serves and on the work of the Jr. Rodeo, ProRodeo Hall of Fame and the Justin Cowboy Crisis Fund."

Jr. Rodeo

The Jr. Rodeo Association is the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association's youth program. Jr. Rodeo promotes the best rodeo experiences and develops youth contestants. The association is built on three pillars of success: Education; Fundamental Skills; and Competition Platform. Jr. Rodeo is for youth, ages 8-19, who want to learn about rodeo through participation in Jr. Rodeo Camps, schools and events. Jr. Rodeo sanctions rodeos for qualification into the Cowboy Channel Jr. National Finals Rodeo. For more information and to join, visit www.jrrodeo.org.

Justin Cowboy Crisis Fund

Recognizing that serious injuries can be traumatic enough without the additional burden of financial worries, the Justin Boot Company formed a partnership with the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association and the Women's Professional Rodeo Association to establish the fund that provides need-based financial assistance to athletes injured through their participation in professional rodeo. For more information visit www.justincowboycrisisfund.org.

ProRodeo Hall of Fame

The ProRodeo Hall of Fame and Museum of the American Cowboy provides education about rodeo, its history and impact on Western American culture. The Hall of Fame recognizes rodeo notables of the past and present and serves as an inspiration for the future. For more information visit www.prorodeohalloffame.com.

Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation

The Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation is dedicated to improving the lives of those in our community – especially children, the military and first responders, and their familiars – through educational, health and athletic programming and partnerships that bring meaningful change to our communities. For more information visit www.mlb.com/rangers/community/foundation/landing.

FAQs

Q: Where will my DoppelWrangler sit?

A: DoppelWranglers will be placed throughout the arena. After DoppelWranglers are placed, you will receive an email directing you to a webpage where you can see which section your DoppelWrangler is sitting in.

Q: Can I choose my seat?

A: No, seat assignments are random. We will make our best effort to seat DoppelWranglers from the same order next to each other, but not guaranteed.

Q: How many can I purchase?

A: Each fan can purchase a maximum of 10 DoppelWranglers per transaction.

Q: How do I upload my photo?

A: You can upload your photo through the purchase form found at www.texasrangers.com/NFR.

Q: Are there any restrictions?

A: Yes. The PRCA/Texas Rangers have the right to refuse any image that includes profanity, political messages, other sports or other teams. The image must be of you, and please do not upload an image of a celebrity. All cutouts will be made the same size and seating locations will be chosen at random.

Q: Can two people be in one photo?

A: We would prefer one person per photo. If there are two you'll have to stand in front of each other – not next to each other – and someone may not be fully visible in the seat. Check out our photo guidelines www.texasrangers.com/NFR.

Q: What's the difference in base, cowboy hat and premium DoppelWranglers?

A: Base DoppelWranglers are those without cowboy hats in the image and will be placed randomly throughout the ballpark. The Cowboy hat option means a cowboy hat may be worn in the image and will be placed randomly throughout the ballpark. Premium DoppelWranglers may include a cowboy hat and will be placed in the most televised seating locations, but still at random in those sections.

Q: After the event, can I get my DoppelWrangler shipped to me?

A: DoppelWranglers will not be shipped because there is no guarantee on the condition following the 10-day Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

2020 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo enjoys brisk ticket sales

Ticket sales exceed expectations – more seats may be available

Our fans spoke, we listened, and the result has been spectacular.

Less than two weeks after the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) announced that the 2020 Wrangler® National Finals Rodeo (NFR) – the greatest annual event on rodeo's calendar – would move to Arlington, Texas, at Globe Life Field, December 3-12, 2020, all available seats at Globe Life Field were scooped up during pre-sale for season ticket holders and public sales this morning.

With the Thomas & Mack Center at UNLV in Las Vegas, home to the NFR since 1985, unable to accommodate an event with fans in person this year, the PRCA polled fans and more than 40,000 responded. Over 80% of the respondents said they wanted an NFR event that would permit fans to see the event in person.

"This is what happens when you listen to your fans and shape an event around them," said George Taylor, chief executive officer of the PRCA. "We've worked closely with our partners at Globe Life Field and we're cooperating with the state and local health authorities to design an event that will be safe and fun. The 2020 Wrangler® National Finals Rodeo is going to be one for the ages."

Tickets for the Wrangler NFR are being sold in blocks of four so that families and close friends can sit together safely. Each block of four seats will be separated to retain healthy physical distance for fans during the rodeo performances. Contact-limiting measures, such as mobile tickets, have been implemented throughout the event. Globe Life Field is also encouraging all guests to check the CDC and the Texas Department of State Health Services websites for any guideline changes prior to the event.

If the public health situation evolves, there may be additional tickets available. Globe Life Field is working closely with state and local health officials and they have created a wait list for fans if additional tickets become available at www.texasrangers.com/NFR. Fans who sign up for the wait list will be given first opportunity to buy any tickets that might be made available. Limited suite rentals at Globe Life Field are still available for each performance. For information and availability, fans should email specialevents@texasrangers.com or call 972-RANGERS.

Anything that is worth doing, is worth doing immediately.
Remember this... Difficulties never stop for people who never start.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

What a world we live in today. I believe that if we don't listen to God, we will be deceived and we will lose our freedom.

Yikes! Does that keep you awake at night? The devil is playing shell games through the media. "Look, this is the problem!" "Look, let's blame one person for our problems!" "Look, you can do anything you want!" No.

You can't. Doing anything you want, living any way you want, saying anything you want, and lying all come from the devil. He is a liar and the father of all liars. John 8:42-47. We are not led by the devil. We are of a different kingdom. We are led of God. Good God. Bad devil.

How do you know the truth? Ask God. He resides on the inside of you and He wants to "lead you into all truth." John 16:13. Practice hearing His voice this week. Turn off the news on all your devices. Open your Bible and pray.

God will show up and show off in your life! Good men and women doing the right thing will drive out evil! That's you and me. Don't back up, shut up, or give up!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
